31 EAST 28TH STREET.

My dear Miss Whitney
I have received your note concerning the status of Liz. I am sorry, stating your decision to give the question longer
consideration, understand me, but I
am reminded of the answer from de

Rask once gave a friend of mine, an heing asked whether he did not think of so many repetitions of
the Cole of Fount.

"Oh no" he answered,
"I have never yet felt
that I have done justice to it"! To tell it is that the artist is ever his own severest
critic!

I want to assure you

of my great interest in the Undertaking and of the pleasure I have taken in the Conversation we have had on the subject. I hope to have more of them, whatever the result may be.

During the course, the question of the proper sort of pedestal has been on my mind and I have tried to see if there were not some way of preserving the basin, as I saw that you were both & abandon it; but

up to the present moment and after another brief of inspection on my way out to Cambridge & the other day, I am firmly of the opinion, that an attempt to retain a part of the present arrangement, would result
only in patchwork.

Looking forward with pleasure to our next meeting

Yours truly

W. M. Lindell
