Some things are too big to handle alone.

This is why we prefer that our customers bring their lawyers when they consult us regarding estate or trust matters.

Trust Department

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OMAHA
Sixteenth and Farnam ■ Omaha, Nebraska

(Please mention Neb. L. Rev. when dealing with our advertisers.)
Table of Contents

Editors' Page .................................................................................................................. 2

The Tasks of Penology: A Symposium on Prisons and Correctional Law (Part I)

A Preface ............................................................... Roman L. Hruska .......................... 7
Corrections in Transition .................................. Myrl E. Alexander .......................... 10
The Criminal Law System .................... Karl Menninger, M.D. .......................... 22
What Is Wrong With the Prison System? Nathan Leopold ........................................ 33
Punishment, Corrections and the Law Gerhard O.W. Mueller .............................. 58

Leading Article

The Impact of the Vicinage Requirement:
An Empirical Look ........................................... Dale W. Broeder ......................... 99

Comment

Wage Earner Plans in Nebraska ......................... ......................................................... 119

Legislation

A Legislative Approach to the Fourth Amendment ........................................ 148

Personal Jurisdiction in Nebraska: The Need for a Long Arm Statute ................. 166

Case Digests ..................................................................................................................... 188