My dear Sir,

Many thanks for your thoughtful and profound hospitality

Should I have a day to spare in your neighborhood I shall certainly give you a part of it -

Hamington was of signal service to me, at a critical period of my history. I shall always remember him

with gratitude - I do not know that such men as he, are bred by our style of thought, in this day; but,
God raises up men in England that have adapted to the necessities of the time What the pattern of the Christian man will be in our free, scientific,
and philosophizing time I do not know, it is difficult to say. Something better, I think than ever before

With kind regards & thanks to your wife for her parturship and your in offering me hospitality I remain, Very truly

Yours,
Henry Ward Beecher

Edward H. Pomeroy.

with kind regards to your wife for her part in offering me

hospitality & services, May 1843

Yours, Henry Moore & Co.

Edward H. Pomeroy

was not that I expected to go to Your meeting - Is it not possible for you

yet to change your meeting & let him off?

affectionately Yours
Guy Ward & Decker
