4th Dec. 1886.

Dear Miss Whitney,

I fear that I shall not be able to see you as you wish, as I receive your note of yesterday while preparing to set out for Niagara Falls, where I shall remain all of next week.

You can be quite dear too much for my judgment upon matters that lie beyond my professional field. If I differed with you on a point of your art you would certainly be more to be influenced in the slightest by my opinion. I am sure that you are right in thinking that your new model meets the requirements of the situation.

Yours respectfully

Edward Clawson
