UNITED STATES CRUISER FIRED UPON BY THE TURKS

American Government Orders Immediate Investigation of Occurrence at Smyrna, Which Follows Persistent Reports of Rumored Danger to Its Citizens in the Ottoman Empire

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS LOOK FOR SETTLEMENT WITHOUT RESORT TO WAR

Washington, Nov. 18.—Captain Decker of the cruiser Tennessee reported to Secretary Daniels early today that while proceeding from Yoush to Smyrna to make an official call the vessel was fired upon.

Captain Decker's report, confirming last night's news dispatches, which officials hoped were inaccurate, left them today in a state of amazed wonder. Every effort is being made to get more complete reports of the incident from the Tennessee's commander. His report does not say whether the Tennessee, or her launch, as was reported in news dispatches, had been fired upon.

There has been considerable uneasiness about the Tennessee and also the North Carolina, her sister ship, since they went to Turkish waters to look after the interests of Americans, at the end of their voyage to the European continent with gold for stranded tourists. Reports of mishaps to both ships have been frequent, but always have been disproved by official dispatches.

Ambassador Morgenthau's reports of internal conditions in Turkey since the Ottoman empire joined the dual alliance in the war upon the entente power convinced officials here it would be well to have both ships remain in the Mediterranean for the present, and both have been going from port to port in Turkish waters, or those nearby.

So far Ambassador Morgenthau's reports concerning the safety of Americans have been reassuring. An undercurrent of uneasiness was created, however, early this month when the Turkish commander at Beirut addressed a note to the American consul general, which he intended for the information of the French and British governments, declaring that for every Mussulman killed in the bombardment of an unfortified port three British or French subjects would be put to death, and added that he did not take the responsibility for any uprising against the Christians which might follow such an event.

The United States cruiser Tennessee, or her launch—probably the latter—was fired upon yesterday by the Turkish forts at Smyrna.

Captain Benton C. Decker, of the cruiser, reporting the incident today to the navy department, gave no details of the firing, but added that fears had been felt for the safety of the American consulate.

While awaiting further reports from Captain Decker, and others from Ambassador Morgenthau and Consul General Horton, officials here have two theories. One is that the cruiser may have been sending a guard ashore to protect the consulate and Americans and other foreigners. They draw this from Captain Decker's statement that fears had been felt for the safety of the consulate.

The other is that Captain Decker had called on Consul General Horton, who, after returning the call, was being ing taken back to shore by the cruiser's launch, which may have been returning after the hours of entry prescribed by port officials, which are very strict.

Will Wait Further Reports Before regarding the firing upon the American ship as a hostile act, officials here are inclined to await further reports, and hold to the belief that it might have been a misunderstanding or the act of some local official, which will be quickly corrected in Constantinople.

Those officials who regard the incident as a misunderstanding of some kind, say that had Captain Decker been convinced that the Turkish forts were firing upon his ship as an act of hostility, the big fighting machine would not have steamed away to the harbor of Chios without a further incident.

While there is no question whatever of the right of the Tennessee to protect Americans and their interests in the Mediterranean, the question of protection of citizens of England, Russia and France, which are at war with the porte, may raise delicate situations.

Wilson Prepares Message Washington, Nov. 18.—President Wilson today began working on his annual message to congress, which he will deliver in person at the opening of the regular session in December. While the message has not yet taken definite shape, Mr. Wilson is expected to discuss Philippine independence, conservation, the Mexican question, government ownership of merchant ships and the effect of the European war on the United States.

Beans for Belgians Santa Fe, N. M., Nov. 18.—Led by the Santa Fe chamber of commerce, 25 commercial bodies in the state are issuing an appeal for New Mexico pluto beans to be shipped by the trainload to Galveston for consignment to the Red Cross in Belgium. Boosting literature in English, French and German is to be included in each sack telling of opportunities for settlers in New Mexico.

Back to Georgia San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 18.—Victor E. Innes and Mrs. Innes were remanded to the custody of officers from Fulton county, Georgia, by Judge Anderson in the district court here today. The attorney for Innes immediately filed an exception to the court's ruling, and gave notice of appeal. The prisoners will be held here pending the decision of the appeal. They are charged with misappropriating trust funds in Atlanta.

Exchange Will Reopen Chicago, Nov. 18.—Chicago bankers today acquiesced in the plan to reopen the Chicago stock exchange, and it is expected that the resumption of business will be ordered for next Monday.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The French official statement given out in Paris this afternoon says that yesterday saw numerous artillery duels and some isolated infantry attacks, all of which were repulsed.

The text of the communication follows: The day of yesterday, November 17, passed much as did the day before. There were numerous artillery exchanges and some isolated attacks on the part of the enemy's infantry, all of which were repulsed.

From the North sea to the Lys the front was subjected to a fairly active bombardment, particularly at Neuport and to the east and to the south of Ypres.

Near Bixchoote the Zouaves, charging with the bayonet, brilliantly took possession of a forest which had been disputed between the enemy and ourselves for three days.

To the south of Ypres an offensive movement on the part of the enemy's infantry was repulsed by our troops. The English army also maintained its ground. From Arras to the Oise there is nothing new to report.

In the region of Craonne our artillery on several occasions secured the advantage over the batteries of the enemy.

The bombardment of Rheims has continued. From Rheims to the Argonne there is nothing new to report. In the region of St. Mihiel, in spite of counter attacks by the Germans, we have retained in our possession the western part of the village of Chauvencourt.

In Alsace the landwehr battalions sent into the region of Sainte Marie aux Mines have had to be taken out for the reason that they have lost one-half of their effective strength.

The day of yesterday, November 17, passed much as did the day before. There were numerous artillery exchanges and some isolated attacks on the part of the enemy's infantry, all of which were repulsed.

Officers killed, 222; wounded, 57; missing, 5. Men killed, 3,455; wounded, 428; missing, 15.

This list, the first, Lord said, did not include the missing officers and men in the royal naval division at Antwerp and on the British cruiser Good Hope, sunk by the Germans off the Chilean coast, which totaled 1,000 and 875 respectively.

Battle at Soldau Paris, Nov. 18.—A dispatch received here from Petrograd by the Havas agency is as follows: "A terrific battle of extreme violence has been proceeding for four days around Soldau. The cannonading has been maintained night and day. The Russians are endeavoring at any cost to avenge their check at Soldau, and are throwing themselves at the Germans with indescribable fury. They have carried position after position by assault, in spite of the infernal fire of the Germans.

The Germans are offering a most energetic resistance, and their fighting is alternately offensive and defensive.

Russians Invade Germany "In spite of the torrential rains, which have turned the ground into a quagmire, the Russians are advancing toward the interior of Germany. They have captured ten big cannons, none of them damaged."

Servians Are Defeated Washington, Nov. 18.—Austrian sorties from Cracow yesterday captured Russian fortifications to the north of the Austrian border, according to dispatches received today from Vienna to the Austro-Hungarian embassy. They have mentioned a Servian defeat, which permitted the crossing of the River Kulebra.

Germany is Satisfied Berlin, Nov. 18 (via The Hague and London).—An official war bulletin given out in Berlin today sets forth that the operations on the eastern front are progressing favorably.

TODAY'S DEVELOPMENTS

The American flag has been fired upon by Turkey. A report to the navy department at Washington today from Captain Decker of the cruiser Tennessee gave official confirmation to earlier dispatches from Athens and the Greek island of Chios in the Aegean sea, to the effect that Turkish gunners at Smyrna had opened fire when the Tennessee was approaching that port.

On the battlefields of Europe there were few changes of importance. The great campaign in the west apparently has settled down to a series of detached battles, relating only indirectly to the main issue. At some points along the 300-mile line there is furious hand to hand fighting and elsewhere comparative inactivity prevails.

Today's French official statement was optimistic in tone, stating that German attacks, wherever made, had been repulsed and that the allies had gained ground at a few points. Along the Belgian coast the fighting has been left chiefly to the artillery. Near Bixchoote, a few miles north of the French border, there was a fierce encounter with bayonets, during which the Zouaves, according to the French war office, won possession of a forest which had been contested bitterly for several days.

The fighting in Alsace, which had been virtually a separate campaign and concerning which little had been heard, is said by the French to have told heavily upon the Germans.

The landwehr, composed of older Germans, has been used in this district. The French war office announced that the landwehr battalions have been withdrawn, as they have lost one-half of their effective strength.

The situation in eastern Prussia, presented, apparently, the greater opportunities for a quick and important change, although Russian and German statements were still in sharp conflict. The German war office announced officially today that the operations against the Russians were "proceeding favorably."

The latest statement from Petrograd, however, asserted that the Germans were retiring along the whole east Prussian frontier. It also indicated in advice from Petrograd that an important Russian force had penetrated to the extreme southeastern section of Galicia, where furious fighting is said to be in progress.

The situation in Belgium, where the unwearied Germans have begun another of their fearful onslaughts in a region which is becoming more and more restricted. The allies have succeeded in flooding a further area so that heavy infantry fighting is almost impossible from the sea coast nearly to Ypres. A new bombardment of Belgian coast towns by the British warships is said to have inflicted heavy damage on the German positions and to have destroyed large quantities of ammunition and stores.

The French government, according to official advice from Paris, intends to carry out the plan announced some time ago for its early return to Paris. It is reported today that the legislative and administrative staffs of the chamber of deputies will return to Paris tomorrow preparatory to shifting the seat of government.

Arbitrators Will Try to Avoid the Strike Chicago, Nov. 18.—Judge William L. Chambers, United States commissioner of mediation, arrived here today from St. Louis and named the six arbitrators who will attempt to settle the differences between the employers and the managers of 98 western railroads at hearings to be held here beginning November 30.

Those named are Charles Nagel, former secretary of commerce and labor; J. C. Pritchard, judge of the United States court of appeals at Asheville, N. C.; H. E. Ryan, vice president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad; W. L. Park, vice president of the Illinois Central railroad; F. A. Burgess, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; Timothy Shea, assistant to the president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Mr. Nagel and Judge Pritchard were chosen by the federal board of mediation after the other four arbitrators had failed to agree on two neutral members in the 15 days allotted to them.

CARRANZA DENIES HE PROMISED TO QUIT

PROVISIONAL PRESIDENT OF MEXICO HOLDS ON TO HIS OFFICE

DOESN'T TRUST GUTIERREZ SAYS MAN NAMED TO SUCCEED HIM WILL NOT CARRY OUT CONDITIONS

A BATTLE EXPECTED SOON

VILLA'S FORCES ARE PREPARING AN ATTACK UPON CITY OF MEXICO

Washington, Nov. 18.—General Carranza has repudiated the telegram sent for him by General Pablo Gonzalez to General Gutierrez, in which the first chief was represented as saying he would resign. This was announced today in an official dispatch from American Consul Silliman.

Carranza declared he had been misunderstood. In the telegram Gonzalez sent on behalf of Carranza, the first chief was described as ready to resign if both he and Villa relinquished their commands and met in Havana not later than November 25.

No mention was made of the man to whom the executive power was to be delivered, and Carranza now declares he never intended to resign in favor of Gutierrez and will not deliver his place to any other than a man whom he could trust to carry out the conditions he imposed.

While American Consul Silliman reported that great efforts were being made to patch up the difficulties through intermediaries, other official advice said troop movements were under way and a battle was imminent north of Mexico City, where the Villa troops were advancing southward.

Must Select Successor General Carranza has again refused to deliver the executive power to any but a man of his own selection, and once more peace plans for Mexico are upset, according to official dispatches today from American agents in Mexico.

Just as it seemed that an amicable adjustment had been reached, General Carranza has announced that he was misunderstood. From both American Consul Silliman and Leon Canova, special agent at Aguas Calientes, the state department received practically the same version of the newest split, summarized as follows:

Carranza first telegraphed General Gonzalez that he was willing to deliver the executive power to Gutierrez provided both he (Carranza) and Villa relinquished their commands and met in Havana on November 25. General Gonzalez telegraphed that to Gutierrez, chosen provisional president by the convention at Aguas Calientes, who took it to mean that Carranza was ready to deliver the executive power to him. Now Carranza has announced that when he used the words "provisional president" he meant a man who enjoyed his entire confidence, such as General Pablo Gonzalez.

With the previous movement under way and hostilities imminent efforts were being made by some of the generals to patch the differences. A compromise proposal being discussed is that Carranza should resign his command to Gonzalez, who would retain control of the territory held by Carranza, while Villa would turn over his forces to Gutierrez.

Both Gonzalez and Gutierrez could then remain in power in their respective territories, while the convention re-assembled to rally the choice of Gutierrez or choose another provisional president. Official dispatches indicate there is some hope of an agreement along that line.

Confidential information received by officials today indicated that while Carranza and other chiefs were bargaining, Villa was moving southwestward toward Mexico City to assist Gutierrez in setting up a provisional government as ordered by the Aguas Calientes convention.

MONTEZUMA CAMP LOST

SUIT FOR JUDGMENT

The case of Montezuma Camp No. 2, Woodmen of the World vs. the Supreme Camp was decided today in favor of the defendant. Judge D. J. Leahy convened court this morning, but as there were no cases ready to be heard, the court adjourned to chambers, where O. A. Larrasolo for the plaintiff and William J. Mills and S. B. Davis, Jr. for the defendant presented their arguments. The decision was handed down by Judge Leahy at about noon. The case involved $1,000 insurance claimed by the local lodge. There is a rumor that the supreme camp may pay the amount in dispute, even though it won the case.

No criminal cases had come before the district court up to a late hour this afternoon. The grand jury is still in session, but had brought no further true bills up to 2 o'clock today.

No especially important cases are scheduled for the court's consideration tomorrow, though some indicted persons may be arraigned.

Others with using the mails to defraud stock investors in connection with the operations of Jared Flagg, was quashed today on motion of the United States district attorney, who said the testimony at Flagg's trial showed that Mr. Morgan and his associates were not guilty.

COTTON LOAN ASSURED Washington, Nov. 18.—The $100,000,000 loan fund designed to help cotton producers whose great crop threatened to become a burden on their backs on the outbreak of war today stood complete.

CRACOW WAS THE MECCA OF THE POLES

CITY NOW THREATENED BY RUSSIANS HAS A SPLENDID RECORD BEHIND IT

One must approach Cracow, as the Russians now do, from the eastward in order to get a proper impression of the old Polish capital, now in the melancholy sunset of its proud and splendid past. It is from the east one sees the multitude of towers and turrets, steeples and domes of Cracow, and sees them unmarred by the network of narrow, tortuous and dirty streets which characterize the city.

In Cracow lived Kasimir the Great, the author of the celebrated edict of tolerance to the Jews in the fourteenth century. Here was performed the marriage which joined Poland and Lithuania. And here too, in 1525, the fatal mistake was made by King Sigismund of granting to Albert of Brandenburg the Duchy of Prussia in perpetual fief—that Duchy which in course of time grew to be the Prussia of Frederick the Great, the grave-digger of Poland. Although the capital was removed to Warsaw in 1696, the kings continued to be crowned in Cracow and buried in the Cracow Cathedral, the cathedral which still survives.

Legend attributes the origin of the city to the Slav Sages, Krakus, who died in the ninth century. Legend tells of his beautiful daughter, Wanda, who was driven by the importunities of her numerous suitors to such despair as to throw herself into the Vistula. Certain it is that in the eleventh century Cracow, on the cross-roads from three seas and four great rivers, enjoyed prosperity. It counted among its bishops the martyr Stanislaus, subsequently canonized by the Roman church, who had been slain while saving the altar by King Boleslas the Great.

For three centuries during the feudal period, it passed from hand to hand, now captured by the Germans, now sacked by the Tartars, and again looted by the Bohemians, Casimir the Great was its ablest leader. Founded in 1364, the university which two centuries later was to become one of the seats of humanism and the arena of long battles between the Jesuits and the numerous students. At that time Cracow had a population of 100,000, and traded with all Europe, including England. The city received a mortal blow when the capital was transferred to Warsaw.

In 1655, Charles Gustavus of Sweden sacked Cracow, disarmed its citizens, expelled its clergy and professors, destroyed the schools and churches, and exacted a heavy tribute. No sooner had he gone than the Transylvanian prince, the famous Prince Rabinowicz, came and completed the work of devastation. Again, in 1702, Charles XIII of Sweden, suffering defeat everywhere, wreaked his vengeance on Cracow by plundering and burning it. Russia and Prussia were already on Poland's track, and the so-called confederation of the bar, with its seat at Cracow, was formed to offer resistance. But Suvoroff took Cracow by storm in 1772. Twice was Poland partitioned, and then came the great rising under Kosciuszko in 1794, which brought about the end of Poland. Cracow was pillaged by the Austrians and Prussians, and the latter carried off the contents of the royal treasury.

Cracow now became an Austrian city, but on restoration of the Duchy of Warsaw by Napoleon it was incorporated with it. By the treaty of Vienna, it was made an independent state, but in 1846, Austria attacked and annexed the little republic, against the protests of England and France.

Since that time the city has been turned into a fortress. The royal palace is a military barracks and the university a German school, although, in 1870, its Polish character was restored.

The Russians will find it a difficult city to take, for there are two belts of forts guarding it, one 30, the other 12 miles in circumference, and barracks and depots without number.

GARCIA GAINS FOUR

Santa Fe, November 15.—The railroad vote came in this afternoon, eleven strong, and the canvassing board when it resumed its sessions this forenoon had to ask Attorney General Frank W. Cliney what to do with it. The Attorney General ruled that it had to be counted, as the constitution provided. Four of these railroad votes from Bernalillo county were cast for Ferguson and Rafael Garcia, adding that much to Garcia's plurality. Of the eleven votes Hernandez had seven and Ferguson four.

Eighteen Precincts Missing
The returns from 18 precincts in eight counties are still missing. In five counties the count has been completed. The pollbooks from these completed counties will be returned to each county seat for the election officials to sign. It may be necessary for each board of county commissioners to employ messengers to secure the signatures of election officers. The signing of election certificates will be delayed till then, and technically, all bets will be held up until then.

LEASES PRINCE'S HOUSE
Stockholm, Nov. 18.—Ira Morris the new United States minister to Sweden, has leased Prince William's country house "Oakhill" near Stockholm, which contains some 60 rooms, large hall and lounge. It is beautifully furnished, its contents including many artistic and interesting reminiscences from the period of the prince's marriage with Princess Maria of Russia.

SWISS AMBASSADOR CELEBRATES
Washington, Nov. 18.—The 67th anniversary of the independence of Switzerland was celebrated today at the Swiss embassy, where Dr. Paul Ritter, envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of Europe's little republic, received many visitors. In further celebration of the day, a Swiss costume ball is being given tonight in the old Masonic Temple by the Swiss societies of Washington. The ambassador and his staff are guests of honor, and many other diplomats are invited.

ENGLAND DISAPPOINTED

Manchester, England, Nov. 18.—Speculating on the possibility of a Zeppelin raid on London the Manchester Guardian says there is a noticeable feeling of "disappointment" in England over the non-appearance of these airships. While the Zeppelin would not be really welcome there were those at home so hungering for excitement that as a whole England seemed ready to take the risk. It was coldly calculated that even if 50 Zeppelins were sent over their concentrated devastation could not cover more than six acres—or if they dropped all their bombs on the "square mile" that makes up the city of London proper "they could kill something under one in a hundred of the people who happened to be there. Over the whole of London, taking the metropolitan police area, the chances of escaping would be about 70,000 to one. Over what may be described as the central area of London, within which Zeppelin might be expected to operate, the chances of escape would be about 1,500 to one.

"Personally, I think it would be a good job if the Zeppelins did come. Even if they did drop a few bombs the stimulus to recruiting would be worth what little damage was done," says Frank Hedges Butler, who is founder of the Royal Aero Club.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, bad breath, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you will have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company,"—Adv.

Regain the Mastery Over Blood Trouble

No Matter How Disheartening You Can Overcome It.

Blood disorders are quickly checked by S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. It rushes into the blood and in three minutes has traversed the entire circulation. It penetrates to where the blood is made, it washes out these spots and places where stagnation has settled. It cleanses the membranes, drives irritation from the joints, fills the blood stream with antitoxin influence and from head to foot creates conditions that make for good health. There are people in every community who know this to be true. They have used S. S. S. for severe forms of rheumatism, for indolent, ulcerated spots, for eruptive skin diseases, for rashes and all those bodily conditions caused by blood loaded with impurities. Being a pure product of Nature it can not hurt the stomach and has therefore been the refuge of a host of people misguided in their dilemma by first trying to those dangerous mercurial drugs which have claimed so many unfortunates. If the skin breaks out in a rash, if boils or other eruptions appear, if there are blood rashes or any other indications of impure blood get a bottle of S. S. S. at once of any druggist. But beware of substitutes. If in doubt as to your trouble or you wish competent medical advice free, write to the medical department, The Swift Specific Co., 58 Swift Blvd., Atlanta, Ga. This department is known far and wide as one of the greatest of help to blood sufferers. But don't delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. today.

GENERAL LOVE OF PRAISE

Common to All Mortals, and in its Proper Form is Not an Instinct of Evil.

Love of praise is one of the weaknesses of mortals. Some there be, who if not praised by others, don't hesitate to praise themselves. If praised by others, they parade, with no thought of the "delicacy of praise," what others say of them. Such deem it legitimate to solicit the praise for which they lust, knowing that there are men in the world who are as careless in attesting and magnifying the assumed virtues of others as many are in signing petitions, of the substance of which they take no thought.

This love of praise is confined to no class of men. It is an incentive to the poor man who works faithfully for his daily bread; the average man of wealth is not deaf to praise, even though it may come from one of his menials. This love of praise is not an instinct of evil, it may be just the opposite if it is born of a desire to be thought well of by one's fellow-men, or of a purpose to make oneself worthy of the confidence and esteem of others, by treating others as one would have them treat him.

Curious Gaelic Alphabet.

A very curious and distinguished characteristic of the Gaelic alphabet is that nearly every letter thereof is represented by a tree. While the alphabet of ancient Gaelic comprised but 17 letters, that of modern Gaelic has 18. But with the new, as with the old, forms the letter is represented by a tree. The exceptions are "g," "i" and "u," which stand for "ivy," "furze" and "heather."

The alphabet now stands: Ailm, bolte, coll, dur, eagh, fearn, gath, gnath, loch, luis, muin, oiv, peith, ruis, sùil, telas, ur, all of which is equal to saying: Elm, birch, hazel, oak, aspen, alder, ivy, whitehorn, yew, rowan, or guilken, vine, ash, spindle tree, pine, alder, willow, furze, heath. In the old Gaelic alphabet the letter "t" (the "bath" or whitehorn) does not exist. The alphabet is called the bath-luis aith, because "b," "l," "u" and not "a," "b," "c" are the first three letters.

Marvel of Surgery.

Doctor Vambucci, the chief surgeon of the hospital at Pistoia (Italy), has accomplished a marvel of surgery says the London Mail. He operated on a girl named Maria Tordini to remove a kessle that had accidentally been run into her body near her heart which in its action came into contact with the point of the needle. The surgeon was holding the girl's heart in his hand when its pulsation—violent at first—gradually ceased. "It is all over," he exclaimed, but as a last hope he started massaging the heart. Little by little its activity was stimulated, and the operation was successfully finished.

The Master's Voice.

"We have come," said the chairman of the committee, "to ask you to take 'his nomination.' The city needs a man like you—strong, brave, self-made, self-reliant, owning no master, fearing no man."

The great man was visibly touched. "I'll not deny," said he, "that your kind words have shaken my resolution. I trust that, if elected, I may justify your confidence and prove that I am indeed strong, brave, self-reliant; that I own no master and fear no man. Suppose you wait a minute—I'll see if my wife will let me accept."

Old friends of Henry Reits are shocked to learn he was killed in California. He was in the famous Oriskany fight with McGraw, Jennings and Dan Brothers.

Capes Practical and Capes Ornamental

CAPEs that are really practical are those made in three-quarter length, well fitted about the shoulders and full about the bottom. They are roomy, without being cumbersome, and they are comfortable. But the cape, plain and simple, is not as well liked for general wear as the capelle jacket and those combinations of cape and coat or cape and jacket, which costume makers have seized upon for making new effects in wraps.

The long, full cape is an ideal garment for evening wear. For this purpose it is developed in many fabrics. Black velvet, lined with white satin or brocade, and white silk or satin draped with black lace make themselves a place of honor in wraps for evening or other full dress. Often handsome furs in deep collars appear on these as on other brilliant fabrics. The long cape promises well in the rich brocades and plushes and embroidered silks and crepes so well adapted to it, especially in conjunction with fur used in broad collars or bands for trimming. For warmth the lighter fabrics are interlined.

For smartness and a style touch the garment shown in the picture illustrates the effectiveness of the cavalier cape. Its best developments are in plain velvet with plain satin linings. It is made here in combination with a sleeveless jacket with flaring collar.

Many of the combination wraps are puzzling at first glance; one hardly knows whether to classify them in the cape line or not. Quite often what appears to be a simple cape turns out to be a sleeved garment. The ingenuity of designers has managed to introduce the lines of the cape into cloaks, and has evolved cape-jackets and cape-coats that are the most novel of the offerings for fall and winter wear in wraps.

Monogram Towels.

The towel monogram is now being enhanced by an embroidered frame for the initials. Sometimes the frame is composed of a simple wreath of forget-me-nots or similar small flowers, and frequently the frame is an embroidered ribbon or a simple added oval.

Traveling Coat of Wool Ratine

AMONG the thoroughly practical fabrics used for traveling coats wool ratine has made a permanent place for itself. It is a becoming fabric, light in weight and unmovable. A coat made from it by Herbert, Paris, is pictured here and is an excellent model for traveling or general utility.

All traveling coats should be ample as to length and width and cut on straight-hanging lines. The adjustment at the shoulder and the management of the sleeves are items upon which they depend for style. Now that capes of all kinds are fashionable a number of coats have been produced by designers with a short cape attached. They are becoming to the slender figure, and in some cases amount to a separate garment, as they are detachable. This makes them especially attractive where the journey brings one into quick changes of temperature.

The coat portrayed here is finished with machine-stitching and lined with light-weight broadcloth. Sleeves are set in to a drop shoulder and finished with a broad turn-back cuff which may be brought down to the hand or turned back to about three-quarter length. The coat is belted in across the back by means of a short strap at each side, finished with a pointed end and a buttonhole. This button over large plain bone buttons and confines some of the fullness of the back.

A long and comfortable cape makes an outer garment for traveling which may be counted upon never to be wholly unfashionable. But it is not as convenient as the long, straight coat. A garment cut on lines similar to those shown in the picture here and made of staple fabrics will prove as stable a style as in material. JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

BIG BRICK COMPANY
Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—T. A. Christian of Olive Hill, Ky., has been chosen manager of the Galup Firebrick company at a meeting of directors just held, to succeed I. Sparks, who will return to Santa Fe to re-enter business and the political arena. The company consists mostly of Santa Fe men and controls the finest clay deposits in the southwest. It finds a ready market for its bricks as far west as California and as far east as Kansas.

FOLEY CATHARTIC TABLETS

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Pittsburg will have a commission to govern boxing.

W. T. Humeans, Nicholson, Ga., had a severe attack of rheumatism. His feet, ankles and joints were swollen, and moving about was very painful. He was certainly in a bad way when he started to take Foley Kidney Pills. He says, "Just a few doses made me feel better, and now my pains and rheumatism are all gone and I sleep all night long." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

Glen Warner may leave Carlisle to coach University of Pittsburg.

Remarkable Cure of Croup
"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

POSITIVELY MASTERS CROUP
Foley's Honey and Tar Compound cuts the thick choking mucus, and clears away the phlegm. Opens up the air passages and stops the hoarse cough. The gasping, strangling fight for breath gives way to quiet breathing and peaceful sleep. Harold Berg, Mass, Mich., writes: "We give Foley's Honey and Tar to our children for croup and it always acts quickly." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

K. O. Brown and Young Byson are matched to clash at Thornton, R. I., this week.

In damp, chilly weather there is always a large demand for BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT because many people who know by experience its great relieving power in rheumatic aches and pains, prepare to apply it at the first twinge. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Central Drug Co.—Adv.

Ralph Stroud, formerly of Detroit, will be McGraw's addition to the fingers' squad next season.

CITROLAX

Best thing for constipation, sour stomach, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Stops a sick headache almost at once. Gives a most thorough and satisfactory flushing—no pain, no nausea. Keeps your system cleansed, sweet and wholesome. Ask for Citrolax. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

Porky Flynn is matched up with Cleve Hawkins for a bout at Montreal next week.

Rub a sore throat with BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. One or two applications will cure it completely. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per bottle. Sold by Central Drug Co.—Adv.

Both Boston teams will train at the same place. Are they conspiring to corner the pennant market?

Check Kidney Trouble at Once
There is such ready action in Foley Kidney Pills, you feel their healing from the very first dose. Backache, weak, sore kidneys, painful bladder and irregular action disappear with their use. O. Palmer, Green Bay, Wis., says: "My wife is rapidly recovering her health and strength, due solely to Foley Kidney Pills." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

CONDITIONS GET BETTER EACH WEEK

OPENING OF RESERVE BANKS TODAY WILL RELIEVE FINANCIAL STRINGENCY

New York, Nov. 18.—Week by week important changes for the better are taking place in the financial position. These are reflected chiefly in easier money, a break in sterling exchange and improvement in the credit outlook. By far the most important current event is the opening of the federal reserve banks Monday. Of course, these institutions will not be in full operation probably for several weeks to come and some temporary inconveniences may be caused by the transition from one banking system to another. These however will be trifling in comparison with the advantages of the new system. It is estimated that, as a result of lowering reserve requirements from 25 per cent to 15 per cent, including state banks and trust companies, the increase in the amount of loanable funds of the New York clearing house banks will be about $160,000,000; and possibly $300,000,000 in the entire United States. In all probability there will be a further retirement of clearing house certificates and emergency currency after the new system becomes effective, so that the net increase in funds will not reach the figures just mentioned. Nevertheless, the increase will be large enough to insure a period of easy money for some time to come; because the requirements of legitimate business are very small owing to the continued contraction of trade and industry. Clearing house returns continue about 25 per cent below last year. The requirements for financing the crops have about reached their maximum, and henceforth the demands from these sources will diminish, especially as our exports of food products and cotton are very liberal. Another proof of reviving confidence is the cancellation by the savings banks of the agreement to insist upon the 60 days clause in regard to savings, which is now left to the judgment of individual banks in this district. Still another important development was the withdrawal of restrictions on trading in unlisted securities. The New York Stock Exchange is now earnestly at work endeavoring to effect an early opening with encouraging prospects of success. Some fear of foreign liquidation still remains. The selling pressure however has considerably diminished during the last few weeks, and would, if the exchange were opened, probably be confined to those in positive need. On the other hand the disposition of the buying power has sensibly expanded. The partial restoration of confidence has brought in eight many possible buyers who would eagerly take our securities at bargain prices. As to how much foreign selling would really occur in this market, it is impossible to determine. It would of course be confined to comparatively few international stocks. The holdings of Americans abroad, it is well understood, have largely diminished. At the same time there are large amounts of securities owned abroad but held upon this side which might come out under forced sale. The important fact remains however that during the last month there has been less disposition to sell and a greater inclination to buy, which has not been able to make itself felt because of the closing of the exchange. During the latter period there have been no important new issues of securities. In spite of dull business, savings have been accumulated; and in all probability there is an unusual amount of idle money awaiting investment, and depending entirely upon a sufficient return of confidence. One more favorable development is the early opening of the New York cotton exchange, and the adoption of a satisfactory scheme for financing the new crop. The expiration of the British moratorium almost without notice was also a significant event.

The local money market is easier owing to conditions already referred to, and there has been further improvement in foreign exchange which touched the lowest rates quoted since the war began. The appearance of sterling loans in this market was encouraging indicating that London is no longer disposed to insist upon the payment of our obligations in gold. The establishment of foreign government credits in this market, presumably for the purpose of buying war supplies, was an additional element of importance in the exchange market. Some big foreign orders for war material have already been placed in this country, and all indications point to these continuing on an important scale throughout the war. Such orders will prove an important compensation for losses in our export trade in other directions. In fact our export trade is showing very gratifying recovery; shipments of foodstuffs and cotton abroad being unusually heavy. The destruction caused by the war will oblige Europe to come here for food supplies to a large extent for months after the war is ended. This means that the American farmer will secure good prices for his products, and the great grain belt of the United States, and Canada likewise, is promised at least another year of prosperity from this source. The United States does not wish to prosper at the expense of other nations; but it is not in any sense responsible for the present destructive war and cannot be expected to do otherwise than gladly accept any advantages that may legitimately come its way as the result of terrible catastrophe. This country is supplying horses, blankets, saddlery, boots and shoes, clothing, auto trucks and many other forms of war material in amounts that will run up into the hundreds of millions. At present these are the only bright spots in our industrial activity. The steel trade continues much depressed and is running at only about one-half the normal capacity. Our textile industries have been much disturbed by the cotton situation, and now the woolen industry is threatened by the embargo upon Australian wool. Our railroads are suffering from the diminution of freight caused by slack business. The large number of idle cars and the big decrease in unfilled orders on the books of the United States Steel corporation are unwelcome proofs of business stagnation in the east. Indications however point to an early recovery, especially in view of better money and credit conditions, although no very radical improvement can be anticipated at once.

Congress will reopen with the coming of December, but the session will be a short one, and President Wilson is expected to use his great influence in giving business a much needed rest from legislative interference. The railroad problem continues to be a most urgent one; and unless the interstate commerce commission grants some substantial concessions it will appear to be a miscarriage of justice at this trying time, as with diminishing revenues and an accumulation of deferred improvements, their financial outlook is anything but encouraging. Sound public policy certainly suggests that the commission use its great power for the purpose of strengthening rather than undermining American credit abroad.

Of late there has been a much better investment demand for short term notes, municipal bonds and high-grade securities. The absorption of these in the aggregate has been very considerable during the past two or three weeks, and would suggest a corresponding improvement in securities of the next grade. With adjustment to war conditions nearly complete, with confidence steadily reviving, with easy money in prospect, there is good reason to anticipate a progressive revival in business and a further recovery in security values.

SKIN TROUBLE IN ITCHING SPOTS

Large and Red. On Arms. Extended to Body and Legs. Clothes Scratched. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Healed.

Moelpla, Wash.—"My trouble first started on my arms and soon it extended to my body and legs. The first I noticed of it was red spots, itching spots, some larger than a pin head. My clothing irritated them and I scratched. My sleep was disturbed by the clothes scratching. "It had bothered me for about ten days and I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I only purchased one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and they effected a complete cure." (Signed) Sid Strawn, May 19, 1914.

HANDS WOULD CRACK OPEN
Cyclone, Mo.—"Every winter I had a breaking out on my hands. They first got rough and then would crack open in places as if there had been little gashes cut. They hurt and were sore. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my hands are well. My face would break out in red pimples and skin seemed thick and feverish. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and was cured." (Signed) Mrs. B. A. Millison, Mar. 6, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail
Although Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world, a liberal sample of each with 32-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address: postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

the financial center of the United States. Call money in London is now 1 1/2 per cent and the discount rate in the open market 3 per cent. The amount of gold held by the Bank of England now is $345,000,000, being the largest sum ever held by that institution. This showing by the Bank of England, together with the money rate in the open market while the nation is engaged in a general European war (involving, it is claimed, a daily expenditure of from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 by the various nations), should relieve us of any further uneasiness in connection with the financial situation. If London is so complacent under the circumstances, why should not business here go on smoothly and with increased confidence from one end of the land to the other, especially as we are provided by our crops with an abundance of all kinds of food supplies for home use and for export, and we also have the machinery for the manufacture of all classes of goods called for to meet the requirements of the gigantic war, which gives us virtually a monopoly in supplying all such needs at very remunerative prices? This state of affairs cannot fail to restore prosperity to this country very soon as well as create an investment demand for our dividend paying securities. What is needed in this country at the present time is more confidence based on our present superior position and condition over all other nations, and more courage to strike out and seize the unprecedented opportunities now offered for expanding.

An important influence in depressing our stock market was the Balkan war, which at the start was correctly measured in London, Berlin, Paris and other European cities but was underestimated in Wall street. We considered it of but little importance as at that time we were having a boom in the stock market with everybody feeling confident of higher prices, hence we were foolish enough to stand up and take the avalanche of securities that was unloaded upon us at high prices, and this country has been staggering more or less under that load ever since. The stocks thus sold out have never been taken back on the other side, those who have dealt in our securities meanwhile having only made quick in and out turns. The securities which are now held abroad are almost entirely of the investment grade. No European securities at the present time can possibly be as safe as ours for people on the other side to hold, not only for investment but for fluctuating differences, and this will continue to be the case during the present devastating war which threatens destruction in all directions— which we are out of and in which we are not likely to become involved, besides having the brightest outlook for a speedy return to great prosperity. Why, therefore, should holders of our investment securities abroad sell them at panic prices, and why should we fear that they will dump them upon us to the extent of hampering us to take care of them? There is no justifiable reason to expect such unloading process which many of the banking people are afraid of when the Stock Exchange opens. Let us have an open stock market and supply and demand will prove, as is always the case, the true regulator of prices. It was wise to have closed the exchange upon the commencement of hostilities, and it will be equally wise to soon open it again. I am in favor of the exchange opening without much further delay, after the new national banking system starts, but of course under reasonable restrictions to be imposed at the start. It will be much better to resume business on the exchange while prices are down as at present than to wait until general conditions are such that prices would naturally start buoyantly high, in which case the advance would be apt to be followed by a decline through foreign stocks being dumped upon us, as high prices would encourage foreign selling, while low prices would deter them from doing so.

A PECULIAR WEAPON
Manchester, England, Nov. 18.—"Among the most interesting of the war trophies that have found their way over here," says the Manchester Guardian, "are some specimens of the German lance. It is not a wooden pole, but an 11 or 12-foot steel tube. It is very heavy and at first seems quite unmanageable to a man of ordinary strength. But two-thirds of the way down from the head towards the butt is a wrapping or thick twine to give a grip. And if you hold it there, and there only, you find that it is so evenly poised that, as one admiring observer remarked, you could write your name with it. "There have been some descriptions of cases where these tubular lances have crumpled up in action like an overburdened steel mast on a racing yacht. Perhaps that may be accounted for by the peculiar shape of the head. There is no point or spear head of any kind. Instead there is a solid piece of iron shaped exactly like the end of a grant poker, square and quite blunt."

ANOTHER EAST LAS VEGAS CASE

It Proves That There's a Way Out for Many Suffering East Las Vegas Folks
Just another report of a case in East Las Vegas. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in East Las Vegas with Doan's Kidney Pills.
H. C. Leahy, locomotive fireman, 25 Railroad Ave., East Las Vegas, says: "About three years ago my back and kidneys were giving me trouble. Nothing helped me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They took away the pains in my back and put me in good shape again. Those who follow railroading are often subject to kidney ailments. The jolting of the train is bad and one doing that work needs a strong back. I am glad that I know of Doan's Kidney Pills, as they can be depended upon."
Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Leahy had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

ANHUT IS GUILTY
Albany, N. Y., Nov. 18.—The judgment convicting John N. Anhut of attempting to bribe Dr. John W. Russell, former superintendent of the state hospital for the insane of Matewan, to bring about the release of Harry K. Thaw, was affirmed today by the court of appeals.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss.

SCRAPPY LITTLE FELLOWS

London, Nov. 18.—It appears that the three shortest men in the house of commons are three of the most warlike. Their names are Wedgwood Benn, L. S. Amery and H. J. Tennant. The first two have already gone to the front, and Mr. Tennant is parliamentary under secretary for war. Mr. Amery also saw service in South Africa. Mr. Benn is so short that he is affectionately known in the house as "Little Ben" and "Buttons."

When your food does not digest well and you feel "blue," tired and discouraged, you should use a little HERBINE at bedtime. It opens the bowels, purifies the system and restores a fine feeling of health and energy. Price 50c. Sold by Central Drug Co.—Adv.

Dependancy Due to Indigestion
It is not at all surprising that persons who have indigestion become discouraged and despondent. Here are a few words of hope and cheer for them by Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa. "For years my digestion was so poor that I could not eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them, did I find the right treatment. I soon began to improve, and since taking a few bottles of them my digestion is fine." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

OLD DISPUTE SETTLED

Petrograd, Nov. 18.—The dispute respecting the disposition of the most important manuscripts of Count Tolstol, the novelist, has at length been decided by the court of final instance in favor of the widowed countess. The manuscripts of these earlier works, upon which the writer's true fame is based, were given in Tolstol's lifetime to his wife, who deposited them, with other relics, in the Moscow historical museum.

The unfortunate wording of Tolstol's will led the daughter to attempt to secure these gifts to Countess Tolstol as a part of the novelist's estate, while the countess, also fearing to lose them, endeavored to recover them from the historical museum which pending a settlement of dispute, refused to hand them to either party. It has now been decided that they may be returned to the widowed countess as her property.

You will like their positive action. They have a tonic effect on the bowels, and give a wholesome, thorough clearing to the entire bowel tract. The liver to healthy activity, a keep stomach sweet. Constipation, headache, dull, tired feeling, nervousness, those who use Foley Cathartic Tablets. Only 25c. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

NOVEL RELIEF SCHEME

Copenhagen, Nov. 18.—A postoffice official here has carried out the idea of printing stamps for 1, 2 and 3 cents, bearing the picture of St. Martin, Belgium's patron saint, and for 1 cent, bearing the picture of the Belgian royal family, which are to be sold for the benefit of the Belgian refugees. The press subscription throughout Denmark for the same purpose has been most successful.

Important

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strength of the digestion. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

A TRAINLOAD OF BEANS

Harry W. Kelly's beans-for-the-Belgians question has been the inspiration for a movement to send a trainload of the famous New Mexico staple product to the victims of the great European war. The chamber of commerce of Santa Fe is behind the movement and has asked the assistance of all other commercial organizations in the state. The plan is to have the commercial club or chamber of commerce in each city ask for donations of cleaned pinto beans. These will be sacked and packed in carload lots. Each sack will be marked with a legend stating that the contents are "New Mexico, U. S. A., Pinto Beans." It is believed that one or more trainloads of the beans can be secured in this state.

It is proposed to send, in each sack of beans, a circular printed in three languages, stating the advantages of New Mexico to settlers. It is believed this may result in bringing to this state many desirable citizens, as the Belgians are known as the farmers and gardeners of the world. A market for New Mexico beans in Europe also will be established, as the recipients of this charity, once they become independent once more, will want to purchase some more of those delicious New Mexico beans.

The move is intended solely for the interest of charity, but everybody will concede that there is no harm in gaining some valuable advertising for New Mexico in connection with it.

TEACHING SEX HYGIENE IN SCHOOLS

There has been considerable discussion on the question of teaching sex hygiene in the public schools. The advantage of increased knowledge for the children, as well as the practical difficulties of presenting this subject properly, have been commented on from various points of view. There has been little effort, however, to present an expression of opinion from a vitally interested, namely, the children themselves. The report of the Bureau of the Upper Peninsula Educational Association, which is of interest, organized to make schools of the Michigan, their children and parents.

endeavoring to discover the points of strength and weakness of the schools, as judged by the parents and others interested in them. The report just issued is divided into four sections: Moral education, physical education, industrial education and general. The basis for the report is the individual opinions of 317 representative citizens. Under the first head, among many other subjects discussed, the question was asked of parents, "Do you believe that sex hygiene should be taught in the schools?" To this question, 92 replied "yes," while 175 opposed such instruction; six made qualified replies. Commenting on these answers the report says that the replies indicate that patrons of schools are not ready as yet to have sex hygiene taught in the schools. "Doubtless but few teachers are qualified to teach the subject well," says the report, "and to teach it poorly would be much worse than not to teach it at all." The bureau also endeavored to get the point of view of the pupil. At Houghton two lectures on sex hygiene were given to boys and two to girls. Some time after the lectures the boys and girls were segregated and were asked: "Did you learn anything of value at the last lecture on sex hygiene?" Ninety boys stated that they had learned something of value and eight that they had not, while 54 girls regarded the lecture as of value and 20 did not. When asked: "Do you favor another lecture?" 85 boys were in favor of further instruction and 13 were opposed to it, while 54 girls were in favor and 30 were opposed to the proposition. This report, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, emphasizes the points which have been previously brought out: until we know what should be taught pupils at different ages, until we have formulated a definite graded course of instruction the proposition for teaching sex hygiene in the public schools should be approached with the utmost caution. In no case should an effort be made to force such instruction on the pupils or on the community. When the parents of children are convinced, by a large majority, of the advisability of such instruction, it should be provided. Premature efforts to place such subjects on the school curriculum in advance of public opinion can only cause misunderstanding and trouble.

It was an allright session that the motion picture laboratory crew had in order to get the three reels of the Normal University drama ready for the educational convention next Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bell and assistants developed 2,200 feet of film, cut, patched, pasted and placed them together at the right places with all the titles and legends prepared by Waldo Twitchell in their proper places. They will be endorsed by Chairman Ralph Twitchell on Saturday and then packed and sent to Albuquerque. There is a tremendous amount of detail work connected with the motion picture operations of which the layman scarcely has any idea and it has taken heroic effort to complete the films for the exposition commission in time. But as a result they are all masterpieces that will attract much attention and favorable comment, even from the artistic and technical standpoint.

DAVIES HOPES TO GET HOUSE SPEAKERSHIP

SANTA FE ATTORNEY TAKES ADVANTAGE OF ROMERO-MARTINEZ DEADLOCK

Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—The entry of Malaquias Martinez as a candidate for the speakership of the house in addition to Secundino Romero and Nestor Montoya seems to have been productive of a deadlock of which E. P. Davies, representing Santa Fe, Torrance and Guadalupe counties, is taking advantage. He has begun to push his candidacy vigorously and is receiving such assurances of support that he may land the honor. He was elected by a record-breaking plurality and has as a nucleus for his support, the Santa Fe, Torrance and Guadalupe counties constituting his district and may get the support of the democrats and the lone socialist, which would assure his election. Frank Staplin is reported to have his inside track for chief clerk of the house, and A. M. Bergore of the chief clerkship of the state senate; both the most important posts to be disposed of after the speakership. Staplin has served before as chief clerk. There will be considerable rivalry for the chairmanship of the principal committees, especially the committee on finance, railroads and institutions.

BROKERS ARE ARRESTED
San Francisco, Nov. 18.—J. C. Wilson and D. A. Wilbrand, members of the called broker firm of J. C. Wilson & Company, one of the best known establishments on the Pacific coast, were arrested here today on warrants charging them with the embezzlement of $10,000.

NORMAL'S DRAMA READY FOR SCREEN

MOVING PICTURE PEOPLE WORK ALL NIGHT COMPLETING THE SERIES

Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—Fifty-one beautifully colored stereopticon slides, illustrating the attractions and advancement of Artesia and surroundings in Eddy county were received by the exposition board today to be added to its magnificent collection of 3,000 slides, the finest pictorial presentation of New Mexico's progress and resources ever brought together. The slides give views of artesian wells, farms, public buildings, school houses, streets, good roads, orchards, stock and other industries.

It was an allright session that the motion picture laboratory crew had in order to get the three reels of the Normal University drama ready for the educational convention next Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bell and assistants developed 2,200 feet of film, cut, patched, pasted and placed them together at the right places with all the titles and legends prepared by Waldo Twitchell in their proper places. ### BELGIANS REPLACE GERMANS

London, Nov. 18.—By a strange stroke of fortune, says the Pall Mall Gazette, a large number of the Belgian refugees who have arrived in London are finding accommodation in a district which, before the outbreak of hostilities, formed one of the chief German colonies in the metropolis—Forest Hill and Spesham. Many of the visitors are well to do and are renting good sized houses in the neighborhood, while less fortunate ones are being quartered upon sympathizers. Although the German male residents have gone back to Germany, there are still a number of their womenfolk around Forest Hill.

CANNOT HUNT ON INDIAN LANDS

WHITE MEN ARE BARRED FROM KILLING GAME ON RESERVATIONS

Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—The Red man has turned the tables on the palefaces. Only recently a number of Pueblo Indians were arrested, in the Black range and fined, although they had taken out hunting licenses, for shooting wild turkey out of season. Now the Indians will arrest all white men who hunt on Indian reservations or grants. The first victim is W. C. Richey of Laguna. Richey took out a state hunting license and as Indian lands do not look any different from state or public or private lands, he started to hunt merrily on the Laguna grant. He felt secure in the license that Deputy Game Warden McCarty had issued to him. But he did not reckon on Indian policemen. One of these politely informed him he must quit hunting on Red man's land as Indian in prohibition of hunting on paleface's lands. And the Indian mean it, for they cite Section 517 of the revised statutes, or Section 525 of the regulations of the Indian office, which read: "Hunting on Indian lands by others than Indians, except for substances in the Indian country, is prohibited. Any violation of this section will render the offender liable to a forfeiture of all his guns, traps, ammunition, etc. and to a further penalty of five hundred dollars."

These dreadful tidings reached Game Warden T. C. de Baca last evening and he forthwith gave the hard nut to Assistant Attorney General Harry S. Clancy, who is somewhat of a nimrod himself, to find a way to crack it, for the Indian lands stretch far and wide and are as a rule not posted or fenced, and how is a paleface to know whether he is on Indian lands or state lands?

GIFT TO MUSEUM

Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. T. Z. Winter today presented to the Museum of New Mexico one of three ancient carved corbels in the ruins of the Old Fonda at the head of the Santa Fe trail, which are to be soon cleared away to make room. It is believed, for the $295,000 federal building which has been determined upon for Santa Fe. The corbel will be placed with the one found embedded in the walls of the Palace of the Governors when a door was broken through one of the thick walls recently in the process of restoration. The remaining two corbels from the Fonda are to find a place in the new federal building which is to be in Old Santa Fe style of architecture.

EDISON'S GREAT GIFT

Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—There will be music for dancing and marching, grand opera and lullabies, music instrumental and vocal by the world's most renowned musicians every day next year at the New Mexico building at the San Diego exposition. The Edison company has just presented to Chairman Ralph E. Twitchell of the exposition commission for the New Mexico building, its latest improved five hundred dollar phonograph, with an abundance of the choicest records. The instrument is a superb one, in a mission style cabinet, and will be set up by an expert from the factory.

It has arrived here, but will not be taken out of its packing but shipped direct to San Diego. It will be erected in the main lobby. It is only one of the acquisitions by the state secured through Colonel Twitchell and other members of the exposition board, who are not only giving their time and talent to the state free of charge, but are also acquiring for the commonwealth free of cost part of the equipment, furnishings and exhibits.

NORTH CAROLINA CHURCHES

Asheville, N. C., Nov. 18.—When the eighty-ninth annual conference of the Methodist Protestant church in North Carolina met here today reports of phenomenal growth were read from all sections of the state. The past year has been one of the most successful in the history of the church in North Carolina. During this time 26 new churches have been built and more than 1,500 new members have been added to the conference. A large number of pastors and laymen are attending the conference and Asheville is furnishing elaborate entertainment for the guests.

PICKING OUT OFFICERS

Paris, Nov. 18.—The official order against exposure to the enemy's fire, resulting from the alarming proportion of mortality among the officers, has caused a great deal of discussion and some resistance.

"Is it you who bring me reinforcements?" asked the colonel of a regiment officer.

"Yes," replied the officer.

"Very good, but you are an officer?"

"Yes, colonel."

"But where are your stripes?"

"They are turned under, colonel, conformably to the minister's instructions."

"You are afraid, then?"

"Not that I know of."

"Then you accept the circular?"

"No stripes, in this colonel's estimation was equivalent to immunity from danger or showing the 'white feather.'" To please him, or, perhaps, as the result of his infectious bravery, the officers about him kept their stripes. This regiment has lost two-thirds of its officers.

COUNTY VALUATION SHOWS A DECREASE

THIS DUE TO ABSENCE OF 25 PER CENT RAISE, WHICH WAS PUT OUT IN 1913

The county assessor's office has finished making up the tax rolls for 1914. The commissioners of San Miguel county have approved the rolls and they have been sent to the treasurer's office. On account of the raises made last year by the board of equalization the property value of the county and the city precincts seemingly has decreased this year. Last year the board added 25 per cent to the value of lots and improvements, while this year no such extra amount was added.

This year the valuations are made by school districts instead of by precincts, as was done formerly. This is in accordance with a plan of the traveling auditor's office and is expected to simplify taxation matters, though it has yet to prove its merit.

According to this scheme the town of Las Vegas is divided this year into school districts Nos. 1 and 4. The valuation is placed at $999,635. Last year the town was divided into precincts Nos. 3, 5 and 6. The valuation was $1,177,696, or $178,061 more than this year. East Las Vegas, this year designated as school district No. 2, was valued at $6,645,430 as against $7,176,734 in 1913. The two towns together, therefore, have a valuation this year of $7,645,065, as against $8,354,430 in 1913, a decrease of $709,365.

The valuation of the entire county of San Miguel this year is $15,387,241, of which $4,935,156 is subject to taxation. In 1913 the county was valued at $16,359,034, of which $5,452,895 was taxable. This means a decrease this year of $974,783 in the valuation and $417,739 in the amount of taxable property.

In spite of the fact that an additional mill was added to the school levy in East Las Vegas this year, the cuts made by the county commissioners have reduced the taxation here considerably. The rate this year is 43 cents on the $100 valuation. For several years the county commissioners steadily have been reducing the taxation rate, in spite of the fact that county affairs have been well cared for and a large number of improvements made. In the list of improvements may be placed several bridges.

TEMPERANCE WOMEN ENTHUSE

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 18.—Successful temperance campaigns in many parts of the United States, the outlook for a showdown in congress on the question of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors and other hopeful features of their work brought to Atlanta an optimistic gathering for the annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Two conspicuous figures of the convention are Miss Ellen Stone, the American missionary whose capture by a gang of Bulgarian bandits caused a sensation, and Mrs. Margaret B. Denning, president of the W. C. T. U. of India. Mrs. Denning spoke on the accomplishments of her organization in India. Another interesting paper was that of Daniel A. Poling of the Christian Endeavor, on "National Prohibition and How to Obtain It."

PROSECUTOR ON TRIAL

Boston, Nov. 18.—The remarkable case of ex-United States Deputy Marshal Donald Cameron, who deserted his family and was found in company with the alleged "victim" in a white slave case which he prosecuted, will come up for hearing tomorrow in the Roxbury district court. Cameron is charged with bigamy and non-support. Wife No. 2 is a pretty French girl of Lawrence, Mass., Miss Malvina Beaudry, on whose evidence, secured by Cameron a few years ago, an alleged white slave was convicted and sent to prison for a long term. During the trial the attention of Cameron to his pretty witness were the cause of his later dismissal from the government service. He left his Roxbury home, saying he was going to Canada to enlist for the war. He was traced to the home of the Lawrence girl, and the Boston police found him hidden there under a bed.

"THE CONVICT AND THE WARDEN" TONIGHT

GRIPPING TABLOID DRAMA WILL BE GIVEN AT THE MUTUAL THEATER

The Harry Siebert Smith company will present an entirely new vaudeville program tonight at the Mutual theater on Bridge street. The company will stage a tabloid drama entitled "The Convict and the Warden." This playlet was sent over the Orpheum circuit for two seasons. It tells a gripping, tittle story of prison life. In addition to the play Miss Grace Wilson, a comedienne, will appear. A program of "movies" rounds out the evening's entertainment. Tomorrow the company will present a comedy, "Is Marriage a Failure?"

Products of the art department, the domestic science department and the grades will be shown. It is the opinion of the officials of the school that this year's exhibit will be the "best ever."

CARRANZA DENIES HE PROMISED TO QUIT

Vera Cruz comes a report of fighting yesterday at Jule, near Puerto Mexico, where forces under General Jose Carbajal changed their allegiance from Carranza to Villa and attacked troops under General Jesus Carranza, brother of the first chief. Carbajal, who is a distant relative of Francisco Carbajal who succeeded Huerta as provisional president for a brief term, was killed in the engagement, the outcome of which is unknown.

Governor Caballero of Tamaulipas has sent to Cardenas troops to meet the Villa forces moving toward Tampico from San Luis Potosi. American Consul Bevan reported today by wireless that conditions at Tampico were unchanged.

Villa Breaks Truce Mexico City, Nov. 18.—General Alvaro Obregon, who yesterday assumed supreme command of the capital and of the federal district, last night received a telegram from General Pablo Gonzalez in which the latter declared that General Villa, by advancing his troops southward, had repeatedly broken the truce agreement entered into on November 12 between General Gonzalez and General Eulalio Gutierrez, who was recently chosen provisional president by the Aguas Calientes convention. General Gonzalez concluded his message with the following:

"For my part I believe that I have complied with my duties as a soldier and as a citizen. I have tried to avoid the shedding of blood, which the enemy appears thirsty for, and the war which we are obliged to prosecute with all vigor is justified by the unworthy conduct of our opponents."

A large body of troops belonging to General Obregon's division arrived here last night from Irujaio, 29 miles southwest of Guanajuato.

General Alvarado, post commander, has issued a statement in which he declares that General Villa is a greater enemy to the cause of Mexican democracy than General Huerta. He says that Villa has forced an unnecessary civil war on Mexico.

Will Move to Vera Cruz It is reported here that General Carranza will move his capital to Vera Cruz immediately upon the evacuation of that city by the United States.

tel on the American side at the time. The bone of the limb was shattered. The fire of the attackers, was not well directed, and the shrapnel burst frequently over the bomb proofs of the American soldiers guarding the border. Bullets from Maytorena's Yaqui riflemen also crossed the international line.

General Hill, commanding the garrison, moved again to the trenches on the eastward side of the town, and compelled Maytorena's artillery to draw back. Hill's bugles sounded a victory call, but the shell fire and musketry of the attackers continued. Three Mexican women on the American side also were wounded by stray bullets, one seriously. Surgeons in charge of the hospital at Naco, Sonora, reported that 16 men of the garrison had been wounded up to 10 o'clock. At that time Maytorena's infantry began an advance from the southeast.

According to a report late today, six persons, three men and three women, en, were wounded by stray bullets on the American side of the international boundary today during the renewed attack on Naco, Sonora, by the forces of Jose Maytorena. They are: R. H. Reynolds, United States customs inspector, leg shattered by bullet; N. M. Bernol, fiscal agent for General Benjamin Hill, commander of the Carranza garrison at Naco, wounded in shoulder; a soldier of the Tenth United States cavalry, hit by spent bullet; three Mexican women, struck while on a street in the American town. One was seriously wounded in the head.

Hill reported to Carranza officials at Agua Prieta today that his men were one killed and a small number wounded. His hospital surgeon reported 16 wounded.

Hill gave Maytorena's losses at 200 killed and wounded, saying the bulk of these casualties were sustained by the Villa forces in a cavalry charge on his southeastern entrenchments. The assault was repulsed.

Stray bullets flying over the border also struck the eastbound Golden State limited on the Rock Island lines as it passed through Naco, Ariz. One of these bullets shattered a Pullman window, showering the passengers with glass.

ELK ARE COMING Santa Fe, Nov. 18.—Ten or 12 elk are to be placed in Santa Fe canyon provided the chamber of commerce raises one-half of the necessary funds to build an enclosure. Game Warden T. C. de Baca today received official word from Assistant Secretary of the Interior A. A. Jones that his renewed request for 50 elk had been granted and directing him to take up the matter of arrangements for the transportation of the elk to Santa Fe with Colonel L. M. Brett, acting superintendent of the Yellowstone national park.

Great Singers Must be "Tobacco Wise"

Tuxedo is the Tobacco Chosen by Opera Stars

MEN who depend upon their voices come to know tobacco as the ordinary smoker never knows it. A sensitive throat or mouth feels the slightest sting, bite or scorch of tobacco.

Tuxedo is the one tobacco which singers, actors, public speakers—all men who guard their throats zealously—can smoke with pleasure and safety.

Tuxedo tobacco cannot sting, bite or irritate the delicate membranes of the mouth or throat.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo tobacco has made thousands of men converts to the pipe, because it has made pipe-smoking possible for them. Under the famous "Tuxedo Process" the mild, tender leaves of the highest grade Burley tobacco are so skillfully treated that Tuxedo burns slowly and affords a cool, mild, thoroughly enjoyable pipe smoke.

Leading men in all walks of life—well-known doctors, lawyers, ministers, lecturers, etc.—smoke Tuxedo and testify to its soothing influence on the throat.

Stop Those Early Bronchial Coughs
They hang on all winter if not checked, and pave the way for serious throat and lung diseases. Get a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, and take it freely. Stops coughs and colds, heals raw inflamed throat, loosens the phlegm and is mildly laxative. Best for children and grown persons. No opiates. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Store.—Adv.

Best Cough Medicine for Children
"Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburgh one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Tuck, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

ALBUQUERQUE WINS

Telegraphic advice was received this morning at the Y. M. C. A. building to the effect that the Albuquerque campaign for a Y. M. C. A. closed at midnight last night with the much sought for amount of $75,000 pledged. This insures an up-to-date building for the young men and boys of Albuquerque, and the fraternal spirit should wax warm between the two New Mexico city associations.

The remarkable things about such a campaign is that so large an amount of money can be raised in such a short time. International Secretary G. S. Bilheimer has learned through years of experience in such efforts that more money can be raised in 10 days than in 10 weeks, and this idea has found its way into all sorts of campaigns in the Y. M. C. A., as well as in many churches. The financial assistance needed by the association is provided for in the early part of the year and then it is done and out of the way for a whole year.

Pablo Ortiz, justice of the peace of a West side precinct, died this morning at 6 o'clock after a short illness. Mr. Ortiz was a bachelor. He is survived by several brothers, Fidel Ortiz, chairman of the board of county commissioners; Marcelino Ortiz, clerk of Santa Fe county; Postmaster Susano Ortiz and Salamon Ortiz. He was well known in Las Vegas and this portion of the state. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

J. D. Shoemaker, who, several years ago, rented the Veeder ranch near La Cueva and went into the cattle business, has transferred the place to the McInerney brothers, who formerly ran the Roelada ranch. The Roelada place will be conducted by John and Dick Rudolph of this city. Mr. Shoemaker has moved into town with his family to give his children a chance to attend the New Mexico Normal University.

Word has been received here through the state engineer's office that the steel work of the new bridge at Watrous is being placed and that the structure will be completed at an early date.

According to Volunteer Observer Lewis of the New Mexico Normal University the maximum temperature reached yesterday was 64 degrees. The lowest point reached last night was 19 degrees.

The United States civil service commission has announced two examinations to take place on December 15. One is for an epidemiologist (male) at a salary of $4,000, and the other is for a lithographic pressman (male) at a salary of $1,800.

The People's Store, handling new and second hand goods, has reopened its place opposite the Las Vegas Motor Car company's garage. The store was closed on account of the illness and death of John Fridenstine, the manager. Steve Whitmore will be in charge.

A marriage license has been issued at the court house to Maria Fabiana, aged 20, of Fulton, and Agustin Aguilar, aged 20, of San Isidro. County Clerk Lorenzo Delgado has issued a marriage license to Benito Jaramillo, aged 20, and Silviana Sanchez, aged 20, both of Upper Las Vegas.

The students at the Normal University are at present undergoing the painful process of taking their term-end examinations. The tests began today and will last until the end of the term on Friday. That day will see the conclusion of the first three months' term of the school year.

The New Mexico Normal University will close on Friday, November 20, for Thanksgiving vacation. School will recommence on the morning of Monday, November 30. On this date tuition for the second term of school will be due, and a discount will be granted to all students who pay on that day.

Police Chief Ben Coles last night arrested Otto Cornaglia of Albuquerque on a complaint charging desertion sworn out by his wife. Coles was notified by a telegram from Sheriff Romero of Albuquerque that the man was wanted. Coles arrested him as he was trying to make his "getaway" on train No. 2 last night. Today the Duke City sent a man to take Cornaglia to his spouse.

The J. E. Rosenwald lodge of the I. O. B. B. held a meeting last night at Temple Montefiore to nominate officers for the coming year. A large number of members was present. Those nominated were W. Morantz for president, Dr. J. H. Landau for vice president, W. N. Rosenthal for treasurer, Charles Greenclay for secretary, Isaac Bacharach for assistant monitor, Milton Talchert for warden, Alfred Stelmets for guardian and Charles Greenclay and J. Stern for representatives to the grand lodge, which meets at Columbus, Ohio, on May 30, 1915.

Y. SECURES HALF WEIGHING 205 POUNDS

HALDEMAN IS AN AMHERST VETERAN AND IS A FAST SPRINTER

The Y. M. C. A. football team held its first practice last night since the game with the Normal. Fifteen men reported for practice, and the coach is delighted with the prospects for the Thanksgiving game with the Elks.

Several shifts have been made in the lineup, and for the first time the coach has an abundance of material for a full team with substitutes. Haldeinan, a new man, is hailed as a find at halfback. Haldeinan tips the scale at 205 pounds, and has a reputation as a sprinter. He gained his first football experience at Amherst, where he played on his college eleven at halfback.

Cordova, the little end, who was shifted to the back field in Saturday's game following White's injury, will hold down the other half position. Cordova, though weighing but 140 pounds, is exceptionally fast and has five years' experience as a back field man, playing with the University of New Mexico and also on his school team in the east.

White has been shifted to quarter on account of Dowden's injury and Stewart from half to the line. Just at the present the coach is puzzling over the tackle positions. With inexperienced ends and no suitable line-men, some shift undoubtedly will have to be made in the lineup. Stewart and McCullough possibly will be shifted from ends to tackles in order to supply the needful weight for the line. Baird, a new man, is working out at end and Sena and Madrid at guards.

The Y crowd is optimistic over the coming game with the Elks and although Manager Blood's formidable lineup of old stars undoubtedly will play fats ball, the Y predicts a clear victory although agreeing that the score will be close.

TROUBLE IN PRESSROOM DELAYS CITY EDITION

THE OPTIC GOES UP AGAINST A SERIES OF EXASPERATING MISHAPS

A series of mishaps in the press room made it impossible for The Optic to get its city edition on the street last night. It was 4 o'clock this morning before the last paper had been run off, and the carrier boys did not make their city deliveries until 8 o'clock. The news press went on the bum just as the last form of the city edition was being locked. It defied persistent efforts to get it in repair. Then it was decided to run off the edition on the job "pony" press, a tedious procedure. The pony had been running only a short time when a belt broke. When the belt had been repaired a section of the overhead shafting got out of gear. When this was repaired a break occurred in one of the smaller belts. By this time everybody around the office was out of patience, but they filled up their pipes and took a rest to cool off their nerves, after which they fell to work and set the refractory machinery in working order. It was the most exasperating series of mishaps that ever has befallen The Optic press room, but it is not likely to occur again.

The funeral of the late J. D. Fridenstine occurred this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the chancel of J. C. Johnson and Son. Rev. J. Milton Harris, pastor of the First Baptist church, had charge of the services, which were attended largely by friends and members of the Odd Fellows' lodge, which conducted the committal service at the grave in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The paubearers were T. M. Elwood, A. T. Rogers, Sr., Gus Lehman, Peter Roth, Frank LeDuc and W. A. Givens.

ULLMAN IS SAFE New York, Nov. 18.—Relatives of Joseph Ullman, a wealthy furrier of this city, today issued a denial of reports circulated last night to the effect that Mr. Ullman was under sentence of death in London as a spy. They said that he had not been arrested, as reported, but was safe in Germany.
