Mrs. A. W. Whitney,
Belmont,
Mass.

["Sister Mary"]

I hope E will not feel unpleasant about her.

Love to Annie (Miss) Manning and the family at Belmont and accept a great share for your own dear self from your loving
Sister Mary.

1234 PACIFIC STREET.

Brooklyn June 30th.

My Dear Sarah.

Your welcome letter received. I hope you do not weary yourself in writing to me although it is a great pleasure to receive it.

The weather has been so intensely warm that I have remained quietly in the house and have not felt much inclination to do anything, but this morning a change has come and I feel better. I have been sewing for a day or two - helping Emma off they left yesterday for

I was glad to hear that Pop, Anne, Minkie was with friends of her own who will do what they can for her. I always felt that a boarding house was not a place for her in the condition I suppose Sarah and Edward are still in their old home. You must miss dear Aunt Sarah, but Henri Lago, is he gaining much love to them from me when you see them. I am glad Edward and Carrie enjoyed their Western Trip so much. I hope Miss Carrie's letter to read. I hear Cousin Helen is again in Boston as she has a grand

Paint-Pleasant. and Flora and family leave to morrow for Babylon L. D. and then I shall be quite alone. Maria expects to remain a couple of weeks longer if the weather keeps cool. She will then go to Egremont. I expect to go to Arlington about 20th of July. for a month, and then to Egremont. I am sorry you did not feel able to take the journey to the Mts. but I know you enjoy Belmore and as you gain strength will be able to ride out, and enjoy the good air that James always felt was a tonic to him.
