CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The chair had before the senate a memorial from the Women's Silk Culture association of the United States, asking the influence and aid of congress in the development of an industry so important to the women and children of the United States. The memorial is to beg the senate to accept with their memorial a truly American national flag, made of silk raised in American homes by American women and children. Three children reeled, spun, wove and mounted in Philadelphia the flag, which is a large and handsome one. It was borne to the desk and was the subject of much admiration.

Senator Beck offered a resolution accepting the gift and recognizing the progress it represents, which was agreed to.

The chair laid before the senate Senator Vest's resolution, heretofore offered, to authorize the secretary of the interior to ascertain upon what terms the Creek and Seminole Indians would surrender their interest in the Oklahoma land.

Senator Vest amended the resolution so as to include the Cherokee nation in the inquiry.

Senator Plumb offered a substitute for Vest's resolution. The substitute requests the president to enter as speedily as possible into negotiations with such Indian tribes as may be in possession of more lands than enough to give each head of a family 160 acres, with a view to using such surplus lands for actual settlers only. The substitute also requests the president to act in the matter as speedily as possible and report to congress such proposition as he may receive.

Senator Conger opposed all resolutions on the subject. It excited, he said, the cupidity of men whose cupidity did not need stimulus. It was but a ruse to invite the people to join the army of Oklahoma boomers until there should be enough of them to swallow up the little army of the United States, not to mention Indians. It was a scheme for robbing the Indians of what the American people had set apart for them. There was land enough for the white people. He denounced the whole system of robbing the Indians of their lands, whether to accommodate the Oklahoma boomers or pleuro-pneumonia cattle of Texas.

Senator Ingalls said he had crossed the whole continent in two centuries, expelling or assimilating other races. We had now practically reached the limit of the public domain. He doubted whether outside of the Indian Territory there were 25,000,000 acres subject to homestead and preemption entry, and those would be abolished within five years. The spirit which Senator Conger had attributed to the movement now under consideration, characterizing it as a "bold-faced robbery," etc., was in his opinion outside of a legitimate description of the movement. The American policy was a continental policy. Senator Ingalls did not know but that within the lifetime of persons living that policy would become a hemispherical policy. No matter what name or shape it may assume, nothing could stand before the irresistible march of the Anglo-Saxon race, and while Senator Ingalls believed these Oklahoma settlers were trespassers and invaders and were on the land in violation of law, yet many of them had been imposed upon by scheming leaders and believed themselves legally entitled to enter on the lands. Senator Ingalls would not have wrong done to the Indians and the proposed resolutions were not in the direction of being such a wrong. He gave his cordial support to the resolutions.

Senator Plumb supported his resolution and said it was in accordance with the necessity of things. It was intended not to do wrong but to do justice to the Indians.

Senator Vest replying to Conger, said epithets were not arguments nor could abuse be made logic. His (Vest's) resolution was intended for the good of the Indians and any statement to the contrary only came from gross ignorance regarding the whole matter. After further debate the resolutions of Vest and Plumb were referred to the committee on Indian affairs.

HOUSE.

When the house met a handsome silk American flag ornamented the wall behind the speaker's chair. After reading the journal the speaker laid before the house a communication from the Philadelphia Women's Silk Culture Association of the United States, tendering a flag to the house and bespeaking for it a place in the halls of the national government. Mr. Kelly offered a resolution which was adopted accepting the flag, declaring that the excellent fabric and perfection of its colors displays efforts which evince a rapid development in the culture and manufacture of silk by the American people.

Mr. Hurd, as a privileged question offered a preamble and resolution offering that certain bills appropriating money from the treasury, originating in the senate are now on the speaker's table. To wit: The Blair educational bill and many others and it is evident that these bills are in violation of the privileges of the house to exclusively originate bills for raising revenue and directing the judiciary committee to inquire into the power of the senate to originate bills appropriating revenue and report to the house at any time. Hurd said for many years he had viewed with apprehension the number of appropriations bills originating in the senate, and the time had arrived when the question should be decided, whether the senate possessed the power which it claimed to exercise.

Mr. Herbert inquired where in the constitution any distinction could be found between the power of the senate to originate a bill as an appropriation for a specific sum for a specific object and bills appropriating specific sums for several purposes, as in the case of the Blair bill.

Mr. Hurd denied the power of the senate to originate either character of bill. He believed the adoption of the doctrine contended for by the senate would be utterly destructive of the object sought by the founders of the government, which object was to give representatives power over the people's money. This power to be most potent must be against the encroachments of executive power. Liberty could only be preserved by preserving its muniments and of all those he knew none greater than that of the power of the people's money by the people's representatives (Appropriation).

The debate continued at great length, several members supporting the constitutional power of the senate in the matter.

Mr. J. S. Wise said this privileged question was a direct attack on what he conceived to be a most important measure before congress.

Mr. Willis regarded the resolution a most important one. The aim it had in view was the case in question, the constitutionality of the educational bill. The point would have been better made against some bill less worthy than this. From month to month he had been trying to get action on this bill which, under the infamous system of house rules was lying buried on the speaker's table.

Mr. Willis moved to lay the motion on the table. Agreed to. Yeas 127, nays 123. A motion made to reconsider was lost.

A recess until evening session for the consideration of pension bills, and adjourned till tomorrow.

Northern Pacific Kicks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—It is stated this morning that the Northern Pacific will refuse to sign the agreement made at the transcontinental meeting unless the 8 per cent. they were to pay the southern roads is rebated. The Northern Pacific claims that without the Oregon Railway and Navigation company steamers the southern routes would have no Portland connection. The exact amount of rebate claimed is not known but is believed to be one-third of the 8 per cent.

The Oregon Railway and Navigation company also refused at the last moment to sign the agreement reached at the transcontinental meeting. The agreement was that the northern lines were to receive eight per cent. of the San Francisco business for keeping out of California, and the southern lines were to receive eight per cent. of the Portland business for keeping out of Oregon. Under this division of the territory the O. R. & N. claims on account of its steamers between San Francisco and Portland that it is not only a part of a through line from the east via Portland to San Francisco, but part of a through line via San Francisco to Portland. Therefore demands that the southern lines shall allow them a percentage of eight per cent. paid by the northern roads. The southern roads refuse to grant this. The matter will be submitted to the executive committee. If not allowed the O. R. & N. will, it is said, give the required thirty days notice.

Eaten by Wolves.

KANKAKEE, Ill., Jan. 23.—A. H. Butts, secretary of the Chicago Lumber company, has just returned from a logging camp near Menominee, Michigan, a point in the pines forty miles north of Escanaba, and says that the night before he left camp the mercury had dropped to forty-three below zero. This was the climax of very severe weather. That night an old trapper and Indian hunter named Duging, returning from hunting was killed and eaten by wolves within two miles of the camp. Wolves there are more numerous and bold than usual on account of the scarcity of small game. His friends searching for him the next morning found his closely gnawed bones and thirteen dead wolves lying near him pierced by his rifle balls, and his Winchester rifle by his side with one chamber still loaded.

Denver Silver Convention.

DENVER, Jan. 23.—The national silver convention to be held here on the 28th inst. is attracting wide spread attention. Colorado, Kansas, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming and Nevada are to be represented by large delegations. Several prominent advocates for the unlimited coinage of silver from the eastern states will be present. The railroads between Denver and Missouri river points agreed to make a return rate of $6.50 to the Missouri river for all eastern delegates who pay full fare to Denver and who return within three days from the close of the convention.

Glass Factories Stopped.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 23.—The depression in the window glass business, it is claimed by manufacturers, will necessitate the reduction of the scale of wages for next year, and the probabilities are that a suspension will be ordered from April 1st, which, including two months' shut down in the summer, will close the factories until September 1st.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

NEWSPAPER POSTAGE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—William Penn Nixon of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, J. E. Mumford of the Kansas City Times, and D. R. Locke of the Toledo Blade, were before the house committee on postoffices and postroads today, in behalf of the reduction of newspaper postage. The committee appointed representatives Money and Bingham to recommend to the committee appropriate legislation to be embodied in the postal appropriation bill, providing for a reduction of postage on newspapers from two cents to one cent per pound. If the appropriation committee should find it practicable to comply with the recommendation the postoffice committee will endeavor to secure the passage of the bill embodying this provision, under suspension of the rules, on the third Monday in February.

MEXICAN EXTRADITION.

Secretary Frelinghuysen's attention was called to an extract from the inaugural address of Governor Ireland, of Texas, in which he alludes to the unsatisfactory condition of the Mexican extradition treaty, and states he has made repeated efforts, through the state department, to induce a discussion to properly amend the treaty of 1861, so as to permit any one, no matter where their allegiance may be, to be extradited, but no results followed. Secretary Frelinghuysen says that the treaty of 1861 does not permit the United States to surrender to Mexico one of their own citizens; that therefore, this government cannot compel from Mexico the extradition of a Mexican accused of crime committed in this country, and that the moment this difficulty was seen negotiations were opened with Mexico for an American treaty to cover this point. Secretary Frelinghuysen added that no time had been lost, and in addition to international negotiations the attention of congress was last year called to the difficulty, with the suggestion that an appropriate legislation might cure it without the necessity of a new treaty.

NOMINATIONS.

Henry S. Huedekoper, postmaster of Philadelphia; Stanford E. C. Hallie, Louisiana, member of the national board of health; Capt. R. Rockwell, assistant quartermaster to be major and quartermaster, Andrew S. Draper, New York, judge court of commissioners of Alabama claims; John F. Hartranft, collector of customs of the district of Philadelphia.

INDIAN LAND LESSEE.

E. B. Townsend, formerly Indian agent of the Sac and Fox agency and now lessee of lands from the Iowa Indians, testified before the senate committee on Indian affairs today. He denied that he had bribed the Indians chief of the Sac and Fox or used official position in the successful endeavor to secure the lease of their lands. He also denounced as untrue the statement that he had procured his lease from the Iowa tribe through bribery or the use of his official authority, though he admitted that he negotiated for the lease before he resigned his position and that Pickell, licensed Indian trader at the agency, was his partner in leasing the lands. Witness subsequently became Pickell's partner in the trading business at the agency.

ARGUMENT ENDED.

The argument in the Swain case ended today and the court adjourned until tomorrow, when they will consider the case of Lopez. The findings of the court, when reached, will be transmitted through the war department to the president. It is understood he will submit them to the attorney general for revision. Until they are reviewed and approved of by the president they will not be made public.

EDMUNDS ON NICARAGUA.

In executive session of the senate today Senator Edmunds in his speech spoke in favor of the ratification of the Nicaragua treaty, and argued that the Clayton-Butler treaty is not an obstacle to a favorable consideration. He will continue his speech tomorrow.

Mexican Mutineers Captured.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—A Yuma, Arizona, dispatch says Governor Villagrana of Lower California, has arrived there. He left Escanaba, Mexico, with a volunteer force of twenty men. They encountered the party of Mexican mutineers and killed one and captured nine. These are being held in Mexican territory. One of the governor's party was killed. Lopez was in the encounter but escaped. The object of Villagrana's visit is to secure the return of the prisoners captured by American troops. Doubts exist as to whether his request will be complied with. Lieutenant McDonald is in close pursuit of the remainder of the gang and it is almost certain that all will be captured or killed.

A Modern Borgia.

WHITE WATER, Wis., Jan. 23.—The examination of Miss Nellie Horan, who by a cooener's jury was held on the charge of having poisoned her sister Annie two months ago, was concluded today and resulted in the young lady being remanded to jail to await trial. The examination has been in progress four days and during the last the evidence produced against defendant was very damaging. She is now generally believed to have poisoned her father and mother and two sisters, all of whom died under suspicious circumstances within the past few years.

Will Prosecute Rossa.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The World this morning publishes an interview with Captain Phelan, in which he states he intends to prosecute all those concerned in the murderous attack on him. He will protect the secrets of those honestly inclined, but will pursue O'Donovan Rossa and his gang until they are punished for the conspiracy to murder him. Phelan states that he has a document in Kansas City that will greatly aid him, and show he was no traitor.

Liberty's Bell.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—The liberty bell was taken from Independence hall this morning. A procession of 500 policemen started with it for the West Philadelphia depot. The truck on which the old bell was hauled through the streets was appropriately decorated with flowers and flags and drawn by six horses with two bands of music in the procession. Many houses along the route were decorated. At the depot the bell was transferred to a special car constructed by the Pennsylvania road to bear it and its guard of three officers to the New Orleans exposition.

GALVESTON, Tex. Jan. 24.—A special to the News from Colorado City reports a heavy snow storm in progress. The weather for the past few weeks has been very severe on cattle and sheep; if the storm continues the loss of live stock will be very great. Reported losses are mainly coming in by specials from Gainesville and other northern Texas points. A heavy rain today and freezing tonight. Cattle dying rapidly.

The Week's Record of Failures.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The failures for the last seven days in the United States were 371; Canada 40. Total 411, as compared with the total of 340 for last week and 470 the week previous. R. W. WEBB, Editor and Manager

SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1885.

THE GAZETTE has, up to Jan. 1885, paid out for telegraphic reports the sum of $12,261.55. Are you as appreciative as you should be of this expensive enterprise, fellow residents?

In 1881 the total assessment in the Territory was $14,000,000, and in 1884 it was in excess of $30,000,000 but should have been $50,000,000 at least. This year it will not fall much short of one hundred millions.

Your squibs about hired men on the GAZETTE are too thin, Russ. We can see through your designs as though you had the object magnified and placed in a glass case. Booze up and get out a decent paper once more.

The Santa Fe Review has a good word to say for all the late senators-elect. Marked copies of the paper have gone to each, with the initials L. A. S. appended, the great desire of the editor being to serve out his term as governor and avoid dismissal.

WHEN Democrats, or any one else for that matter, approach the Optic for recognition in its columns they should present the request with one hand and money with the other, even though the measure were of public importance. Such are its instructions from its creditors.

THE Optic says it has been requested by several prominent Democrats to say a good word for Ross for governor. It would if there was any money in it, but without a sufficient stipend to raise the Romero mortgage dare not, as Don Eugenio and Ross are not friendly nor of the same political faith. The Optic is not profound but very cunning.

WE are in receipt of several bills recently introduced by Mr. Manzanares for the relief of various of our citizens for loss sustained by Indian raids. In the first place the damages are just, which is against their passage; in the second place they are too small, there is not enough to divide, which will certainly kill the bills, and in the third place, we advise the claimants to look up the worst enemies they have and present them with the claims under promise that they will work for their passage. You can then die happy, if of a revengeful spirit, under the positive knowledge that you have done your enemy the greatest possible injury in your power.

ELKINS, it appears, has been trying to dispose of some of his ill-gotten possessions in New Mexico. In February, 1884, he entered into a contract with Gen. B. F. Butler to deliver him 100,000 acres of land in Mora county, New Mexico, at 75 cents per acre. Elkns failed to perform his part of the contract and on the 19th Butler began suit in New York to compel Elkns to live up to his agreement. The trial will probably develop some rich information. It is one thing to steal a grant of land in New Mexico and another to deliver it, and the Mora is no exception to the rule. The days of trouble for the land grant fiends are but commencing.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the Washington Critic took in the Interior and Post Office departments the other day in order to feel the official pulse of clerks and heads of divisions. All entertained a feeling of security in their positions, placing the utmost reliance in the power of civil service reform. A chief of division in the Treasury department asserts that he has had correspondence with an influential member of the reform movement in New York, and that through him Mr. Cleveland is represented as saying that he would not suffer the removal of any person who had been under the protection of civil service and for meritorious conduct promoted beyond its bounds—a salary greater than $1,800 per annum. Concerning the territories, a prominent Democrat from one of these to-be states related that Mr. Cleveland had said recently that he did not intend that good men should be turned out of office before their terms expire, just to satisfy the demands of politicians. The instance in question was that of a marshal of the territory (evidently not New Mexico). He is in his second year in office, is popular, and the Democrats with the Republicans want him kept in the place until the term is out. Mr. Cleveland said he could stay. He added, also, that the provisions of the national platform—that officers in the territories should be filled by residents thereof—would be strictly observed by him. This latter declaration is very gratifying and we believe will be faithfully adhered to by the incoming administration. The keeping good officers in position will not disturb the aspirations of Democrats in New Mexico, for, with two or three exceptions, this Territory has none such.

THE papers of Albuquerque have much to say, pro and con, concerning the incorporating of that town, but neither give the actual reason why more positive steps are not taken looking to citydom. The late law providing for municipality states that "the territory proposed to be embraced in said city or incorporated town shall not exceed one and one-half miles either in length or breadth, at the time of incorporation." In the case of Albuquerque the old town does not favor incorporation while the new town does. The towns are more than two miles apart, hence, under the law, both cannot be incorporated under the same charter originally, or by annexation afterward unless the people so declare by vote. For the new town to put on city airs would be to drive all that class of business generally most severely taxed beyond corporation limits or to the old town. Thus, while the new town generally favors incorporation, still it sees the suicidal policy of urging it with the old town hostile to annexation in the future. This is the true condition of affairs.

GROWING out of the late action had at Santa Fe by prominent Democrats concerning federal appointees in the Territory, we see by the Review that Chairman Gildersleeve, of the Territorial Democratic Central committee, has addressed communications to the chairmen of similar bodies in all the territories of the Union requesting suggestions as to whether there should be held a regular delegate convention to demand that all the territorial appointments be made from residents of the territories, or whether all should unite in sending a strong delegation to Washington the latter part of next month, and there endeavor to affect the desired result by laying the case before the National Democratic committee. The latter course is preferable, if any interference with the prerogatives of a delegate is insisted upon. We adhere to our original opinion, however, that the matter should rest with the delegate entirely, and believe that his uninfluenced action will come nearer giving general satisfaction than all other schemes combined. If Mr. Joseph insists upon such assistance or influence, well and good.

WE thought it very strange that Delegate Manzanares would deliberately work for a measure calculated to benefit Santa Fe at the expense of Las Vegas, and stated that there must be some excuse for his action in the Indian Industrial school matter. It now transpires that the Indian bureau, last fall, sent an agent to New Mexico to look up a suitable site for such an institution and in his wisdom he selected Santa Fe, the citizens thereof donating the necessary ground for the purpose of the school. Upon his report the building was recommended to congress and an appropriation asked therefor. As the matter was about to fall through, Mr. Manzanares went to work, as a faithful representative of the people, and succeeded in having the appropriation made. We feel confident that had the matter been left solely with our representative in congress, Las Vegas would have had the Indian Industrial school by a large majority. The agent was captured by Santa Fe (as nearly all government agents are) upon his arrival in the Territory, the scheme was worked up quietly and Las Vegas got left. So it is that Mr. Manzanares is not at all to blame in the Indian school matter, and as a citizen of Las Vegas and a friend of New Mexico's delegate we are glad of it.

President Arthur writes a big up and down hand, which sprawls and jumps from one word to the next without leaving the paper, yet very legible.

Leprosy is increasing so rapidly in Honolulu that the government is about to take action to prevent its spread. Experiments in inoculation will be made.

Professional Exhibitors of the Elephant.
Standing near the desk of the Fifth Avenue hotel a day or two since, writes a New York correspondent to the Philadelphia Press, I saw a neatly-dressed, gentlemanly man step up to the clerk and say: "I want to see the town and am a stranger stopping here with you." The clerk, without reply turned and whistled for a bell-boy. "Call M—," said the clerk. In a moment a large, good-looking man, as well dressed as any man on the street, appeared. The clerk introduced him to the person who wanted to see the sights of a great city. "Whatever this man does is all right," said the clerk to him. "He is our man, and he knows the ropes." The two stepped aside, talked in a subdued tone a moment, and then parted to meet later. The next morning I saw the two men in the bar-room drinking seltzer water. They both looked as though they had made a night of it. All the great hotels keep good-looking, well-informed men to show a stranger around. It is a costly business to the visitor, but anyone coming to New York is willing to be robbed, especially if he is bent on seeing the elephant.

Editor McClure Serviced with a Wit.
Colonel A. K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times, is on a Southern tour. At New Orleans, where he arrived Saturday night, he was officially received. Before the train reached the depot a United States Deputy Marshal entered the car and served a writ upon the Colonel. It was issued at the suit of M. A. Dauphin, who wants $100,000, with interest and costs, for injury which he has received at the hands of Colonel McClure by publications in the Times against the Louisiana lottery. A similar case against the Times Publishing Company, entered in Philadelphia, was dismissed on the ground that there could be no actionable injury to a lawless business.

It is stated that Sarah Bernhardt intends to procure a divorce from Damala and marry an Englishman, who, she says is a very prominent man. Sarah is very reticent about the matter, and would only say to a reporter: "The matter is very delicate. I had resolved to say nothing about it. As you insist, however, I can tell you that I have had an offer of marriage from an Englishman under circumstances so strange and romantic as to be almost incredible. No, I really cannot tell you his name. I have not made up my mind what answer I shall give him. As soon as I have I will let you know."

The value of chewing gum as a factor in education has been settled at last. A Macon, Ga., schoolmarm had six bright scholars come to school provided with gum and six without. Then she threw twenty-nine problems at them with astonishing results. The chewers of gum correctly answer twenty-one, while the gumless six had mastered only eight. This is another vital educational problem solved.

THE NECESSITY

FOR THE SPECIALISTS.

Dr. Wagner & Co.

DR. H. WAGNER is fully aware that there are many physicians, and some sensible people, who will condemn him for making this class of diseases a specialty, but he is happy to know that with most persons of refinement and intelligence a more enlightened view is being taken of the subject, and that the physician who devotes himself to relieving the afflicted and saving them from worse than death, is no less a philanthropist and a benefactor to his race than the surgeon or physician who by close application excels in any other branch of his profession. And, fortunate for humanity, the day is dawning when the false philanthropy that condemned the victims of folly or crime, like the lepers under the Jewish law, to die uncared for, has passed away.

Young Men
Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions will do well to avail themselves of this, the greatest boon ever laid at the altar of suffering humanity. Dr. Wagner will guarantee to forfeit $500 for every case of seminal weakness or private disease of any kind and character which he undertakes to and fails to cure.

Middle Aged Men.
There are many at the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient can not account for. On examining the urinary deposits aropy sediment will often be found and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin, milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men afflicted with this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. W. will guarantee a perfect cure in all cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
Consultation free. Thorough examination without charge.
All communications should be addressed

THE CITY.

Smoke the Lady Clay. Lord Locke is now a retired capitalist. The El Paso fire ladders have a reading room. It was inclined to be a little breezy last evening. One week from tomorrow will be the first day of February. The moon is engaged to the sun. Anyway it wears a big ring. The specimen flead is seen no more in our midst. Let us pray. A dog fight caused some excitement on Sixth street yesterday. J. W. Lynch is doing a land office business in disposing of cattle. Cash paid for county scrip by Calvin Fisk, opposite the GAZETTE office. The streets are getting in very fine condition—'bout time for another storm. Four large freight teams pulled out for the south yesterday, loaded with grain. The electric light will illuminate the new Montezuma and the surrounding grounds. A number of teams were unloading at John W. Hill & Co.'s commission house yesterday. Gross, Blackwell & Co. are having their new wagons put together. They are daisies. Our prophet says he smells another storm coming, to arrive here on Sunday night or Monday. If you think the Optic is not a religious paper just read the first page of last evening's issue. The young ladies are becoming impatient for the promised ball of the Plaza. Boys, you are lagging. Yes, Bridge street will be Macadamized and the east side sewer will be put in when the pigs begin to fly. Socorro county in the fall elections poled 263 more American votes than Mexican, so says the Chieftain. The identity of the mother to the child found in the manger is still a mystery. Will she be discovered? Watch the trams. Wm. Young is improving each day under the maternal care of his nurse, Mrs. Scully. He is now able to walk a little. Go to sheltions new barber shop in the Plaza hotel for an easy, thorough shave, an elegant hair-cut or a delightful shampoo. The Independent Temple will give a benefit entertainment as soon as the characters of the play have been thoroughly drilled. The tramp element is the only municipal government known to Albuquerque. Accept the Journal's advice and incorporate. Quite a number of our young people took last evening's passenger for the Springs to take a skate. They undoubtedly had a gay old time. Tomorrow will be the Sabbath and all good christians will observe the day and offer up their praises to Him on high for the blessings of the week-just past. Messrs. Griffin and Simmons were fined $10 each yesterday on the charge brought by the Mexican women. They are not likely to go baby hunting again. The officers of Albuquerque think they have a clue to parties carrying on business without a license. Another boom for the sandhill of the Rio Grande. Grand preparations are being made for the brilliant opening of the new Montezuma. It will be the most elite affair known to the history of New Mexico. If you think the people of Las Vegas don't live high just watch the delivery wagon of Belden & Wilson as it makes its daily rounds loaded with the best of everything. Mrs. W. K. Holmes, that Plaza milliner, desires to inform the ladies of Las Vegas and vicinity that she has reduced the price of felt hats to less than New York cost. Call. Our officers should look after the young boys who frequent the saloons. There is a territorial law prohibiting minors from frequenting such places and it should be enforced. The place formerly occupied by R. C. Heise, and soon to be the Elk saloon, is being fixed up in metropolitan style and will present a most attractive appearance when completed. By using chandeliers in the halls and sitting rooms in private residences much uneasiness and risk of explosion would be avoided. A. J. Mendenhall has some elegant ones he will sell at cost. Gives, the Singer sewing machine man, desires the services of a gentleman of pleasing address as city canvasser for these celebrated machines. Liberal terms will be made with the right kind of a man. Capt. Ed. Friend, so the Democrat is informed, will assume the duties of local on the morning paper tomorrow. Crozier has made an exceptionally good local page, and the new man will have to rustle himself.—Democrat. The Albuquerque Democrat is at war with the young aspirant for governor, Cromwell. The latter, as a county commissioner, seems to be using his influence to further the interests of the street railroad company in which he is a stockholder. An offer was recently made for a controlling interest in the Cooney mine in the Mogollons at $5 per share, through one of Silver City's citizens, but the offer was promptly rejected by the stockholders, who asked $10 per share. At this valuation of the stock the mine is valued at $1,000,000. This is now one of the best paying mines in New Mexico.

Hon. T. F. Conway, of Silver City, has filed articles of incorporation, for a new mining enterprise, with Secretary Leach. The name of the incorporation is the Great American Mining company, whose object is to prospect, locate, purchase, acquire, hold, own, lease, let, bargain, sell, operate, control, work or develop mines or mining claims of all kinds and descriptions; to smelt, reduce, crush, concentrate, refine, sluice or wash ores; to acquire, sell and operate mills, smelters and reduction works, and to transact any and all such business. The incorporators are John W. Fleming, Silver City; Adam Clark, Cochise, A. T.; J. F. Seldomridge and E. A. Colburn, Colorado Springs; Col. and E. M. De La Vergne, Grant county. The capital stock is named as $1,500,000, divided into 150,000 shares of the par value of $10 each. The company proposes to operate in New Mexico and Arizona, the principal office being located at Silver City. The stock of said company shall be fully paid up and non-assessable.

PERSONAL FENCILLINGS. Dick Ironing, a ranchman, is in the city. Max Frost is again in his nest at Santa Fe. Mark Howell, formerly city engineer, is down on the Pecos. W. E. Lawrence came in from Mora yesterday in time to take the express for Trinidad. R. G. McDonald took a commercial trip north yesterday in the interest of R. C. Heise. W. A. Vincent is again at Springer. Can it be business or some sweet face which attracts him there? P. W. Carral and family came up from the ranch yesterday to spend the rest of the winter probably. J. M. Barr, the manager at the Hot Springs, returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Kansas City. He may again be found at the resort as agreeable as ever. A. Whitney departed for his ranch near the Gallinas Springs yesterday after spending a few days in looking over the city and noticing the new improvements since his last visit. Major M. M. Richardson, the ice man, left yesterday for a run over the country in search of a cattle range. He is going to have business both in the winter and summer. Mrs. E. W. Rollings and Mrs. Hatton, after spending three weeks at the favorite resort, started in return to their homes at Denver by yesterday afternoon's express. They promise another visit in the near future. Romulo Martinez, the popular and efficient sheriff of Santa Fe county, came down by yesterday afternoon's express. He has many friends here and was glad to grasp him by the hand and give him a hearty welcome. H. L. Cross and wife, accompanied by Miss Stella McGrotty, of Cleveland, O., took leave from the Springs yesterday and started on a pleasure and sight seeing trip south, going as far as El Paso. They have been sojourning at the Springs for the past six weeks, and like all others, put in a good word for the efficient management of that resort. Miss Maggie Whitehill, one of the most charming and accomplished young ladies of Silver City, passed through in company with an uncle and aunt yesterday for Chicago, where she is to attend school for the next two years. Prior to her departure her many friends and admirers tendered her a farewell party, which was reported a grand social and elite affair. About twenty of her companions accompanied her some distance from that city and gave her a last good-bye for two long years. Miss Maggie is still in her teens, and will no doubt return to her western home a young lady full of brilliant ideas and highly accomplished in all the arts of eastern society.

The Lady Clay has no equal. Try them. In order to reduce my stock before going East I have reduced prices of all classes of goods to the lowest possible point. P. L. STRAUSS, Plaza. City Headquarters For New Mexico during the New Orleans World's Exposition, 208 Magazine street, general office and exhibition ground, Government building, St. Charles avenue main entrance. P. LANGHAMER, U. S. Commissioner for New Mexico. The most elegant tenorial apartments in the city will be thrown open to the public on Monday next by Mr. William C. Marmaduke. He has fitted up a place in Tamme's building, Center street, and has a corps of skilled workmen to attend to the needs of the unshaven and unshorn. 1-19-11 The Mountain Bath House, on Zion Hill, is reopened, nicely carpeted, and neatly furnished, where excellent hot or cold baths can be had for 25 cents. Private entrance for ladies. Also handle Fine Wines, Liquors, Beer and Cigars. k-25-26. Great Reduction in Prices. Shaving 15 cents, hair cutting 35 cents, sea foam 10 cents, shampooing 10 cents, boots blacked 10 cents. First-class hot, cold and shower baths 25 cents. Milton Chambers, a citizen of Erie, Pa., passed through on Thursday with a carload of pure and half blood Durham two-year-olds for Wilcox, A. T. He is interested in the Erie cattle company which has a range not far distant of Wilcox on which feed six thousand head of stock, mostly blooded. The stock was turned out in the yards here to feed and rest and in company with Mr. Chambers, we viewed the valued stock. He intends locating permanently on the range. We trust the gymnasium scheme will be a success, but for our limited knowledge of such institutions a building 25x50 feet is purely inadequate. Besides, a fee of fifty cents per head will prove insufficient to make the scheme one of financial benefit—in fact not sufficient to pay interest on the capital invested. If we are to have such a resort let it be first class, roomy and attractive. Such, and none other can demand the support of Las Vegas.

Revs. Fraser, Thornton, Brooks and Gorman will not hold the usual services in their respective places of worship Sunday evening on account of the sacred concert to be given by the Young People's Christian union to be given at the Presbyterian church. The concert will be well worth hearing and your contribution which will be collected at the close of the exercises will be highly appreciated. J. W. Lynch, the cattle speculator, sold yesterday to Messrs. Beaumont & Sparrow, one thousand head of two-year-old heifers and five hundred head of yearling steers, receiving a very fair figure per head for the stock. The sale has been pending for some days but was only consummated yesterday. Mr. Lynch has been doing a big business in this line during the season and in every case has given satisfaction. We don't want those bridges fixed, we are only bluffing. When local news is scarce it is quiet convenient to have a board of county commissioners to pick upon, besides the number of horses and citizens who are very apt to be injured in traveling our thoroughfares will give good spicy reading matter. No, by all means don't fix those bridges. A strike was threatened among the miners of the old Domino copper company of Globe, A. T., last week, but was happily averted by a compromise.—Southwest Sentinel.

RAILROAD RUSTLINGS.

Odell goes north on 102 this a. m. Fuller follows Odell on 104 this p. m. Dad Tabor will signal 103 this morning even though it be daylight, with his new lantern. Last evening's express 101 was way off time. A Kansas blizzard knocked her out of time. S. M. Rowe, resident engineer, and corps of assistants returned from the south on yesterday's 102. Hixon goes south tonight on 101. Although the father of grown children he is younger than any of the boys. C. R. Williams, formerly the company's agent at Albuquerque, passed through on 102 yesterday morning destined for Topeka. Edward C. Rose has been discharged from further service on the road for quitting work without giving due notice. He will brake no more on freight. The new time card which goes into effect on Wednesday will arrive from headquarters tomorrow. Not until then can we give the running time of trains after the 28th inst. Three coaches are held at Watrous to convey the three companies of government soldiers from Fort Union to Oklahoma as soon as orders from the seat of government shall have been received. The two tramps who were injured in the Glorieta wreck are now in Santa Fe being cared for at the expense of the territory. The company treated them royally during their stay at the hospital. Mrs. G. S. Perkins, wife of the chief train dispatcher, will return this evening from her visit to the east. That's what caused the broad smile on George's face yesterday. The general freight agent of the A. T. & S. F. railroad, Mr. Leeds, was courteously notified the Board of Trade that he will arrive in Santa Fe some time within the present week to meet the citizens and discuss questions of interest to Santa Fe and the territory.—Review.

Severe storms are reported in Kansas, much worse than has been experienced for years. Grasshoppers in the summer and heavy storms in the winter. Yes, that's a good country to come from to the sunny south. We take New Mexico with a little bitters in ours. A Westinghouse engine and the electric light machinery went out to the Springs yesterday. The workmen have been waiting on this machinery for some time, which was unavoidably delayed by the heavy storms in Kansas. Butter and eggs are a little slow in getting through this winter. James Underwood has been discharged from further service as a freight brakeman for quitting work without giving due notice. The company recommends him as "so good" and "a regular dead beat." His day of unloading switches on the Santa Fe is of the past. The company don't stand any unnecessary foolishness. Conductors are required to watch freight cars and see if the seals are all in charge. In case they are not the conductor is authorized to open the car, invoice the stock and make a general report to the division superintendent. Good idea; then the conductor on whose run the seals have been tampered with can be detected and a report from him will probably prove the cause.

The Review gives an account of how L. Bradford Prince was received in New York. L. B. P. would make a wise move to remain where he is appreciated. Gray Koogler, superintendent of public schools, is now taking a trip around the county and doing all in his power to further the interests of that great civilization—education. A number of Contractor Wallace's grading teams and implements went out to the Springs last evening. The grounds will probably be in order in time for the grand opening of the hotel. A. D. Clark is ambitious to act as a deputy under sheriff Romero. He is pursuing a wise course in working for the place. If a man wants an office he should want it bad enough to work for it. A great many of his friends signed the petition yesterday. Three companies of soldiers from Fort Union will shortly leave for Oklahoma to take a hand in the engagement which is likely to take place between invading settlers and the government troops. Send a Victoria down there and Col. Hatch would be cared for. The First National bank shows off to great advantage since its enlargement. The large front doors formerly leading to the drug store have been taken out and large plate glass windows are found instead. That's one thing Las Vegas can crow on, and that is her substantial banking facilities. The output from Bremen's mines, situated near Silver City, in 1884 was $125,000. This would have been very much larger but for the fact that the mines were worked with a limited force for the greater part of the year, and work at one time for several weeks was suspended altogether. This was the period when M. W. Bremen, the proprietor, was having trouble with ore thieves. The tight-rope walker—not the walker tight but the rope—will give one of his pleasing, entertaining and purely scientific exhibitions on Bridge street this afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp. The great cigar box act will be presented and the lookers on will be expected to contribute the widow's mite for the good of the cause. Admission free, standing room only. Dissolution Notice. The firm of Locke & Co. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. E. F. Meziak having purchased the entire interest of F. D. Locke in the above named firm, will conduct the business and will assume all liabilities and collect all outstanding indebtedness of the above firm. F. D. LOCKE, E. F. MEZIAK, LAS VEGAS, N. M., Jan. 23, 1885. Notice. All persons are hereby notified that I, having this 18th day of January, A. D. 1885, by purchase, become the owner of the building, stock, fixtures and good will of the business at Las Vegas Hot Springs, New Mexico, known as and called the Park grocery, all persons are hereby notified that no one has any authority to make or contract any deal on account of said business except upon a written order signed by the undersigned.
