1. INTRODUCTION

In Junior High School, English has been one of lessons for final examination. The transition from Elementary School to Junior High School needs a new habit for learning English. In the 2013 curriculum or in Indonesian it is called Kurikulum 13 (K-13), students are more active than teacher. If in Elementary School that teachers are more dominant in teaching-learning process, now student in Junior High School who used the 2013 Curriculum are more active than before. In K-13 textbook shows many activities for student with assistances from teacher. That is why, English student textbook for Junior High School with the 2013 curriculum especially in 7th grade must be able to help student habituate more active in teaching-learning process.

Textbook is one element in teaching learning process to help teacher give materials to the students. Textbooks also help students increase their ability in learning English with the activities based on the textbook. Cunningsworth (1995:5) stated “no course book designed for a general market will be absolutely ideal for your particular group learners”. Cunningsworth means that learners should need an appropriate textbook. In Indonesia also needs a textbook which is appropriate to the 2013 Curriculum that is the best textbook for students.

Writing skill is one of four main skills of English. Writing skill needs much of practice and writing also one of media of communication. In writing, the basic significance is expressing an idea, giving an opinion, information, or experience. Students find the difficulties to write in foreign language and lack of idea, because they have a limited vocab and usually encouraged only in textbook and what teacher gave. In another reason, students are not interested in writing because they cannot feel write well. So English teacher should have a creative method beside using method in textbook.

According to Barker (2000:136), writing is one technically difficult form of communication. Writing is understanding and good idea of creativity. Although every textbook gives an activity of writing, there are several materials that are not appropriate with the ability of students. For example the materials of Senior high school used for Vocational High School, there is a different ability of students in understanding the materials because in Vocational High School it is more focused in practice.

In studying English as foreign language, a textbook is a tool for English teacher especially to deliver the materials. The contents of textbook have more complex material and more exercise like the 2013 curriculum itself.
