Chilmark, Dukes Ceo., Mass. Aug. 13, 1913 Dear Miss Whitney: This is my mother's birthday. She would be ninety-five. We are inviting friends to celebrate the day by doing something to help the Woman's Journal - if possible, by taking a share of stock; if not, by making a gift toward the expenses of carrying yourself. I not of course I should not want you to do it. But the reform hapen always have a hast full to get through the summer, and the princers who were alleing to live a have if they are so situated that they are in situated that they are in such a ske to sold a ske to .

on the paper. The stock is 8100. per share. It is full hard and nonassessable, and involves no responsibility beyond the payment of the 8100. I know that your money affairs have not gove prosperously of late, and perhaps this is an altogether unreasonable request. If so, you must for que me for making it. I did so on the chance that you might be
