MOUNTAIN MASS

Has Mrs Brigham returned and how are her eyes - better & hope. Give love to Sarah Stone and Edward I suppose they remain in their old home as I have not heard to the contrary. how they must miss Aunt Sarah.
Give much love to Camie and Edward and also to Annie and Miss Manning when you see them, and accept a great share for yourself from your loving Sister Mary.

My Dear Sarah -

To day it is dreary enough with a strong east wind which has kept me in from Church as I do not like to expose myself to strong winds fearing Rheumatism.
The families are all safely at home again with the exception of Charles family who will not come until the 15th. Mrs Manning tells me that Annie will not seems to occupy Minny Jack as she cannot find just what suits her her mind is with her and a young teacher who will live with them this winter. Her mother and sister are in New York. I suppose E and Carrie made Margaret a visit this week as Maggie wrote they expected them on the 24th M. if so I presume they are at home again as they seldom make a long stay from home. Maggie expects to come home on the 28th. I shall be glad to see them home again.

return until this week or later. so I suppose you are still in Belmont. I hope your summer has been a pleasant one and that you have gained some strength for your winter change. Emily has gone back to College feeling quite rested by her summer vacation, and Robene back in school. We have had company from Philadelphia but are now alone again. It is very nice to get them all safely home again, and all well. The servant girl question
