White House Mail

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

December 19, 1974

Dear Mr. Chairman:

After almost 12 years in the public service, I will leave at the end of this month to pursue a new career in the private sector.

And, as I prepare to leave the Federal government, I want to drop you this personal note of thanks and appreciation for your assistance, guidance and friendship through the years.

Working as the President's representative in the Senate for nearly four years has been a high privilege and a stimulating experience. You helped to make it so and I am personally very grateful.

My best wishes to you for the Holiday Season and for every success in the years ahead.

With warm regard,

Sincerely,

Tom

Tom C. Korologos
Deputy Assistant to the President

The Honorable James O. Eastland
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

You're the greatest!
