Dear Miss Whitney:

I wished very much that it
had been possible
for me to accept
your kind invitation
for this afternoon.
I always feel as if the Queen had asked me, when you invite me.

But today & for three days to come I have to grub away
for dear life
getting ready things for the Woman's Journal. Then
Thursday & Friday
I have a breathing
spell, & could come in to see you on either of

those days, if it
would be convenient, in the course
of the afternoon.
Thursday, Friday &
Saturday are the days when I breathe;
Sunday, Monday & Tuesday, those when I dig; & Wednesday the Journal goes to press.
