Feb 20 - 1912

Dear Miss Whitney:-

Your record, am sorry I was so negligent in acknowledging the receipt of paper and book, but both were received, and the book read aloud to the family, but I forgot when I wrote to mention it, my head seems so tired all the time, that when I sit down to write am very forgetful. John repaired the window with boards for the winter, and and everything about the building is all right, and he will watch that nothing happens, he is working in the woods and passes there four times each day. You will have a letter from him soon.

Yours Sincerely

Emma Leighton

Yours of Feb 19 received today I think now, we have all the mail you have sent. Will have John write you in a day or two, about the things pertaining to the farm Yours
E. E. L.
