EINLEITUNG

Für die Fremdsprachendidaktik ist die Beschäftigung mit sprachpsychologischen und psycholinguistischen Fragestellungen nicht mehr so ungewöhnlich wie noch vor einem Jahrzehnt, als man schwerpunktmäßig die Leistung der Linguistik für den Fremdsprachenunterricht untersuchte. Heute ist die Frage nach der Leistung der Sprachpsychologie und der Psycholinguistik für den Fremdsprachenunterricht aktueller als je zuvor. Diese Bibliographie hat es sich zum Ziel gesetzt, dem interessierten Fremdsprachendidaktiker den Einstieg in diese Fragestellung zu ermöglichen. Eine solche Aufgabenstellung erklärt, warum bestimmte Sachgebiete stärker berücksichtigt wurden als andere, die der Psychologe, der Psycholinguist und auch der Linguist vielleicht besser repräsentiert wissen möchte. Auf der anderen Seite aber soll diese Bibliographie aber deutlich zeigen, daß nicht nur psychologische Erkenntnisse zum Zweitsprachenerwerb für die heutige Fremdsprachendidaktik von Bedeutung sein müssen, sondern in weitaus stärkerem Maße, als das bisher zum Ausdruck kam, auch Erkenntnisse zum Muttersprachenerwerb und vor allem zum sprachlichen Verhalten erwachsener Sprecher. Deshalb sind gerade diese Bereiche hier besonders stark vertreten.

Die nach Sachgebieten geordnete Bibliographie ist aus einer sehr viel umfassenderen Sammlung von Titeln hervorgegangen, die die Verfasser im Laufe der letzten fünf Jahre zusammengestellt haben. Da es verlagstechnisch unmöglich gewesen wäre, die mehr als 12.000 Titel zu veröffentlichen, beschränkten wir uns auf eine Auswahl, die vor allem auf Kriterien der Aktualität, der Zugänglichkeit und der Vollständigkeit der zu dokumentierenden Teilbereiche beruht. Es kam uns darauf an, vor allem neuere Titel zu berücksichtigen - deshalb liegt der Schwerpunkt dieser Bibliographie auf den sechziger und den siebziger Jahren - die Titel sollten gut zugänglich sein - deshalb stammt der größte Teil aus dem anglo-amerikanischen, dem deutschen und dem französischen Sprachraum - wir wollten die unterschiedlichsten Teilgebiete der Sprachpsychologie dokumentieren - deshalb entstand eine stark ausgefächerte Bibliographie, wobei allerdings innerhalb der einzelnen Sachgruppen als auch für die gesamte Bibliographie keinerlei Anspruch auf Vollständigkeit erhoben werden kann.

Zielsetzung, Adressatenkreis und Auswahlkriterien erlaubten es, das vorhandene Material auf etwa 6.800 Titel zu reduzieren, die etwa 120 Sachgruppen zugeordnet wurden. Die Zuordnung erfolgte für einen Teil der Arbeiten auf der Grundlage der Lektüre des jeweiligen Werkes, zum Teil wurde aus dem Titel auf das Sachgebiet geschlossen. Wenn dies nicht möglich war, wurde das Sachgebiet aus Zuordnungen in anderen Bibliographien erschlossen. Arbeiten, die nicht zugeordnet werden konnten, wurden ausgeklammert.

Das dieser Bibliographie zugrunde gelegte Einteilungsschema folgt den in der sprachpsychologischen Literatur üblichen Sachgebieten. Nach einem allgemeinen Teil (0.) der neben nicht näher zu differenzierenden generellen Arbeiten zur Sprachpsychologie auch Bibliographien und Rezensionen enthält, folgt der sehr umfangreiche Bereich zur Ontogenese der Sprache (1.). Der dritte Teil (2.) der Bibliographie ist Arbeiten zum Zweitsprachenerwerb gewidmet. Obwohl oben bereits angedeutet wurde, daß die Verfasser einen eher integrativen Ansatz von Fremdsprachendidaktik vertreten, wurden die Titel in diesem Bereich auf Arbeiten beschränkt, die eine rein sprachpsychologische Zielsetzung aufweisen; eine weniger strikte Grenzziehung hätte diesen Bereich, der auch in vielen fremdsprachendidaktischen Bibliographien dokumentiert ist, unnötig erweitert. Der umfassendste Teil (3.) der Bibliographie trägt den Titel "Sprachliches Verhalten im Erwachsenenalter" und umfaßt neben gedächtnispsychologischen Arbeiten eine Vielzahl von Titeln zur Sprachverarbeitung, -wahrnehmung und zum Sprachverstehen. Der letzte kleinere Teilbereich (4.) ist sprachpathologischen Untersuchungen gewidmet; es wurde darauf verzichtet, diesen Bereich auszuweiten, da erst kürzlich hierzu eine vorzügliche Bibliographie veröffentlicht wurde.

Eine große Anzahl von Titeln hätte sicherlich mehr als einem Teilgebiet zugeordnet werden können. Wir haben in den meisten Fällen jedoch bewußt darauf verzichtet, Titel mehrfach aufzuführen, denn dies hätte den zur Verfügung stehenden Raum unnötig verringert. Verweise konnten aus technischen Gründen nicht eingebracht werden.

Viele haben dazu beigetragen, daß diese Bibliographie entstehen konnte. Unser Dank gilt den Bibliothekaren der ehemaligen PH Rheinland und der Universität sowie dem Verlag, der bereit war, diese Arbeit zu veröffentlichen. Ganz besonders danken aber möchten wir unseren Seminarangestellten Marie Luise Büntig und Annemarie Peters, die mit viel Engagement und Geduld das Druckmanuskript erstellt haben. Besonders erwähnt werden sollte aber auch unsere frühere Kollegin Frau Gudula List, die uns bei der Erstellung und Gliederung der Bibliographie beraten hat.
