My dear Miss Whitney,

Thanks to your kindness I have received a copy of our dear Elia's little book on the Welsh Pony, - and I want to express my gratitude to you and to her, and to Miss Blackwell who told you of my interest in it.

We fell in love with the ponies in Wales, and last summer were enchanted to find a wonderful herd of them in Vermont, - Mr. Theodore Vail's at Lyndonville. I had not known before that they could be bought in this country.

We are greatly hoping that some ship, tho' it be even a shallop, may come sailing in to us before June is too old, so that he may have the Comradeship of a Welsh pony!

How happy you and Elsie must be to be together! We like to think of you enjoying each other to the full. If at any time you think your like to get a perspective on her, you might send her over to us for a while!

With renewed thanks for the delightful book, and with dear love to Elsie.

I am sincerely yours
Mabel Hay Carron Mussey
