GENERAL INFORMATION

ILLUSTRATIONS (CUTS OF COTTAGES) RELATE TO THE DESCRIPTION IMMEDIATELY BELOW THE CUT.

The information about cottages listed is as given to us by the owners. We assume it to be correct but are in no way to be held responsible. The purpose of this publication is to bring together the party who wants to rent and the party having property to rent. Beyond that we desire no further responsibility. The advertising space used is paid for at advertising rates by the cottage owners to cover the cost of publication. We do not work on a commission basis and do not accept any commission. Parties interested should write directly to the owners, at address given, for further details, and must complete their own transaction.

If cottages are wanted in places not covered herein, letters can be written the Maine Real Estate Association, Winnifred L. Nelson, Secretary, 477 Congress Street, Portland, Maine, and your letter will be referred to a reliable licensed Real Estate broker in the section in which you are interested.

Mention of the Maine Publicity Bureau as the source of information will be appreciated.

After you have enjoyed a season or two of cottage life along Maine's beautiful Seacoast of 2,500 miles of rugged headlands and silver sand beaches, or on the shore of a sky-blue lake of glistening sunshine, you will we feel sure have the urge to own a place of your own that you can come back to year after year, or better still, a place where you will establish a year-round residence.

You will find our townspeople ready to welcome you and to help you with your plans, people of standing in the community with no axe to grind. People of average income and of simple tasks like those of Maine people will be met by a coöperative spirit and a desire to help them fit into the local picture and atmosphere and become a part of interesting community activities where they will enjoy a full, rich, well-rounded, healthy life and soon could not be persuaded to go back to city life.

The Maine Publicity Bureau will be only too glad to help you find just such a place as you have in mind.
