And always I am more &
more yours A. M.

February 24, 1912

Dearest A. W.

"Love feeds by
that it feeds on"
So it is said,
& my appetite
for you is by no
means "dissipated"
by my sister's

Sight of you. I am hungry that
ever to get you.
I said yesterday to daddy — "Come let's go down to Anne"
but we couldn't
any other way of us,
though maybe
she will come
tomorrow

When I see you

I will let you know
understandingly
how we are held in bonds.

But my sister Sa had a
dear visit with you.
She told me how beautiful you were
with all the loveliness
about you — "Silver
to silver creep & twin^{ness}"

And kind to kind "

She said - after Emerson.

The ^{your} house seemed to her "filled with
"purity" - were her
words. _____

And that purple gown
"exactly right for that woman who looks &
seems like royalty."

_____ How shall I see it, that gown? But I know how perfect it is
for you, even unseen;

And always I am more &
more yours A. M.
