ANNOUNCEMENT

We are receiving applications from prospective students for reservations for the Fall opening of The Rockland Commercial College, and wish to repeat that we have fully decided to retire from the school business, owing to other interests, and shall not reopen the college. The fire of 1915 in the Thordike & Hix building destroyed our equipment, and suitable quarters could not be found elsewhere. We decided not to continue the school, but with upwards of seventy scholars with partially finished courses, whose interests we could not ignore, we secured temporary rooms in the Berry Block, and completed the school year. During the past five years it has been necessary to turn away scholars owing to the limited capacity of our rooms. There is a good field for a Business School in Rockland, and we have been hoping to find someone who would take up the work where we leave off, and will gladly turn over our good will and render all the assistance in our power to a responsible person. We shall, however, retain our present quarters for our Diploma and Engrossing Business, also for offices of the Maine Real Estate Company. Having devoted more than thirty years to the school business we believe we have earned a change in occupation. Thousands of our graduates and students are scattered over the United States, in whom we have a personal interest for their welfare and success. We feel grateful for the co-operation and good will of all, and especially for the generous patronage of the surrounding towns. HOWARD & BROWN 99-102 Aug. 14, 1920.

It is now some time since we first introduced the Michelin Universal Cord to local motorists. DEMOCRATIC GUN Fired In Postoffice Square Saturday Evening — The Speakers Came, But the Crowd Didn't.

Hon. Bertrand G. McIntire, the Democratic candidate for governor, spoke in Post Office square Saturday night, at what was advertised to be the opening rally of the Democratic campaign. He was assisted in what proved to be somewhat of a mechanical process by Mrs. Halsey Wilson of New York, who was introduced as the secretary of the National Woman's Suffrage Association.

From the standpoint of attendance and good old fashioned Democratic enthusiasm, the "opening rally" was a flat fizzle. The night was a perfect one for outdoor speaking, and, to use a colloquial expression, there was a mob on the streets, but neither the distinguished speakers nor the lively band of "Admiral" Ingraham's band had the power to draw more than a few hundred. These gradually dwindled when it was found that there was no street dancing or Mardi Gras, and while Mr. McIntire was speaking there was at no time more than 150 or 175 persons around his automobile.

These facts are given not for the purpose of detracting from the merits of the Democratic rally, but simply to show the boomerang effect created by an agency which had sought to belittle the very successful get-together of the Republicans at Oakland Park a short time ago. The fact is that the people have not yet caught the spirit of the campaign, and neither party will probably have any "rousing" meetings until around Labor Day.

Judge Oscar H. Emery, who succeeded the deposed chairman of the Democratic county committee, presided over the meeting Saturday night, and seemed thoroughly at home in that capacity. Mrs. Wilson impressed her audience as being a smart and capable speaker, already well enough versed in politics to give a pointed twist to her statements. The dispatches say that Gov. Cox has no press agents, but he does not need any if he has a horde of woman admirers like Mrs. Wilson spreading out over the country, expounding his views. She spoke of the Presidential candidate alternately as James "W. Cox and James Middleton Cox, little knowing what a direful thing it is to get a man's middle initial wrong.

She also spoke of the late ex-President Roosevelt in a manner that would have sounded strange on a Democratic platform any time while he was alive. All in all she gave Gov. Cox a very good send-off, crediting him with making 56 reforms while governor of Ohio. Mrs. Wilson staunchly defended the League of Nations, and declared that the swaddling clothes of the Monroe doctrine ought to be broken. She was generally applauded at intervals. "I've been introduced as governor," said Mr. McIntire. "Well, I am in the service, and out to win." The candidate's speech was an elaboration of the Democratic State platform, and was commendably free from any suggestion of abuse. Republicans for the most part agree heartily with his views as to the primary law—that it should be done away with altogether, or a better one substituted. A better tax system, election of the Public Utilities Commission by the people, and enlargement of the State Highway commission were advocated.

Dr. Wallace N. Price, the Democratic candidate for Congress, was in the audience but for some strategic reason he was not trotted out to receive the plaudits of the crowd. It may have been that he preferred to wait until there was a crowd.

KNOX COUNTY'S CENSUS

Total Loss In Population Is 2636—Camden's Increase Is Bright Spot.

Knox county's census figures were received from the Department of Commerce yesterday, and show a reduction of 2636 from the figures of 10 years. In view of the great trend toward the larger cities this loss is not surprising. Rockland's population, as exclusively announced in The Courier-Gazette some weeks ago, is officially confirmed showing a loss of 65.

The most gratifying feature of the census in Knox county is the fine showing made by Camden, where there was found a gain of 388 over 1910 and a gain of 578 over 1900. Thomaston shows a gain of 14 and Cribhaven a gain of 17. All of the other towns show losses, the most striking instances being Hurricane, which dropped from 256 to 111; Rockport, which dropped from 222 to 174; St. George, which dropped from 2201 to 1654; Vinalhaven, which dropped from 2334 to 1965; and Warren which dropped from 1812 to 1500.

The loss at Hurricane was of course due to the abandonment of the granite business, and is about half offset by the annexation of Isle au Haut, which is given a population of 102.

"THE CORNCAKE CLASS"

Information Wanted As To Graduates of McLain Grammar School In 1876.

The class which graduated from the McLain Grammar School in 1876 was nicknamed "the corn-cake class" for reasons which some of the students will remember. A desire to know the present whereabouts of the members is voiced by a prominent business man who belonged to the class, and who has compiled for The Courier-Gazette the names of 36 of the pupils. Many of these addresses are already known, but some of the graduates went away from Rockland many years ago, and have been lost to sight though not to the memory of those who remain in their home city. Will those non-residents kindly send their address to Mrs. Hattie McLain Keating, daughter of the late beloved Thomas H. McLain, 52 Mechanic street; and will those whose names are not included in the appended list do likewise.

- List of names: Herbert Merriam, Walter Wentworth, Richard K. Snow, C. Mont Simmons, Watson Pillsbury, John Dill, Kaler Mayo, Elmer F. Hooper, Frank W. Fuller, Nathan F. Cobb, Ralph Ayers, Josie H. Young, Julia Wilmington, Sadie Willie, Lucy E. Walker, Maggie Stevens, Minnie Rue, Maggie Robinson, Ollie Phillips, Annie S. Perry, Retic Nash, Hattie McLain, Jessie W. Hatch, Annie L. NEW SCHOOL ARRANGEMENT

Extra 8th Grade Necessitated Many Changes—City Divided For Kindergarten Pupils.

A rearrangement of the grades and the kindergarten schools has been made by Supt. Hull during the summer vacation, necessitated by the congested conditions. A somewhat smaller attendance is looked for at the opening of the school year, owing to the slack period in the fishing industry, but unless the decrease is much greater than can reasonably be expected, the pupils could not be handled to advantage under the old arrangement. "There have been 123 pupils advanced from the 7th to the 8th grades since the last school year," said Supt. Hull to The Courier-Gazette reporter yesterday. "It requires three schools to handle them, and as we had but two 8th grades an extra one became an absolute necessity, and on account of the manual training and domestic arts departments it is necessary to have that extra grade in the McLain Building. To make this possible it was necessary to eliminate one of the present grades in the McLain Building.

"The proposed plan is to concentrate the kindergarten work of the city in the lower Grace street school. This would give two extra rooms—one at Purchase street, and one in the Tyler Building, now used for kindergarten work, which have janitor service, without extra expense, which was on the lower floor at the McLain Building, will be transferred to Room 9, McLain Building, upper floor. The 6th grade, which formerly occupied Room 9, will be transferred to the Tyler Building, and the 6th grade which was last year conducted at Grace street, will be transferred to Purchase street. Thus the Purchase Street School and Tyler Building will each have a 6th grade hereafter.

"The 5th grade, which was formerly in the lower Grace Street School, will be transferred to the upper Grace street room. "The lower Grace street room has been fitted this summer for the combined kindergarten work of the city and two teachers will have charge all day. The city has been so divided that all children of kindergarten age (4 years and 9 months) north of Middle street, and all children of kindergarten age south of Middle street will be eligible to attend in the afternoon.

"The children at the Highlands who formerly attended the Tyler Building, on entering the 5th grade will this year attend the 5th grade at the Grace Street School." The problem of conserving space, at a time when the city is not in financial position to construct the new buildings so much needed, has been a most difficult one for the school department to face, and the solution presents some drawbacks, but those who have studied the situation carefully will bestow upon Supt. Hull the credit of having done the best thing possible.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM Whatever your occupation may be and how ever crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry. —Charles Eliot Norton. MY LOST SELF You wonder why my eyes are dim with tears? Ties shall I tell you? Long and long ago— So long ago years piled on weary years— There was a little child I used to know. And every day and night and every hour We took life's gift together, sun and shade, And saw the rainbow sliding through the shower. And heard the talk that building robins made. We thought the world was ours to come and go About its highways, finding treasures rare; We thought all heaven was ours, and fashioned grand castle after castle high in air. Ah, now I find the world a desert wild, No room in all the sky for tower of mine; But most of all I miss my comrade child, My brave, true courage and her faith divine, Dead? changed? I know not, sweet; I only know That something from the mirror's shining space, In my own features, worn and faded so, I catch a glimpse of the bright lost face. You will no longer wonder that I weep, My little girl with eyes so grave and clear; Whatever treasures we may hold or keep, To lose one's happy self is saddest, dear. —Author Unknown.

THIS IS THE GREAT WEEK

All that now remains to be wished for is some days of good weather to enable Rockland's Centennial Week to attain the desired full measure of success. The committees have put forward a commendable bit of hard and faithful effort and their assigned programs of the several days make appeal to all that is in our hearts of the desire for entertainment. The business section of the city blossoms in the bravery of billowing bunting (in an alliterative fashion), and the spirit of happy expectancy sits upon every brow. In all quarters there is manifest the purpose to give up the coming days to joyous relaxation. We hope there are many old-time citizens either present now or on their way to look into the faces of former home friends. Latch-strings are out and a cordial welcome awaits every last one of them, man, woman and child.

RALLYING IN KNOX

Congressman White, Candidate Parkhurst and Senators Fernald and Hale Are Touring This County.

Congressman White began a three nights' speaking tour in Knox county last night, when he presented to Vinahaven voters a striking summary of the national situation. Tonight the Congressman speaks in Camden Opera House and Wednesday night in Glover hall, Warren. The man who is so splendidly serving the Second Maine District has a most interesting message for the voters, and those who seek enlightenment on present day conditions in Washington and throughout the country are invited to hear what he has to say.

Col. F. H. Parkhurst, the Republican candidate for governor will speak in Watts hall, Thomaston, next Monday night, and will discuss state issues. This meeting will also be addressed by Mrs. Mary Stewart of Washington, D. C., who so deeply impressed the Republican State convention at Bangor with her ability.

U. S. Senators Fernald and Hale will both be in Knox county Tuesday Aug. 31, the former speaking in Rockport and the latter in Rockland.

The campaign is on, and it's up to the voters to find out what it is all about.

ROCKLAND'S CENTENNIAL WEEK IS ON

Blue Skies, Happy Crowds, and a City Gay with Bunting.—Oh, Boy! But We Are Going to Have a Grand Time the Next Four Days of the Week.

Although the official program of the Rockland celebration does not begin until 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, hundreds of visitors are already thronging the gaily decorated streets, and everything has a festive appearance. The midway on Sea and Winter streets were in full blast last night, and activities there will be greatly increased with the arrival of the Street Carnival which exhibited here two years ago. Included in the attractions will be another ferris wheel and another large merry-go-round, it is said, together with all of the amusement devices ordinarily found at the big fairs or similar celebrations.

So far as crowds are concerned the Centennial Week celebration is expected to have its climax Thursday, the day of the Firemen's Muster, when it is expected that there will be at least 1500 visiting firemen. Among them will be the Hydraulion Engine Co. of Bristol, R. I., which will probably remain in the city over Sunday to enjoy the hospitality of American Hook and Ladder Co., and the other local firemen. The Hydraulions are expected on the Boston boat Thursday morning. A bill of lading received by Chief Engineer Albert R. Havener indicates that the hand tub was shipped several days ago.

Eleven fire companies outside of Rockland have made official entries for the muster contests with A. W. Gregory, secretary of the muster committee. The list follows: Brunswick, Niagara Engine Co., Brunswick. Hydraulion Engine Co., Bristol, R. I. Sagadahoc Engine Co., Bath. G. F. Burgess Engine Co., Rockport. Senator Baxter Engine Co., Bath. Fire Co. Engine Co., Randolph. Pacific Engine Co., West Rockport. Massachusetts Engine Co., Damariscotta. R. H. Counce Engine Co., Thomaston. Tiger Engine Co., Hallowell.

Androsogin Engine Co., Topsham. All of the above companies will take part in hand tub contests of the first and second class, but the reel races are open only to Knox county. The firemen's parade will take place after the arrival of the forenoon train Thursday, probably not starting before 11 o'clock, fast time. The parade will form with the right of the line resting at the Berry Engine house, and the line of march will be: Up Main to Rockland, to North Main, to Main, to Middle, to Union, to Beech, to Lincoln, to Limerock, to Broad, to Park, to Main, and disband.

Details for the muster were completed last night, when these officials were selected: Starter, W. F. Mansour; measurer of streams, ex-Chief John A. Karl and William J. Sullivan; inspector of tubs, Oscar M. Ellems and ex-Assistant T. S. McIntosh; hydrant man, Burleigh C. Nash; judges on stream, C. M. Harrington and Harry W. French; recorder of play-out, A. W. Gregory; timer of reel races, Orel E.

Davies; announcer, ex-Chief Karl; arbitration board, Chief Havener, ex-Chief A. H. Jones and T. S. McIntosh. The judges of the reel race will be selected from among the visiting chiefs.

The present status of the reel race will be challenged by the hose team from the East Coast Fisheries Co. The official program below tells when and where the events take place.

The army mine planter Gen. Royal T. Frank was in port yesterday, on its way to Bangor, and comes back to Rockland today to remain until the celebration is over. Its very interesting demonstrations, culminating Saturday with the blowing up a small vessel, are mentioned in the program.

The German battleship Ostfriesland will not come to Rockland on account of the expense which would be necessitated in putting it into commission. "Deliberate vandalism" on the part of their former crews have practically ruined the five warships brought over. The destroyer Crowninshield, sent by the Navy Department, for the Rockland celebration will arrive tomorrow, and the sub-chaser, with her from Fort McKinley, is scheduled to arrive Thursday.

Notes for the Queen Contest since Saturday have been coming into the Madi Gras headquarters very slowly as the candidates and their friends are taking a breathing spell after the strenuous efforts made on "double day" or else are holding their votes for the final spurt which will come Thursday, the closing day of the contest. From the present standing it would be hard to say who is to be the winner and there are rumors that one or two candidates who now appear well down the list, will furnish some surprises before the polls close Thursday night.

The standing of the various candidates at 5 o'clock Monday was: Shirley Glidden 25,534. Marion Brewster 8,645. Merle O'Brien 6,322. Winifred Fitch 26,746. Sara Hull 3,556. Elizabeth Colburn 24,685. Dorothy Weeks 13,440.

The citizens generally are asked by the Madi Gras committee to "get into the game" and help the parade and ceremonies along. In other cities hundreds of people—men, women and children in costume marched and the Madi Gras was made the feature of the celebration. A professional costumer will be here tomorrow, and this with the local costumers will aid all who wish to be in the parade. The committee should have the support of the public in its endeavor to provide this magnificent evening spectacle.

Entries for Athletic Day are coming in much more slowly than the generous prizes warrant, although there are rumors that Camden and other towns are going to send some of their stars here to compete. For the benefit of amateurs who do not wish to get a professional rating through each prize, the committee has arranged to give merchandise. Will prospective contestants please notify the chairman of the committee, A. C. McLoon, at the earliest possible date of their intentions to enter.

The ball game between Rockland and Camden at 4 p. m. Friday, will be one of the big events of the week, and will solve the question as to whether Camden Y. M. C. A. is beatable by a Knox county team.

The Elks Home, handsomely decorated for the occasion, is the official headquarters for registration for the city's Centennial guests. Ample provision has been made for all and home people as well are invited to make use of the Home to occupy its spacious rooms and to enjoy its hospitality. Mr. Case and his efficient committee will be in constant attendance to extend the city's welcome.

Those who are planning to enter cars, floats, etc., for Wednesday afternoon's pageant, are asked to notify E. B. MacAllister, chairman of the committee, at Young's (phone 47) in charge of the day. In any event they are requested to be at Gen. Berry Engine house, the place of starting, at 1:30 o'clock sharp.

The 14 trawlers at the East Coast Terminal Docks danned holiday garb yesterday, and will be one of the city's most interesting Centennial Week exhibits.

The "Key of the City" to be presented by Mayor Thorndike to the royal party of the Madi Gras revellers, has been added to the prizes displayed in the window of Palmer's jewelry store.

It should be understood that it is not too late yet to make entries for the various athletic events that are to take place Friday and Saturday. A. C. McLoon has charge of the entries for Friday's events, and those on Saturday are under the charge of C. W. Wolfe.

It should be noted, however, that Lloyd Lawrence is in charge of the dory race and may be reached at 290, W. J. Rich, Jr., is receiving entries for the straight swimming race as well as for the relay swimming race. Ralph Hanscom at Young's (phone 47) has charge of the motor boat race. These events carry very good prizes with them, and should bring out good competition. The official program given on this page shows the time and place of the various numbers. Wake up and get in! It's good fun and worth while fun at that.

WILLIAMS IN CUSTODY Young Man Who Passed Alleged Worthless Checks Hereabouts Arrested in Bar Harbor.

Raymon F. Williams, alias Roger B. Davis, who is alleged to have passed worthless checks to the amount of $500 in Knox and Lincoln counties, was arrested in Bar Harbor last Friday on a similar charge. He was arraigned in Bar Harbor Saturday, and was held in the sum of $1000 for appearance at the next term of Hancock county court.

In the event that he secures bail he will be immediately re-arrested and brought to Knox county for a hearing. County Attorney Withee's prompt notification of Maine Sheriffs as to the operations of Williams is understood to have led to the young man's apprehension in Bar Harbor, where it is said he had passed worthless checks to the amount of about $300.

County Attorney Withee is desirous of getting all possible information as to Williams' check operations in Knox county, and is taking steps through The Courier-Gazette that all who have such checks forward them to him at once with an explanation of the circumstances.

The East Coast-I. L. Snow game of the Twilight League will be played on the Broadway ground tonight, instead of at the Park.

A "Thriller" With An Object Lesson—See How To Save Property.

The State of Maine fire prevention picture is being shown at the local theatres this week—the first four days at the Empire, and the last two days at the Park.

This picture is considered by experts as one of the greatest educational features ever thrown on the screen and should prove doubly interesting to the people of Rockland at this time owing to the recent fire and the fact that a former Rockland man, H. O. Smith and his little five-year-old daughter Una play a very important part in it.

The picture centers round little Una who, while studying her lesson at night in the absence of her parents, pulls a lighted lamp to the floor. It explodes, setting fire to her home. Having been taught fire prevention methods she bravely puts out the fire, saving her home from destruction, while the Bangor Fire Department races at breakneck speed to a home entirely enveloped in flames that might have been saved had fire prevention methods been adopted.

It is claimed by experts that the work of little Una, in this picture will be the means of saving millions of dollars and thousands of lives from destruction by fire as her work in this picture teaches children as well as adults how to put out fires instantly, and should be witnessed by every man, woman and child.

During the year 1919 $3,029,780 worth of property was destroyed by fire in the State. See this picture and adopt fire prevention methods before it is too late. See what a mother should do when the coughing kettle catches fire. See what a child should do who upsets and explodes a kerosene lamp. See Mr. Smith step into a large box which five seconds before was a roaring furnace, fed with kerosene and oil. After seeing this picture you will see the advantage of adopting fire prevention methods in your own home. The fire extinguishers used in this picture showed 100% efficiency before Army and Navy Officers and the district fire marshal at Washington, and will be on sale at Fuller-Cobb-Davis Co. store. See their window display.—Adv.

Welcome, homecomers!

Schooner Lavinia M. Snow has arrived at Bridgewater, N. S., where she will load pulp for New Haven.

The barbers of the city have decided to make Thursday their Centennial week afternoon holiday.

Three thousand white hydrangeas is some sight. The Thomas gardens on Spruce street are a beautiful sight. Aurora Lodge will work the first and second degrees on several candidates tonight.

The Snow Marine Co. was notified Friday that the gasoline yacht Gerfalcon, owned by E. Howard Reed of Boothbay and Boston, was ashore on Halibut Ledge near Winter Harbor. Capt. Snow was unable to send wrecking gear at that time, but his opinion that the yacht could be floated at high tide was borne out by fact. The craft was but little damaged.

Fred M. Blackington has bought from M. C. Phillbrook of South Thomaston the roan gelding, saddle and combination which everybody has admired so much, paying a long price for him. Fred plans always to have the best, and as this valuable equine took his eye, he immediately purchased him. "He's the best all around horse in Knox county," said Mr. Blackington yesterday, with an intimation that a cool thousand was available to back the statement. The horse is equally at home pulling a plough or under saddle. It's a question just who will ride him in Wednesday's race, but the handsome animal will surely be seen in it.

The item in Saturday's paper mentioning the 10-foot hollyhock of the Maine Seed & Horticultural Co., has set the growers measuring. The first to be heard from was Nelson Cobb, who reports that at his farm in West Rockport are stalks 13 feet tall "and still growing strong." This year seems to be a great one for freak vegetation and fat worms and slugs. Apples are small, cabbage and cucumbers crooked, an abundance of potato balls. Nearly everything is over-abundant in stalk and foliage.

Word has been received by friends in this city announcing the death of Mrs. Mary J. Swift, widow of the late Joshua Swift, on Aug. 19, at her home in Montclair, N. J. Mrs. Swift was formerly of Rockland, daughter of the late Charles Lesener, and had many friends in her home city who will regret to hear of her death.

Bath Times—"All roads lead to Rockland this week" and it's safe to say that with two Bath hand tubs entered in Thursday's muster there will be lots of dust kicked up between Bath and Rockland.

Alton H. Blackington, staff photographer for the Boston Herald, is spending a fortnight's vacation in this city, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Fuller C. Blackington, who is the guest of Mrs. A. H. Carroll at The Meadows, and other relatives. Mr. Blackington confesses to being amazed when he picked up a recent issue of this paper and found the article on Ponzl, which he had written as a personal letter to a Rockland friend. Being in the newspaper game himself, Mr. Blackington is of a forgiving spirit, and has left in the editorial rooms of this paper a number of interesting photographs, showing Ponzl before and after the government stepped in, and his beautiful home in Lexington, Mass. Mr. Blackington is authority for the statement that the Ponzl scheme was unassisted by a Boston reporter some five weeks before it became the all absorbing topic in New England. The reporter's feature story was cut down to a few inches, and his disgust must have been infinite when the other papers played the matter up weeks later as a front page sensation. Mr. Blackington found Ponzl not an unwilling subject for the camera, and had numerous conversations with him. He kept his money in his jeans, however. The Samsonet Orchestra gives another dance in Penobscot Grange hall tomorrow evening, and offers handsome prizes. The "lucky" dance takes place at 10.45 p. m.

The women of the M. E. church will serve a fish-chowder dinner in the vestry Thursday Aug. 26th. Those who have not been solicited are requested to contribute pies or doughnuts.

SHOOTING MAY BE FATAL

Samuel B. Tibbetts of Damariscotta In Critical Condition At Knox Hospital—His Daughter In the County Jail.

A shooting affair which is said to be the culmination of a series of family quarrels, took place on the outskirts of Damariscotta Sunday forenoon. The victim was Samuel B. Tibbetts of Damariscotta, who lies in a critical condition at Knox Hospital with three bullet wounds on his person, and one bullet still lodged in his abdomen. A stone's throw distant, in the Knox county jail is Mr. Tibbetts' daughter, Georgia, aged 22, who is charged with having done the shooting.

Miss Tibbetts, who until a few days ago, was in the employ of Madame Emma Eames de Gogorza, the prima donna, in Bath, was taken to Damariscotta yesterday afternoon for a preliminary hearing before George W. Singer, recorder of the Lincoln County Municipal Court. A County Attorney George A. Cowan appeared for the State, and former County Attorney Philip Howard of Rockland was counsel for the young woman. Miss Tibbetts pleaded "not guilty," and examination was waived. Recorder Singer found probable cause, and held the respondent in the sum of $4000 for the October term of Lincoln County Supreme Court. Bail was not furnished and Miss Tibbetts was remanded to Knox county jail pending action of the Lincoln county grand jury.

According to reports which come from Lincoln county, Mr. Tibbetts is

They travel by the way of the White Mountains and Montreal, and plan to spend a day in Yellowstone National Park. At the home of Mrs. Padbury's parents in Long Cove, Sunday, there was a family gathering in honor of Mrs. Samuel Hawkins' 75th birthday and as a farewell reception for the Padburys. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins and four children, Mr. and Mrs. William Monahan and five children, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hawkins and their two grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. William Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Manford Humphries. Music was furnished by Mrs. Herbert Hawkins and William Monahan. Mrs. Samuel Hawkins received many pretty presents.

Some Rockland people are enjoying the good roads to the extent of motor-bathing to Old Orchard and going surf bathing.

The services at the Latter Day Saints Mission, 119 South Main street, will be continued every night this week until Friday, Rev. A. B. Phillips presiding. The meetings are well attended and much interest is manifested.

J. A. Burrise, who has been retired from the letter carrier service by reason of having reached the age limit established by Postmaster General Eubank, is succeeded on the South-end route by Theodore E. Perry. Southern residents don't know exactly how they are going to get along without Allie's regular visits, but are fortunate in having such a capable man as Mr. Perry on the job. Maurice O. Wilson becomes parcel post carrier. Ansel Saunders takes Mr. Wilson's route No. 6 and Almon Bird is promoted from second substitute to first.

Three Crows Topping the List In Twilight League—Long Cove Outclassed By Camden.

The Three Crows defeated the Chisox 3 to 2 in a hard-fought game at Oakland Park last night, the good work of both teams meriting the applause given by their enthusiastic followers. Adriel Bird who was on the slab for the Three Crows when the game opened was a mystery to the Chisox except in one inning, but gave way to Farwell in the 6th. To Farwell's pitching and his timely hit in the 6th inning the John Bird Co. certainly owes its victory. Jim Sullivan made the most wonderful play of the season with his one hand catch while running down an embankment after a foul.

The game between the Three Crows and I. L. Snow team which was played on the Broadway ground Friday night, and won by the former, has been protested on account of Cottrill. The protest will be acted upon at an early date. In the following standing this game is eliminated until a decision is reached.

Won Lost P. C.
Three Crows	4 1 .800
Chisox	4 2 .666
I. L. Snow	3 1 .750
Lime Company	2 2 .500
Lobsters	2 2 .500
East Coast	2 3 .400
Rockport	1 3 .250
Knox Electric	0 4 .000

Tonight, the East Coast team with Glenn Lawrence and the other new players in the lineup will play the I. L. Snow team, and Wednesday night the Lime Company plays the Lobsters, both games taking place at the Park.

Camden 6, Long Cove 2

So far as the relative merits of these two teams are concerned Camden Y. M. C. A. furnished no good reason Saturday why it should not claim the championship of Knox county. The game played on the Broadway ground was not sufficient, however, to convince local fans that Rockland cannot produce a better team than either. That it has not thus far done so may perhaps be attributed to the fact that there has been no regular baseball in Rockland this season, and nobody apparently enough interested to get together a winning team. The Rockland outfit which was defeated in Camden a few weeks ago was certainly not the best this city can produce.

However, it was the Camden-Long Cove game that we started to tell about, and it is not polite to butt in. Saturday's game went five innings, with the score 1 to 1, and it was apparently "anybody's contest." Then Long Cove, little versed to strange diamonds, cracked under the strain, and made several such egregiously bad plays that it was like going from the sublime to the ridiculous. The three misplays which spelled disaster to the team from the granite district were: First, Baum's mistake in running back to second base when forced; second, McLoud's action in holding Boynton out at first, when he could easily have nabbed Prescott at the plate; third, the failure of McLoud to cover home plate when Baum was fielding Morin out at the plate. Aside from these fatal "howlers" Long Cove played first rate ball, and was causing the Camden supporters no small degree of worry.

Camden scored in the first inning. Thomas hit a grounder to Hinckley, who had the wrong range on first and threw the ball far over Wotton's head. Thomas went to second on this misplay, advanced to third on a passed ball, and scored on F. Magee's sacrifice. Long Cove's first score, made in the second inning, was of a similar origin. McLoud singled, stole second, went third on Kenney's sacrifice, and scored on a wild pitch.

Both teams steadied down after that, and there was no further scoring until the 6th inning, when, with two men out, Richards was passed to first, stole second, and came home when McLoud threw wild to second. Prescott's double in the 7th, and Long Cove's errors above described, were largely responsible for Camden's surplus runs.

Long Cove got to Boynton in the 8th, when Kenney's double and the singles by Hinckley and Baum came in rotation. Richards recompensed for his error in that inning by making a fine throw to the plate and catching Hinckley by a wide margin.

McLoud, the figures show, had a shade the better of Boynton in the pitching, although the latter was more effective when the bases were occupied. Both did fine work. Baum is a speedy backstop, and was the only man in the game to make three hits. Prescott, the Camden backstop, did a similar stunt when he knocked the ball over the fence for what used to count as a home run. Hinckley, usually a very reliable player, had an off day, but the field work of Wotton, Hocking and McDonald was perfect. Kenney, the only Rockland boy in the game, contributed a double and a single, and made half of Long Cove's scores.

Magee was given some hard chances at bat and ate them with apparent relish. Wilbur's work in right field was no small factor in Camden's victory he it known.

The score:

Fuller (an annual event) falling this year (as usual) on Aug. 24, the Fuller-Cobb-Whiting family celebrated the anniversary by giving that gentleman the surprise of his life, making him the guest of honor last evening at Oakland Park, in a picnic supper served out of doors. The first intimation of the nature of the gathering came to Mr. Fuller when he was confronted at his place at table by a pair of birthday cakes and two bouquets, one of dahlias numbering the years of discretion that he has attained to, and the other of roses. A handsome traveling case was the gift of the members of the force, which, together with the compliment of the entire occasion, the recipient acknowledged with what words the unexpectedness of the affair left at his command. The balance of the evening the half-hundred participants spent in the dancing pavilion. LANCASTER-BLACKINGTON
Saturday morning, Aug. 21 at 11 o'clock, in the Church of the Transfiguration, the Little Church around the Corner, in New York City, a very simple but impressive ceremony solemnized the marriage of Ruth Brownie Blackington to Edward Sewell Lancaster. The single ring service was performed by Rev. Dr. Groves in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride was attended by Miss Florence T. Freeland, as bridesmaid, and the groom by Victor Hoden, as groomsman. Mrs. O. E. Blackington, mother of the bride, gave her in marriage. The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of tan and lavender, with hat to match and wore orchids.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Blackington of Rockland. She is a graduate of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn. For several years she has taught art in the public schools of Connecticut. The groom is the son of August and Mrs. Stephen Lancaster of Augusta. He is a graduate of Harvard, and a member of the firm of the American Paper Goods Company in Kensington, Conn.

The couple left immediately for a motor trip through northern New York, Canada and Maine. They will be at home after Oct. 1 in New Britain, Conn., where both have lived for several years.

BURMAN-WIGHT
New Orleans Picayune: Very prominent among the weddings of the year was that of Miss Pearl Wight, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Wight of this city, to George Summers Burman, formerly of Kentucky but now of New Orleans, which was celebrated Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. George H. Cornelson officiating. Owing to recent deep mourning in both families the wedding was very quiet. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wight of St. Louis, brother and sister-in-law of the bride were among the very few attending the ceremony. Miss Wight is prominent in social and philanthropic circles here and a great favorite. Mr. Burman is a son of the late Chief Justice and Mrs. Anthony Rollins Burman of Kentucky and his paternal grandfather was a member of President Grant's cabinet. He has made many friends during a residence of eight years in New Orleans, where he and his bride will make their home temporarily. News of the wedding, no previous announcement of which had been made will be of general social interest not only to friends in Louisiana and Kentucky but in Washington and other cities North where Miss Wight has so often visited.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:— I would like to get through the pages of your paper some information regarding the lobster law. What kind of a law do we have, that allows a man, or men, whatever their occupation may be, to have a license to fish, with only one trap. Certainly we know they are not fishing for legal size lobsters only. Any man who can get one, two or three traps can get a license to fish, and the fishermen who are in the business to make a living will go with out. A good law, I'll say! We want some more like them—and then ask the fisherman to protect them, and license men to destroy the lobsters. If that is the Maine lobster law, it can have only one object, and we can guess what that one is.

STARRETT'S AND SPEARS

Their Reunion Was One of the Largest (and Best) Ever Held in the County.

The Starrett and Spear reunion was held in Reunion Grove, Thursday, favored by the best of weather, and with 162 persons present.

The meeting was called to order after the usual bounteous repast by President Sidney Vinal of Somerville, Mass. Remarks were made by President Vinal, Rev. C. F. Turner of the Warren Baptist church, A. P. Starrett and H. V. Starrett of Warren, Henry Edwards of Detroit, Mich., Dr. and Mrs. Harry Chase of Boston, Dr. Joseph Starrett of Bangor, Mrs. Ellis Spear of Boston, Will Abbott of Ashley, Mont., and William Boynton, whose mother was a Thomaston Starrett. Ellis Spear read a poem.

The remarks were of unusual interest. Henry Edwards spoke of the Americanization of foreigners by requiring their children to attend the public schools and use the English language. He advocated going even so far as to take all emigrants, man, woman and child, as soon as they land, and put them into a school at government expense, and if they could not, or would not learn to talk and understand the English language to send them back where they came from. He told of a little town in Canada, settled before New England by the French people, who have French schools and a French church, and cannot speak English now. At the time of the late war they were neither loyal to France nor to Canada.

The following officers were chosen: Honorary president, Hon. L. S. Starrett of Athol, Mass.; president, Ellis Spear of Boston; first vice president, Mrs. H. V. Starrett of Warren; second A. P. Starrett of Warren; secretary and treasurer, Harriet Parks Stevens of Warren; executive committee, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Chase of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Burgess, and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Starrett; obituary committee, H. V. Starrett; historian for Spear family, Ellis Spear; historian for Starrett family, A. P. Starrett.

It was voted to purchase a book and have the Starrett and Spear families' genealogy brought down to present date, and record such historical facts as may seem worth preserving. Ellis Spear, A. P. Starrett and Dr. Joseph Starrett were appointed as a committee to secure and record these facts, and report at the next meeting. Now the whole family can go out on a Summer evening they're beginning to insist on knowing what they are getting.

The women should certainly be thankful for the automobile. It has given them a chance to see a lot more of their husbands.

And the more they insist, the better it will be for us.

But it has done a great deal more than that.

It has brought people closer together, given them new interests, swept away old prejudices.

What affects one man now generally affects a good many of his neighbors in the same way. And they have a better chance to get together and talk things over.

It's had its effect on the tire business.

When automobiles were new people were willing to buy any kind of a tire. Now

We want our customers to know what they are getting.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires—so there will be no doubt about it.

Whatever the size of your car, you know that the U. S. Tire you put on it is the best kind of tire its makers know how to make.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, without any limitation of mileage.

That ought to mean something to the man who has thought about tires.
