Dear Miss Whitney,

I want to thank you for the Cards of admission and to send you also, my heartfelt congratulations on this occasion. The New Year must indeed be a happy one to you in that it sees the glorious consummation of your hopes and labors.

I wished much to go to the Old South with Mr. Chamberlain yesterday, but the weather kept me at home as it will most of the time now that the

Ella Chamberlain

Summer has come. The very first day I go to town, however, I shall go to see Miss Martineau and how much I shall enjoy in the anticipation! I want to hear that her visit to Europe, the return from Europe, rather,
is perfectly satisfactory to you, the block of marble a gemstone one, etc., etc.

I think you must be listening to high encomiums on all sides.
Mr. C.'s greeting, last night,
"O Ella, it is simply and
"nobly grand"! but echoes my own feeling of what I know must be.

With all my heart, I give you good, my warm friend.

Very sincerely yours,

E. M. Chubbuck Esq.
