THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 11, 1974

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This is to acknowledge and thank you for your December 4 letter to the President in which you and 25 of your colleagues stress the need to reduce the paperwork burden and cost to the business community and the Federal Government.

Your letter has been passed along for the President's attention. I am certain that he and his appropriate advisors will give careful consideration to your suggestion that he direct the heads of all departments and agencies of government to reduce paperwork within their jurisdictions, and that such action be coordinated with the findings of the current OMB and GAO studies of this problem.

With warm regard,

Sincerely,

Tom C. Korologos
Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable James O. Eastland
