

SWOSU Employee Spotlighthted for March

03.01.2006

Jamie McPherson

Bonnie Harrelson

Bonnie Harrelson and Jamie McPherson are employees in the spotlight for the month of March at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

Harrelson is a custodian at Stewart Hall. She has worked at SWOSU for almost two years. Harrelson was born in Weatherford, and she and her husband, Mike, live in Weatherford. They have four children and seven grandchildren. She attends the First Assembly of God. A hobby she enjoys is reading.

McPherson is the secretary at the Assessment Center. She has worked at SWOSU for almost two years. McPherson lives in Weatherford. She is the daughter of Raymond and Debi McPherson of Cement. She also has a brother, Chancer, sister-in-law Melinda, and nephew Chasen. She attends Life Journey Church in Cement. McPherson graduated in December with a master's degree in community counseling (LPC), and she is currently taking additional hours required for eligibility for the Oklahoma Licensure LPC Examination. She enjoys working out at the YMCA; spending time with family, friends and her boyfriend, Brock; and hanging out with her Chihuahua, Bruizer.

The spotlight program is sponsored by the SWOSU Support Personnel Organization.