Mr Whitney
The Charlestown
Boston Mass

191 Commonwealth Avenue. May 29/11.

Dear Mrs Whitney

Such a kind note you wrote me May 13th & here it is the 29th.
I am still in your debt!

But then I always am in debt to you - for kindness & inspiration & loyalty & graciousness!

The book I had finished entirely, thank you.

I am to-day on my way to see my sister, whom I have not seen for a long time, because I have been constantly watching with my little lad, reading & him etc.
He is now really rallying & so here every expectation of seeing him will return again, after the lapse of months, the Doctor says. He has been so blackly a so patient often offering a good deal. I only heard him complain once, & then he said in a sort of pathetic wishful tone "The job has gone out of me!" But he smiles & laughs & is quite content.

I find there is a half done piece before & after my visit to my sister.
I shall work in upon you. I can't tell, till I get to town & must take my chance.

Hoping that I may have the happiness of seeing you - & if I do not, wishing you a most pleasant journey. I am always

Yours affectionately

Geo. A. Higginson
