EXPECT DAIL TO FINISH DEBATE AND DISPOSE OF TREATY TONIGHT

Is a Belief Among Certain Members Supporting the Anglo-Irish Pact That It Will Be Ratified.

MRS. MACSWINEY IS LED BY GRIFFITH. 2 Hours and 40 Minutes; Asks for a Plebiscite of Women on Question of a Republic.

(By The Associated Press.) Dublin, Dec. 21 (By The Associated Press.)—The possibility of concluding debate on the Irish treaty and reaching a decision by tomorrow night was indicated by Eamonn de Valera in today's sessions when he suggested that, if the discussions were not concluded tomorrow, an evening session should be held to "finish it."

Arthur Griffith, criticizing Mary MacSwiney for speaking so long—two hours and forty minutes—thought fifteen minutes would be sufficient for each remaining speaker. There was a disposition tonight by certain members supporting the treaty to predict definitely that it will be ratified.

Democratic Representative Criticizes Some of the Levies Contained in the New Tariff Measure. (By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—Replying to Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee who today in the House had announced importers for their opposition to the American valuation plan as incorporated in the tariff bill, Representative Oldfield, democrat, Arkansas, member of the committee, declared that the proposed import duty on hundreds of articles under the American valuation plan would be prohibitive.

Peace Pact Allows Japanese to Complete This Super-Ship

The S. S. Mutsu.

Under the terms of the four power and Pacific treaty Japan is to be allowed to complete the S. S. Mutsu, one of two giant warships designed by the Japanese engineers to eclipse anything yet constructed. To equalize the addition of this fighting fleet to Japan's navy the United States will retain the Colorado and Washington built under construction, which were to be scrapped, and Great Britain will be allowed to construct two new "post-Jutland," or giant ships.

3 MORE DAYS TO SHOP FOR CHRISTMAS

CAMPAIGN ENDS AT 10 O'CLOCK TONIGHT

Journal's Big Salesmanship Club Circulation Campaign Will End Tonight at Ten O'clock Sharp--If You Have a Favorite in the Race That You Wish to Help Win a Better Prize You Must Give Your Subscription in Before the Closing Hour--All Subscriptions and Reserve Vote Ballots Must Be in the Ballot Box or in the Mail By the Closing Hour--Count Will Be Made By the Judges Saturday and Results of Campaign Announced In Sunday Morning's Paper.

NOTICE TO CONTESTANTS

The Citizens National bank, where the locked and sealed ballot box is located, closes at 3 o'clock today. After that hour the box will be removed to the Journal office where it will remain until the closing hour of the campaign, 10 o'clock tonight, December 22nd.

Candidates who cannot get to the bank before it closes may deposit their subscriptions and remittances for same in the sealed and locked box in The Journal office after 3 o'clock and up until the final hour of the campaign. After 10 o'clock the box will be taken back to the bank and placed in the vault, until the mail from candidates in districts 2 and 3 are received. The count of votes will be made by the Judges Saturday, and the names of the winners announced in Sunday's issue of the Journal.

ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS MUST BE IN THE BALLOT BOX OR IN THE MAIL BY 10 O'CLOCK TONIGHT. None will be accepted after that time.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

All subscriptions deposited in the sealed ballot box must be accompanied for the full amount to cover. Personal checks WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. Have all checks made out to yourself personally and get them cashed. Cashier Checks, Drafts, Money Orders, Currency, Gold and Silver will be accepted. This ruling is made in fairness to all the candidates and will be strictly adhered to.

The Morning Journal's gigantic voting campaign will come to a close tonight at 10 o'clock. A few words relative to the fair manner employed in winding up this big event may not be out of place.

No doubt today will be one of the biggest days of the campaign. It is not unusual in events of this kind considering the value of the many prizes at stake, that the business turned in during the last day and night of the campaign be equal or exceed, the amount turned in during the entire time of the race, previous to that day. Consequently, the management has arranged every detail in such a manner that it will be absolutely fair, square and impartial to each and every candidate in the list of workers. There promises to be a fierce fight for the honor of winning the five big automobiles--the biggest and best prizes ever offered in a similar event by any newspaper in this state.

In this event the prizes are surely worthy of every effort--in fact the capital prize in this race represents more than an average man's salary for a year.

Now, all this week, and up until the closing hour of the campaign, all business turned into this office by candidates may be placed in envelopes furnished free by the office and sealed. No one, either inside or outside of the Journal office, except the candidate herself can possibly know what these envelopes contain. They will be opened by the judges next Saturday night when the final vote count is made, and vote ballots will then be made out to the amount of the subscriptions enclosed.

The ballot box will be turned over to the judges next Saturday night, the count will be made and the results announced in Sunday's issue of the Journal.

Late Saturday night however, after the count is completed, the result will be bulletined at the Journal office showing the winners of the different prizes.

Fair and Square.

This method of closing the campaign is absolutely fair and square to everyone, for even the management itself has no way of knowing what any candidate has turned in until the event is ended.

Our Best Thanks.

The management wishes to thank the contestants one and all for their assistance in making this big subscription campaign the great success which it has been. Our only regret is that instead of the five there were not seven or eight automobiles to be distributed among the earnest workers who have been the means of giving the Journal an enormous paid-in-advance circulation.

The Judges.

The following well known local business men will act as the judges, to canvass the finds in the sealed ballot box and to award the prizes:

Walter M. Connell, Bond Connell Sheep Co., Mayor of Albuquerque.
H. Chas. Roehl, vice president Citizens National bank
M. P. Stamm, retired citizen.
All these gentlemen are well known to everyone in Albuquerque, and the surrounding territory, and the result as given out by them, will be beyond dispute.

ANOTHER ATTACK IS DIRECTED AT PACIFIC TREATY

They now expect to depart about the middle of January.

What Will France Ask? The French have not revealed what submarine tonnage they will request, but it is known figures running as high as 90,000 tons have been under consideration by the delegates. That would be more than double the present strength of the French submarine fleet, and so high that there seems little doubt it would meet determined opposition. It has been hinted that in any final settlement of the auxiliary question, a large submarine tonnage for France might be balanced by a restriction on the American destroyer tonnage for Great Britain, because she is the nation who admittedly has most to fear from submarines.

Oppose Abolition. A tonnage in submarines of 90,000 for Great Britain and the United States and 20,000 for Japan was suggested in the original American limitation plan. There is no evidence that the American delegates regard that as inflexible. It has been indicated, however, that the American delegates would not be compelled to stand out against the British request for abolition of the submarine altogether. A report of the American advisory committee indicates that the submarine will be retained under revised rules for its use.

Standing All Questions. The American naval experts are studying all questions of auxiliary naval arms as colored by the national needs of the various powers, and it is certain that when the question comes up for final discussion by the delegates, the American delegation will be prepared to apply to it the broadest possible construction.

Although not holding membership in the naval committee, the Netherlands delegates have communicated their views on the submarine question to the conference officials and they have an informal right to be heard. It is pointed out that before the final decision is ratified, the representatives of the smaller powers all will have an opportunity to express their views.

When a plenary session will be held and the question whether there will be a recess of more than one day for Christmas, both are said to hinge on tomorrow's developments. If the views of France take a form easily acceptable to the other delegates, it is not impossible that the delegates will agree to huddle on tomorrow's developments. If the views of France take a form easily acceptable to the other delegates, it is not impossible that the delegates will agree to huddle on tomorrow's developments.

Four-power Treaty. In discussion of the four-power treaty, American delegates are said to hold that the language of the pact so clearly includes the major Japanese islands, that no negotiations with the Japanese ratification is under consideration by the senate. Inclusion of these islands, contrary to the interpretation of President Harding, is declared by the delegates to be unbreached, beyond dispute, in the words "insular dominions."

When the treaty comes before the senate, Senators Lodge and Clegg are expected to lead the opposition, as members of the delegation, are planning to explain the circumstances under which the term "insular dominions" was selected and the understanding reached as to its meaning. It is said they are prepared to tell of the part of the American delegation in urging that the word "dominions" be included so that the treaty would apply definitely not only to Hawaii, Australia and New Zealand, but to the Japanese "homeland."

In the original draft of the treaty, application is said to have been limited to "insular possessions." In the discussion which brought about the change, the Americans and British are understood to have stood together in insisting that the broader scope be given the new agreement.

Speaking in the senate today, Senator Reed alluded to the debate at the White House conference which preceded President Harding's statement last night, saying he could picture "Mr. Hughes and Mr. Lodge and maybe Mr. Underwood" telling the president that the treaty is "just as good with those provisions in it as it is with them out."

He added that apparently, the president thought, however, he was stifling all opposition by announcing there was no guarantee of the Japanese "homeland."

"He seemed to think," said the senator, "that the virtue of the pact was that it did not have the vice of binding us to protect all Japan."

"If this thing keeps on, Article Ten of the League of Nations will become respectable and the drafters of the Versailles treaty will be regarded as the most candid of men."

Should Get Acquainted. He said he would recommend that Mr. Harding get "better acquainted with what his representatives are doing in the conference." Open sessions, he continued, had been urged in some quarters but that since "the real negotiations were done behind closed doors, the White House should be connected by telephone with the secret sessions so that the president would not "get off on a tangent."

Mr. Reed inquired whether any senator thought that the British or the Japanese representative would have been permitted by their governments to have remained here had they gone ahead on such a proposition as the four-power treaty without advising them at home what it would amount to when finished.

He asked also whether those statesmen had "gone into this thing with all knowing that their foundation was sand."

"I wonder," he added, "whether the American people are going to follow blindly the statesmen who have dented this treaty, who do not appear to know whether they have bound our government to guarantee or protect an entire empire or the tiny atolls that they reach the surface of the Pacific ocean."

The situation yesterday, he concluded, reminded him of the story of the wheelwright and the blacksmith who formed a partnership and who, in casting about for a slogan painted on their sign board: "All Kinds of Twisting and Turning Done Here."

'TAINTED,' SAYS KENYON OF THE NEWBERRY CASE

Seat in the Senate Was Bought for Not Less Than $250,000, Republican Senator Says in Address.

Washington, Dec. 21.—Use of a social influence to bring about a vote favorable to Truman H. Newberry in the Michigan senatorial election contest of 1913, was charged today by Senator Kenyon, republican, Iowa, in a discussion of the contest, during which he declared that the election in which Mr. Newberry was chosen over Henry Ford, the democratic candidate, was "tainted."

The Iowa senator, who is one of the leaders of the agricultural bloc, declared that of all blocs, the "social bloc" was the most powerful. He said he was convinced that the senate when it voted on the election contest next month would declare Senator Newberry elected, but he added "the vote will not be the last of the Newberry case."

"The day is coming," he continued, "when it will be heard in a court of honor in the court of the great American people. It will be a trial that will be worth while, because the American people when they understand the question will decide right."

"The cold fact is," he continued, "that this seat in the senate was bought and the price was not less than $250,000. And I want to add that if this sale of a seat is allowed to stand, the rule of the people is gone and gone forever."

During Mr. Kenyon's talk loud applause came from a public gallery. Two husky doorkeepers rushed to the scene and a woman visitor was removed. Senators Reed, democrat, Missouri, and Borah, republican, Idaho, frequently interrupted Mr. Kenyon's discussion.

riding, which was the property of Grey.

Two deputies sheriff from San Juan county are on route to Pittsburgh with the intention of being arrested by Sheriff J. P. Winn and three deputies. The sheriff and his deputies were led to the spot where the body was found by Alice Katonka, who, with his wife, Alice Katonka, was brought from Pittsburgh, Pa., for an investigation in connection with the killing.

According to local authorities, both Katonka and his wife declare they were murdered, but each blames the other for the crime. Katonka is morning led the sheriff and his deputies to the culvert under which he said the bodies of the two men had been concealed. Kelly's body apparently had been found where it was found, as it was found 200 yards below the culvert. Deputies are searching for Grey's body.

As soon as Kelly's body had been found, Sheriff Winn brought Katonka back to Durango. He said relatives of Kelly who had accompanied the searching party had shown signs of hostility.

YORK BODY OF SAMUEL GREY, the second taxi driver, was found later in the day about a mile from the place where Kelly's body was found.

Examination tonight revealed, authorities declared, that both Kelly and Grey had been shot in the back of the head.

Both bodies were wasted away and identified in connection with personal effects in the clothes of the victims.

CHICAGO TRADE BOARD PLANNING A NEW HOME

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Dec. 21.—A plan to finance the erection of a new home for the Chicago board of trade similar to that adopted by the New York cotton exchange when it built a new structure several years ago, is to be voted on by the members, according to announcement today by the board's secretary.

The plan provides for a tax of half a cent per 1,000 bushels of grain traded in, 5 cents per 50,000 pounds of lamb or short ribs, 250 barrels of pork, or 150 barrels of cotton seed oil; 10c per carload, or part thereof, of any commodity dealt in by members of the exchange and 5 cents per 1,000 bushels of cargo lots of grain.

The plan, it is expected, will raise a revenue around $200,000 a year and $1,000,000 in five years.

LOOKING LIKE "BABE" RUTH CAUSES ARREST OF ALLEGED BURGLAR

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 21.—The fact that he looks more or less like "Babe" Ruth, famous Yankee baseball player, led to the arrest today of Raymond Sterling, wanted in connection with twenty-one burglaries committed in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Lillian Seool, a baseball fan, who was the victim of one of the robberies, told the police to look for "Babe" Ruth's double. They did. He is alleged to have confessed committing all the crimes charged against him.

NEW BOLSHIEVIK COLONY ON THE TOLSTOI ESTATE

They Will Attempt to Rectify Failure of Communism; Members Make a Religion of Manual Labor

Yasnaya Polyana, Russia, Dec. 21.—Fifteen young men, two young women and an elderly man, have recently established on the Tolstoi estate what they term "an improved bolshhevik community," described as an attempt to rectify failure of communism, the members of the colony are the declared enemies of the destruction of property, human or animal life and thus are arrayed against the soviet government.

The members of the colony make a religion of manual labor and declare its chief tenet to be embodied in the phrase, "Love thy neighbor as thyself." They declare themselves, like Count Tolstoi, "searchers for the truth in all things." They arrived here in early September with permits from Moscow to occupy a portion of the estate now classed as a national institution. A teacher whose father is a doctor of the colony, organized the movement. The 18 members, all of whom profess the practical idealism of the Doukhobors sect with a mingled belief in the alleged quarters in a peace handsome but now tumbled down, one story building of the estate built in 1780 for the serfs of Prince Volkonski, father of Tolstoi's mother.

Building Made Habitable. The new arrivals have made the building habitable and have started to prepare for the cultivation of the 130 acres included in their grant. Food so far has been supplied free by the soviet government, the same as to all visitors to the Tolstoi home. The three women do the cooking.

The correspondence came first in contact with a member of the colony in a rather abrupt manner. After a long journey, he had been enrolled as a pilgrim at the Tolstoi home, according to the rules of the institution. He was given a bed in the ground floor room chamber, a long journey, he had been enrolled as a pilgrim at the Tolstoi home, according to the rules of the institution.

EAST TEXAS SHIPPED 1,370 CARS TOMATOES DURING PAST SEASON

(By The Associated Press.) Jacksonville, Tex., Dec. 21.—More than 50 per cent of the tomatoes shipped in car-loads out of East Texas during the past season were handled by the Texas Tomato Growers' exchange, according to the first annual statement of the executive committee, headed by General Fitzgerald, president.

Files of the United States bureau of markets and the different railroads handling carlot shipments indicated that 1,370 carloads of East Texas, of which 32 were express shipments, the report said. The exchange handled an even 700 cars, or more than 51 per cent, Mr. Fitzgerald said.

Shipments were made from twenty-six points by the exchange, reported as follows: Arp, 4 cars; Athens, 10; Alto, 105; Brunswick, 19; Bullard, 66; Chandler, 18; Craft, 18; Dalville, 18; Elkton, 23; Flint, 58; Frankton, 32; Galatia, 35; Gresham, 10; Jacksonville, 15; Jarvis, 4; Linder, 2; Maydelle, 12; Palestine, 5; Reklaw, 6; Rusk, 25 1-2; Sulphur Springs, 7; Teneha, 11; Turney, 26; Troupp, 8; Tyler, 24 1-2; Whitehouse, 68.

A total of $478,694.21 was received, net, f. o. b. shipping points, or an average of $682.85 per car, according to the report. The expenses of the exchange amounted to $11,656.73, or 2 1/2 per cent of the net f. o. b. selling price, said the report.

MEN RESCUED AFTER A SPIRITED BATTLE

(By The Associated Press.) Belfast, Dec. 21.—Fifteen men who were taken from their beds Tuesday night in the Linnahady district of County Derry by alleged Sinn Feiners and made to tramp fifteen miles through the mountains across the Derry border, were rescued by a detachment of the special constabulary after a spirited fight today.

The constabulary at dawn observed the men coming out of Hillbern hall at the foot of the Sperrin mountains, and gave pursuit. The captured men escaped and their former captors opened fire to which the constabulary replied. After two miles chase five of the alleged Sinn Feiners were seized near a chapel in which were found four bombs, other explosives and trenching tools.

Dublin, Dec. 21.—The Exchange Telegraph's account of the fight between the constabulary and Sinn Feiners in County Tyrone, says that six republicans are reported killed and twenty wounded.

A Good Cough Medicine. It speaks well of a cough medicine, when druggists use it in their own families, in preference to any other. J. Goldsmith, druggist, Van Etten, N. Y., writes: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers. I have always used it in my own family, both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following the grip, and find it very efficacious."

SIX PLACED UNDER BONDS. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21.—Six officials of the Stearns Land company of this city were arraigned and placed under $1,000 bond each in federal court today on charges of attempting to defraud twenty-four persons through land deals in Hidalgo county, Texas.

CAVELL COUNSEL IS CENSURED BY BELGIAN COURT

(By The Associated Press.)
Brussels, Dec. 21.—The court of appeals today handed down a decision censuring Sadi Kirschen, a German attorney who defended Edith Cavell, the English nurse sentenced to death in 1915 before the German court martial which tried her. It also recommended Gaston Deleval, a Belgian lawyer who acted as legal counsellor for the American legation in Brussels. Deleval, in his report to Brand Whitlock, the American minister to Belgium, charged that Kirschen's defense of Miss Cavell was not what it should have been, and also that he failed to inform the legation of the sentence passed on Miss Cavell until after her execution. He added that it was through accident that the legation had been informed by two nurses of the sentence of death, and that Kirschen only made his report to the legation at 12 o'clock noon on October 12, after Miss Cavell had been shot at 2 a. m.

Kirschen and Deleval later came to blows over the controversy between them.

The decision of the court today said that Deleval was acting as a diplomatic officer and not as a Belgian attorney and that he had no right to criticize Kirschen. Kirschen had contended he was under no obligation to keep the American legation posted, although the legation was entrusted with the protection of the rights of British subjects.

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT OPPOSED TO PROPOSED LOAN

(By The Associated Press.)
The Hague, Dec. 21 (by The Associated Press).—A preliminary report, issued today from the second chamber of the Dutch parliament, regarding a bill authorizing a loan to be contracted in the United States for the benefit of the Dutch East Indies, shows that several members made strong objections to the proposed bill. According to the report, some feared the United States would strive for influence in the East Indies as a consequence to such loan, and others regarded the interest on the proposed loan as too high.

The government declares there is no reason to fear the intervention of the United States in the affairs of the East Indies in consequence of the transaction. It adds that there is no necessity to obtain the American government's sanction to the loan.

TURNER DIVESTED OF TWO HOLIDAY BRIDES

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 21.—Benjamin Turner's love affairs just will come to a head in the fatal week before Christmas.

Today he sat in supreme court in the Bronx, manacled to a Sing Sing prison guard and saw himself divested of two holiday brides.

Mrs. Mamie Turner, whom he married the week before Christmas, 1914, obtained a divorce, naming as co-respondent Mrs. Fannie Madison Turner.

Then Mrs. Fannie Madison Turner proposed to her husband before Christmas in 1919 he omitted to tell her he was married. She was granted annulment.

Turner went back to Sing Sing to serve out a five-year term for bigamy.

BOYS ARE AWARDED A VERDICT OF $95,000

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 21.—A jury in United States court tonight awarded to David and Patrick Doherty, four and six years old, a verdict of $95,000 against the director general of railroads, their father, Patrick Doherty of Flint, Mich.

The boys were killed in the wreck of a passenger train at South Byron on January 12, 1919. Last April the boys were awarded $28,000 damages for the death of their mother, killed in the same accident.

The complainants demanded $1,000,000 damages for the death of Mr. Doherty, contending that he was earning $30,000 a year at the time of his death. He was 36 years old.

CARUSO BABY IS GIVEN HALF OF TENOR'S ESTATE

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 21.—An agreement among relatives of Enrico Caruso by which the tenor's baby daughter, Gloria, is given one-half the estate and 500,000 lire, was made known today by his widow's attorneys. The agreement has been approved by the court at Naples, the lawyers declared, and the administration and distribution of the estate is proceeding. The legal steps taken here, they continued, were merely to have Mrs. Caruso appointed administratrix to collect assets in New York state, to pay New York creditors and to turn over the surplus to the Italian estate. All parties, it was asserted, were working in harmony.

"The remaining one-half of the estate is to be divided into four equal parts, to be distributed respectively among the sons, Rodolfo and Enrico; the widow, Dorothy Benjamin, and the brother, Giovanni Caruso," they said. "Provision also is made to make a distribution to the former employees of the deceased."

2 WOMEN KILLED BY MAN WHO ENDS LIFE IN INSANE OUTBURST

(By The Associated Press.)
Philadelphia, Dec. 21.—Two women were shot and killed, a third wounded, probably fatally, and the slayer ended his own life in a supposed insane outburst today in a rooming house in West Philadelphia. The dead are Mrs. Minnie Warrington, who conducted the house; Mrs. Bella Drake, 55, a roomer; and Cornelia Coff, the slayer, 45, who was a companion of Mrs. Warrington. The wounded woman is Mrs. Agnes Borrell, also a roomer.

After a preliminary investigation, police officers believed sudden insanity induced by opposition to Coff's desire to marry a niece of Mrs. Borrell was the cause of the shooting.

MINERS DESTITUTE IN KENTUCKY-TENNESSEE COAL FIELDS, REPORT

(By The Associated Press.)
Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 21.—In the Kentucky-Tennessee coal fields between 5,000 and 6,000 miners are idle and thousands living in humble homes are destitute of the necessities of life as a result of the suspension of mining operations during the last few months. E. L. Reed, secretary of District Number 19, United Mine Workers of America, said today:

"Since the middle of last June the situation has been gloomy and the national organization of mine workers and miners of the district who have been able to find employment have been aiding the unemployed," he added.

FRANCE IS NOT A MILITARISTIC NATION, STATES

(By The Associated Press.)
Paris, Dec. 21 (by The Associated Press).—France's total army strength will be 673,000 after May, 1922, according to a statement made by General De Castellau, former chief of the general staff, to the Associated Press.

General De Castellau, who is president of the army commission of the chamber of deputies, said that the budget of 1922 carries appropriations sufficient for only 636,000 men, and as the army will be below that figure between the first release of men of the class of 1920 and the first incorporation into the army of men of the class of 1921, there will be enough saving in revenue to support the larger number of men later.

"Please tell them in America," he said, "that with 673,000 troops, including Africans and Colonials, there will be only about 500,000 men able to carry a rifle and fight. The others are what you call the service of supply."

"It is my impression that Premier Briand explained our situation to the satisfaction of our Americans. What can I add, except that there has been propaganda in America since our departure left Washington, to the effect that we are a militaristic nation. Perhaps I might say that had we been a more militaristic nation in November, 1918, all this trouble would not have cropped up."

SEAMEN ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE HUGE WHALE

(By The Associated Press.)
Southampton, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Two boatloads of veteran seamen made an unsuccessful attempt today for the carrying out of a contest for each bout was announced today by the state athletic commission. The ruling says:

"Each contestant in a championship bout must post a forfeit of $2,500 and each club promoting a championship bout $5,000.

"In all other bouts the contestant must post 10 per cent of the estimated amount of the purse and the promoter 20 per cent.

The commission explained that it would not permit the holding of any bout unless the required forfeits were posted.

Football Player is Fined, Sentenced to Fifteen Days in Jail

(By The Associated Press.)
Rouen, France, Dec. 21.—A sentence of fifteen days in jail and 10,000 francs damages has been pronounced by the court of appeals against a football player, Langenois, for striking an opposing player with his fist in a rugby football game. The lower courts had imposed a sentence of four months in jail and 6,000 francs damages.

"Brutality is incompatible with real sport," says the judgment.

MUST POST FORFEITS FOR BOUTS HEREAFTER

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Dec. 21.—A ruling requiring all boxers and clubs to post heavy forfeits as a guarantee for the carrying out of a contest for each bout was announced today by the state athletic commission. The ruling says:

"Each contestant in a championship bout must post a forfeit of $2,500 and each club promoting a championship bout $5,000.

"In all other bouts the contestant must post 10 per cent of the estimated amount of the purse and the promoter 20 per cent.

The commission explained that it would not permit the holding of any bout unless the required forfeits were posted.

NEW YORK OPERA ATTRACTS HUGE CROWDS NIGHTLY

Boxes, Stalls and Chairs, From Orchestra Pit to "Peanut Gallery," Are Always at a Premium.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 21 (By The Associated Press.)—Its light undimmed by the passing of its greatest luminary of recent years, the Metropolitan Opera has reached the height of what its social and professional sponsors acclaim as the most successful season since the world's eyes were focused on New York as the hub of the operatic universe.

Not, officials of the opera said today, that a great gap has not been left in the ranks of the artists who have made the famous Caruso's place, they declared, cannot be filled in a few months, or even in a few years, but his death has served to deflect the interest of opera goers from the brilliancy of the individual singer and to widen it to embrace the opera itself and the great though less known stars, who nightly are drawing multitudes to the historic Broadway auditorium.

Changes Have Taken Place. Great changes have taken place in the opera as a social institution, they declare. The social side of the gathering there season by season, has again taken on the aspect it wore a generation ago. Once more it is the brilliant show place it was in the 80's and 90's. Nightly, regardless of the name of the tenor or the soprano who is to sing, boxes, stalls, chairs, from orchestra pit to "peanut gallery" are at a premium, and every foot of standing room in the shadowy horseshoe about the walls is solid with the mass of music lovers who would rather stand three and a half hours than miss the performance.

In a widespread reaction from the fashions of years before and during the war, the gentleman opera goer, and the lady in dress, whether she sits in a box or any other part of the house below the gallery. And many who stand through the succession of acts parade the lobby and doff the latest of silk hats to acquaintances or when they go to exchange visits among the boxes filled with richly-gowned and jeweled women.

Apex with the changing custom in dress and the etiquette of the entrance, the public has mastered its post bellum aversion for German opera, manifested in 1919 by threats of violence that would ensue on their presentation.

Twice this season the stately measures of Wagnerian opera have resounded in the ears of audiences that have taxed the capacity of the house, and "Die Tote Stadt," new to American devotees of the art, was the vehicle upon which Mrs. Marietta, a Viennese, took a cosmopolitan audience by storm at her debut.

A few nights later the same imposing daughter of the former enemy country tore and shook into dishevelment her coronet of shining golden hair through the passionate scenes of "La Tosca"—a role long regarded as the exclusive property of the American idol, Geraldine Farrar—while an American audience dissolved into tears and interrupted the scene with an outburst of applause and "bravos" such as seldom mark the serenity of New York's bliss first nighters.

Successor of Caruso. As to the much heralded successor of Caruso—the operatic miasma declare they are seeking none and hope to find none. After touring Europe most of last summer, General Manager Giulio Gatti-Casazza returned with many new singers added to his company and several new operas for his repertoire. But he announced that while Caruso's place in the hearts of

WHERE IS STOCK GOING IN TRADE?

Milton Stock.

Before the New York Giants moved Wall Street to Cincinnati in exchange for Heinie Groh it was rumored that Milton Stock, Cardinal infielder, might go to Redville in a deal that would bring Groh to the Cards or be used in a three-cornered deal in which several Pirates would figure. Now that's busted. It's a good bet, says St. Louis scribes, that he's going somewhere, however.

his admirers must remain unfulfilled, the roles he made famous would be sung by the great tenor's former colleagues, Audsley, Bada, Crim, Martinelli and a half dozen others, with Fertile, a newcomer from overseas.

"Time only," he declared, "and the judgment of a fickle public in determine who the eventual idol of the American opera will be."

Titta Rufio and Amelita Galli-Curci, who, as visitors with the Chicago Opera company, have had New York triumphs in past years, are among the new members of the Metropolitan company.

LIQUID AIR USED TO CHRISTEN 400-FOOT ARMY AIRSHIP ROMA

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—The 400-foot army airship Roma fought her way for five hours and a half against a head wind from Langley field, Virginia, to Washington today to be christened and put in commission officially by Miss Pomeroy Walworth, daughter of the assistant secretary of the Navy, who broke a bottle of liquid air on the great semi-rigid airship's prow.

STATE C. OF C. PLANS WILL BE REVIVED SOON

Officers of State Organization and of City Chambers of Commerce May Hold Conference This Winter.

Although the completion of the organization work of the New Mexico Chamber of Commerce has been delayed considerably since the chamber was started last spring at a meeting of the chamber of commerce secretaries here, indications are that the movement will be revived this winter and that an active campaign will soon be started to secure members for this state-wide body.

The greater part of the delay has been caused through the resignation of H. B. Watkins, former secretary of the local chamber, and organizer of the state chamber. Mr. Watkins resigned to accept a position as organizer for the Loyal Order of Moose at Mooseheart, Ill.

Realizing the need for such an organization in the state in order that the natural development of New Mexico might be hastened through concerted effort, Mr. Watkins called a meeting of all of the secretaries of chambers of commerce in the state. The idea of a state chamber was discussed by the secretaries at their meeting here and organization plans adopted. Officers elected Col. G. E. Breece, president of the local chamber, was selected to head the state body.

A meeting of the secretaries and the officials of the state organization was planned to be held in Santa Fe last fall, but due to Mr. Watkins leaving the state it has been postponed until later this winter or next spring, when it is expected that the ground work for the organization will be rebuilt.

SUPREME COUNCIL OF ALLIES WILL MEET IN JANUARY AT CANNES

(By The Associated Press.) London, Dec. 21 (By The Associated Press.)—Another meeting of the allied supreme council, this time at Cannes, on the French Riviera, is the outcome of the parleys between Premier Lloyd George and Briand. It will be preceded by a meeting of the council of ambassadors within a few days. The meeting will be held in the first week in January.

A pledge to secrecy was entered into between the premiers regarding their London conversations, but the supreme council evidently has been called either to revise the reparations provisions of the treaty of Versailles or to deliberate on the advisability of calling a still larger international conference with a view to dealing with international finances and exchange.

PAVING ON ROAD TO ISLETA WILL START MARCH '25

New Mexico Construction Company, Which Was Awarded Two State Contracts, Will Speed Work.

Paving on the 8.69 miles of road west of Barlasa bridge will start March 15, according to A. R. Hebenstreit, of the New Mexico Construction company which was awarded the contract Monday by the state highway department. Mr. Hebenstreit stated that the bridge would not be closed for the work and that if it was not completed by that date a siding would be erected for hauling materials from Albuquerque to the road. The new cement paving will start at the west edge of the bridge.

With a field of ten bidders, the New Mexico Construction company was successful in securing two large contracts: the Isleta road west of the Barlasa bridge and the paving between Anthony and Berino on the road from Las Cruces to El Paso. The first job was secured at a bid of $11,253.04 and the second at $125,371.08. Work will be started on the Las Cruces job at once.

Competition was close between several of the companies, the Leo Moor company, of El Paso, being a close second on both bids. This is the first time the New Mexico Construction company has entered into competition in bidding for state road contracts in New Mexico.

LIQUOR BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN CAUSE OF QUARREL AT A DANCE

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.) Las Vegas, N. M., Dec. 21.—Liquor is believed to have been the cause of a quarrel at La Llama, a small place near Antonchico, Guadalupe county, which resulted in the serious beating of Benjamin Sanchez and Juan Sanchez, brothers, by Apolonio Sena, a constable of the precinct. The men are said to have indulged in a disturbance at a dance and were arrested by Sena, who is reported to have come back and beaten them over the head with the butt of his gun. The two men are in bed and the district attorney's office has instructed Sena to be prepared for an investigation next week.

LOUIS HILL WANTS TO BE ADMINISTRATOR OF ESTATE OF HIS MOTHER

(By The Associated Press.) St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 21.—Louis Hill, chairman of the Great Northern railway today filed application in probate court here for his appointment as administrator of the estate of his mother, Mrs. James J. Hill.

Previously other heirs of Mrs. Hill filed a petition for designation of the Northwestern Trust company as administrator, and it developed there were some differences among the heirs as to disposition of the estate valued at $16,000,000.

POMERENE EXPRESSES SATISFACTION WITH HAITIAN CONDITIONS

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—Satisfaction with conditions in Haiti and the Dominican republic, was expressed today by Senator Pomerene, democrat, Ohio, a member of the special senate committee, which visited the republics to investigate conditions and which has returned after spending two weeks there. Further hearings are to be held here. The committee will also confer with Secretary Hughes in a few days.

The committee was received hospitably by the natives, the senator said, although the presence of agitators was shown in the processions where incendiary banners were carried. Most of the opposition, he said, appeared to be based on the misapprehension that American occupation was for destroying the independence of the two republics.

He inspected much of the island by airplane, and described as "marvelous" the work done under American direction in road building.

Miss Mollie Allen Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"Eczema broke out on my forearms and limbs, from anki to knees. Little white pimples formed which contained a watery fluid, and upon scratching would leave a burning sensation, growing worse all the time. The eczema scattered and my arms and limbs got so bad, and discharged so much watery fluid that my clothes were wet all the time. I had to keep my limbs wrapped in oiled silk.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they gave me great relief, and after using three cakes of Soap and six boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Mollie Allen, 2021 Telegraph Ave., Oakland, Calif.

Utility and Beauty

Fountain pens, of the standard Conklin, Shaeffer, and Waterman manufacture, and Eversharp pencils make ideal Christmas gifts, because they combine utility with style and beauty. From the keeping of house accounts to the letter-writing hour and the bridge game women find constant need for the fountain pen and mechanical pencil; both perfect in operation and convenient for desk or handbag. Men, of course, cannot get along without them.

Give her a HOOVER

The gift that will be a constant reminder of the giver through many labor-lightened years is the Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper. It exemplifies the spirit of Useful Giving which is more than ever the spirit of 1921. It is a present of many, many hours of time which otherwise would be consumed in back-breaking efforts to keep the home clean. It is the gift of an ever-clean home—of rugs and carpets kept bright and pretty as when new. It is the gift of many dollars which otherwise would be spent for cleaning rugs, furniture, mattresses, draperies, etc. It is the gift of better health. It avoids run-down constitutions. It keeps home as pure and clean as a sanitarium.

The Hoover has a soft brush which is revolved over 1,000 times a minute by the electric motor. This Beating-Sweeping Brush beats and thoroughly sweeps carpetings while powerful suction dusts and withdraws the dislodged dirt. No other cleaner has this feature. That is why only the Hoover is guaranteed to get all the dirt—as a beating will prove. The Hoover will also greatly prolong the life of your floor coverings. Let us demonstrate. Call or phone.

BEAUTY CHATS

By Edna Kent Forbes.

A PRETTY NECK.

A few days ago we were talking about massaging the neck with cocoa butter to overcome the series of wrinkles apt to appear on even a youthful throat. The cocoa butter is valuable not only for filling out these wrinkles but also for "tightening a thin neck." It can even be used to fill out hollows in the shoulders, but this is a tedious process and had much better be done by exercise.

No neck is pretty if the skin is not clear in color, if the neck is not held well or if it is either too fat or too thin. You can use the daily cocoa butter massage to fill in wrinkles and to help make the neck plump. You can make a fat neck slender by reducing your body until you weigh only as much as you should for your height and your age. You can make the skin fresh and clear by using a cleansing cream and by wearing only washable white material around the throat. If there are brown lines around the neck, or if the skin is a bad color, it is probable that tight collars have been rubbing or irritating you, or that the dye from your dress has been rubbed off into the pores of the skin.

If the head is not held properly the neck is apt to develop a little curve in front, which is anything but attractive. There is a little bone at the back of the neck above the shoulder blades which is very sensitive and very easily displaced. This often stands out like a little lump and quite ruins the neck line. You can get this back into position by pressing it with your hands, or by holding the head high. If it seems particularly obstinate an osteopath could put it into place in a very few treatments.

Loose, blond hair that is slightly oily always has this tendency to get dark near the roots. Sham-

You Should Not Have Hollows on the Shoulders.

poose the hair with castile soap every three weeks, and put a little lemon juice in the rinse water. Dry the hair in the sun whenever possible.

Alice: You can take yeast cake in candy form if it is easier and pleasanter that way. Personally, I don't think it makes any difference. Most people benefit if they take three cakes of yeast every day, because they purify the blood and act as a laxative.

RIPPLING RHYMES

By WALT MASON.

TWO SCOUTS.

It is a dark and dismal day; the wind is keen, the skies are gray, and rain, of many cheap-Johns sorts, comes down by gallons and by quarts, and people, splashing through the mud, hand out remarks that chill the blood. And Mr. Cheerup cries, "Hoory! Hoory! Tomorrow will be bright and fair, with sunshine glowing everywhere, and we'll enjoy our bliss the more because today seems quite a bore. We must have rain and slush and sleet to make our better days complete." And Mr. Cheerup's son and daughter are heartening, as we advance upon our errands, vain or sane, amid the slush and mud and rain. But Mr. Killjoy says, "My friend, this doggone rain will never end; and if it does there'll be a freeze and we'll have green pains in our knees. The weather's hour-by-hour growing worse, and he is wise who hires a horse; there'll be an outbreak of the flu, and that will put an end to you." We hear him spilling in the rain, and feel that everything is vain, and when at last we reach our homes we're shooting spasms in our domes, and rheumatism here and there, and mumps, and falling of the hair. Thus these two scouts go up and down; one tries to cheer the weary soul; the other journeys to and fro, and scatters stove-length chunks of woe.

APPEAL TO NULLIFY PENALTIES IMPOSED ON 5 GIRL STUDENTS

(By The Associated Press.)
Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 21.—Parents of five girl students at Ames college, charged with violating the "frisking" rules in Tri Delta Society, have appealed to the state board of education to nullify the penalties imposed. The dean of women had suspended the girls' social privileges temporarily and directed them to move from the dormitory house to a dormitory.

Three Des Moines attorneys, two of whose daughters are involved, represent the parents of all the girls. They are O. H. Jamison, A. H. Hoffman and W. H. McHenry.

THE NEW GENERATION

By JANE PHELPS

JOAN GOES TO COLLEGE.

CHAPTER 45.
Joan's trunk stood strapped ready to go. Her new handbag with its dainty ivory fittings all marked with her initials rested comfortably beside it. Old Hannah stood in the doorway wiping her eyes on the corner of her apron, carefully keeping right side up a box of frosted cakes—the kind she and Margaret had reaped Joan's friends with for years past. Joan and Margaret planned on their hats, each pretending to be too busily engaged to talk. Joan's coat lay over a chair. It was too warm to wear it, yet Margaret feared to have her pack it. The weather might change before she reached New York. Barnard college had been Joan's choice after the house had been disordered for months with circulars from various seats of learning.

Suddenly a chorus of animated voices reached them.

"There they come!" Joan exclaimed, relief in her voice. It was harder to leave home, her mother, than she had thought it would be. Her eyes felt hot and dry with unshed tears. She knew her mother was trying hard to be brave, that old Hannah even attempted to hide her grief. The advent of her young friends would help them all.

"Oh, how I envy you, Joan!" Gloria Freeman said as they trooped in, half a dozen of them.

"Why don't you come along?" Joan returned. "You are all ready to enter."

"Father and mother don't think it necessary for a girl to know anything," Gloria returned dejectedly. "They think a college education is all fooliness. Dad says girls don't need to go to college to learn to keep house for some young man, that they can learn that right at home."

"I'm sorry for you, Gloria," Joan said earnestly. "Self-expression is one thing we are all entitled to, and the right to shape our own lives. How can you shape yours if denied the right of education, the sort of education that appeals to you?"

Margaret bit her lip. She often was tempted to smile at the earnest way Joan's young lips delivered her opinions. One might think her 17 instead of 17, did they not see her.

"Nonsense, Joan!" Malcolm Frost broke in, "just because you can do anything you want to you shouldn't make Gloria unhappy because her people don't think as you do. Everyone can't go to college."

"I notice you can!"

"Yes, but it is because my father thinks a college education will make a better business man out of me."

"Why didn't you go to Harvard, Malcolm? Then you could have kept an eye on Joan," Hortense Thompson said. Hortense had always been a bit jealous of Malcolm's preference for Joan. Her voice had a sarcastic note.

"I was afraid I should study Joan instead of books, so chose Yale instead."

"Too bad about you! I would think you would know Joan well enough to suit even you after all the years you have run around together."

"Time to go," Margaret interrupted.

With much chatter and laughter Malcolm and Lonnie Carpenter shouldered the shiny new trunk and the large red letters denoting its owner. They told the taxi driver to get out of the way, that Joan's luggage was too precious to be handled by an outsider. Clarence Tobin, who had outgrown his snarling ways, took the bag while Hortense possessed herself of Joan's cloak, and Gloria of the box of cakes. Laughing, shouting, they rushed out of the house.

Joan threw her arms about the weeping Hannah, who now that the parting really had arrived, could not restrain her sobs.

"There won't be any us cooking without you here, Miss Joan," she wailed.

"Oh, yes there will! Mummie will have Gloria and the others here often, won't you, Mummie? Then Hannah you can send me a box every week."

"So I can, Honey!" Hannah wiped her eyes, comforted.

Margaret took Joan in her arms. She said no word, but Joan felt the struggle it was to let her go, and the right to shape our own lives. How can you shape yours if denied the right of education, the sort of education that appeals to you?"

Margaret bit her lip. She often was tempted to smile at the earnest way Joan's young lips delivered her opinions. One might think her 17 instead of 17, did they not see her.

"Nonsense, Joan!" Malcolm Frost broke in, "just because you can do anything you want to you

WINTER WRAP OF UNUSUAL DESIGN

BY ELOISE.

A warm coat for winter which is also a garment of latest fashion ideas is the type wanted by many women instead of the plain tailored coat for general wear and another fancier one for dress wear. This coat pictured is just such a two-in-one model. It is suitable for daytime or evening wear. The coat is made of a new material called "dove-down."

The front of the wrap is perfectly plain, but the sides are paneled and fall longer than the skirt. Australian opossum makes the unusual cape collar and deep cuffs on the wide sleeves. Rows of the dove-down form a trimming at the side fastening and are placed here and there on the side panels. A draped tuxedo of metal cloth is a charming topping for such a wrap.

For Indigestion and Constipation. There may be people in this vicinity who are afflicted with indigestion and constipation, and if so, they will be interested in the experience of Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa. When visiting in Mt. Jewett, Pa., Mrs. Getty was advised to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation, and says: "This medicine not only cured me, but toned up my whole system, so that my health has been better than for years, since taking it."

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

PLANNING THE CHRISTMAS DINNER.

The following menu is for a conventional Christmas dinner. It may be varied, modified to meet the individual pocket book. For instance, roast loin of pork may be substituted for turkey, accompanied by apple sauce. A clam or oyster soup may be served instead of plain clams and oysters (dropping the consommé in this case, of course), thus combining two courses. One or two of the vegetables may be omitted, and the plum pudding (delicious but undeniably expensive when well made) may be left out as well. Few of us can afford the menu just as it stands, but I am giving it as a good model to go by:

- Celery
- Oysters or Clams
- Consomme
- Roast Turkey, Sage-Onion Stuffing
- Cranberry Sauce
- White Potatoes, Baked
- Squash, Turnip
- Mince Pie
- Apple Pie
- Plum Pudding
- Coffee
- Cider
- Cheese
- Candies
- Nuts

In many homes the goose is held in higher esteem than the turkey. The following menu is appropriate for a roast goose dinner:

- Oyster Cocktails
- Consomme
- Ripe Olives
- Celery
- Roast Goose, Chestnut Stuffing
- Giblet Gravy
- Chantilly Apple Sauce
- Sweet Potato
- Buttered Onions
- Orange Salad
- Mince Pie
- Coffee
- Queen of Puddings
- Nuts, Candies

Chestnut Stuffing for Roast Goose: Cook 1 tablespoon of finely chopped onion in 1-4 cup of butter for 5 minutes without browning.

Little Benny's Note Book

Last nite I came in to supple with one eye all rite and one eye all black and blue, ma saying: Benny, you bin fighting, look at your face. Wich I cou imagine it without looking, on account of the way it felt, and pop sed, Youre a fine looking site, you are, wat do you suppose the Peace Conference in Washington will say wen it hears of this?

I dont care, I aint going to leave anybody insult me to my face or enyware els, I sed.

Good for you, well spoken, sed pop, and ma sed, Wy, who insulted you? Wat did they say? Wat happened?

That darn sissy Persey Weever insulted me and I aint going to stand still and be insulted, especially by him or enybody els, I sed.

Good, thats the way they tawked wen nighthood was in flowers, sed pop, and ma sed, Well of course if you were really insulted thats different. Who did it? Wat happened?

Yes, slip us a few details, sed pop.

Wich I did, saying, I aint going to leave Persey Weever or enybody els call me a thief, especially Persey Weever. I bet he wont call me a thief agen in a hurry. If you think I look bad you awt to see him, I sed.

Thats a bad name to call a Potts and nobody ever got away with it yet, sed pop, and ma sed, How did he ever come to call you such a thing? It count be bin thinking of? Wat happened?

He was eating a apple and he was eating it so slow it was disgusting to watch him, so I grabbed it off of him and ate it rite to show him how, and he deliriously called me a thief, I sed.

How do you serve left-overs?

CRQUETTES offer an economical appetizing way to serve left-overs. Follow the approved rules for deep frying (see special cookbook offer below) and you will find that your croquettes will not be greasy, soggy, or indigestible; your house will not be filled with an unpleasant odor; and you will use less cooking fat than when you cook in a frying pan.

The first rule for successful croquettes is to use Crisco. It cannot be detected on any food prepared with it, because Crisco itself is white, pure, tasteless, and odorless. Croquettes fried in Crisco quickly form a crust which prevents them from absorbing the cooking fat and becoming soggy and indigestible.

Crisco does not smoke at frying temperature. This means that your kitchen stays habitable through any amount of deep frying. All the Crisco left can be used again and again because it does not carry the taste of one food to another.

INDIA BANKRUPT UNDER RULE OF BRITAIN, STATES

One-Fifth of the People of the World Are Held By a "Brutal and Sordid System," Native Claims.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21 (By the Associated Press.)—British rule in India was criticized today in an address before the National Popular government league by Syud Hossain, one of the three representatives of that country who presented her claim at Versailles, as the cause of the widespread suffering in India and as being apparently designed solely to transfer Indian wealth to Great Britain.

He expressed the opinion that it was futile to hold such a conference as the arms conference when British militarism "is holding under its heel one-fifth of the people of the world by a brutal and sordid system."

A great hope had come to India, he said, through the appearance and "labor of love" of the Mahatma Gandhi, leader of the movement for peaceful non-co-operation throughout India.

Asked as to how far Mr. Sastry, a British arms delegate, represented the people of India, he replied it was "farical and outrageous" to suggest Mr. Sastry as an Indian representative.

"Sastry holds no mandate from the people of India," he said. Mr. Hossain contended that India was a geographical, historical and cultural unit. The English were attracted to India by its wealth, he said, and by the use of the British navy had kept other nations out.

"India, one of the wealthiest countries in the world is today a pauperized and bankrupt country," he declared.

LEWIS FINISHES HIS TESTIMONY; KANSAS UNIONIST TESTIFIES

(By The Associated Press.) Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 21 (By the Associated Press.)—Testimony of John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America in the suit brought by Alexander Howat, was completed late today and Harry Burr of Mulberry, Kans., official of a Kansas local union and William Dalrymple of Colgate, Okla., international executive board member, testified.

Lewis, who began his testimony yesterday, today continued his recital of events which precipitated the final break between the administration of President Howat of the Kansas miners and the international and the subsequent overturning of the Howat regime by Lewis, who established a provisional body to take over the affairs of the district. The present proceedings are to decide whether a temporary order granted the plaintiffs early in the month restraining the international from continuing the provisional administration shall be made permanent.

IMPROVEMENT OF CITY DISCUSSED BY COMMISSION

Bond Issues to Cover Storm and Sanitary Sewers May Be Put to Vote of People at Coming Election.

Probable city improvement bond issues, which will be submitted to Albuquerque voters at the coming election were discussed by the city commissioners at their meeting last night. The two big projects which will undoubtedly be put before the people are bond issues to cover the construction of sanitary and storm sewers in portions of the city which are not adequately supplied at present.

The scope of the proposed additions has not yet been determined and no accurate cost estimate has been made by the city officials. More data will be available during the week on both projects.

Improvements of the public library also was discussed, but it was the opinion of City Attorney William Keleher such an expense could not legally be covered by a bond issue and the commission may take other means of obtaining sufficient money to improve the present building and to provide the library with new books and repair many of those now in bad condition.

WILFLEY WINNER IN TENNIS FINALS AT U

Vernon Wilfley won the men's singles championship of the university Tuesday afternoon when he took two sets out of three from Frank Reeves in the finals. The score was 7-5, 5-7, 6-4.

Reeves started the match in excellent form, having Wilfley 5-1 in the first set. Wilfley staged a remarkable comeback, however, and took the following six games running.

The second set was warmly contested, going to Reeves after some spectacular tennis on both sides of the net.

Wilfley played a remarkably strong game in the decisive set, making it set and tournament by winning it 6-4.

A men's doubles tournament will be arranged soon, probably to take place immediately after the Christmas vacation.

WOMAN MASQUERADES AS A MAN AND WEDS

(By The Associated Press.) Somerville, Mass., Dec. 21.—It was no prank that took Louise Margaret Aechter into matrimony, she told the district court here today in denying the statement made before the court yesterday by Ethel M. Kimball that when the latter, masquerading as a man, married Miss Aechter she knew her sex.

No one was more dumfounded than she, the "wife" testified when the masquerader was exposed. The Kimball woman now is being charged with false statements in connection with the application for the marriage license.

KIWANIS CLUB ADDS WORKERS FOR CAMPAIGN

Increased hotel subscriptions and the offer of an entire day's work in solicitation on the part of twenty-three members of the Kiwanis club resulted from the hotel pep meeting which was conducted after the luncheon yesterday. Sidney Well was in charge of the hotel discussions.

Campaign talks were made by Dr. H. M. Bowers, Henry G. Coors, Jr., David Rosenwald, a guest from the Rotary club, Dr. C. A. Eller, Dr. M. K. Wylder, the Rev. S. Alonso, Bright and former Lieut. Gov. Benjamin F. Pankey, Walter C. Raabe, A. B. Loken, J. M. Raynolds increased their subscriptions by $100 and F. M. Lyon by $200.

Music was furnished for the program by Ralph Smith, a new member, who sang a solo, accompanied by his wife. Four attendance prizes were given, $5 from Dr. J. DePraalin, which was won by Fred Canfield, and a baking dish, a pocket knife and a wizard wrench given by Roy Ball, which were won by D. A. Macpherson, F. M. Lyon and C. E. Eller, respectively.

Christmas greetings from N. J. Strumquist, Jr., were the silent boost and telegraph holiday messages were read from other clubs in the district. It was announced that H. F. Robinson and J. E. Cox were re-elected secretary and treasurer of the club by the board of directors chosen at a recent meeting.

MASONIC CHRISTMAS PROGRAM INCLUDES PARTY AND SERVICE

A Christmas party for the Shriner's children on Monday afternoon and a public Christmas observance of the Commandery on Sunday morning have been planned for the coming holiday at the Masonic temple.

All children of Shriner's are invited to a big frolic which will be held in the ball room of the temple on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. There will be a large tree brightly decorated and lighted, with toys and goodies for all of the children present. It is probable that Santa Claus will find time to be there, also. The Shriner's will also give baskets to many poor families.

The Sunday morning service by the Knights Templar will be held simultaneously with services of all other commanderies in the United States. The services will begin at 9:30 o'clock with a musical program. Promptly at 10 o'clock toasts will be drunk by all of the knights in full uniform. The service will be finished in time for other church services.

HIGH TEMPERATURES RECORDS ARE BROKEN

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Dec. 21.—Although one death here today was attributed to the cold weather, it was announced by Professor H. J. Cox of the local weather bureau that continuous high temperatures in Chicago during the past 15 months had broken all records.

"The current month makes the sixteenth month which has been above the average in temperature," he said. "This morning's minimum of 31 degrees is the lowest recorded this season."

BAPTISTS OPEN XMAS CAMPAIGN FOR ORPHANAGE

The Christmas campaign for funds for the Baptist orphanage home at Portales will be opened today and will last until Saturday night.

Business men of Albuquerque and vicinity will be visited by Baptist workers today and tomorrow, and a tag day will be held Saturday. A large number of posters, setting forth graphically the usefulness of such an institution and describing the work which the home at Portales is accomplishing, have been prepared and will be distributed throughout the city.

The Portales institution has taken care of fifty-nine children during the past year, and applications for the admission of eighty more orphans have already been received. In the past year more than $15,000 was collected and spent by the home. Of this amount $3,000 was used for operating expenses and $7,000 used to apply on a debt.

Robert McCluskey will be general chairman for the campaign, and the Rev. L. F. Sage and the Rev. T. E. Harvey of the First Baptist church will be the general directors. J. L. Shinn will be the lieutenant of the "Blues," who will oppose the "Whites," headed by Morris Fitzgerald.

Headquarters for the campaign will be in room 39 of the Barnett building, the offices of the New Mexico Baptist convention.

HANGING PROBE DELAYED UNTIL AFTER HOLIDAYS

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—Because of the absence of half a dozen witnesses summoned to appear today, the senate committee investigating charges by Senator Watson, democrat, Georgia, that American soldiers had been hanged in France without trial, was forced over until after the Christmas holidays.

Nine new witnesses were ordered to appear January 4 for examination in view of their statements made in letters to Senator Watson and others that they had first hand knowledge of illegal executions.

Except in one instance there was no explanation as to why today's witnesses failed to appear. One was ready to start, but there was some delay in delivery of his railroad ticket and he will come later.

Chairman Brandegee announced to make the investigation as sweeping as possible, war department officials would be called to check up on each alleged case of brutality or murder.

It was again made clear that some of the hangings witnessed by former service men included the execution of 11 soldiers put to death after trial by court martial.

The only former soldier appearing today—Marion J. Willis of Athens, Ga.—did not serve overseas, his testimony only being in connection with the killing of a private by a corporal at Camp Wheeler, Ga., in 1918.

War department records to determine whether the corporal, designated only as "Corporal Crawford," had been tried, were demanded.

There was an intimation that the committee would proceed to compel the attendance of George F. Hubbard, who recently declared in a statement that he saw the bodies of three soldiers which had been disinterred, and that there was a group around the neck of each, "showing the men had been hanged." Notified that he was wanted as a witness and asked to come at once, Hubbard sent a telegram from New York saying: "Will not accept."

ARREST EXPOSES WOMAN HUSBAND

Ethel Kimball (James W. Hathaway) snapped when taken into custody.

Ethel Kimball had posed as "James W. Hathaway" and had lived with Louise Margaret Aechter for two years as her husband when Boston police recently arrested her on a charge of attempted theft of an auto. She resisted arrest and when they sought to subdue her she revealed her identity by saying, "Would you hit a woman?"

ECONOMY PROBE IS TO BE HELD BY GOVERNMENT

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—President Harding has directed that a general meeting of the business organization of the government to discuss administrative economy be called during the latter part of January, it was announced today by Director of the Budget, Dawson.

President Harding will preside at the meeting. Director Dawes said it was the president's purpose to call these meetings semi-annually. "They will be similar to the one held last June which was attended by administrative government officials from the president down to bureau chiefs."

The president's immediate purpose in calling the January meeting, Mr. Dawes said, is to give personal instructions in connection with the administration economy policy. The president also, Mr. Dawes stated, will outline the method which he desires followed in connection with compliance with the provisions of the act of February 27, 1906, which provides a penalty for the creation of a deficiency by a government officer. This which has never been enforced, provides that a government official responsible for the expenditure of any sum in excess of allowance made by congress for that fiscal year may be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

CHAVEZ—The funeral of Pedro L. Chavez was held yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the family residence to the San Jose church. Members of Lodge No. 37, A. H. A. assisted in the services. Burial was at San Jose cemetery.

SANDOVAL—Abran Sandoval died last night at his residence after three months illness from Bright's disease. He is survived by one sister and one brother, both of the city. The body was taken to Crollor's funeral parlors, pending funeral arrangements.

KREITZ—The body of Fred Kreitz, who died Tuesday afternoon, will lie in state in French's parlors from 9 o'clock this morning until 1 o'clock this afternoon, when it will be shipped to St. Louis, Mo., on train No. 2, accompanied by the widow and two small children.

OSBORN—Mrs. Anna Osborn, 39, died at her apartments on North Second street at 9:45 last night. Mrs. Osborn came here last March from Topeka, Kans., where her husband is employed by the Santa Fe railroad. She is survived by her husband and four children, two of whom were with her. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. C. T. French is in charge.

A SMALL FAVOR DONE WINS SMALL FORTUNE (By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Dec. 21.—A small favor done several years ago for Ernest de Saint Gilles, author, professor and business man, by Archibald Birse, a Chicago tailor, was repaid today when Mr. de Saint Gilles' will was filed, leaving more than half his $100,000 estate to the tailor.

CARD OF THANKS. I take this method of thanking my friends for their kindness and attention given my wife during her illness and death, and the expression of sympathy and floral tokens which bear silent witness of my appreciation.

LANDLORDS IN PARIS ABUSED, THEY CLAIM

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, Dec. 21.—Paris landlords say they are the most abused persons in the world. They agreed to this unanimously at a mass meeting held recently.

They reported they are unable to collect rents from more than 20,000 tenants or to evict these unprofitable occupants.

All this is the fault of recent legislation, say the landlords, giving tenants who were immune from payment of rent during the war the right to find other quarters before vacating. The landlords say that when they try to sell their properties, no bids are forthcoming because of the existing situation.

MRS. DELLA KUNZE, Chicago, Ill.

"I understand now why so many people praise Tanlac as I have tried it myself and it certainly is a wonderful medicine," said Mrs. Della Kunze, 556 Lill Ave., Chicago, valued employe of the Boston Department Store.

"I sat with so much rest and enjoyment now that my family really joke me about it. A short time ago, however, I had absolutely no appetite and was eating so little that I was losing weight, and strength every day and I suffered so much from indigestion and nervousness that I was on the brink of a breakdown."

"There are absolutely no words that can express my delight at the remarkable and immediate results I obtained from Tanlac. It benefited me in every way. Instead of being depressed and melancholy and tired and worn out I am full of life and energy and cheerful and happy all the time. I've gained twelve pounds in weight, too."

Tanlac is sold in Albuquerque by the Avenida Pharmacy and all other leading druggists everywhere. —Adv.

S. H. WHITMER, HEAD OF LUMBER COMPANY, IS DEAD AT BUFFALO

Samuel H. Whitmer, president of the Whitmer-Jackson company, which operates a branch saw and door factory here, is dead at his home at Buffalo, N. Y., according to word received here. The local factory will be closed this afternoon while the funeral is taking place in New York.

Mr. Whitmer is the brother of T. E. Whitmer of this city, who hurried east at the news of his brother's illness. He died at the age of 57 years as a result of blood poisoning which set in after a minor operation for a carbuncle. He had been a frequent visitor in Albuquerque. The company of which he was president operates factories at Buffalo, Rochester and Cleveland.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN. Notice is hereby given that I will not be responsible for any debts or accounts contracted by my wife, Emilia S. Vigil, except it be by written order signed by me.

Dated at Albuquerque, New Mexico, December 20, 1921. ALFREDO VIGIL.

TRAVELING SALESMEN TO ASSIST IN HEALTH CAMPAIGN IN TEXAS

(By The Associated Press.) Austin, Texas, Dec. 21.—Assisted by organizations of traveling salesmen who go into all parts of Texas, the state board of health will begin immediately a more active health campaign in the rural districts than ever attempted before.

Dr. Mantion M. Carrick, state health officer, announced today. Both the birth rate and death rate are greater in the country districts of Texas, vital statistics of the health department show, although Dr. Carrick declined to offer an explanation. Increased activity of the health authorities in the cities, however, was credited by Dr. Carrick with improving the general health of the urban population.

Dr. Carrick is preparing to put into effect the assistance offered by the traveling men at a recent conference in his office in the capitol. The delegation of salesmen, including representatives of the Texas Travelers' association, Texas Travelers' Protective association, United Commercial Travelers and International Travelers' association, offered to furnish the state board of health with two inspectors to aid in the board's work in the rural districts, Dr. Carrick said.

PENSIONS OFFICE IN ATHENS SHOT UP BY DISCHARGED SOLDIERS (By The Associated Press.) Athens, Dec. 21.—Three discharged Greek soldiers today shot up the pensions office, wounding Admiral Soudouriotis. A stenographer and a secretary also were shot. The wound of the admiral is not believed to be serious.

The soldiers, forming a committee of men discharged from the army, had complained that they were not receiving assistance from funds collected among Greek residents of the United States for relief among wounded soldiers.

STEAMER AGROUND OFF THE MARYLAND COAST (By The Associated Press.) Baltimore, Dec. 21.—The steamer Cambridge, with a large number of passengers aboard, has been blown aground near Claiborne, Md., by the heavy gale sweeping the Chesapeake Bay. The steamer Harrington went to the Cambridge's assistance, but is unable to take off the passengers because of the high seas.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE DESIGNATED AS CONTRACT MARKET (By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 21.—The Chicago board of trade today was designated as a contract market with in the meaning of the future trading act by Secretary Wallace, in accordance with an order issued by the United States supreme court.

The court's decree was issued in the suit of eight members of the board which sought to restrain the board from applying for a designation under the act, the secretary from making the designation and the internal revenue officers from collecting the tax specified by the act. With the designation of the Chicago board of trade the secretary announced that all the important grain exchanges had been classified.

FORCIBLY CARRIED A STRIKEBREAKER OUT OF STATE, IS CHARGE (By The Associated Press.) Nebraska City, Neb., Dec. 21.—County Attorney Heineke today filed charges against Albert Cunningham, alleged packing house strike sympathizer, accusing him of assaulting a strike breaker. Cunningham pleaded not guilty in court and his case was continued.

Four alleged strike rioters—Martin Mullaney, Daniel Smith, Frank Griffin and John Schmidt—were arrested today on complaint of the county attorney on the charge of forcibly carrying James Estes, negro strikebreaker, out of the state.

JOHNNY WILSON AND HARRY GREB SIGNED FOR 15-ROUND BOUT (By The Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 21.—Tex Rickard announced today that he had signed Johnny Wilson, middleweight champion, and Harry Greb of Pittsburgh, to box fifteen rounds to a decision at Madison Square Garden, January 6. Both agreed to weigh in at 160 pounds at 2 o'clock that day.

REPORTED SUFFERING IS "EXAGGERATED," GOV. MORGAN CLAIMS

(By The Associated Press.) Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 21.—Reports of suffering and destitution at Menden, a mining town in Fayette county have been "grossly exaggerated," Governor E. F. Morgan asserted today in a dispatch to a Baltimore newspaper that offered aid from Baltimore after being advised that "two thousand men, women and children at Menden were literally starving."

Governor Morgan said that "an investigation conducted personally by State Labor Commissioner George F. Daugherty, upon my suggestion, disclosed that while depression in the coal industry had greatly decreased earnings of miners, there were only scattered cases of need and that the authorities of Fayette county and Red Cross chapter of that county had provided relief."

INJURIES FATAL TO REFORM SCHOOL GUARD (By The Associated Press.) Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 21.—W. V. Layton, a guard at the state industrial school at Fort Grant, who was attacked yesterday by George Fralick, 17-year-old inmate of the school, died today in a hospital in Saford, Ariz., according to word received by Bert Wingar, secretary of the board of directors of state institutions. Layton was struck on the head twice with an axe by Fralick who then attempted to escape, but was hampered by G. H. Whisen, another guard.

Layton never recovered consciousness after he was struck by Fralick, who stole up on Layton from the rear as the guard was grinding an axe. Fralick is being held in the county jail at Saford where he was taken immediately after he was recaptured. The other boys who were in the group with Fralick under Layton's charge refused to attempt to escape with Fralick.

CITIZENS TURN OUT TO FIGHT A GRASS FIRE (By The Associated Press.) Santa Fe, Dec. 21.—A grass fire starting at Laguna Salado-Mora road and extending two miles to the Rio Gato devastated 18,000 acres of grazing land, chiefly on the pastures of the Elattman Bloom Cattle company, according to word received here today. Half the population of the town of Wagon Mound turned out to fight the fire and managed to restrict its spread.

THURSDAY December 22, 1921

ALBUQUERQUE AND THE NEW CENSUS.

The proposal of Secretary Herbert Hoover for a census in 1925 might mean much or little to Albuquerque. The secretary is actuated by a desire to issue a census which reflects a nation arrived at "normalcy." He does not wish to see the census of cities inflated by production booms, nor does he desire to have the ranks of farm labor appear unduly depleted.

Should that census be taken in 1925 and the present territorial limits of Albuquerque remain as they are, this city would not profit greatly by the added five years growth. The tendency here today is toward the expansion of the business areas.
Home-building is progressing fastest outside of city limits.

The tendency in that direction will be more marked in the future. Business may eventually line North Fourth street to the present city limits.
Dwellers will be driven farther out. The Highland regions, the area along the Alameda pavement, the district beyond Fourteenth street along Central avenue—these are future residential sections and are apt to be thickly settled within a few years.

As business crowds into area now given over to homes the number of residents within the present city limits will decline. If the census reports on Albuquerque are to reflect the city's growth it must include the new residential areas.

It is time now to begin looking out for 1925.
Congress has much faith in the wisdom of Herbert Hoover. It is apt to adopt his suggestion and order a census at the end of the five-year period. The present census figures of Albuquerque are ridiculously low, but if the proper expansion of city limits is made the percentage of growth in five years may be made to appear extremely high.

The Kiwanis club has started a movement toward an increase in city territory. Now is the time to put it across.

FOR EVERY MAN A CHANCE.

A great deal of what has been wrong with our civilization since the advent of machinery on a huge scale is the thwarting or the misapplication of individual capacity. Probably every man, no matter how unskilled he may seem, is born with the ability to do some one thing supremely well.
In an ideal state, managed by superhuman intelligence, each of us would be given that work which we can do better than others. And the result would be happiness. For by and large happiness is not so much in place and possessions, except as symbols,
as it is in the release and exercise of the faculties.

In America we have approached freedom of opportunity for each man, no matter how humble, to find and follow his bent. No caste barrier inter-poses between the worker and the thing he was put into the world to do. Lack of education may lack of will and persistence—the general absence of a stout heart—often does. Circumstances, which we are so fond of holding responsible for all of our personal heartaches and humiliations, are not to blame as often as we blame them. Still, the rise of an industrial system based largely on machine-
made products, and the consequent standardizing of both the man and the machine, undoubtedly does operate to keep some men in grooves for which they are not fitted.

But no man can be standardized if he resolutely refuses to be standardized. Agitator who proclaim otherwise and who invite the worker to consider how his individuality is stifled by the machine he operates are appealing to that very human weakness of ours to fasten on someone (or something) else the odium for our failures. They ignore the vast number of round boys who have more or less firmly declined to be squeezed into square holes.
If there is a standardizing tendency in industry, the remedy does not lie in scrapping the industrial system but in recognizing and changing the tendency.
One manufacturer is working toward something approaching release for the worker from routine in his ideas about every man in a factory having some other kind of a job part of the time. This man suggests farming. It might be painting or sculpture or the making of mousetraps.

HAYS' CHRISTMAS GREETING.

Can anyone recall a predecessor of Postmaster
General Hays issuing a Christmas greeting to his co-workers? "To every postal co-worker" (not subordinate, he it remarked), says Mr. Hays. "I send Christmas greetings, and I earnestly hope that their happiness may be as great as is my gratitude for their splendid discharge of duty."

This holiday message of congratulation and good cheer is eloquent of the new spirit of co-operation
that has infused the personnel of the postal service,
from the highest officials to the special delivery boys, since the fourth of last March. This decided improvement of "morale," this earnestness and enthusiasm with which the entire force is tackling its important task, means much to the general public,
which comes into more intimate and constant contact with the postoffice than with any other department of the government. It would be possible for the head of this "greatest business in the world"
to issue a perfunctory greeting to his associates
every year and yet be as far removed from them in personal knowledge and sympathy as was his immediate predecessor. But Mr. Hays' way is to act first and talk afterward.

Mr. Hays is now working on a pension scheme
and a more equitable arrangement for sick leave.
He is seeking to make the postal service more attractive to workers. This will result in a great gain for the public. Mr. Hays says he is determined to make the postoffice department "a partnership proposition, the public, the co-workers and the government" all joining hands for the common welfare. It is a noble vision that is fast being realized.

THE FRENCH ACCEPTANCE.

Secretary Hughes has scored again. France has accepted the 175,000-ton limit on capital ships which the American secretary of state suggested.
Italy had previously accepted the ratio conditioned
on a similar action by France.

Now the five great powers are agreed on a capital ship ratio. If the conference does no more it has been a gigantic success. But it now turns its attention to another major problem, the settlement of the submarine question.

Thus the armament parley is moving forward.
The power of the American secretary of state has been felt and the American system of diplomacy
has been vindicated before the world.

It is to be hoped that Mr. Hughes may feel the need of outlining to the conference the American ideas on poison gases and other implements of war.
If he does so his words will carry with them the authority of the American army and navy advisers.
His proposal, whatever it may be, is almost certain to be sensible and feasible.

Every American should feel gratified at the progress of the conference.

MILES OF FIRE.

Figuratively speaking this world is all cluttered
up with things laid out to end around the equator
and back and forth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Whenever anyone wants to impress us with the extensive multitudinousness of something he spreads it out before the human imagination in long strings parallel to the zodiac and winds it round and round like an equatorial skein.

Well, anyway, the total length of our electric and steam railways is 417,000 miles. If we were to lay alongside of this track the cigars consumed annually in the United States, we would have enough cigars left over to encircle the earth
five times. But vast as is this cigar mileage—545,146 miles—it is less than one-third the mileage of a single year's consumption of cigarettes in America.

That is quite a lot of fires to kindle in one country every year and we need not wonder that some of the matches and burning ends go wrong.
These mishaps cause an appalling waste of life and property through fires. Last year 15,219 people were burned to death and 17,641 were seriously injured by fire in this country. The annual property loss is estimated at $242,000,000. Such figures should make both smokers and all others who handle fire thoughtful.

And the first month of the new year has a Friday the thirteenth!

The world would get on its feet quickly if everybody else would get to work.

VERSE OF TODAY

A CHRISTMAS CARD.

Ah! dearest lady of my heart,
I fain would give thee strings of pearls,
And golden bracelets for thy wrists,
And silver ribbons for thy curls,
And rings to twinkle on thy hands,
And jeweled brooches for thy breast,
And regal furs to keep thee warm,
And perfumes of the costliest.

Sweet angel of my fondest dreams,
I wish I could present to thee
A Watteau fan o'er which thine eyes
Might beam in tenderness on me,
A Pekin pup, a peach-blow vase,
De luxe editions of a bard,
But being poor, alas! I can't!
I only send a Christmas card.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

CARRYING ON.

(From the Cincinnati Enquirer.)
President Harding is correct in his belief that industrial matters generally throughout the country
show satisfactory improvement.

The steady, essential readjustments following the reactions of war do not attract public attention.
Necessarily these readjustments usually are slow, often almost imperceptible. But in every historical period the laws of economic rehabilitation have effected an enviable result. At times this result appears to be phenomenal in force, the phoenix rises from the ashes swiftly, with outspread wings—as in case of France after the Franco-Prussian war.
But, usually, the process is slow.

Therefore, it is that we hear little of improvements here and there, but much of financial depression, much of exchange variations, much of unemployment, unrest, taxation, tariffs and the rest of it.

Surveying the entire field of industry the president finds satisfactory progress developing. This is healthful. We are building along the inevitable right lines. General exceptional prosperity will be the result, it is safe to say, now within a twelvemonth.

For instance, new construction throughout the country in the first ten months of the present year almost equals the whole of the construction of last year, according to a survey by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, this week made public.

Forty-four important cities report $603,000,000
in new construction during the ten-month period,
and this sum only partly represents the aggregate cost if figured to date, including the facts in semi-annual and quarterly reports.

That labor conditions are improving generally throughout the country also is evident from the reports made by great employing firms in the paper, lumber, iron, steel and auto factories. The department of labor estimates this increase as substantial and steady.

The lessons of co-operation and harmony are being learned. Faith and confidence are driving out pessimism and distrust. Great things are being forward in the interests of humanity. Especially in America are we carrying on in the spirit of unflinching faith in the principles of national and international righteousness.

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE CHRISTMAS MISTLETOE.

"Do you remember what you are to bring me today, Uncle Wiggly?"
called Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy as the bunnymist gentleman was hopping down the steps of his hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Am I to bring you molasses
for a Christmas cake?" asked Mr.
Longears.

"No, but it has to do with Christmas," Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy laughed and answered.

"Did you tell me to bring some stockings to hang up with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there?" asked Uncle Wiggly, his pink nose all a-twinkle.

"Not stockings, though I expect to hang mine up Christmas Eve," laughed the mistletoe lady. "I'll tell you. You were to bring home some Christmas mistletoe today,
and it will also do for New Year."

"Christmas mistletoe?" repeated
Uncle Wiggly, wondering like.

"Yes, it is a plant, or, rather,
a sort of vine, growing in the woods."

"Like holly?" asked the bunnymist
gentleman.

"Well, not exactly," answered
Uncle Wiggly.

"Well, it does seem so," Uncle
Wiggly answered, and he blinked
his eyes and twinkled his pink
nose to think of a way out.

"My father and mother, they
have caught you many times,"
went on the Fox boy, sort of bash-
ful like, "but you always get away
from them. You can't get away from me though. I have you
tight!" and he caught hold of Uncle Wiggly and held him. "I have you
tight!"

"Yes, it does seem so," said the bunnymist. "But still, I can get away," and he looked up at the green leaves and white mistletoe
berries on the tree branch over his head. "Do you know where you
are standing, my boy?" asked Uncle
Wiggly of the Fox.

"Why, yes, I am standing near
you, and soon I am going to nibble
you," was the answer. "Where else am I standing?"

"Beneath the mistletoe!" cried
the bunnymist, making his voice sound
as deep and silent as possible.

"Nonsense! Of course not!"

laughed the mistletoe lady. "Mistletoe is only a name. I don't know why they call it that. But it is a vine with green leaves—not
green, green or glossy as the holly,
but it has white berries instead
of red."

"What do you do with it?" asked
the bunnymist.

"Hang it around for Christmas,
just as you do the holly," was Nurse Jane's answer. "It is said
to bring good luck, and if any one
stands under the mistletoe he or
she may be kissed."

"Oh, ho!" chuckled the bunnymist.
"Is it like a valentine? I'll bring
you some mistletoe, Nurse Jane.
Never fear!"

So Nurse Jane never feared, and Uncle Wiggly went hopping over
the fields and through the woods
to look for an adventure. He did not find one at once, though he
did find some mistletoe growing
on an old, dead tree, and the bunnymist
picked a pawful of the twigs,
with their small, green leaves and
the cluster of little white berries,
looking as if made of wax.

"Um!" whispered Uncle Wiggly
to himself, as he hopped along
with the mistletoe, "the berries
look like the pills I had to take the last time was ill. I'm glad they aren't pills, though."

Uncle Wiggly was almost at his hollow stump bungalow, carrying
the mistletoe that Nurse Jane was
to use in decorating for Christmas.
Coming to a soft, mossy log, Uncle
Wiggly sat down to rest, and he
put the mistletoe on the broad
limb of a tree over his head, so it would not be stepped on, as it might be if he left it on the ground.

Uncle Wiggly, beneath the mistletoe, was almost asleep, when,
all at once, he was roughly shaken,
and awakened to see a big fox boy
standing near.

"Oh, ho!" snickered the Fox boy,
being a rough sort of chap. "This is the time I've caught you, Uncle
Wiggly!"

"Well, it does seem so," Uncle
Wiggly answered, and he blinked
his eyes and twinkled his pink
nose to think of a way out.

"My father and mother, they
have caught you many times,"
went on the Fox boy, sort of bash-
ful like, "but you always get away
from them. You can't get away
from me though. I have you
tight!" and he caught hold of Uncle Wiggly and held him. "I have you
tight!"

"Yes, it does seem so," said the bunnymist. "But still, I can get
away," and he looked up at the
green leaves and white mistletoe
berries on the tree branch over his
head. "Do you know where you
are standing, my boy?" asked Uncle
Wiggly of the Fox.

"Why, yes, I am standing near
you, and soon I am going to nibble
you," was the answer. "Where
else am I standing?"

"Beneath the mistletoe!" cried
the bunnymist, making his voice sound
as deep and silent as possible.

"Nonsense! Of course not!"

laughed the mistletoe lady. "Mistletoe is only a name. I don't know why they call it that. But it is a vine with green leaves—not
green, green or glossy as the holly,
but it has white berries instead
of red."

"What do you do with it?" asked
the bunnymist.

"Hang it around for Christmas,
just as you do the holly," was Nurse Jane's answer. "It is said
to bring good luck, and if any one
stands under the mistletoe he or
she may be kissed."

"Oh, ho!" chuckled the bunnymist.
"Is it like a valentine? I'll bring
you some mistletoe, Nurse Jane.
Never fear!"

So Nurse Jane never feared, and Uncle Wiggly went hopping over
the fields and through the woods
to look for an adventure. He did
not find one at once, though he
did find some mistletoe growing
on an old, dead tree, and the bunnymist
picked a pawful of the twigs,
with their small, green leaves and
the cluster of little white berries,
looking as if made of wax.

"Um!" whispered Uncle Wiggly
to himself, as he hopped along
with the mistletoe, "the berries
look like the pills I had to take
the last time was ill. I'm glad
they aren't pills, though."

Uncle Wiggly was almost at his
hollow stump bungalow, carrying
the mistletoe that Nurse Jane was
to use in decorating for Christmas.
Coming to a soft, mossy log, Uncle
Wiggly sat down to rest, and he
put the mistletoe on the broad
limb of a tree over his head, so it
would not be stepped on, as it
might be if he left it on the ground.

Uncle Wiggly, beneath the mistletoe, was almost asleep, when,
all at once, he was roughly shaken,
and awakened to see a big fox boy
standing near.

"Oh, ho!" snickered the Fox boy,
being a rough sort of chap. "This
is the time I've caught you, Uncle
Wiggly!"

"Well, it does seem so," Uncle
Wiggly answered, and he blinked
his eyes and twinkled his pink
nose to think of a way out.

"My father and mother, they
have caught you many times,"
went on the Fox boy, sort of bash-
ful like, "but you always get away
from them. You can't get away
from me though. I have you
tight!" and he caught hold of Uncle Wiggly and held him. "I have you
tight!"

"Yes, it does seem so," said the bunnymist. "But still, I can get
away," and he looked up at the
green leaves and white mistletoe
berries on the tree branch over his
head. "Do you know where you
are standing, my boy?" asked Uncle
Wiggly of the Fox.

"Why, yes, I am standing near
you, and soon I am going to nibble
you," was the answer. "Where
else am I standing?"

into the money market were noted in the proposed financing of the
New York Central Louisville &
Nashville and a number of the less prominent western and southwestern roads.

Private cables suggesting a deadlock in the European economic air-condition were reflected in the irregular tone of foreign exchanges.
Sterling eased only slightly but all other allied quotations were appreciably lower, the German rate,
however, holding steady.

The bond market was subjected to further realizing, Liberty and other war flotations adding to yesterday's decline. Reactions in junior railroad bonds were traceable to prospective financial demands. Foreign issues with few exceptions also eased. Total sales, par value, $18,275,000.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

Chicago, Dec. 21.—Unfavorable crop conditions in the southwest and prospects of immediate government purchasing for Russian relief gave grain a decided lift today. Wheat finished strong, 1 1/2c to 2 1/2c net higher, with May $1.15 1/2 to $1.16 1/2, and July $1.05 1/2 to $1.06 1/2. Corn gained 1/4c to 1/2c and oats 1/4c to 3/4c to 1/2c to 3/4c. Provisions closed unchanged to 7c up.

After a hesitant start wheat prices made a ready response to increased buying which appeared to be due chiefly at first to cold weather and to fears that lack of snow protection in southwest might bring about crop damage. Some buying was also ascribed to closing of spreads between Chicago and Winnipeg, and to sharp falling off in the volume of receipts both in the northwest and southwest.
The market received its chief upward impetus, however, in the last hour, when the attention of traders turned to reports that Russian relief
buying would be commenced Friday,
and would include wheat and other grain. On the ensuing advance, shorts hurried to cover and a big cash house bought December wheat at quite an extensive scale. Despite one lively setback
the market closed at the day's top.
Corn and oats acceded with wheat, corn being bullishly affected by Russian relief talk.

Provisions were firmer owing in the main to higher quotations on hogs.
