Miss Manning

Her beautiful friendship for me + her care
of us all in this household make her
a pillar of strength.
Grandmother is such a terror that you have been in my heart - I thought - almost constantly - since she

Dear, Dear Mrs Manning
It
is such a joy relief to hear from you direct - from your letter to Emma - that Aunt Anna is menacing. It seems as tho I could not have anything happen to her just - word came. What - would the dear little thing do without your ministrings?

Sick or well! - Take good care of yourself - I am not sure that you do not need attention your own much less. Perhaps you will send us word soon again - to Mother or Emma - I shall get the news from them With endless love to them,
I am,
Sincerely yours -

Mary J. J. Jones
