My Dear Miss Whitney

You must not think my delay to accept your generous offer - reflect -

A sprained wrist,
which still makes writing painful - talking all the time in other words & on all topics in this - have prevented my attending to anything but most pressing tasks -

My heart thrilled at the thought of having your summer as com-panion in my study - My great joy is to look up from work to some loved face, & what rendering of my old friend's look can be

So agreeable in yours!
It will be a perpetual delight - most welcome
Companion -

Many hearty
thanks for your kind thought of me -
beside it gives me
a chance to show my Aunt what I have almost wearied her with praising - how shall I see & join -

To one old play fellow of summer's you have given a new pleasure in creating such a living picture of how in me of his best mood -

Sincerely &
Faithfully

Wm Bell Phillips

Miss Whitney.
