Student Government Association

The Student Government Association comprises the formal assembly of the student body which performs a variety of services in areas of student concern. The General Assembly, its legislative branch, consists of elected representatives from all campus living units. The GA allocates the SGA budget, makes recommendations on college oriented issues, and works directly with other organizations and college personnel in pursuing student interests.

The SGA cabinet consists of the SGA officers and student representatives on Campus Council. It serves in an executive capacity, facilitating planning and providing direction for the GA.

The SGA bears a great responsibility in providing for student input in the decision-making of various faculty committees. Each year, the General Assembly approves appointments of students for positions on these committees, which include the Library Committee, Academic Standards Committee, Athletics Committee, etc. Probably the most interesting committee is the Educational Policy Committee, whose membership of faculty, administrators and students make decisions on course offerings, academic policies and regulations. All students are invited to indicate their interests in serving on one of these committees.

SGA publishes a bi-daily newspaper, Potpourri. The daily news-ads and trivia sheet keeps the campus up-to-date on college happenings. Mary Ann Philbin, Editor, welcomes most all entries, including letters and commentary.

Committee works is perhaps the most vital business of the SGA.

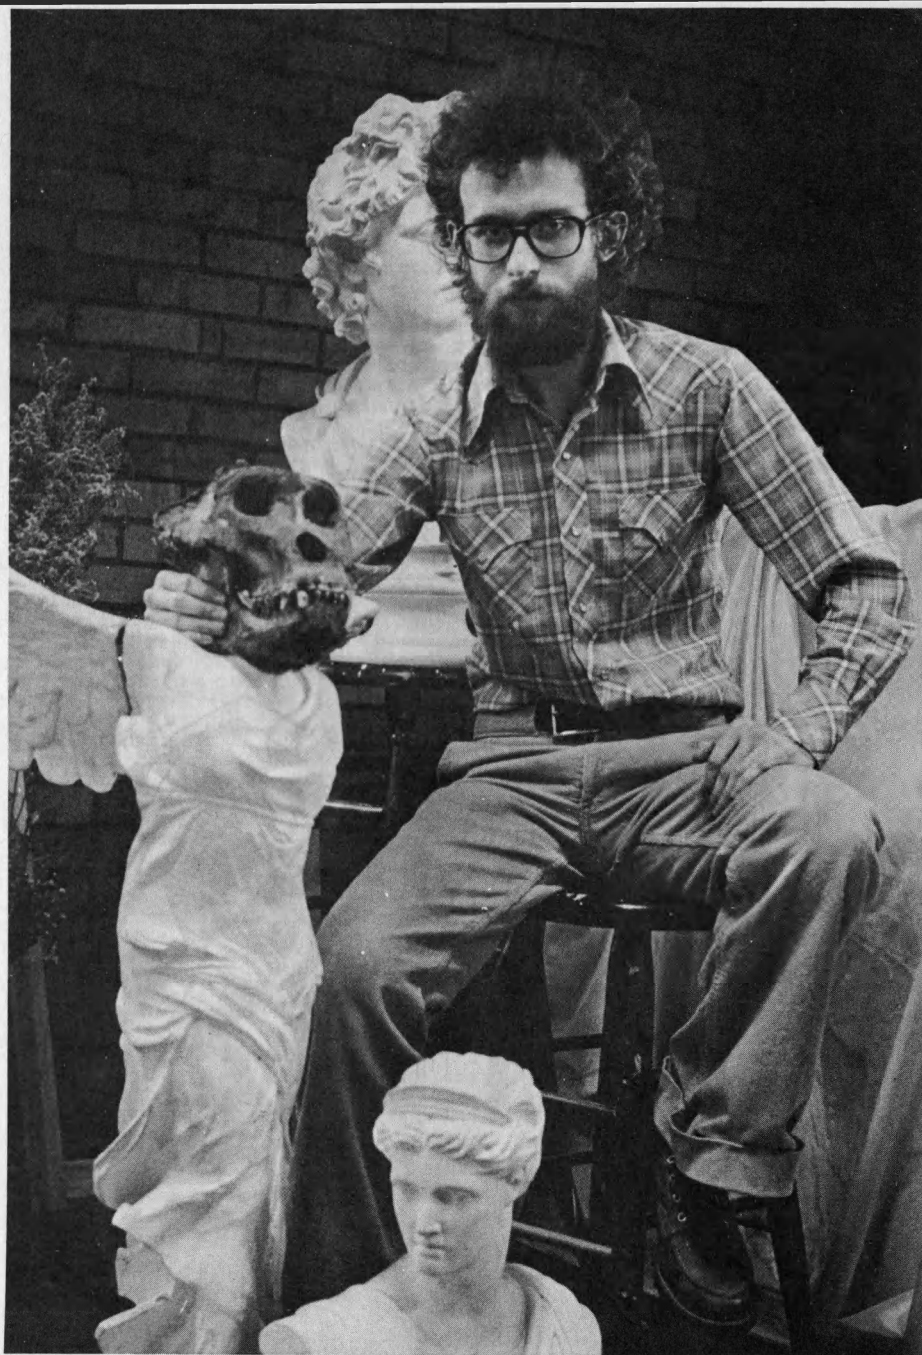

The Social Affairs Committee deals with topics ranging from the availability of student study areas on campus to relations between students and faculty/staff. Current projects have included working for greater student input in the hiring and firing of faculty. Mary Watson chairs this Committee.

The Financial Affairs Committee, chaired by Mario Miranda, works specifically with the SGA budget and appropriations of monies. The committee handles all funding requests made by other student organizations and provides the General Assembly with detailed reports regarding these requests and the financial picture of the SGA.

The Student Services/Special Projects committee provides a variety of services including student storage and beginning and end-of-quarter buses to Cleveland airport. The committee, chaired by Lain Burgos (not pictured), also handles elections and various research projects requested by the General Assembly.

Committee work is not limited to General Assembly representatives; all students are encouraged to become involved in SGA through committee work. Furthermore, students are invited to General Assembly meetings, and are encouraged to participate in meetings actively.

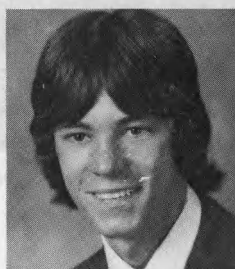

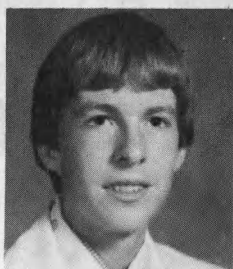

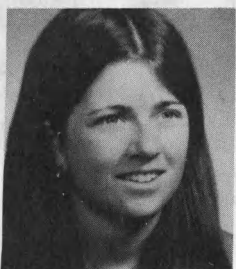

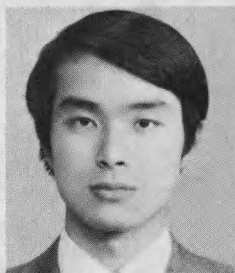

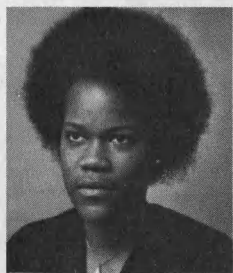

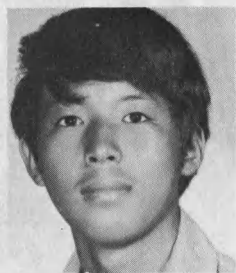

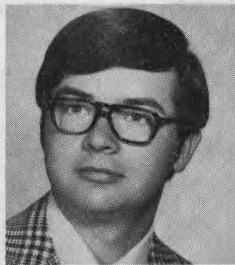

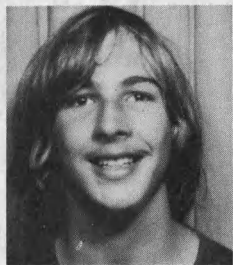

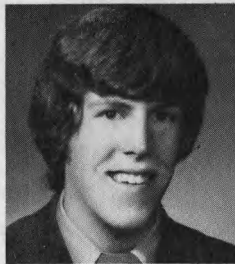

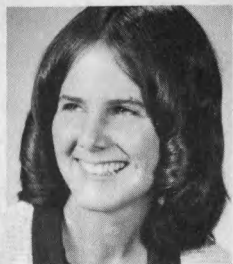

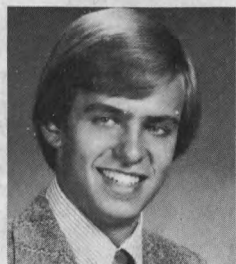

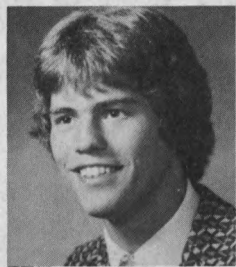

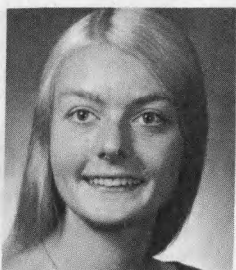

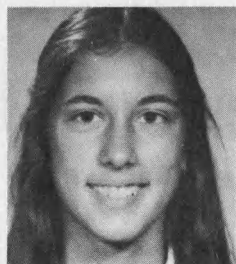

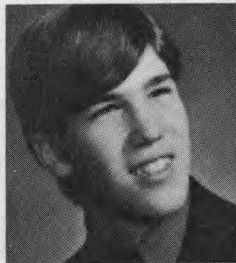

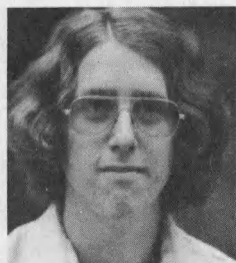

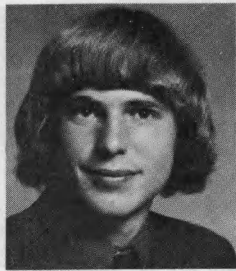

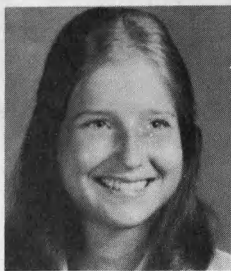

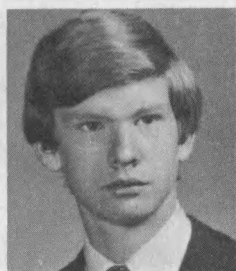

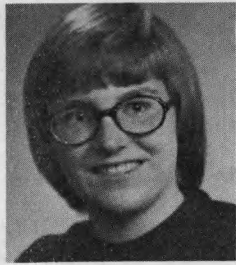

.. "When the transfer 'bug' hits, take advantage of the off campus opportunities. They're great for whatever ails you . . ."
