Dear Mr Williams:

Here, finally, are two poems, which I should be glad to have you print if you care for them. The Rats Lice & History appeared in the Nation last spring. The Dead Ride Fast has not appeared anywhere, and there is no room for it in the immediate future in either the Kenyon or the Southern--my two normal avenues. Etc.

I had hoped to get the group done of which I spoke before, but I was wrong to hope, for I am further off than ever from finishing them, and have no time to put in on them now.

As I remember your last note spoke of a small check as usufruct from last year's anthology. Did it disappear or is it still to come.

Please do not hesitate to return these poems if you don't care for them.

Faithfully,

RB Blackman

As I remember your last note spoke of a small book as wanted from last year's anthology. Did it disappear or is it still to come. Please do not hesitate to return these poems if you don't care for them.
