[April 26-7, 1895]

My dear Miss Whitney:-

I was sorry to learn, Wednesday night, the Club without seeing you. Mr Young desired also to speak with you but he was feeling unwell owing to the closeness of the rooms and seeing you surrounded, I thought best not keep Mr Young in the bad air <sup>longer</sup>.

Your paper was most interesting. Your courage ought not to surprise me and yet it did for you handled the most delicate matter with so much firmness and impersonality—that I am still under the thrill of admiration. I have written something about your suggestion for the Herald tomorrow which I hope will appear editorially.

I hope, too, it will not in any sense give you offence.
Surely, it could mean none but I have not care for expression and always said of such what I would do. May I wish you and Miss Manning a restful and pleasant summer.

Thanking you very much for your kind and able assistance with my request in behalf of the club,
I am

Always Truly Yours,

Frederic C. Young
