PLAYS

CRIMES OF THE HEART

June 19,20,21,22,23 Tues. - Sat.

This new play by Beth Henley was the winner of the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics Circle Award. It is a warm hearted, humorous examination of the lives of three young Mississippi sisters who are betrayed by their passions. "It has heart, wit and a surprisingly young passion that must carry all before it... It would certainly be a crime for anyone interested in the theatre not to see this play." - Clive Barnes, N.Y. Post

THE FANTASTICKS

June 27,28,29,30, July 1,5,6,7
Wed.-Sun. Matinee; Thurs. - Sat.

This cheerful musical fantasy by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt is about young love, parents, the world and human nature. A wonderful combination of beauty, originality, spirit and wise but tender wit. The beautiful scores include "Try to Remember," "Never Say No," "Plant a Radish," and "Soon It's Gonna Rain." (NOTE: special matinee performance on Sunday, July 1, at 2:30 p.m.).

WHOSE LIFE IS IT ANYWAY?

July 10,11,12,13,14 Tues. - Sat.

Brian Clark has written a brilliant battle of wits in this extraordinary play about a man's search for personal dignity. Ken Harrison (played by guest professional DENNIS ROMER) is paralyzed in a car accident and kept alive by hospital support systems. Harrison decides that he does not want to live only to exist as a medical achievement. His physician is determined to preserve Harrison's life regardless of its quality. WHOSE LIFE is a sensitive, touching and timely evening of theatre.

THE DINING ROOM

July 17,18,19,20,21 Tues. - Sat.

A.R. Gurney, Jr. has crafted a richly humorous look at the now neglected room that was once a vital center of family life. A series of interrelated scenes that are funny, touching and rueful combine for an entertaining portrait of American life. THE DINING ROOM, directed by guest artist DENNIS ROMER, promises to be a delightful evening of humor and abundant humanity.

WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

July 24,25,26,27,28 Tues. - Sat.

Only Agatha Christie could have written this suspenseful thriller with its uncanny triple flip ending. Guest artist ED VAUGHAN will be featured as Sir Wilfrid Robarts in an evening of suspense sprinkled with comedy. Make your plans early as last summer's mystery played to 99% audience capacity. If you love a mystery, don't miss Witness For the Prosecution.

7 WAYS TO LOAD UP ON FLAVOR WITHOUT FEELING FULL.

Sisters introduces 7 new ways to lighten your lunches.
 Tomato stuffed with chicken salad or tuna salad, served with peach and crackers.
 Chicken salad sandwich or tuna salad sandwich with lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise on toasted wheat bread.
 Breaded chicken breast with lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise on a deli-style toasted roll.
 Country steak with lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise on a deli-style toasted roll.
 And a Sisters club sandwich with grilled ham, turkey, bacon, Swiss cheese, lettuce, tomato and mayonnaise on a deli-style toasted roll.
 How's that for a real Light Luncheon selection?
