Dear Aunt Anne

It certainly has been good management of a matter of unusual delicacy which has led up to the point of Mr. Stow's joining in a petition for Mr. Flint's appointment. I think that you have a well earned right to a feeling of profound satisfaction in this favorable turn; for whatever disclosures may come in the future, you already have the assurance of having made no mistake either in the matter or method of your undertakings.

As ever most faithfully George.
