ROOSEVELT BITTERLY ATTACKED BY JUDGE PARKER IN ADDRESS AT MARSHALL'S NOTIFICATION

PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE IS DESCRIBED AS BEING "BOGUS CHAMPION" OF THE PEOPLE

Opponent of 1904 Asserts Trusts Grew With Great Rapidity Under the Colonel

"BECAUSE THEY KNEW HOW HE STOOD"

Orator of the Day States That Wilson and Marshall Are the Two Men Who Command the Admiration of the People and Will Be Able to Put Into Operation, If They Are Elected, Many Needed Changes That Are Expected to Be for the Welfare of the Country

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 20.—Former Judge Alton B. Parker of New York delivered the address here today notifying Governor Thomas R. Marshall of his nomination for vice president by the democratic national convention. The judge said in part: "The faithful sons of democracy, proud of the history of their party covering a half century of federal administration—welcomed at Baltimore the opportunity to substitute practice for promise, and performance for promise. Indeed they seized it by the nomination of Wilson and Marshall; seized it with so firm a grip that it cannot be loosened either by the host of republicanism or by the deluded people who have not discovered either that their leader's battles are waged for himself, not for the Lord or that his contrary pretense is with the hope that he will thus secure the aid of the Lord's hosts for a third term, contrary to the unwritten law of the country and in disregard of his pledge to the people to obey that law.

"The method by which the democratic convention seized the opportunity is so simple and straightforward that it at once captures confidence and arouses enthusiasm.

"It was accomplished by simply nominating for president and vice president men whose records as governors respectively of New Jersey and Indiana show that they know how to create and apply needed governmental remedies and whose lives give abundant surety that the pledges of their party and their own promises to the people will be faithfully kept."

Mr. Parker took his text from Governor Wilson's notification approach wherein is considered the partnership between the government, and privilege. His method of treatment was to declare:

1. That the fact of the partnership and the resulting public injury.
2. That the republican party was solely responsible for the inauguration of the partnership relations, instancing the tariff and combinations to restrain trade and prevent competition as the illustrations.
3. That neither the republican nor the progressive party could be trusted to break up the partnership.
4. That the democratic party could be relied upon to accomplish that result.

Judge Parker's contention that relief could come only from the election of Marshall and Wilson, and a democratic congress followed an offering of reasons, which he said, negatived all possibility of relief from either the republican or the progressive.

Of the latter, he said, in part: "Its creator and nominee for president occupied that office for about seven and a half years but during that time he could not be persuaded

MISSOURI'S PRISON IS BARBAROUS PLACE

KANSAS AUTHORITY ROASTS PENITENTIARY OF SISTER STATE

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 20.—Dr. Frank H. Loveland, of Topeka, Kan., a prison expert, after an inspection of Missouri's penitentiary at Jefferson City, pronounced that institution the most barbaric in the country with the possible exception of those of Nebraska and Georgia.

"The Missouri penitentiary is a disgrace to your state," he said. "It is a criminal breeder and a relic of the dark ages. Yesterday morning while going through the prison I saw not less than 20 men hung up by their wrists, the blood streaming down their arms and their toes barely touching the floor."

Warden Denies Statement
Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Warden Henry Andrea today denied that prisoners were sharply treated in the Missouri penitentiary.

"The charges of Dr. Loveland that he saw 20 men hung up by the wrists are absolutely false," said the warden. "I do not believe that many men have been punished in the last year. We sometimes put handcuffs on a prisoner's wrists and put his arms above his head, but always his feet are flat on the floor. The punishment is not at all severe."

TRINIDAD VOTING ON COMMISSION RULE

SOUTHERN COLORADO CITY ENGAGED IN BITTER CITY ELECTION

Trinidad, Colo., Aug. 20.—Whether or not Trinidad shall have a special charter providing for a commission form of government is being decided at the polls here today. The present administration forces are solidly against the movement. Charges of fraud by means of "padding" registration are being made by the commission government league against the republican leaders who are conducting the opposition, but no arrests have been made. Indications point to the defeat of the proposition.

ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP FARMER'S DAUGHTER BY A LOVE-CRAZED NEIGHBORHOOD ADMIRER RESULTS IN SLAYING OF HER PROTECTORS

Belleplaine, Kan., Aug. 20.—In a fight that followed a desperate attempt by Sam Wood, 35 years old, a farmer, to kidnap Ethel Manahan, the 22-year-old daughter of Matt Manahan, at the latter's farm near here early today, James Thompson, 16 years old, was killed; Manahan was fatally wounded, and Gaylord Manahan, 16 years old, a son of Matt, was hurt but not seriously. Wood spared young Manahan's life when the latter agreed to drive him to safety. A posse is pursuing Wood.

Wood lived on a neighboring farm. During the night he drove up to the Manahan place in a buggy and routed out young Thompson, a farm hand. He demanded that Thompson produce Miss Manahan. The young woman had been aroused by loud talking in the yard and overheard the conversation of the two men fled to a closet and locked the door.

Thompson declined flatly either to produce the girl or to tell where she might be found. After further parley-

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO RETAIN ROOMS

STOCKHOLDERS DEVISE PLAN FOR REJUVENATING ORGANIZATION.

WILL REDUCE THE DUES MEMBERSHIP TO BE PLACED WITHIN REACH OF ALL BUSINESS MEN.

BOOSTERS TO PAY MORE

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT IS ENTHUSIASTIC AND WELL ATTENDED.

A plan whereby it is believed the quarters of the Las Vegas Commercial club may be maintained and the organization placed on a truly commercial basis was adopted last night at the meeting of the stockholders, and will be put into immediate effect. According to the plan, a new rating of membership fees will be devised under which every man in the city can well afford to become a member of the organization and whereby the income will be raised to such an extent that there will be a fund for boosting purposes over and above the other expenses of the club.

The plan is to divide the membership into two classes. In the first class will be placed the banks, wholesale houses, retail establishments and men who derive direct benefit from the accomplishments of the organization. In the second class will be placed the regular club members. The membership fees of the first class will range from $2.50 to $25 a month and it is probable that the regular membership fee will be reduced to $1.50.

On motion of D. T. Hoskins, cashier of the San Miguel National bank, a committee of five was appointed definitely to outline this plan of re-organization; make a rating of the business houses in the city, or classify them; place the plan before the business men and report upon the feasibility of the new idea at a meeting of the stockholders of the club, which will be held Thursday night.

This new plan of organization was the outgrowth of the suggestion made by Stephen Powers, that a separate fund be subscribed from the business houses for advertising purposes. Max Nordhaus enlarged upon Mr. Powers' suggestion, and formulated the plan of making two classes of membership, and Mr. Hoskins made the motion for putting the idea into operation. The committee that will have charge of the formulating of the new plan was appointed as follows: D. T.

Hoskins, chairman; Max Nordhaus, Will Rosenthal, Maurice Danziger and Dr. F. E. Oney.

This new plan is expected to solve the financial problem of the club and place the organization on a basis where some real good can be accomplished for the community. It carried out there will be a good balance on hand each month and this can be used to advantage in advertising the climate and resources of the city and surrounding country.

According to the statement of W. J. Lucas, president of the club, the membership of the organization has been reduced to 63 resident members and five non-resident members. This has reduced the income of the club to $170 or $70 less than the minimum monthly expenses, which state of affairs necessitated the calling of the meeting last night, for the purpose of deciding whether or not the club rooms should be maintained, and to formulate a plan of action if the question was decided in the affirmative.

Of the stockholders present last night all were in favor of continuing the maintenance of the present club rooms, and many plans of action were suggested. One favored the raising of the membership fees, while many suggested as a solution, the reducing of membership fees and the increasing of the membership.

The meeting was opened by a short talk by Jefferson Reynolds, president of the First National bank, who desired to know "What is the Matter?" Mr. Reynolds said that in his opinion lack of spirit and civic pride was the reason for the existing deficiency of interest in the Commercial club. He said Las Vegas has the men with brains, the geographical location and the resources and there is every requirement for making a good city except confidence and civic pride.

Dr. F. E. Oney said that to abandon the Commercial club would be a disgrace, for there are 300 businessmen who are able and should become members of the organization. Dr. Oney is a strong believer in the resources of Las Vegas and in the fact that anything will grow here. This he has proved on his own farm on the Mora road, where in the past several years he has successfully raised hay, grain, fruit and vegetables.

Dr. J. M. Cunningham, president of the San Miguel National bank, advocated the raising of dues to a sufficient amount to meet the expenses of the club and if this could not be accomplished that the club be disbanded.

Max Nordhaus favored the reduction of the membership fee to $1.25 or $1.50, and the increasing of the membership to 200 or more. Mr. Nordhaus did not favor the closing of the club rooms, for this he said would be a calamity.

Ike Davis was another of the advocates for the reduction of the membership fees. Mr. Davis said to be really interested one must be financially interested, and the reduction of the dues would make it possible for every business man in the city to be

THORPE CONFERS WITH GRANT BOARD REGARDING COMPLETION OF THE CAMFIELD PROJECT

Denver Capitalist Says He is Here to Talk Business From Start to Finish

BRINGS TWO GOOD ENGINEERS WITH HIM

Exhaustive Examination is Being Made on the Dam Site by Representatives of the Prospective Contractor—D. A. Camfield is Expected to Arrive Here Tomorrow to Consult With Trustees Regarding His Contract and Certain Legal Complications Which Have Arisen

For the purpose of listening to the proposition of James H. Thorpe of Denver, Colo., who is willing to undertake the completion of the irrigation project upon the Las Vegas grant provided mutually satisfactory terms can be agreed upon, the board of trustees of the grant met this morning in special session. The proceedings were entirely informal. Mr. Thorpe announced that he had brought competent engineers to Las Vegas with him and that they were engaged in examining the work already done, source of water supply and other essential details. As the proposition is a large one and there are numerous complications caused by the litigation with the Camfield Development company, it was announced that the negotiations with Mr. Thorpe might require several days before a conclusion is reached.

Mr. Camfield is expected to arrive tomorrow. He also will go before the board and discuss with it in regard to the proceedings which have been instituted against his bondsmen to collect the $100,000 bond, forfeited for failure to complete the project in the specified time. It is understood that Mr. Camfield is friendly to Mr. Thorpe and would be willing to allow him to contract for the completion of the dam. E. G. Murphey, a member of the grant board, is expected to return from Denver immediately. It is likely the board will await his arrival before accepting or rejecting the Thorpe proposition. The board expected to meet again with Mr. Thorpe this afternoon. It is likely the body will be in session for several days.

In an interview with a representative of The Optic this morning Mr. Thorpe declared he was here this time with the intention either of accepting the contract or of giving up forever any inclination to handle the project.

"We are here to do business," said Mr. Thorpe. "I have a proposition to submit to the grant board. If it is acceptable and my engineers make a favorable report, I will undertake the completion of the irrigation system. We have spent a large amount of money in trips about the country and in engineering investigations. This should convince the people of Las Vegas that we are sincerely interested. This is practically all there is to be said at the present time. Mr. Camfield will be here tomorrow to talk over with the board the status of his contract and bond."

Those who accompanied Mr. Thorpe to Las Vegas are J. W. Sleeper, a prominent Denver attorney; Gavin N. Houston, a civil engineer; W. H. Knowlton, a prominent New York engineer; and Harold W. Moore, a Denver capitalist.

Another engineer will be summoned here about August 23 if his presence is needed.

Messrs. Knowlton and Houston visited the irrigation project this morning. Mr. Knowlton is a veteran engineer. He had charge of the construction of the New York Central terminals in New York City and was railway commissioner for Costa Rica for several years during which he superintended the construction of a large railway system, saving the country a large amount of money by building the road with $500,000 while $2,000,000 had been appropriated for that purpose. Mr. Knowlton also built

MINNESOTA TERMINALS OF THE GREAT NORTHERN

Mr. Thorpe was here about four weeks ago, when he made a careful examination of the situation. He is a bond broker and is said to have ample financial backing, being wealthy himself and associated with other men of means. The grant board is giving his proposition careful consideration. Details of the plan have not been announced, but it is known that Mr. Thorpe, if he undertakes to complete the system, will endeavor to do so in the shortest possible time.

PLOTS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S LIFE

CHINA IS AGAIN ABOUT TO BE PLUNGED INTO A REVOLUTION

Peking, China, Aug. 20.—The national assembly today considered the explanation of the government in regard to the execution of General Chang Chen Wu and General Feng Wei, members of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's party, who were summarily put to death a few days ago, and decided that it was unsatisfactory. The members of the assembly demand the attendance tomorrow of the premier and war minister to give further explanations.

The government claims to have proof of the guilt of the executed generals and of the complicity of several high officials in the government service in a secret society for the overthrow of the government. Friends of Dr. Sun Yat Sen have advised him not to continue his journey to Peking. A number of counter-revolutionaries in the Chinese empire are said to be planning his death.

PIRATES ATTACK MISSIONARIES

Hong Kong, China, Aug. 20.—A desperate attack was made last night by a large body of pirates on the Island of Chong Chow, forming part of the British colony of Hong Kong and used chiefly as a missionary sanitarium.

They arrived, 100 strong and well armed, in a launch towing a large Chinese junk. Upon landing they attacked the police force on duty, killed an Indian police sergeant and two other officers and then looted the houses of the inhabitants, who number about 2,700. The pirates secured a considerable amount of money from one pawn shop, stealing $10,000.

The pirates then kidnaped the government tax collector and threatened to carry off a number of wealthy Chinese who, however, ransomed themselves. The European inhabitants escaped unhurt. Communication between Chong Chow and Hong Kong is cut off and information is only obtainable by rowboats.

WOOL MARKET BRISK

Boston, Aug. 20.—Transactions in the local wool market during the last week were large and prices were maintained firmly. Manufacturers took large quantities of wool under option. The largest dealings were in territory wools. Large lots of Montana original wools sold at 23 1/2@25 cents and Nevada at 19@21 cents. The goods market is strong and manufacturers of staple goods are well sold up.

Almost Unlimited Demand for the Paradise Feathers

ALMOST over-night, some fashions and fads become a furore, and it seems as if every woman, from Maine to California, wants one particular kind of hat, or shoe, or feather at the same moment.

paradise sprigs, and now has dawned the morning when hat crowns are partially lost sight of, enveloped in an airy cloud of floating, graceful, incomparably fine plumage.

IN POLONAISE STYLE

White permo fabric—a silky mohair and wool weave—is used here in polonaise style over a skirt of crepe meteor, and the vivid corse material appears again in the collar section.

Girls Men Hats.

Men may laugh and joke with the girl who tries to be "manly," but they never want to marry her.

The agrettes slant backward from the hat at amazing angles—the queerer the angle the more chic the chapeau.

PARASOL MATCHES THE HAT

That is, in the Latest Designs It Agrees with the Millinery Accompanying It.

If the very decorative possibilities of the parasol have been overlooked of late, the warm weather has made the fact clear that a parasol adds the last note of distinction to a dress.

Lace posed upon chiffon or veiled with tulle is a combination of materials of acknowledged elegance for the sunshade, and it not infrequently happens that a trail of mousseline flowers is posed inside the parasol, perchance to coincide with the trimming of the hat or with the flowers that decorate the gown.

Of freak handles there are always a certain number, and one of the quaintest is the cuckoo clock. Press a spring and the doors of the cuckoo clock fly open and the cuckoo appears on the threshold.

Sewing On Braid.

Braid should be sewed on by taking a long stitch on the back and a very tiny stitch on the right side directly through the braid and down again.

Placing Holes for Buttons.

When buttoning or unbuttoning a garment, forcing the buttons across the width of the hole will soon tear out the latter. For this reason buttons with only two holes are better than those with four and should be placed so that their holes will be on a line with the length of the button-hole.

Clever Ideas.

Putting hooks on the lower side of a vent or dress opening and eyes on the upper or usual side is a clever idea, as when the dress is ironed on "hook marks" show, as often happens when hooks and eyes are put on in the old-fashioned way.

BECAME THIEF TO PUT THEORIES TO TEST

EDUCATED CHICAGO MAN DELIBERATELY ADOPTED "PROFESSION" OF BURGLARY

A strange psychological study in crime surpassing all "Raffles" tales of fiction is presented in the arrest in Chicago of Jacob Roy Guthrie, the cultured son of a wealthy family, says the New York Sun.

Guthrie is 26 years old and has lived with his mother and sister at 1613 Prairie avenue. He is six feet in height, slender and of pale, thoughtful countenance.

He has confessed to twelve robberies at the homes of Chicago financial and social satellites and admits an especial fondness for poetry. He prefers the old time "jimmy" for practical housebreaking.

Guthrie went in for crime last February. He had always had theories regarding the subject, he believed that the average burglar, being a man of mean intelligence, was caught because of a lack of ingenuity and capability.

"Crime," said Guthrie in his cell at Central police station, "had at first a purely psychological interest for me. I remember with what avidity I read the first translations of Lombroso's works. It was with keen enjoyment that I read his 'Criminal Woman' and his 'Degenerate Man'."

SUMMER SUGGESTIONS FOR THE MOTHER

Reasonable Advice on the Health of Children in Hot Weather.

Mothers should be careful not to overfeed children during the hot months. No one requires as much food in summer as they do in cold weather.

It is quite natural to expect some disturbance, such as constipation, indigestion, or summer diarrhoea, often accompanied by a cold. A mild laxative at bed time will, in most cases, carry off the congested waste from the stomach next morning.

Cathartic remedies and purgatives should never be used for children. They are harsh and violent in their action and tend to upset the entire system.

While introducing many innovations into thievery, Guthrie clung to the somewhat unromantic and old fashioned groundwork of the burglar's trade. For instance, he used the "jimmy" and most frequently used it to force a window.

"I also had a narrow escape at the residence of Samuel W. Allerton in Prairie avenue. I had just left the house through a rear window when I heard the steps of the watchman."

Edgar Allan Poe was another of my few favorites.

"Edgar Allan Poe was another of my few favorites. Do you recall 'The Milk White Eye'? That was the work of a master in that line. But in that case the expert criminal after successfully deluding the authorities and entirely disarming and defying suspicion boldly exposed himself for the selfish pleasure of observing their astonishment."

"Lombroso was my guide in criminal psychology. He was a student of criminals more than criminology. I think, and he was given the opportunity to study them not while at their crafts or crimes but while behind iron bars."

"When I planned my entrance into a career of crime I carefully made and tried those plans. For weeks and months I used all waking hours in thought and study. Most of my daylight hours I remained within my den, my library. Are you a scholar? How you would revel in that book-bound room! That was my home. I studied during the days and at night I strolled about the city."

"Within my own neighborhood were many very rich residents. I determined to loot their homes. Some of them I knew by acquaintance, by sight, by name or reputation. Supplementing my own knowledge I prepared a long list of wealthy citizens, the majority worth many times a million dollars.

"In most cases the families were spending the winter—my career began during the wintry months, a well selected time, I deem it—in foreign climes. Only a servant or two, or a private watchman, in some cases none at all, were to be encountered."

"In the Durand home, which was one of my earliest exploits, I got a real scare when a watchman with a revolver surprised me. In that critical moment I ceased to be a scholar and became a real burglar."

"My second thrill was in the home of W. L. Goodman, 5228 Woodlawn avenue. I had been up most of the night at home reading Browning's 'The Ring and the Book.' Shortly after dawn I started out on my expedition of burglary. It was about 6 o'clock when I entered the Goodman residence. I made way to a bedroom in front on the upper floor and the bed looked so inviting that I threw myself upon it and slept for probably six hours."

"I heard the steps of the watchman. I barely had time to hide behind the stairway when he passed so close to me I could have touched him. As soon as he disappeared I escaped."

"But in one way I undermined my scheme of things that hitherto has presented not one flaw. I became disposed to play the market. I realized that to do so was to throw all caution to the winds and take a thousand risks where in my other work I took small chance at all. I played the game—and lost."

"In my nocturnal exploits I had, at first with curiosity, appropriated letters, documents and such legal instruments as came to my notice."

These I examined at my leisure. I frequently came across bank books, bank balances and statements of accounts, checks, etc. In idle curiosity I several times traced out the signatures found upon the papers I had taken. Then I fell before the temptation to play a bigger, bolder game. Finally I became a wholesale forger, depositing fraudulent checks in different banks to the accounts of several fictitious persons, all non-existent except in me. For weeks I was successful and had forged perhaps half a thousand checks for various amounts which may have reached an aggregate amount of $75,000. I do not know just what they all amounted to."

"I was playing the steel market and had for some time carried four hundred shares of Steel common, keeping my margins well protected, and had I been left unmolested I believe I should eventually have turned a handsome profit and perhaps been on the high road to frenzied finance, if indeed my feet had not already trod that way."

"But I still maintain that my original ideas were sound and without fault. I blame only those imprudent impulses that led me to become a stock gambler and a forger. I regret my exposure because my experiments have ended for a time. I have pangs for my aged mother, my relatives and associates. For myself I have only anger that I should have failed to be faithful to those ideas and ideals I know are unassailable from the standpoint I have taken."

The banks where Guthrie deposited his stolen wealth were the Central Trust bank, Union Trust and Savings bank and the Northern Trust company. He deposited forged checks at each bank to the credit of a different person, giving fictitious names at each banking house. Later he drew on one account in favor of the other until his check deals were badly tangled. He selected Mrs. Ella Wilson, who was traveling in Japan, as the chief victim, having come into the possession of her monthly statement from the Central Trust bank at the time he robbed her home."

When Guthrie was first suspected he was trailed by detectives from one bank to another. It was learned that he was representing himself as a different individual at each bank. Finally, although absolute proof of the forgeries had not been entirely established, a trap was set for him at the Northern Trust company's La Salle street bank. There he was arrested, and with a smile and perfectly possessed manner left the building with a detective.

In the open air the primitive instinct to flight and preserve his personal liberty asserted itself, and in that moment he lost all semblance of the cultured gentleman, forgot his scientific studies, his carefully laid plans and closely calculated action to be carried out under certain given conditions, and struck the officer and broke into mad flight through the congested "loop" district.

He was pursued by a mob and after covering a few blocks was captured by a traffic policeman. Then he wilted, apparently lost all realization of his plight and only came to himself when being searched at the central station and made an effort to swallow the warehouse receipts for his plunder. These were recovered by the detectives and the loot was found, identified and his dual existence bared to the world. After that he again became his old cocksure, debonair self, oblivious to consequences, proud of theories that he refuses to admit are fallacies, and resumed the attitude of the student of science. In his cell he philosophizes, but asks no quarter of mercy.

WHY IT PAYS TO BUY ADVERTISED GOODS

- Because the advertiser has done something to inspire confidence. He has not only explained the value and usefulness of his product, but has put his personality and reputation behind his statements.
- He can be trusted because his very business existence is at stake. He believes in his goods to the extent of investing his capital, not only in making the goods right, but in advertising, which will not prove permanently profitable if he fails to make good—secure repeat orders.
- The advertising is not only a protection to the trade name, but it is the advertiser's guarantee of quality.
- You are justified in being suspicious of unadvertised goods, because, however much confidence the dealer or manufacturer may have in them, he has not enough faith in them to spend money in telling others of their goodness.

It Always Pays to Buy Advertised Goods

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO RETAIN ROOMS

Some financially interested in the club, Simon Bacharach also favored the reduced fees. W. E. Gortner was strongly in favor of the maintenance of the quarters. Mr. Gortner is one of the strong believers in the future of Las Vegas and the surrounding country, for as he said, Las Vegas has the Colmor cut-off, 65 miles of which has already been completed, the Camfield irrigation project and many other enterprises within reach, and to abandon the club now would be to give up the fight. In the past month some 25 members of the club have tendered their resignations. No action has been taken by the directors on this, and instead of accepting the resignations at the present time these men will be notified of the plan of re-organization, and will be given an opportunity to reconsider before action is taken. Those who have sent in their resignations are Ike Bacharach, C. D. Boucher, C. H. Caracallen, Joe Danziger, Charles Greenclay, Manuel Henriquez, H. E. Hoke, H. C. Ilfeld, E. E. HOOK WORM GOT HIM

Salt Lake City, Utah, Aug. 20.—Hookworm, acquired while laboring as a minister in the south, is held responsible for the death here today of the Rev. J. L. Fant, a native of Abbeville, S. C., and a graduate of the Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, Ky. He began suffering from hook worm four years ago and was treated for it in a hospital at St. Louis. His fatal attack began while he was traveling with a missionary wagon in southern Utah.

CURRY RESIGNS FROM THE G. O. P. COMMITTEE

NEW MEXICO REPRESENTATIVE STATES HE IS FOR COLONEL ROOSEVELT

Washington, Aug. 20.—After a short conference with President Taft early today, Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the republican national committee went to the capitol to begin an all-day series of conferences with republican members of congress. There was no set meeting, but members came and went, having short talks with the national chairman. All republicans in congress were invited though it was said some of the progressive republicans of the house had announced their intention of not going. One of the first callers was Representative George Curry of New Mexico. He came to hand his resignation as a member of the republican congressional committee to Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, who was calling on Mr. Hilles. Mr. Curry recently declared for Colonel Roosevelt.

SENATE CONFIRMS APPOINTMENT OF ROMERO AS UNITED STATES MARSHAL

In spite of the efforts of his political enemies to discredit him by preferring false charges against him Secundino Romero was today confirmed by the United States senate as United States marshal for New Mexico. A determined fight was made against Romero by the democrats, led by Congressman Ferguson, but the senate upheld the judgment of President Taft and accepted the recommendation of the New Mexico senators. It was a great triumph for Mr. Romero and demonstrates that his standing in his own state is such that it cannot be injured in the least by the machinations of a group of political malcontents. Mr. Romero made a good United States clerk and he will make a good United States marshal. He proved a fearless and efficient sheriff for San Miguel county and he will prove a fearless and efficient United States marshal for New Mexico. After Short Deliberations. Washington, Aug. 20.—After more than two hours of executive session the senate today again confirmed President Taft's nomination of Secundino Romero as United States marshal for New Mexico. After once confirming Romero the senate had considered its action because of charges against him. The senate went into executive session today almost immediately after assembling. It was expected the nomination of Secundino Romero to be United States marshal of New Mexico, once confirmed and confirmation later withdrawn, would be considered. Many charges have been filed against Romero.

The nomination of Richard E. Sloan to be federal judge for Arizona, was also expected to be taken up. When the executive session had lasted more than two hours there was no sign of an agreement. The vote on the confirmation of Romero was 39 to 15. The nomination of Judge Sloan of Arizona, also under fire, was not discussed.

INDICTMENTS EXPECTED BEFORE THE SUN SETS

SAM SCHEPP'S STATEMENT MAKES ACTION EASY IN ROSENTHAL CASE.

New York, Aug. 20.—A blanket indictment charging murder in the first degree was returned by the grand jury late today against Police Lieutenant Charles Becker and four gangsters in connection with the murder of Gambler Herman Rosenthal. The gangsters indicted are: "Lefty Louie," "Whitey Lewis," "Dago Frank" and "Gyp the Blood."

New York, Aug. 20.—Sam Schepps was again the central figure in the Rosenthal murder case today when he appeared before the grand jury prepared to repeat the story he told District Attorney Whitman in which he corroborated in many essential details the confession of "Bald Jack" Rose, implicating Police Lieutenant Becker in the killing.

The district attorney was confident before nightfall indictments would be returned against seven persons. Those to be indicted are said to be Rosenzweig ("Lefty Louie"); Horowitz ("Gyp the Blood"); Corrofiel ("Dago Frank"); and Muller ("Whitey Lewis"), the four alleged murderers; Jack Sullivan and William Shapiro, and Lieutenant Becker on a superseding indictment. An unexpected witness before the grand jury this afternoon was "Big Jack" Zelig, now out on bail awaiting trial for carrying concealed weapons. It previously had been reported that Zelig was told that the indictment against him would be quashed if he furnished the gun men to make away with Rosenthal. It was to learn of the reports that Zelig was brought before the grand jury. The appearance at the court house of Zelig caused a sensation. Former Police Magistrate Wable, who was "Big Jack's" counsel when he was released on bail, revealed the fact that his client was arrested last Thursday at Providence, R. I. Mr. Wable intimated that Zelig had been apprehended on a trivial charge through an understanding between the New York and Providence police. He claimed his client had been unfairly treated. Other witnesses examined today were the clerk of a hotel at Far Rockaway, where the gun men congregated after the shooting, and a photographer who made a group picture of them there. Charles P. Pitt, described as Becker's press agent, also testified. These witnesses, it was said, completed the testimony dealt by the district attorney before he asked the grand jury to present a blanket indictment. Schepps' counsel says his client will make a clean breast of everything. Two more banks have been found where Lieutenant Becker had money on deposit. These, it was said, brought the total of Becker's deposits to $90,000. There was a shake-up today in the police "vice squads" when Commissioner Waldo transferred two lieutenants to precinct duty and appointed new men in their places. A. W. Weist, the Wagon Mound merchant, was in Las Vegas yesterday afternoon and today on business.

COUNTY CONVENTION IS SET FOR SEPTEMBER 9

REPUBLICANS ON THAT DATE WILL NAME DELEGATES TO STATE GATHERING

At a meeting of the republican county central committee, which was held this morning, the date for the county convention at which 30 delegates to the state convention of the party will be selected, was set for September 11. A call was ordered issued. Primaries will be held not later than September 9 in each precinct to select delegates to the county convention. The Secundino Romero, chairman of the committee, presided over the meeting.

BOOTH GROWS WEAKER.

London, Aug. 20.—General Wildam Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation Army, whose health has been failing ever since he was operated on in May last for the removal of a cancer in his left eye, is rapidly becoming weaker. According to the bulletin issued this morning by the physicians in attendance "General Booth's condition gives rise to increased anxiety."

Many of the general's relatives and high officials of the Salvation Army are in attendance or in close touch with the sick chamber.

FIRST DIRECT PRIMARY

Cheyenne, Wyo., August 20.—Wyoming is having its first statewide primary today. Interest is generally apathetic, as there is but little contest for offices with in the parties. In several counties there is evidence of voters dissatisfied with their own party candidates inserting the names of candidates named on the other party ballot.

ELKS WILL BOWL TOMORROW NIGHT

KELLY AND BARNES TEAMS WILL CONTEST FOR SUPREMACY.

The second bowling tournament of the season between the Barnes team and the Kelly quintette, two aggregations composed of members of Las Vegas Lodge No. 498 B. P. O. Elks, will be held tomorrow night on the alleys in the Elks' lodge new club house. In the match of last Wednesday evening the Kelly team proved that it takes the Irish to beat the Dutch, winning all three games from Barnes' team. However, the Barnes team is said to have been materially strengthened in the past week and is out for revenge tomorrow night. Members of both teams have been practicing faithfully since the last contest and the exhibition tomorrow should be even better than that of last week. Members of the Barnes quintette claim that stage fright had much to do with their defeat, and that they did not roll their usual game. However, the crowd should not affect them on their second appearance and they expect to give the Kellyites a run for the money.

All Elks and their families are cordially invited to witness the contest and in all probability the crowd in attendance will be even larger than on last Wednesday night. Much interest is being taken in this sport since the opening of the new home of the Las Vegas Elks, and these bowling contests are looked forward to with pleasure. Some remarkably high scores are being made by some of the bowlers and competition among them is keen. A big, black scoreboard has been set up for tomorrow's contest and this will enable the spectators to see how the contest is progressing, thereby increasing the interest in the games. The hour of starting the tournament has been set for 8 o'clock.

WHY BAR THE TOE HOLD? ASK THE SPORTSMEN

THERE ARE OTHER THINGS JUST AS BAD AS THE FOOT TWISTER.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—A number of wrestling authorities are of the opinion that the wrestling rules should be revised—that the toe hold and several other things should be eliminated.

Emil Klank, manager for Frank Gotch, world's champion, believes that it is the game and not the rules that should be revised—or rather reformed. We can stand for Klank's argument, but really can't see why the toe hold or anything else should be barred from wrestling. The game is necessarily rough. Take away the toe hold and then we will have the leg hold, the hammerlock and several other things that are just as tough. The argument in favor of eliminating the toe hold is advanced, according to Klank, merely because it is the champion's favorite way of beating his opponents and the public always likes to see the downfall of a champion.

For his match with Westergaard here Thursday night Gotch has consented to work without his favorite hold, but it is a safe bet that he uses something else equally as deadly. It is true that the champion has won a great number of his most important matches by the use of the toe twister, but it is equally true that he also has defeated many high class men without ever resorting to those tactics. Gotch does considerable bluffing with the toe hold in his match with Mahmout in Chicago the champion continually gazed at the Turk's feet, and when Mahmout began worrying about his pedal extremities the champion grabbed him around the waist and slammed him to the mat. Mahmout was dumped in a hurry simply because he was paying too much attention to his feet. The same applies to Zybecko. The Pole worried himself frantic before the match trying to develop an antidote for the toe hold, and when he started out in the match he forgot everything else.

Westergaard, however, at the toe hold and its deadly work. The champion threw Jess with the foot twister and it was a month afterward before the Des Moines man could get around without the aid of a cane. Later Westergaard came back and held the champion to a draw in a time limit match with the toe hold barred. Westergaard is a bigger and possibly a stronger man than Gotch and with the toe hold barred he may stand an excellent chance to win.

TRIBUTE TO ARCHIBALD.

An interesting article on Byron Archibald, a Santa Fe engineer who runs out of Las Vegas on the California Limited, appears in the latest issue of the Santa Fe Employees' magazine. Mr. Archibald, is one of the most popular and efficient engineers of this city and the article, which follows, will be of interest to his many friends here:

"An exceptional railroad record is that of Byron Archibald, engineer on the California Limited between Las Vegas and Albuquerque, as we discovered one day when we swung into his engine and rode a few miles with him.

"For 28 years Mr. Archibald has handled an engine out of Las Vegas, and for a total of 43 years he has been in the service of the Santa Fe, a rather forceful indication that both parties to the contract have been quite well satisfied. He never held a position of any kind prior to starting to work in the Topoka shops on May 1, 1879, at which time he was 17 years of age. Now he holds what we believe is the service record for men 50 years of age on the Santa Fe, with 33 years of continuous and faithful service to his credit.

"That during all the years in which Mr. Archibald has sat at the right side of the engine he has been a capable, efficient and careful employee is evidenced by the fact that he never has been in an accident of any kind. He never has had even so much as a finger scratched while in his engine. His black hair and clear, bright eye would indicate that railroading has held no terror for him. One never would think to see him that he had been through so many years of honest service.

"We should be interested in learning of anyone else who has at the age of 50 been so many years continuously in the service as has Mr. Archibald."

SELOVER-EVANS WEDDING.

A romance which had its inception in sunny California last winter, was brought to a happy conclusion this afternoon in the marriage of Miss Angeline Selover, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Selover of this city, to Edwin Evans, a young contractor of Los Angeles, Calif. The ceremony was performed at the Selover residence on Tudden avenue at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the presence of relatives and immediate friends of the bridal couple. Rev. N. B. Green, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

The bride, who is one of Las Vegas' most popular young ladies, is a native of this city, having been born here 19 years ago. Mr. Evans is the son of A. G. Evans, a prominent contractor of Covington, Ky. He moved to California where he is now engaged in the contracting business, last winter, at which time his bride of today was visiting in Los Angeles.

The newlyweds will leave tonight on train No. 9 for Los Angeles where they will reside.

WOMEN ENGAGE IN NOTIONAL POLITICS

WORKERS FOR VARIOUS PARTIES ADDRESS VOTERS IN NEW YORK.

New York, Aug. 20.—This was a busy day for women political workers in this city. At an executive committee meeting of the woman's national Wilson and Marshall organization, Mrs. J. Borden Harriman was elected president. The place had been offered to Miss Ida Tarbell, but Miss Tarbell said she thought she could be more useful writing.

Mrs. Harriman presided and spoke at a women's meeting in Union Square today. A near riot occurred when the speakers had finished and Mrs. Harriman and several other women began throwing campaign buttons to the crowd. Soon hundreds of boys and men were scrambling. The crowd finally surged upon the platform and Mrs. Harriman and the others were pushed and almost knocked down. Policemen were obliged to draw their clubs to drive the excited crowd off the platform.

Later Mrs. Harriman attended a luncheon of the Housewives league where she spoke for the democratic party, while Miss Helen Varick Howell represented national republican headquarters and Mrs. William Grant Brown presented the claims of the progressives.
