Mr. Mark

9 West 35th Street -

New York. Nov. 12.

My Brother's Whitery -

I am much obliged to you for your very friendly letter. What you say of my industry prefer-

rence agrees substantially with what I had have omit to see Miss Terry as Portia.

gathered from other sources, and I am sorry to say with what I have been told before. But I never can believe that a voice that sounds so loud in my own ears is not equally obtrusive in the estimation of others. Fortunately the occasion does not often recur, though if it did I perhaps might learn better. If it did

I would only take your advice and put myself under some doctor's care. As it is however my avocations do not naturally bring me before more than a dozen persons at a time, and there I manage to reach, at least as far as their ears are concerned.

I am glad you are glad to have my book. It is, as you divine, a real ratisfaction to have done one thing as well as I know how. It makes the daily hand-to-mouth work pretty unsatisfactory, but this is a wholesome discontent and as I really have "all the time there is" and can lay out my work to suit my necessities, I hope to make things more satisfactory presently.

Yours very truly, & hoping to see you in the winter, W. R. Ware.

Don't omit to see Miss Terry as Portia.

Mr Ware
