Stassen Here For 'Jacoby Series' Feb. 23

Harold E. Stassen, director of the foreign operations administration, will deliver the University of Bridgeport's fourth annual Jacoby Lecture on Wednesday evening, Feb. 23 at the Klein Memorial Auditorium.

The lecture will take place during the national observance of Brotherhood Week, Feb. 20-26. Convocation credit will be given.

Based on the "Brotherhood of Man" the Jacoby Lectures have been made possible by an annual grant left to us by the late Frank Jacoby, pioneer Bridgeport merchant, through the Jacoby Foundation.

The Jacoby lectures have as their purpose the promotion of the brotherhood and equality of man, regardless of race, color or creed, and the emphasis of the humanitarian aspects of life in a national community.

Born in West St. Paul, Minn. on April 13, 1907, Stassen has been in politics for much of his lifetime. When he was elected to the governorship of Minnesota in 1938 he was the youngest governor in the history of Minnesota and the youngest governor in the United States.

He was re-elected governor for two terms, 1941-43 and 1943-45. He resigned to serve with the U. S. Navy in 1943-45. In the South Pacific he served on the staff of Admiral W. F. Halsey, 1943-45, and was appointed assistant chief of staff in June, 1944. War decorations include the Legion of Merit and Bronze Star, citation ribbon and two battle stars.

Appointed to the San Francisco Conference of the United Nations as the U. S. delegate, he served until the month of July. He became president of the University of Pennsylvania in 1946 and remained until 1952.

CISL Group To Hartford Feb. 24 to 26

The Connecticut Intercollegiate Student Legislature will meet Feb. 24, 25 and 26 in the Capitol at Hartford. Our University's delegation will present two bills of equal importance. Ed Ramos will present a bill on the Bonus Benefits of Retiring G. I.'s and Rose Virilli another bill on the Compulsory Civil Service Exams for Prospective Teachers.

Our delegation was elected by the Executive Committee and approved by William De Siero, faculty adviser. It includes Pete Balino, David Barr, William Carter, Lenny Cocco, Edward De Nike, Dick Ellis, Fred Fiorella, Saul Goldwasser, Linda Makela, David Miller, Sam Goldberg, Nick Panuzio, Edward Ramos, Bill Rackdev, Ted Sternklar, Henry Southwick, Les Sutton and Rose Verilli. Stewart Christiano will be the faculty adviser.

P. T. Barnum Scholarships Aid Activities, Sports, Music

By Myra Seide

Sagging University activities received new hope this week for fresh talent and increased participation with the appearance on campus of the P. T. Barnum Scholarship Drive.

Fostered by UB alumni, this drive will provide by fall, 1955, it is hoped, funds for financially limited students with exceptional athletic, dramatic or musical ability. Anticipated is an influx of scholarship-aided students who will strengthen valuable University programs which have been severely hampered by limited participation.

Increased campus awareness of this University's low recognition in certain fields has aroused interest in the aims of the Barnum Scholarship program.

Especially attractive is the feature of the drive which permits the donor to designate to which activity his contribution will be directed. Funds may be earmarked for music, athletics, drama, unrestricted use, any special category named by the contributor, or alumni development.

The drive publicized in local papers and by direct mail to over one-thousand alumni and interested persons, has been endorsed by several prominent Bridgeporters, headed by Mayor Jasper McLevy.

Fund cards are now available at the Student Activities office in Alumni Hall for those who wish to make direct contributions or aid in soliciting.

'Earnest' On Campus March 7, 8, 9 and 10

Casting selection for the annual spring play as well as a change in show dates has been announced by director Albert A. Dickason.

Show time for the production, "The Importance of Being Earnest", by Oscar Wilde, will be March 7, 8, 9 and 10 (Wednesday through Saturday) in the University's new Little Theater, Hazel St.

Cast in leading roles for the Victorian farce-comedy are Gary E. Singer, as "Algernon Moncrieff"; Henry Southwick, as "John Worthing"; Geraldine Bennett, as "Maid"; and William Bartlett, as "Lane".

Also, Maddie's a Fagin, as "Lady Bracknell"; Frank Jawoiz, as "Rev. Canon Chausable"; Jennie Fogel, as "Miss Prism".

First staged in 1895, this modern classic satirizes the English in typical Oscar Wilde fashion.

The performance of "The Importance of Being Earnest" will mark the first time that a stage production will have been given in the new Little Theater. Approximately 190 persons can be accommodated for each performance in the newly renovated building.

Newman Club Retreat Slated For Next Week

The second annual retreat of the Newman Club at UB will take place at the Catholic Community Center, Waldemere Ave., next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Masses will be held each morning at 7 A. M. at the Center.

At 4:45 P. M., Benediction, followed by a short sermon, will be given during the three-day retreat.

A buffet supper on Wednesday will end the retreat.

Barrett, Craig, Vail Resign Their Posts

Pressure of scholastic and outside activities have forced three campus leaders to resign their posts this week.

Richard Barrett, president, and Patricia Craig, executive and recording secretary, have both handed in their resignations as members of the Student Council and Mickey Vail, Scribe editor, has handed in his resignation to the Scribe Advisory Board.

Many Coeds Vie for UB Sweetheart

Lovely candidates are the order of the day for Sweetheart Queen consideration. Every dormitory and fraternity on campus is submitting at least one candidate or possibly more, because of the problem in narrowing down their selections to a few.

From the group of hopeful applicants, five contestants will be chosen to vie for the honor of being Sweetheart of UB, at a tea to be held next Tuesday at Wisteria Hall.

The judges selected for the difficult task of choosing the five finalists are: Mrs. Marion Lunn, Messrs. De Siero, Fenner and Weber, Dr. Wolff. Rounding out the line of judges will be students Joe Brennan and Nick Panuzio.

Feb. 21, 22 and 23 will be the days when the finalists are scrutinized quite carefully, for on those days the entire student body will cast their votes for their Sweetheart.

President James Halsey will crown the Sweetheart at the Ritz Ballroom on Feb. 25, the night of the gala event.

The judges will base their decisions on beauty, poise, personality, and general appearance. Nomination blanks are still available in Alumni Hall, but must be returned by Friday.

DENTAL HYGIENISTS TO BE CAPPED IN LITTLE THEATER THIS SUNDAY

Capping ceremonies for 34 freshmen enrolled in the Fones School of Dental Hygiene will take place this Sunday at 3 P. M. in the Little Theater.

The candlelight ceremonies will mark the first time that the students will wear their white uniforms and caps, symbolic of the hygienist profession. It also marks the period when they first will be able to give service to the people.

Miss Laura Williams Peck, New London, immediate past president of the American Dental Hygienists association will speak before the group.

Freshmen who will receive caps include: Adele Adelman, Gall Berman, Carolyn Brennan, Lynn Collins (with high honors), Frances Coppola, Ethel Culf, Carol Dame, Francine Daniels (with maximum honors), Carol Denalsky, Catharine Dolan (with maximum honors), Jeanne Emond, Sandra Fletcher, Nancy Hall, Sheila Hoffman, Barbara Kaplan, Dolores Kulakowski (with high honors), Rita Locker.

Also, Joann Mazzalupo, Anita McEnteggart, Cynthia Mirsky (with high honor), Dorothy Murphy, Naomi Newman (with high honor), Linda Peterson, Elaine Quagliaroli, Roberta Ross, Emmy Rutzen, Patricia Sheller, Peggy Simmons (with high honor), Pauline Sorel, Joan Telerico, Barbara Thompson, Marilyn Wilson (with high honor), and Patricia Witt.

Following the program, the Dental clinic located in Fones Hall, will be open for inspection. Speakers and faculty members will receive guests and refreshments will be served.

An invitation has been extended by the Fones school to all individuals interested in attending the ceremonies.

P. T. Is Back In Town

The name "P. T. Barnum Scholarship" is one of the best names that we can think of for the new scholarship drive that the Alumni Association and supporters of the University are undertaking among alumni, students on campus and the community.

P. T. Barnum did a lot for Bridgeport. We might even say that the master showman helped to establish the name of Bridgeport as a major city through his many activities and as mayor of the city many years ago. The University itself is indebted to this philanthropical man for its present location.

Now, through the leadership of Reigh Carpenter, Jr., UB grad and assistant principal of Mill Plain School in Fairfield, Eob Donaldson, president of the UB Alumni Association, and members of the P. T. Barnum steering committee, P. T. Barnum is being put back in the news. Recognition of the University as a forward-looking institution is one of the results of the drive.

The P. T. Barnum Scholarship is designed to aid financially needy high schoolers and other students who excel in such activities as sports, music, dramatics or student leadership. Proficiency in these four fields is generally absent as a requirement for scholarship recipients in many colleges and universities.

For some time we have been urging the need for scholarships for athletics. Now it is becoming a reality. . . and along with it scholarships for the music and dramatic departments as well as provision for prospective student leaders.

We realize that this doesn't mean that we'll have a sudden surge of great athletes, musicians, thespians, or student leaders next year. But, it does mean that our alumni and supporters have recognized the fact that we can aid our University by assisting gifted students to come to UB for their education. These gifted students can help to increase the ever growing prestige of UB.

We strongly back the principle behind the P. T. Barnum Scholarship. We urge the students, faculty, alumni, friends, Bridgeporters, and all those who read these pages to back it with more than words. Financial support is needed to make this worthy project a success.

On Other Campuses

Carthage, Ill. (ACP) — Prof. Orville Riggs, noting that Carthage College students are checked for attendance at chapel by secretaries sitting in a balcony, suggested the students adopt the theme song!
"When the Roll is Called Up Yonder, I'll be there".

In this technological age, we thought the IBM machine was infallible like the balance on your bank statement. Comes a report from the Campus, University of Connecticut at Storrs, that a number of students had to do some tall explaining after their midsemester grade reports were received at home.

"About 25 to 30 persons were affected by an IBM machine error", the Campus reports. F's were substituted for D's on grade reports. The midsemester grades did not appear on the student's permanent records, however.

Hobby's Lobby

By Wes Hobby

It's my extreme pleasure to write this column for The SCRIBE. In return for this, I should like to pass some information on to all of the unmarried males who spend their leisure hours cruising the campus in search of the opposite sex.

A few days ago I had, as my guest in the radio version of the "Lobby", a cute little bundle of beauty named Cleo Moore. Cleo was starred in two pictures which played in Bridgeport theaters last week. She had the lead role in "The Other Woman", which played at Loew's Poli, and she played one of the main characters in the film "Women's Prison" which ran at the Hi-Way and Beverly theaters. She showed up in the "Lobby" attired in a pair of "prison pajamas" complete with stripes and number. When she asked me what I was going to ask her during the interview to come, I said, "We can start with age, address, phone number and marital status".

Take Note

"Why?", asked Cleo, stretching the word into two syllables. The smile on her face told me that she had been asked for this information before. Nevertheless, I replied that I had many male buddies on the UB campus who would lynch me if I failed to get this info for them. I guess Cleo didn't want me to be lynched, so she gave me the information I required. . . here it is.

If any of you want to write to Cleo, send your letters to Cleo Moore, care of Columbia Pictures, Hollywood, Calif. She promised to answer any and all letters from UB students personally. Oh yes, she's single, has no romantic attachments, and hopes someday to settle down and raise a family. Good luck men.

Popular Pops

Disc jockey's have been going happily mad lately with a group of discs bearing the Polydor label. These platters, fresh from Germany, go under the general title of Beschwipste Drahtkommode, numbers one, two and three.

I have been told that this means, literally, "The Bewitched Wire Comedy". They feature a German pianist known only as Schrage Otto, or Crazy Otto (actually, "tilted" Otta) who beats out a medley of well known songs on a tiny piano.

These discs have caused a minor sensation and are selling like the proverbial hotcakes. . . though we still aren't quite able to find out how hot cakes sell. Seriously though, listen for Otto. You'll be hearing a lot from him in the future.

Another new disc on the market is a bouncy thing called "Ko-ko-mo". One of the most interesting versions is the Decca offering featuring Gary Crosby and Louis Armstrong. Gary sounds more and more like his dad every day.

Well, that's all for now. . . until next Thursday, same time, same page. . . this is Wes Hobby saying so long now!

The Interfraternity Council will take over campus this weekend with a fabulous program for the Greek Letter groups. The festivities will start Friday night with the Greek Letter Dance and the crowning of the new Greek Goddess. The dance will be at Lenny's Wagon Wheel and starts at nine o'clock.

Barbara Heller, the new Dorm Proctor at Milford Hall, and David Cohen, who is stationed with the army in Germany, became engaged with the priceless assistance of the postal service.

The big day is coming for 34 freshman DH's. This Sunday they will receive their caps at a ceremony to be held at the Little Theater.

Once again fraternity news will be covered by Lou Csiggay. I would like to welcome both Lou and "Alpha to Zeta" back to the printed pages of The SCRIBE.

Joan Wakeless flew to Ann Arbor, Mich. last weekend to attend her boyfriend's Sigma Nu Pledge Dance. He is Bob Monroe, and he's going to the University of Michigan.

New (if you'll pardon the expression) blood flowed on campus after registration and the mid-year enrollment. These Froshies don't need the conventional "beanie" to be noticed on campus; nevertheless, we're glad to have them.

The Ivy Dance sponsored by the Student Spirit Committee last Saturday night turned out to be a big success. Fraternity banners helped to give a collegiate air to the festivities.

The Freshman Dental Hygiene class has elected its officers for the year. They were Nan Newman as President, Cynthia Mursky as Vice-President and Linda Lou Peterson as Secretary-Treasurer.

Joann Bostick and Don Peterson are going steady, and they are making plans for better things to come.

Saturday is Lincoln's birthday, and I would like to remind you what Honest Abe said while he was chopping down the cherry tree: "D—the torpedoes, full speed ahead".

Southport Hall's open house was one of the most successful dorm parties this year. Miss Barbara Trickey and Betty Rubley supervised the planning and decorations, and they did a terrific job.

This last couple of weeks has been a columnist's nightmare. If St. Valentine and his pal cupid, don't stir up some action around here by the 14th, I'll have to start devoting this column to obituaries and the results at Hialeah.

U. S. State Dept. Holds Interviews Next Friday

The Department of State has made arrangements for a foreign service officer to visit the University campus on Friday, Feb. 13, to discuss possible careers in the foreign service.

Raymond G. Leddy, foreign service officer particularly concerned with Latin-American affairs since 1943, will speak to interested students in T201 at 11 A. M. on that day. Individual appointments may also be made with Mr. Leddy.

Recent recommendations for expansion in the foreign officers corps has resulted in unprecedented need for new officers at the beginning grade, as well as a continuing opportunity for qualified young men and women in the foreign service.

Simplified examination procedures will now make it possible to complete the regular examination in one day. Also, the oral examination will be given in regional centers instead of being limited to Washington.

The history, political science, and sociology departments are cooperating in the affair under the chairmanship of Prof. Emerson G. Chamberlain. Mr. Leddy will also visit Yale and Wesleyan.

Fashions Are Question For Spring "New Look"

By Carol Frank

Dropped waists, tank bathing suits, full or straight skirts. Fancy vests, bathing suits with under shirts for tops, Bermuda shorts for evening wear? These are the top fashion questions and those that will remain in the fashion spotlight for the next month or so.

For milady, it's the battle of the extremes on the beach, on one side the covered-up look of tank bathing suits of wool, either with scooped or halter necklines with the other side having the more flattering two-piece bathing suit back after a long absence accompanied by the matching beach robe, skirt or shirt.

Once again we have invaded the masculine domain for ideas, but this time we came up with the fabric, namely, glen plaids, herringbone, and grey flannel. These are added to the new three piece daytime outfits of matching suit and coat or dress and coat of silk for late afternoon.

Also for the daytime, the Dior look remains replaced at nightfall with a plunging "V" in the neckline department.

For the men it's the Marlon Brando look for the beach, scoop necked under-shirts now serve as the top for the gentleman's beach look, but for those more modern minded, there are the matching trunks and shirt combinations in subdued or bright colors, your choice milord.

The white shirt and tie ensemble is still favored for the evening, with the colored shirt holding its own for day wear. Bermudas are still quite strong for the men, especially those that are golf minded.

The shoes for the women are open and are supported by pencil thin heels which are highly decorated for evening wear.

For the men no matter what the fashion, comfort is still of the essence.

UB GOES IVY LEAGUE FOR SUCCESSFUL HOP

Along with the trend of eastern colleges and universities, UB has gone "Ivy". A strictly "Ivy Dance", the third in a series sponsored by the Student Spirit Committee, was held at Alumni Hall last Saturday night.

The official attendance figures prove that the dance was a success. The sounds were provided by the Detorccio band imported from Hartford, and President of the Frosh Phil Seidenberg was the colorful and entertaining M. C.

The Student Spirit Committee under the guidance of Chairman James Muller and advisor Marion Lunn are continuing their active work with the presentation of an ever popular jam session on Sunday, Feb. 20, at 2 P. M. in Alumni Hall.

85 Teachers To Graduate

UB will graduate the largest teacher class in its history this June, according to Education Dean Arthur E. Trippensee.

Eighty-five neophyte teachers will take their places this fall in classrooms to teach such subjects as English, foreign language, mathematics, social studies, business education, science, elementary education, dental hygiene, music, and physical education.

Can Co. Personnel To Seek UB Grads

Representatives of the Continental Can Co. will be on campus from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M., Feb. 22, to interview graduates interested in employment as trainees with that company.

Their needs are as follows: Mechanical Engineers, Industrial Engineers, Business Administration graduates, Arts and Science graduates. Openings range from mechanical engineering, production control, quality control to purchasing.

Interested candidates should arrange interviews with the Placement Office, Howland Hall.

Electroplating Course Added to Curriculum

A sixteen-week course in industrial electroplating will be offered by the University this semester. Theory as well as laboratory work is included in the program which has been developed by plating specialists for practitioners in the field.

The course is designed principally for those employed in positions in which control methods are used and plating solutions are necessary or useful. Instructors for the course include Otto H. Leven and Milton J. Gellis.

Mr. Leven has conducted a consulting service in electroplating for the past 26 years. Mr. Gellis has served the electroplating industry for a number of years as a consultant and research chemist.

Because there are no pre-requisite courses, exams, or grades, the course will not carry college credit. Each successful student will be awarded a special certificate upon completion of this course.

PI OMEGA CHI alumnus and former Thunderette, Phil Caruba, is continuing to step high. Phil was chosen as an honor guard for General Hull's Far East Command. . . oh yes, he doesn't wear his famous slipping wig. The green berets, POC's pledge symbol, will be in evidence in a few weeks. Burly Bernie Milove will again crack the whip as pledge master.

The new "Greek Goddess" will be chosen from nominations of the Greek groups. The only balloting stipulation being that the nominee be a member of Beta Gamma or Theta Epsilon.

After attending the basketball game Saturday night, each individual Greek group will party at private rendezvous.

An innovation this year will be the joint cocktail party at Mary Journey's Inn on Sunday. The charge is one dollar a couple for those who made the dance. For those who did not attend, the charge is a dollar and a half. The dance ticket stub will be the pass for the half a buck saving.

Congrats to the weekend committee headed by Bill Wright for what shapes up to the greatest weekend of the year.

The walls of Sigma Lambda Chi's Nick Panuzio's home were moved back a few feet last weekend. The occasion, as if they needed one, was a dual birthday celebration honoring Sam Goldberg and Dave Barr. . . happy returns, men.

Alpha Delta Omega's recent "Champagne Night" at the Barnum's Winter Quarters was highlighted by the mambo dance team of Cyma Altman and Rog Saxton. . . of course the champagne didn't last long! ADO's Chancellor Dick Piroh, will play host at a fete at his "diggings", Satidy.

New prexy, Frank Cavender, is directing Kappa Beta Rho's annual Friends and Alumni Dance; the place—American Club; the date—Saturday, Feb. 19; the time—eight o'clock. Recent grad and former officer, Jack Conroy, local insurance adjuster, announced plans for a September merger with a Stratfordite.

The ranch, Delta Epsilon Epsilon Beta's party place, will be decorated as the "Chez Cognoc" for Saturday's festivities. The initial toast of the evening will be in honor of the new officers: President, Charlie Yale; Vice-President, Herb Rudolph; Treasurer, Russ Moore; Recording Secretary, Don McIntyre; and Corresponding Secretary, Jack White. . . good luck, fellows.

As if Bill Bevacqua didn't have enough trouble lined for this weekend, he will mastermind Sigma Phi Alpha's entertainment at Bill Tuite's Saturday night. SPA's annual Cottonball Capers is ready for the rehearsal stage. "Reno" Olayos was welcomed back to campus after an army visit in Japan; "Reno" will fill his usual place in the CC chorus and dancing line.

Theta Epsilon will end their round of gaiety at President Gerry Bennett's home in Fairfield. The lassies are pulling for their many candidates in the Goddess competition.

After much persuasion from his Theta Sigma brothers, Bill Wright consented to open his home to after-the-game party ritual. . . Bill recalls Russ Schatz at the last one "cest la vie".

All students, who are interested in SCRIBE activities, are requested to attend a brief meeting in the SCRIBE office, Monday, Feb. 14 at 2 P. M.

If unable to attend, please leave name and address in SCRIBE mailbox.

NON-COMPOS MENDES

by Bob Mendes

It occurred to us one evening, not too long ago, that some of our campus habits are extremely old fashioned. We have undoubtedly, a very progressive campus, but on the other hand we reek with trite sayings. . . such as "Hello" and "Goodbye".

These, of course, are only a few of the colloquisms that have begun to grate upon our nerves. If, however, we began to disassemble the entire English language and describe that which annoys us we would be writing until the language itself actually had undergone a change.

Far be it from us to launch a campaign to create an alteration in a language that has served us so well and so long, but there are things that we feel so strongly about that our entire body shakes and quivers until we find some sort of an outlet for these feelings.

We have formulated a plan by which we can eliminate all old and timeworn sayings. George Orwell, in his bizarre and frightening novel, "1984", achieved a state of "Newspeak", where the entire language was shortened and abbreviated by omission of words.

We're going Mr. Orwell one better. We're developing a Newspeak that will be so easy that it will have a completely new name. Instead of calling it "Newspeak" we've named our language, "Neartalk".

Let us start off with a classic example of what is bothering us the most. When two acquaintances meet each other, they are apt to say, "Hi" or "Hello". If they are particularly good friends, though, chances are they will have a greeting that will sound something like, "Wad-deyasay"?

We have taken this to mean, "What do you say"? If this is the case, then our point has just been proven. If one friend says to another, "what do you say", then his friend is completely at a loss for words.

What would you say if someone, out of a clear, sky, attacks you with a "wad-deyasay"? You would seek a comeback, no doubt. . . Wonder how many friendships have been broken up because of these conventional greetings. Trite and true.

We have an idea that will put an end, at least for a while, to these battles over greetings.

We have decided upon two words to launch our campaign to create a little excitement within the English language.

As a greeting. . . we feel it proper to bring into use the old Hindustani "Zook" instead of the old conventional and overworked one. As a parting shot, we've decided upon "Gunk", or if it's an intimate relationship, the word could be slurred a bit by raising the tongue to the roof of the mouth and dropping it quickly.

This would result in a sound something like that of a bull-frog communicating with his neighbor. The sound can be made more effective if the sound is made deep in the throat and is given the clarity of the ringing of a bell (in a low note). . . the closer the relationship, the longer the sound could be drawn out.

This is the first in a series of "Neartalk" written lectures to be delivered on various Thursdays throughout the semester.

Westporter Heads UB Orchestra

John Ohanian, Director of Music in the public schools at Westport, will conduct the University-Community Orchestra at the University during this semester.

He will also teach an evening course in music appreciation according to Edward F. Byerly, chairman of the music department.

The University-Community Orchestra is made up of a total of 30 students and members of the surrounding community. It plays at such functions as graduation, Jacoby lecture, Christmas Pageant, campus concerts and other University activities.

The course in music appreciation will be given Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:45 to 8 P. M. Mr. Ohanian's lectures will cover the study of large musical forms such as ballet, symphony, opera, etc.

State Board Of Education To Inspect Us

The State Board of Education and a special committee representing the Connecticut Council on Higher Education will inspect the University next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, according to an announcement by President James H. Halsey.

Thirteen members of the evaluation committee will conduct the three-day inspection in cooperation with University officials and faculty members. Dr. Ormsbee W. Robinson, Consultant in Higher Education, State Department of Connecticut, is head of the inspection committee.

Inspections of Connecticut colleges and universities are conducted regularly by the board. Three universities or colleges are being inspected this year.

Tentative plans of the inspection committee call for a meeting with the Dean's Council on Wednesday evening, conferences with faculty members, and visits to classes Thursday morning, luncheon with Trustees Thursday noon, meeting with students, and more class visits Thursday afternoon.

A tea for all faculty members to meet the committee will take place on Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 5 P. M. at a place yet to be announced.

Visits to evening classes will take place on Thursday night with further conferences and class visits scheduled for Friday.

Students as well as faculty members have been requested to cooperate fully with the inspection team, as well as to have offices, departments, and activities in order when the inspection team is on campus.

Hillel Charter Presented to UB Chapter

Two years of work were culminated last Sunday night in the Little Theater when Bernard Frank, President of Hillel, accepted the charter from President James Halsey.

In accepting the charter for the University from Rabbi Zigmund, regional director of Hillel, President Halsey noted that as the University was growing, so were the organizations that helped promote a more liberal understanding between students.

He also said that in a recent conference of eastern educators the consensus of opinion was that the urban university was to play a more important role in the growth of the country, due to the increasing advance of technology, than the older suburban liberal arts college.

Rabbi Zigmund, in presenting the charter to the University, said that Hillel has grown from a single chapter founded at the University of Illinois in 1923 to over 200 chapters throughout the world. He mentioned the fact that Hillel is a home away from home and is mainly concerned with accommodating the students on the various campuses.

All too often athletic teams are judged by their won and lost records. Box scores on the sports pages coldly reflect the point difference between the winning and losing teams. Critics seize these differences to tear apart the squad or teams involved.

The fighting spirit and earnest will-to-win of a losing team are forgotten in the rush of critics to second guess and criticize. The UB basketball squad has lost six games in a row going into tonight's cage game with CCNY. This is one of the longest losing streaks in the history of the school.

A follower of the Knights will not agree, however, that the cagesters are playing poor basketball. Many of the games have been decided by narrow point margins or by the "breaks" of the game. And in every instance, the determination to win was apparent.

The Adelphi game Monday was an excellent example. Decided underdogs at the start of the cage fray, the Knights fought the taller New Yorkers on even terms right down to the final second. Stan Silverberg and Harry Peters played inspired ball. The play of Jimmy Davins, Jack Liggins, Bill Duggan, Ernie Amaral, and Larry Babich had the UB fans on their feet at the finish of the game. A defeat such as this added one more mark in the lost column, as far as the won and lost record is concerned, but the loss was considered a moral victory by the enthusiastic fans who watched the game.

UB teams at the present time are not setting records with victories over opponents. But the groundwork is being laid for future teams that will carry high the proud banner of the Purple and White. And it is being prepared by athletes who go out and give their best despite the readiness of individuals to criticize their every effort. As is usually the case, the most vociferous critics are the ones who refuse to try out for teams themselves, or hesitate to lend even moral support by attending athletic functions as spectators.

Tonight's clash with CCNY will again find UB as an underdog. But if you want to see a hard-fought contest by a team that deserves praise for its efforts come over to the Bridgeport-Brass Recreation center to see the Purple Knights in action. They represent you. They are playing for you. Give them your support.

Purple Knights Drop Six Games In Succession Face C. C. N. Y. Tonight At Recreation Center

Lose to AIC, Stonehill, Quonset, Anselms On Road; Adelphi Home

In their initial appearance at the Boston Garden, the UB hoopsters were downed by the St. Anselm's quintet of New Hampshire 81-58.

Including this 15th contest, the Purple and White have accumulated a record of 6 victories against 9 defeats.

Although the Glinsemen were ahead of the Hawks 16-11 at the 10-minute mark, St. Anselm's, led by lanky 6 ft. 7 in. Pat McCarthy, grabbed the lead from UB and retained it until the final whistle was blown.

At the half-way mark, the Hawks led 44-26 and managed to dominate the remaining periods by holding a 15 to 20 point margin at all times.

Veteran Jack Liggins was at the head of the scoring attack for the UBites with a total of 14 points. Close behind were teammates Bill Duggan and Harry Peters with 12 markers apiece.

McCarthy led his squad to victory with 20 points to his credit, ably assisted by three team mates who also hit double figures.

Monday evening the Knights bowed to Adelphi at the Brass Recreation Center in their first home appearance of the spring semester by a score of 66-59.

It was big Don Payne who spelled the difference by tallying 23 points and grabbing 11 rebounds. True to form, Jimmy Davins was high man for UB with 12 points.

Although Stan Silverberg captured only one point, his play was superb as he gained 19 rebounds against the much taller opposition.

UBettes Tie For Top Spot In YW Loop

Bridgeport Hospital's lady basketballers are convalescing after our UBettes' victory to the tune of 50-31 at the YWCA on Monday.

The girls are now tied for first place in the YWCA league.

Ellie Persip was high scorer with a total of 18 points, closely followed by Arra and Caccoppoli netting 16 points each.

Also nursing loop losses after an encounter with the UBettes on Feb. 3 were St. Vincent's Hospital's distaff dribblers. Persip grabbed the lioness' share of the 56-48 victory by netting 37 points.

Bridgeport Brass' girls' team was thoroughly polished-off on Jan. 27 by our lady loopers, tarnishing the Brass team 59-30. Persip led the offensive with 23 points, team mates Pat Arra and Caccoppoli helping with 13 and 10 points respectively.

The Telephone Co.'s basketball line was busy, a bit too busy for the UBettes on Jan. 25. Scoring plays by Flamio and Caccioppoli did not keep the Tel-Bels from winning 41-34.

Nat Holman Brings N. Y. Squad to Town

In the midst of the longest losing streak in their history, the University's basketball team will face powerful CCNY tonight at the Brass Recreation Center. The Knights will play host to Fairleigh-Dickinson Saturday evening.

Tonight's game will mark the first meeting between the two clubs, while Saturday's clash will be the fifth renewal of a series that sees the Jerseyites holding a 3-1 advantage.

The Beavers, led by Mervyn Shorr, one of the leading rebounders in the nation, have compiled a 6-4 record against stiff opposition this season.

An interesting side line is that 2 UB hoopsters, Stan Silverberg and Sam Bernstein, had occasion to play under the direction of Nat Holman, CCNY coach, this summer at Camp Scattico, in the Catskills.

The Fairleigh-Dickinson quintet has compiled an impressive 87 victories compared against 21 losses in the past 6 seasons. The Knights, as F.D. is also known, have only one veteran performer in this season's line up, but the squad was recently bolstered by the addition of four members from the freshman squad.

Last year's contest saw Fairleigh-Dickinson trounce UB 80-60, as the Jerseyites built up a 17-3 record.

Holy Cross Sinks UB By 57-27

An undermanned UB swim team was defeated 57-27 last Saturday by Holy Cross at the Worcester YMCA.

UB, 0-3, will meet a strong Adelphi team this Saturday at the Bridgeport YMCA pool.

Bill Piascik, Charlie Anderson and Dick Ellis scored the only UB victories in the 200-yard backstroke, 200-yard breast-stroke and 100-yard free-style respectively.

Piascik, UB's high man for the day, also copped a second in the 440-yard free-style and a third in the individual medley.

Ellis took second place in the 50-yard free-style. Howie Bader scored the only other UB points, coming in second in the 220-yard free-style.

Mark Winick and Eddie Hall rounded out the UB scoring by taking thirds in the 100-yard free-style and diving respectively.

Fencers Fade; Face Drew U

Despite the fact that Frank Cavender captured all three of his Epee matches, the UB Mencing team went down to defeat at the hands of Fairleigh-Dickinson, 15-12, last Saturday.

Cavender, introduced to an epee only 48 hours before the meet, surprised both Captain Bill Jarboe and Coach De Siero, as well as the Jerseyites.

The Purple and White won the Epee contest by a 7-2 count, with Eleo Garcia and Hal Weinstein winning two matches each.

Capt. Jarboe won two foil events and Dick Shelby one, but the out-of-staters won the foil event 6-3.

Andy Mirimina and Al Bedford took one Sabre match each, to keep UB in the scoring columns, 7-2.

The game was much closer than the 15-12 score indicates. The score by touches was 88-80, with UB but eight touches behind the experienced foilers from Fairleigh-Dickinson.

On Saturday, the Knights entertain Drew University at 2 P. M. at the local YWCA.

Student Teacher Finds Job In School Is Fun!

By Joe Barardino

Last October, yours truly had the opportunity to enter the Bridgeport Public schools as a student teacher at the Secondary level, that is High School. The last time I was ever in a public school was 10 years ago, and to say that the experience brought memories would not be the half of it

If I had known when I was in high school that one day I would be on the other side of the desk, I would have been a model pupil. As I stood before the class on the first day, my own school days ran before my mind and I could only hope these pupils would behave differently.

It would have been better to hope for a summer vacation in the middle of October. Teacher-baiting was the popular sport, and to get me to lose my place and get off the subject appeared to be the uppermost thought in their minds.

Among the many attempts to fool me was for one student to have a friend come into the room with a note apparently written by another teacher requesting "Johnny" come to her room immediately.

If it wasn't for the immature handwriting which made me doubt its authenticity, I might have accepted it and become an easy mark for the rest of the class.

The thing that caused me the greatest discomfort was being placed in charge of a home room with 25 girls. Under different circumstances, it could have been quite enjoyable. (Imagine the possibilities). The discomfort came from trying to keep them quiet. I wouldn't say it was impossible, but it was comparable to attempting to stop an avalanche halfway down a mountain.

After 12 weeks of carrying a full teacher's load of classes, I was left with a profound respect for the profession and people in it. While the hours may be enviable to those outside the profession, the work that goes into the preparation of daily lessons more than makes up for it.

This reminded me of the first time I played hockey in high school. I intercepted the absence card which was mailed to my home and signed my father's name. The next day I was called down to see the attendance officer and charged with forgery in addition to an inexcused absence.

I thought this was unfair because the day I skipped school the Truant Officer spotted me and sent his bulldog after me. The absence may have been inexcused but it was certainly earned.

In discussing my experiences with other students here on campus, many (in fact, most) of them agreed that, given another chance to be back in school, they Stassen is familiar with the topic of brotherhood. In 1946, he served as the National Chairman of Brotherhood Week of the Council of Christians and Jews. He also delivered the Godkind lectures on Human Rights at Harvard University in 1946.

ed that all my classes did. The experience was not without its lighter moments and the greatest thrill any student-teacher can receive is the satisfaction that comes from knowing that he is teaching and what the pupils are learning.

I received satisfaction when I had introduced a new phase of bookkeeping and tested the class with gratifying results. So you see, testing is not only a measurement of a pupil's progress, but also of teaching methods.

The difficult part of teaching is to motivate the pupil and keep him interested. From a teacher's point of view, a teacher's job is primarily to entertain the pupils. If he can entertain and teach at the same time, he is a good teacher. If he only entertains, he is a good "Joe", and if he only teaches, he's an "old crab".

Ukranian Night Slated For Next Thursday Eve

A "Ukranian Night" sponsored by the Sociology Colloquium in cooperation with St. Mary's Catholic Church, will take place at the church next Thursday at 6:15 P. M.

The get-together is part of the annual series of ethnic nights sponsored by the Colloquium in cooperation with local nationality groups. Members of the Colloquium believe that the interchange of ideas and customs between groups leads to a better understanding among all peoples. Past ethnic-night dinners have included Danish Night, Jewish Night, Greek Night, Puerto Rican Night, etc.

"Ukranian Night" activities will include a tour of St. Mary's Catholic church and a talk on the various cultural and religious practices followed by the Ukrainians. A dinner of typical Ukranian food will also be prepared by the church group.

Sociology Colloquium committee members making arrangements for the event include: Linda Makela, president; Angelo Minei, vice president; Harold Trischman, treasurer; Richard Watt, program chairman; Harold Nevins and Hubert Steinberg, publicity and tickets.

Advisor to the group is Dr. Joseph S. Roucek, chairman of the sociology and political science departments.

would have acted differently. To bring this to the attention of my pupils did not impress them one bit. They know it all, as I knew it all when I was in high school, and nothing anyone said could impress them. They have to learn the hard way.

Not all students have this attitude. Unfortunately, it appear-

THEY'RE CLAMORING FOR THEM! Who? Students. What? Luckies. Coast to coast, dormitory to dormitory, college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, according to the greatest up-to-date college survey. Again, the No. 1 reason for Luckies' wide lead: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. So enjoy the better-tasting cigarette . . . Lucky Strike.
