To "a. + a. a."

Old-time roses come to tell
The tale that roses know so well.

When their little day is over,
And they their hidden hearts discover,

Plunge them deep + let them lie
Floating through night's secrecy.

Staply with the morrow's sun
May they waken, one by one,

Glad again the song to sing
Glad once more the tale to bring
Which roses know + burn to say
How friends grow dearer day by day.

[Dr.] Helen Morley -
