6-8-1981

The Semi (06-08-1981)

Fuller Theological Seminary

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.fuller.edu/fts-semi-4

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.fuller.edu/fts-semi-4/23

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the Fuller Seminary Publications at Digital Commons @ Fuller. It has been accepted for inclusion in The SEMI (1981-1990) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Fuller. For more information, please contact archives@fuller.edu.
#33, June 8, 1981

COMMENCEMENT

In order to make the complex machinery of Commencement work for all students, there will be a cut-off time in the line-up process in the Gold Room on Commencement Day. If you have not arrived by this cut-off time, you will NOT be allowed to march in the processional. Graduates are to be in the Gold Room of the Civic Auditorium by 2:00 p.m.

Writing home to your parents about Commencement? Why not ask them to join you at the Commencement Day Family Luncheon to be held in the Garth at noon. Price: $4.25 for adults, $2.00 for children. Tickets are purchased that day.

- Graduates: Please check your Commencement Handbooks for the times when you can pick up your regalia.
- Graduates: Don't forget about your class pictures. They will be taken on the front steps at 9:30 a.m. Commencement Day. Remember - full regalia is required!
- School of Theology graduating seniors whose names are difficult to pronounce are asked to advise Dr. Meye's office of the correct pronunciation.

SEMINARS/WORKSHOPS/LECTURES

Evangelical Women's Caucus is sponsoring "God's Word to Today's Woman," a conference on language and translations in Scripture, to be held at Glendale Presbyterian Church. Catherine Kroeger, author, will be the featured speaker. Registration information available through the Office of Women's Concerns. Friday, June 5 (6:30-10 p.m.), Saturday, June 6 (9-4 p.m.)

MEETINGS/DISCUSSIONS

Share the Vision - Take a break from study and exams and join us in Payton 101B from 12 to 1 on June 8. Sally Dye will focus on the challenge of resolving cross-cultural conflicts.

STUDENT HOUSING

- Graduates and others moving out this summer: Save money! Remember to submit your 30 day Notice-to-Vacate. You will be charged for 30 days after your notice is received in the Housing Office. Final move-out date for those not returning in the Fall, Friday August 14.
- All student apartment residents: Rent increase notices and new contracts indicating a move-out date based on your degree program have been placed in student boxes. If yours are not there, please contact the Housing Office.
- Dorm residents vacating your rooms: Please make an appointment with Mary Lou Halley for your dorm check-out inspection. We may not be able to meet your schedule needs if you wait until the last minute. Move-out date is Monday, June 15, 5 p.m.
- Students on housing waiting list: If you hope to receive a housing offer during the summer, make sure we have a correct summer mailing address and the date you will be leaving campus. Failure to respond to an offer may result in your missing an apartment and/or being dropped from the waiting list.

FINANCIAL AID

- National Direct Student Loans for 81-82 cannot be awarded until after Congress makes its changes and sends us an official allocation letter.
- Student loan applications, both CGSL and FISL, should be processed now for the 81-82 academic year. It is a good plan to beat the imminent changes in regulations. Pick up your application at any post-secondary school or from Betty, Student Services Secretary, 2nd floor, #120.
MISCELLANEOUS

- CAUTION: Please take precautions against walking alone at night. A student was recently assaulted and robbed on the way home from campus. Proper precaution will help prevent such happenings.
- Reminder: Field Education evaluations are due at the end of the quarter.
- Volume 9:2 of our student journal Studia Biblica et Theologica will hopefully arrive during finals week. All students are entitled to one copy and when they arrive they may be picked up in the mailroom. If you wish to receive Vol. 10, nos. 1 and 2 this summer, please leave your name and address on a clipboard in the mailroom and they will be mailed to you.
- Moving Away? How about donating some of your things to the Mission Housing Project to be used by international and missionary students? We need desks, kitchen chairs, bookshelves, pillows, lamps, small appliances and cleaning equipment (brooms, mops, vacuum cleaners, etc.). Contact the International Student Housing Coordinator, Tina Miller, x. 3846.
- There are a limited number of openings available for students interested in Spiritual Direction next year. If you are interested, please contact Jollene Anderson, x. 3413, for info.
- A few positions on the Fuller escort service for this summer are open. If interested, please notify Rick Stedman, Box 1326, as soon as possible. Please leave a note as to the evenings you are available to work, along with your box number and phone number. Interviews will be scheduled during finals week.
- For as the Rain: Come worship in song, with prayer, praise and meditation. Tonight, Friday, at 7:30 p.m., Pilgrim Chapel, Congregational Church. (David Robinson)
- Thanks to everyone on staff and to all of the students who have made my time here very special. God bless you everyone! (Mary Lou Halley)

INVITATION

All School of Theology graduates are cordially invited to the annual Theology-Graduation Banquet which honors the School of Theology graduates of the Class of 1981. This event will take place on Thursday evening, June 11, 1981, at 6:30 p.m. at the Brookside Clubhouse, 1133 Rosemont Avenue, Pasadena. The graduation fee covers the cost of one banquet ticket per student. Additional tickets may be secured for $10 from Anne Demarest. No tickets will be sold at the Clubhouse. Please purchase your tickets in advance from Anne Demarest, Room 203, Slessor Hall, Dean Meye's office. Tickets are necessary for admission
NEW ARRIVALS AT THE BOOKSTORE include:

Biblical Studies

Ray C. Stedman, Behind Suffering: Expository Studies in Job (Word)—the spiritual resources of the Book of Job for those who have suffered the loss of something precious to them.

Martin Hengel, The Atonement: The Origins of the Doctrine in the New Testament (Fortress)—in the tradition of Joachim Jeremias (to whom this volume is dedicated) Hengel explores the meaning of the concept of "dying for" in classical antiquity and then traces the basic doctrine of the atonement to the sayings of Jesus himself.

Fred B. Craddock, The Gospels, Interpreting Biblical Texts (Abingdon)—a gifted preacher and NT scholar shows by his own interpretative work on specific texts how the materials in the four Gospels should be approached.

David E. Aune, Jesus and the Synoptic Gospels, TSF-IBR Bibliographic Study Guides (TSF Research)—a very useful annotated bibliography, compiled by an evangelical NT scholar, which also classifies books and articles according to technical level (beginning, intermediate, and advanced).

Theology

Hans Kung, Justification: The Doctrine of Karl Barth and a Catholic Reflection (Westminster)—a reprint of the work, originally prepared as a doctoral dissertation (1957), which in its published form launched the career of this distinguished German Catholic theologian, including in this edition the original response of Karl Barth and a new introduction by the author.

Ministry

Albert Curry Winn, A Sense of Mission: Guidance from the Gospel of John (Westminster)—the church's mission to the world as seen from the perspective of the word "sent" in the Gospel of John.

Earl E. Shelp and Ronald Sunderland (ed.), A Biblical Basis for Ministry (Westminster)—five respected biblical scholars give a perceptive examination of how the rich resources of Scripture contribute to an understanding of the nature of ministry (Paul J. Achtemeier, Victor Paul Furnish, D. Moody Smith, James A. Wharton and Samuel E. Karff).

William K. McElvaney, The People of God in Ministry (Abingdon)—a practical handbook for the laity, with the aim that the whole church would be involved in ministry.

Peter J. Surrey, The Small Town Church, Creative Leadership Series (Abingdon)—using a "case study" of a small church in "Bypass, Michigan" the author provides a much-needed guide for those ministering in rural communities.

Donna Sinclair, The Pastor's Wife Today, Creative Leadership Series (Abingdon)—drawing on her own experience as a pastor's wife and on contemporary research on the stages of adult development, the author explores the wide range of choices now available to women in this unique position.

William D. Thompson, Preaching Biblically: Exegesis and Interpretation, Abingdon Preacher's Library (Abingdon)—a professor of preaching at Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary outlines the procedures involved in moving from text to sermon.

Richard Lischer, A Theology of Preaching: The Dynamics of the Gospel, Abingdon Preacher's Library (Abingdon)—an analysis of the relationship between preaching and theology which explores the centrality of the resurrection, the relation between law and gospel, and how preaching calls upon theology to recover its oral-aural foundation.

William H. Willimon, Integrative Preaching: The Pulpit at the Center, Abingdon Preacher's Library (Abingdon)—an examination of the pulpit in relation to other pastoral functions, such as, administration, counseling, study, visitation, and teaching.

Spirituality

Carroll E. Simcox, Learning to Believe: A Meditation on the Christian Creed (Fortress)—a unique combination of the devotional and the doctrinal, addressing both the personal and corporate aspects of Christian belief and practice.

Richard Wong, Prayers from an Island (John Knox)—the mangos and palms of Hawaii provide the backdrop to these prayers and inspirational thoughts.

Current Issues

James F. Childress, Priorities in Biomedical Ethics (Westminster)—using actual case studies, the author treats the most urgent and complex moral questions being faced today in the field of medical care.

Keith Watkins, Faithful and Fair: Transcending Sexist Language in Worship (Abingdon)—how we can remain faithful to God and apply the emerging patterns of nonsexist speech to our liturgies.

Marriage and Family

Larry Richards, Remarriage: A Healing Gift from God (Word)—a re-examination of the biblical evidence has led Richards to see that the seemingly exceptionless statements regarding marriage and divorce do have exceptions which open the door to the healing gift of remarriage.

Counseling

Robert M. Bramson, Coping with Difficult People (Doubleday)—how to deal with Sherman tanks, snipers, exploders, compleat complainers, silent and unresponsive types, super-agreeables, wet blankets, bulldozers, balloons and stallers.

Reference

Gyles Brandreth, Pears Book of Words (Pelham)—those fascinated with words—their use and abuse—and word games will enjoy this collection.

Robert Moskowitz, How to Organize Your Work and Your Life (Doubleday)—proven time management techniques for business, professional and other busy people.

Heinz Ulrich and J. Robert Connor, The National Job-Finding Guide (Doubleday)—the only directory to where the jobs are anywhere in the U.S.A.