Cal Poly Arts to Present Documentary About Nuclear Power on March 12

Cal Poly Arts will present "Pandora's Promise," a 90-minute documentary on nuclear energy by Academy Award-nominated filmmaker Robert Stone, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 12, in the Performing Arts Center's Spanos Theatre. A panel discussion with Q-and-A will follow, moderated by Debra Larson, dean of the College of Engineering. The panel will feature Gordon Thompson, a scientist and critic of nuclear power, and Michael Shellenberger, an environmentalist and advocate of nuclear power who appears in the film. The screening is free and open to the public. Complimentary parking in the PAC parking structure will be provided.

Cal Poly Campus Climate Survey: Your Campus. Your Voice. Your Experience.

Current faculty, staff and students are asked to take the Campus Climate survey. The confidential survey will provide a comprehensive look at the attitudes, behaviors and standards that shape the Cal Poly experience. The goal is to better understand how the campus community handles issues of diversity and inclusivity to foster an environment in which everyone can be successful. The Campus Climate Working Group, composed of faculty, staff and students from across campus, worked with Rankin and Associates to create the survey specifically for Cal Poly. Participants who take the survey have the opportunity to enter a drawing for $500 Visa gift cards. Four Visa gift cards have will be given to students, two to faculty, and two to staff. To learn more about the survey, visit the Campus Climate Survey Web page or email diversity@calpoly.edu. To access the survey, click here.

Cal Poly Arts

Campus is now home to the largest known red gum eucalyptus (eucalyptus camaldulensis) outside of Australia. Matt Ritter, a professor in the Biological Sciences Department and California coordinator of the American Forest's National Register of Big Trees, recently listed the tree as the national champion on the California Big Tree Registry. The tree was measured by Ritter and students in the College of Science & Mathematics and the College of Agriculture, Food & Environmental Sciences after a larger red gum in Fresno died. The Cal Poly red gum was planted in 1911 and can be seen in some of the earliest photos of campus. The tree stands across from the Baker Center near the corners of Via Carta and North Poly View Drive. For more information, go to the website for Cal Poly's Urban Forest Ecosystems Institute.

Applications Being Accepted for Summer and Fall 2015 Cal Poly-Led Programs

The International Center invites faculty from all colleges to apply to teach on a Cal Poly-Led Study Abroad Program. There are openings for summer 2015 programs in Peru, Spain and Thailand and for fall 2015 programs in London and Spain. The center is looking for faculty with strong teaching records who can offer general education, major and/or specialty courses appropriate to a specific program. For more information, applications and deadlines, visit the International Center's website or contact Jennifer O'Brien at ext. 6-7321 or jeobrien@calpoly.edu.

April 7 Application Deadline for Grant to Spur Faculty Development and Scholarship

The Research, Scholarly & Creative Activities (RSCA) Grant Program has been developed to help faculty remain engaged in their disciplines beyond the classroom and to contribute new knowledge focused on strengthening California socially, culturally and economically. Supported by the Office of the Provost, the annual funding is intended to provide additional internal resources to help faculty pursue a broader array of professional activities. The deadline to submit proposals for awards of mini-grants, assigned time, and additional compensation for 2014-15 is 4:30 p.m. Monday, April 7. For an application and submission instructions, visit the Office of Research & Economic Development website or call ext. 6-1508.

PolyData Dashboards Upgrade Scheduled for March

The PolyData Dashboards environment will be upgraded to the latest version of Oracle Business Intelligence Enterprise Edition 11g in March. The upgrade includes enhancements to navigation, pivot tables, search functionality, column sorts and many new features. All dashboards and user-saved selections will be upgraded and will continue to operate as in the previous version. Dashboards should remain available during the upgrade. For training materials and more information on PolyData Dashboards, visit the PolyData website, contact the ITS Service Desk at ext. 6-7000, or email polydata@calpoly.edu.

Scholarships Available for Children of Faculty, Staff Attending Cal Poly

This year, Cal Poly software vendor iModules will award 13 scholarships for $1,500 to students enrolled in secondary or higher education institutions that are clients of iModules. If your child attends Cal Poly or another iModules client, they may be eligible. The application deadline is April 1. For more information, visit the scholarship website.

Online Training Library Now Available for Faculty and Staff

Information Services is providing state employees access to the tutorial resources at lynda.com. The training modules are created and presented by real-world professionals and cover a wide range of topics, including software, creative and business skills. This on-demand, self-paced learning service is free and available at work or home. For convenient one-click access to lynda.com, go to the portal and click "Customize" in the upper-right corner. In the search box, type "Training." Click on "Training Resources" to login. You can also add a tab to your portal for easy access. For help adding the tab to your portal, contact the Service Desk at ext. 6-7000.

Catastrophic Leave

Ryan Straight, equipment tech III in the Mechanical Engineering Department, has qualified for catastrophic leave. Those wishing to donate leave credits to help him remain in full-pay status during an extended leave of absence should contact Vera Flores at ext. 6-5585 or eflore05@calpoly.edu to request a donation form.

Retirements

Janice Stone, a talented ceramist, Central Coast native and valued member of the Kennedy Library staff, will retire at the end of March. A reception to honor her service will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday, March 28, on the second floor of the library near Julian's Café. A recipient of the Library Staff Award in 1993, Stone has worked at Kennedy Library since 1970, first as a student assistant, then as a staff member in the Reference Department, and eventually rising to supervise the Inter-Library Services unit. As the coordinator for Inter-Library Services since 1992, she has overseen more than 250,000 borrowing and lending requests that have contributed to student and researcher success. From the era of snail-mail content delivery to the almost instantaneous electronic delivery of information resources today, Stone has played a key role in the evolution of inter-library resource sharing.

In Memoriam

Steven J. Agronsky died Jan. 22. He was regarded as one of the finest professors in the Mathematics Department, a person who loved teaching as much as he loved mathematics. Whether teaching freshman calculus or graduate-level analysis, he explained the power of mathematics with clarity and verve. He was also the author of several research papers on analysis and dynamical systems. Agronsky completed his bachelor's, master's and doctorate degrees at UC Santa Barbara. He taught briefly at Cal Poly in the late 1970s and then joined the Mathematics Department full-time in 1981. He retired from Cal Poly in 2012 but continued to teach intermittently until his passing. He had many interests aside from mathematics. He was a gentleman farmer and a world traveler who eschewed the beaten path. He is survived by his wife and best friend, Jaine Rice. Campus Announcements

Registration Open for STEM Summer Camps

Registration is open for STEM Summer Camp for fifth- through eighth-graders. Three five-day sessions will be offered in July, running from 8:15 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day. This year, campers will explore the science, technology and engineering of energy through inquiry-based activities led by Cal Poly faculty. Participants will test solar panels, build wind turbines, investigate the energetics of chemical reactions, develop and solve scientific challenges and visit research labs. The registration deadline is June 23. Space is limited to 40 campers per session and registration may close early. For more information, go to the Kids Learn STEM Summer Camp website.

Inclusive Excellence Council Meeting on March 13

The Office of University Diversity & Inclusivity will host the Inclusive Excellence Council (IEC) meeting March 13. The mission of the IEC is to serve as an advisory council to the president on diversity and inclusion issues on campus by assessing, evaluating and providing strategic solutions to enhance the campus environment. Faculty, staff and students are welcome to attend council meetings. For times and locations, see the Office of University Diversity & Inclusivity website.

Free Fitness Fridays Set for March 14, 21 and 28

Explore the Cal Poly Recreation Center with Free Fitness Fridays. Cal Poly community members (faculty, staff, alumni, retirees, emeritus, spouses and registered domestic partners) are invited to use the Recreation Center at no charge March 14, 21 and 28. Use the gyms or weight rooms, play racquetball, go for a swim, take a fitness class, and more. For a list of group exercise classes, view the fitness schedule. For hours of operation, visit the Recreation Center website. A Cal Poly identification or Alumni Association card is required for entry. For more information, contact Membership Services at ext. 6-6335 or memberships@asi.calpoly.edu.

Professional Training on Composting to be Held March 24-28

The Center for Sustainability in the College of Agriculture, Food & Environmental Sciences will hold a five-day professional training program on composting March 24-28 at the Cal Poly Compost Unit. The training will be comprised of two segments: a four-day certificate training program on large-scale composting followed by a one-day workshop. The four-day workshop is designed to teach participants about the entire composting process, including site selection, management techniques, compost utilization, marketing strategies and the regulatory environment. Participants will also tour regional composting operations, farms and municipalities that have incorporated composting. A certificate of technical ability will be conferred upon completion of the course. The one-day workshop on March 28 will provide information for the effective assessment and use of compost for growers at all scales of production, building on information given at the four-day training. The four-day course is $450, which includes instructional materials, lunch and breaks. The one-day workshop is $150, though faculty, staff and students will be admitted free of charge. The workshops are part of the Cal Poly Compost Project, funded by the Harold J. Miossi Charitable Trust. To register, contact the Center for Sustainability at ext. 6-5086 or cfs@calpoly.edu. For more information, visit the center's website.

Open Forum for PeopleSoft Finance 9.2 Upgrade and Year-End Planning set for March 25

The Administration & Finance Business Connection (ABC) will present information and timelines on the PeopleSoft Finance 9.2 upgrade and year-end close planning from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, March 25, in the Fisher Science Hall (Building 33), Room 286. The session is important for faculty and staff who use PeopleSoft Finance and are responsible for managing departmental budgets on behalf of the university, Cal Poly Corporation or Cal Poly Foundation. Topics will include:

- PeopleSoft Finance 9.2 upgrade, timeline and live demo.
- Year-end close planning and timeline.
- Expenditure transfers – payroll and non-payroll.
- Budget transfers.
- Release time.
- Cash posting orders (CPO).
- Software purchases and annual reporting.

For more information, contact Dawn Rudder at drudder@calpoly.edu or ext. 6-5871.

Lifeguard Recertification Courses to be Offered at Recreation Center

ASI will offer lifeguard recertification sessions this spring. Sessions will be held March 29-30 and April 26-27. Participants only need to attend one session for credit. The classes will include 12.5 hours of lifeguarding, first aid and CPR/AED for the professional rescuer training. Participants must be 16 or older, hold current certifications, and attend all classes in their respective session for recertification. Courses are $95 for Recreation Center members and $110 for the San Luis Obispo community. Register at the Recreation Center front desk or online. For more information, contact aquatics@asi.calpoly.edu.

Student Innovation Quest Workshops to be Held April 7

A workshop will be held to help students prepare applications for the annual Innovation Quest (iQ) competition. The workshop will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, April 7. The competition fosters innovation and entrepreneurship by offering students a chance to develop their ideas and gain access to valuable resources. All Cal Poly students are eligible to participate. Faculty and staff are asked to encourage students to attend the workshop to ask questions, meet past winners and network. The competition is held in cooperation with the Cal Poly Center for Innovation & Entrepreneurship (CIE). The iQ application is due Friday, April 11. For workshop locations and other information, visit the CIE website or contact Chelsea Brown at ext. 6-5171 or cbrown39@calpoly.edu.

Capacity Building Workshop to be Held on Wednesdays

Faculty, staff and students are invited to participate in the continuing Capacity Building workshop series. The workshops for winter quarter will focus on change in complex adaptive systems and will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. Wednesdays in Kennedy Library, Room 511. All are welcome, even if attendance is intermittent. For those who might be new to the series, the workshop is intended to create a safe space to learn about change within ourselves and with respect to the university as an organization. Attendees can learn how to identify their own change models and how they might think differently about internal and external paradigms. As part of the exploration of systems, the group will discuss organizational transformation from a social and ecological perspective and compare those concepts to existing change models. A 2012 paper titled "A Theory of Transformative Agency in Linked Social-Ecological Systems" from the Journal of Ecology and Society will be used as a guide. For more information, email Dianne DeTurrri at ddeturri@calpoly.edu.

Dates Added for Employment Equity Facilitator Workshops

Employment equity facilitator workshops for winter quarter are scheduled from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Monday, March 24, and Tuesday, May 6, and from 11:10 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. Thursday, April 10. All workshops will be held in Fisher Science Hall (Building 33), Room 290. Martha Cody, director of Employment Equity, will lead the workshops. She will be joined by representatives from Academic Personnel and Human Resources. The workshops will provide information about the faculty and staff recruitment process and allow time for questions. Sumi Seacat will be available to answer questions about institutionally sponsored H-1B visas for foreign faculty and staff. To enroll, contact Seacat at sseacat@calpoly.edu or ext 6-7387.

Free Legal Consultations Available

ASI has contracted with San Luis Obispo attorney Jeff Radding to provide free legal advice to currently enrolled students and faculty and staff, including ASI and Corporation staff. The free consultations are 15 minutes and available on the first and third Fridays of each month in the ASI Business Office Conference Room on the second floor of the UU, Room 212. To schedule an appointment, call ext. 6-1281.

Campus Administrative Policies Update

Cal Poly is continuing a comprehensive review of Campus Administrative Policies (CAP), replacing the Campus Administrative Manual (CAM). For more information on CAP and proposed draft policies, go to the CAP Web page.

Statistics Department Provides Consulting Service Winter Quarter

The Statistics Department provides a statistical consulting service to the university community to facilitate research design and data analysis in a wide variety of disciplines. Consulting services will be available through March 14. The consulting service is intended to support projects and research of Cal Poly faculty and staff and provide assistance for students working on senior projects and graduate research. Kevin Ross and Heather Smith are serving as consultants. They are available to advise on data collection, experimental design, and analysis of research projects. In addition, the consultants will be available to lead seminars or tutorials on requested topics and offer advice on various computer packages available at Cal Poly. If there is a special area of statistical inference that is of interest to a group in your department, contact Ross or Smith to arrange possible lectures on that subject. Faculty, staff and students interested in utilizing the consulting service are encouraged to access the Statistics Department Web page for office hours, to schedule appointments outside those hours, or other for other information, including what to bring to a consulting session.
