Social Innovation Research Prize Award Certificate

The Project CrowdmappingMirafiori Sud, presented by the consortium of three different partners (Politecnico di Torino, Comunità di Mirafiori Foundation ONLUS and Circostrizione 10 - MirafioriSud) is one of the three winners of the Call for Prize launched by the European Project SiforAGE – Social Innovation for an Active and Healthy Ageing.

The project representative, Politecnico di Torino –Department DAD (Architecture and Design) - Centre of Research and Documentation Centre in Architecture, Technology and Cities in Developing Countries (CRD-PVS), received the money of this prize (5.000 euros) and therefore is committed to:

- Develop activities within the project aimed to improve the quality of life of older people and their families and caregivers.
- Use a cooperation between different organizations and a multidisciplinary approach in the development of innovative solutions;
- Present the work progress in a bimonthly basis;
- Present the project in the SiforAGE Final Conference which will be held in Barcelona in October 2016.
