Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Senator William B. Saxbe, of Mechanicsburg, Ohio, to be Attorney General. He will succeed Elliot L. Richardson, who resigned on October 20, 1973.

Senator Saxbe has served as a United States Senator from Ohio since 1969. He was elected on November 5, 1968, for the term ending January 3, 1975. Senator Saxbe is a member of the Senate Committees on Armed Services, Government Operations, and Post Office and Civil Service, and the Special Committee on Aging. He is Ranking Minority Member of the Armed Services Subcommittees on Nuclear Test Ban Treaty Safeguards and General Legislation; the Government Operations Subcommittee on Budgeting, Management and Expenditures; and the Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Postal Operations.

He served as Attorney General of the State of Ohio from 1957 to 1958 and again from 1963 to 1968. From 1947 to 1954 he was a member of the Ohio House of Representatives, serving as Majority Leader during 1951-52 and as Speaker during 1953-54. From 1954 to 1958 Senator Saxbe was a partner in the law firm of Saxbe, Boyd & Prine, and from 1960 to 1962 he was a partner in the law firm of Dargusch, Saxbe & Dargusch. He is a member of the Ohio and American Bar Associations and the American Judicature Society.

Senator Saxbe was born on June 24, 1916, in Mechanicsburg, Ohio. He received his A. B. in 1940 and his LL. B. in 1948 from Ohio State University. From 1940 to 1945 he served in the U. S. Army.

He is married to the former Ardath (Dolly) Kleinhans of Toledo, Ohio. They have two sons and one daughter.
