ADJUTANT-GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Boston, Sept 11 1861

Mrs Brewster

Dear Madam

Several Months ago I had a letter from your husband ^{asking me} to find out if I could a look containing the Histories of Families in Chester Co Engd in which was an account of his family. I found it in a few weeks ago I had it copied and sent it to him and at West Hamlet New York. As I have not heard from him I fear that it was destroyed among. Please inform me of his Address

Truly yours
Wm Sewall

Carrie Thompson called today to see thee and Mary, As Mary was out at Co's Interlained her myself, She had only a few minutes to stay, and as I was just starting on my usual visit to your house I took her with me, She gathered a Bouquet from thy flower beds and desired her "best regards" She does not look well, is very thin in flesh and seems rather sad

As my Mother ^{thru Dr. B. D. Brown} Tell me how to direct my letters, To Augusta To Howard To Luther I believe I know, at least if this is right

Mother

Look further if he speaks his purpose to come to Dayton & talk. Even his Mr. V. speaks some good words and he will be sure to try. And the Dayton Journal is a little more into the good, what shall he do next?
