CLASSMATE DEADLINE

The monthly deadline for ALL Copy to the Editor, Box 2330 will be the 20th day of every month. Section reporters and Social Editors must adjust their individual deadlines to meet the initial deadline.

Published at no cost to the U.S. Government by Herald Printers & Publishers, 472 Calle Principal, Monterey, California. THE CLASSMATE was originated and previously edited by the wives of the students of the General Line and Naval Science School. It is now sponsored by the Officer Students' Wives' Club of the Naval Postgraduate School. Material and opinions contained herein are those of the publishers and are not to be considered an official expression of the Department of the Navy. Because of its function as an unofficial medium for the Officer Students' Wives' Club, advertisements in the publication do not constitute an endorsement by the Department of the Navy of services advertised.

President's Message

Gale Woods, OSWC President
(John Perkins Photo)

Summer — that glorious time we always look forward to the most each year, is upon us. Remember a time—long ago—when summer was filled with seemingly endless hours of leisure and our time was our own to do with as we pleased? Not so anymore. Somewhere along the line summer became the busiest part of the year.

This is a good time to pause in the rush of our daily lives and look about us at the unique beauty of the Monterey Peninsula. A fine example of this beauty is our own well-kept campus at NPS. (Have you noticed the gorgeous flowers in front of the Commissioned Officers and Faculty Club lately?) We are indeed fortunate to have such an inspiring and beautiful place for our husbands to study!

A Farewell Brunch for Mrs. Goodfellow and Mrs. Gaines was held May 23 in the Barbara McNitt Ballroom. These two lovely ladies will be leaving us soon and will be greatly missed by all of us. They have both given OSWC invaluable support, Mrs. Goodfellow as Honorary President and Mrs. Gaines as Advisor. We bid them a fond farewell and our very best wishes go with them.

There will be no OSWC function in June or August but July 18 is the date to remember for the Poolside Luncheon and Fashion Show. A social hour will begin at 11:00 a.m. followed by a cold buffet at 12:00. The fashions will be from Howard's with the owner, Mr. Batt, providing the commentary. Make plans early to attend as it is necessary to limit reservations to 200. Be sure to check the Pink Flyer for further details.

The Navy Relief Training courses were offered in April with Miss Fran Stonesifer, Field Director from Washington, D.C., conducting the classes. A sincere "Thank You" to all those who participated and so generously gave of their time.

The annual Adobe Tour took place in April with several fine Adobes open to the public. This is always a fascinating and fun way to learn about the history of Monterey. To Melanie Maxon and all those who volunteered to serve as hostesses at the Larkin House, "Thank You!"

The NPS Little Theater is to be commended on its production of "Guys and Dolls" last month. If you were not fortunate enough to attend this fine play be sure to watch for their next production and make plans to go with friends or your section, its an entertaining evening.

I am looking forward to serving as your President and will sincerely endeavor to justify your confidence. I encourage you to continue with your suggestions and criticisms for this is the only way our club can continue to improve.—Gale Woods

A Word to the Wise

Certain student officers have been approached by a representative of a land development corporation selling properties along the Colorado River. This representative has solicited business by stating certain staff officers, i.e., Captain GAINES, Comanders SUP and HAMMAN, have purchased land from him. This is not true. Students are requested to contact the Staff Judge Advocate if so solicited.

June Bargain Fair

JUNE BARGAIN FAIR . . . If you want to buy a good used bike, port-a-crib, or dining room rug or if you want to sell one your family has outgrown, come to the OSWC June Bargain Fair, Saturday, June 3, 10-2 p.m., on the playground and paved courts behind La Mesa School.

All postgraduate school families are invited to participate in the fair, and those wishing to sell items must provide their own card tables and boxes for display. Each participant will appear at 9:30 a.m. that day to pay his $1 registration fee to OSWC and set up his wares. All profits belong to the seller.

Any section, wives' group, or scouting group that wishes to earn money selling handmade crafts or baked goods will be a welcome addition to the June Bargain Fair.

OSWC News

I wish to thank everyone that participated in the election of new officers. Your co-operation in the recent changes in procedures has been a vote of confidence. Change is sometimes hard to accept but without change there can be no progress. OSWC has no desire to be a stale organization. We want to be "now" — "where it's at!" Any suggestions or helpful hints are gratefully received at any time. You might ask how do you get your ideas or complaints to us? All you have to do is call your Curriculum Representative (Liaison). If you don't know who she is ask your Section Leader's Wife. The Curriculum Representative then informs the First Vice-President who in turn takes it to the Governing Board meeting. This is the OSWC "chain of command."

The May break is over and summer has just begun. The kids are home running under the bedroom window wherein sits the "scholar" of the family. He has just told you for the third time the noise must stop! What to do? Pile the kids in the wagon, leave the dirty dishes, the wash, drive them to Dennis the Menace Park and sit for two hours? OSWC has a better offering to make you. Why not enroll those enthusiastic youngsters in one of the many crafts, arts and talent courses available through OSWC membership? There are teen folk guitar lessons, ballet and jazz, rhythm dance, sewing, hobby shop, and tennis lessons. You might find several courses offered right in the La Mesa area; or get some of the neighbor children interested and start a car pool. Now you can enjoy a peaceful hour, let the dishes go, sit in the sun and finish that long winter novel. Maybe you wouldn't mind taking a tennis lesson or two yourself now that the children are busy. Those lovely flowers you planted in March could be made into a pleasing oriental arrangement if you had a session with Mrs. Hayashi. Wouldn't the "scholar" think you clever if you learned to turn a trick or two on that sewing machine he brought home last cruise. All you have to do is check your Classmate issue for names, numbers and cost. You can also call the Activities Chairman for information. Give OSWC the opportunity to serve you and your family. Happy summer days.

The Plantation

—Suzanne B. Cavanaugh

A solemn face she bore as she leaned
 Her body against the hoe, and it clawed a furrow,
 Her withered forehead like a sponge oozed sweat
 That fell freely but never reached the soil;
 Her large misshapen body awaited a thrust of life
 And five tiny figures dragged at her skirt,
 Her toes sank into the powdered clay and with Each step a sharpness fled throughout her body
 In search of consolation,
 And hands frail and caloused petted the curly heads
 As she filled her lungs with the musty air—

A heavy hand slapped her back and the dust caught a tear,
 Just wind picking up the dirt and throwing it in the furrow;
 She looked hopelessly at the small brown patch—
 A shack of wood,
 And the torn and yellowed cloth over on occasional bush.

No, my man done me no wrong,
 Always done what he's telled and never sassed;
 Five young'uns and never loved no other,
 But he's just pushin' up weeds o'er there,
 See that old cross?
 Never had no spendins, just my hands and sweat.

Mister Tarbutton, he'd sooner see us starve!
 You see them ladies and them howlin' men,
 Never learned theirselves to hold their liquor
 And hardly put their pretty hands to the dirt—
 'Cept he'd call me dirt, now them little legs kickin' in me
 He's gunna have little pink cheeks,
 But makes no matter, he's a nigger baby;
 And all them guns a shootin' not knowin'
 What they's fightin' about,
 It ain't no use no more—
 Ain't no use, Lawd!

During the past year Mrs. Barbara Goodfellow has been a charming and very able "first lady" of the Naval Postgraduate School. Her demanding schedule as wife of the Superintendent, RADM A. S. Goodfellow, has not prevented her from becoming involved in other things. A few of her activities include Honorary President of OSWC, working with Guide Dogs for the Blind, Chairman of Voluntary Women for Navy Relief and a Board member of the Monterey Symphony.

Mrs. Goodfellow is perhaps most widely known for "Make It Now—Bake It Later," a cookbook which she compiled and edited. Proceeds from the sale of her books are donated to the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

The Walking Tour which shows the facilities and grounds of NPS all end with tea at the Superintendent's Quarters. Mrs. Goodfellow has done some redecorating in their quarters and the house has a feeling of home, a challenge to accomplish in the Navy.

RADM Goodfellow will be retiring in July and they plan to live in Coronado.

Classmate on behalf of the Officer Student Wives wishes to thank
Mrs. Barbara Goodfellow
and
Mrs. Rubey Gaines
for their kind support and encouragement and unceasing help to OSWC and bids to them a most fond farewell

Mrs. Rubey Gaines

Mrs. Rubey Gaines, wife of CAPT R. Y. Gaines, Chief of Staff, has a special place in the hearts of Classmate editors. She has been the advisor to Classmate during their tour. As advisor, Mrs. Gaines has been our trouble-shooter, crying towel, our hostess for Classmate coffees—in short, our mainstay. Executive Editor of Classmate would be a more appropriate title than advisor.

Aside from being our advisor, Mrs. Gaines has been very active in the Staff Wives' Club. Her hobbies include golf, bowling, bridge and knitting.

CAPT Gaines will be retiring in July and they plan to return to their home in San Diego.

Our thanks and fond farewells go to these two ladies, Mrs. Goodfellow and Mrs. Gaines. Thank you both for your time and effort given to the School, the community and the wives.

NPS Ladies Golf Association Welcomes You

NPS Golf Course Professionals: Mike Higuera, Assistant Pro.; Joe Higuera, Resident Pro.; and Roy James, Assistant Pro.

Lady Golfers! Get acquainted with our NPS golf course and its associated ladies group. Come on out! We play year-around and have a very lively membership. We meet every Wednesday morning: 8:30 for coffee, and 9:00 tee off. Our group is as flexible as one can get, and we've tried to mold our play to the players. For those who haven't time for 18 holes, we have a regular 9-hole group (so you can finish by 11:30 a.m.). You are not required to attend every Wed. either, just come when you can. But you'll soon find you are disappointed when your child turns up with a cold on "your day out." We have a monthly low net-low gross tournament, as well as many 'fun' tournaments and two Championship tournaments. (Spring and Fall)

Who's eligible? Ladies in the military (active or retired), dependents of military (active or retired), and civilian ladies whose husbands work in some capacity on NPS campus are invited to join our group of golfers. Don't feel you need to be an 'expert' to play with us—we have every level of skill represented, and an official handicap system evens everybody's chance of winning. Our dues are $3.00 semi-annually, plus 50c each Wed., for the weekly tournament 'pot.'

Let's not forget some information for your golfing husband . . . All active duty or retired military personnel are eligible to play at NPS Golf Course; and they are also encouraged to join the Men's Golf Association. Dues are $1.50 semi-annually. The men's group has a tournament the first Sat. of each month, as well as many special tournaments throughout the year (i.e. Army-Navy Tournament, and local Fellowship Tournaments with other men's golf groups on the peninsula.) Men who are interested please contact the NPS Pro

Shop or Mr. G. W. Weber, Pres., NPS Men's Golf Assn. (372-5135).

The Naval Postgraduate School Golf Course was originally completed as a 9-hole golf course on 31 Mar., 1963. Beginning in June, 1972, the beautiful new 'Back Nine' will be open for play, and our NPS Golf Course will become 18 holes for the first time. The management plans an elaborate dedication on 13 June, 1972, complete with celebrities, Government Officials, and several 'Touring Professionals.'

The Daily Green Fee is now $2.50 during the week, and $3.50 on weekends and holidays. To save money and play more golf, the Pro Shop offers golfers monthly rates, and 6-month rates, as follows:

- Single$8.50/mo.
- Double (Husband & Wife)$12.00/mo.
- (Each additional dependent)$2.50/mo.
- Single$45.00/6-months
- Double (Husband & Wife)$66.00/6-months
- (Each additional dependent)$12.00/6-months

In addition, our NPS Golf Course offers these extra facilities and services:

- a. Snack bar.
- b. Lockers, $.50 monthly.
- c. Cleaning and stowage of golf clubs, $2.00 monthly.
- d. Cleaning, polishing and stowage of shoes, $1.00 monthly.

THE PROS AND ASSISTANTS

The gentlemen in charge of the NPS Golf Course and Pro Shop include our Resident Professional, Joe Higuera, and two Assistant Professionals: Mike Higuera and Roy James. They are an affable trio and all are very patient instructors. Believe me, they give a beginner every encouragement. Joe has always gone out of his way to support our Ladies Group, and to help the ladies, in general. This is one golf course where you don't feel like you're "infringing on male territory," so to speak. Joe, Mike, and Roy all have hours available for individual lessons—either single lessons, or a series of six, designed to cover the use of all your clubs.

LESSON FEES

- The Res. Pro.
- $ 4.50 per lesson
 - $25.00 per series
 - $ 7.50 a playing lesson—9 holes
- Assistant Pros.
- $ 4.00 per lesson
 - $22.00 per series
 - $ 6.00 playing lesson—9 holes

NPS Swimming Pool

The swimming pool at the Naval Postgraduate School will be open from 1200 to 1800, Tuesday through Sunday and holidays. (Students, staff and faculty only will be authorized admittance commencing at 1100 Tuesday through Friday.) The hours of operation of the sauna bath will be the same as the swimming pool. A fee of ten cents will be charged to all eligible personnel, 10 years of age or older (with the exception of bona fide guests) to gain entrance to the pool area. The charge is required to help defray expenses of lifeguards. Authorized users of the swimming pool may bring up to three bona fide guests to the pool. A charge of 50c will be assessed for each guest. Dependents under sixteen years of age are not authorized to have guests at the pool.

Children who have obtained a qualification badge by conclusively demonstrating his ability to swim in the presence of a lifeguard, will be granted the privilege of swimming in the large pool, unaccompanied by an older person. However, children under ten years of age, with this privilege must be accompanied by an adult or a person over sixteen years of age, to gain entrance into the swimming pool recreational facilities.

NEW NPS
18 HOLE
GOLF COURSE
READY FOR JUNE

If you are a beginner, or feel you need some refresher lessons, just call the Pro Shop (646-2167), explain your needs, and they will arrange lessons at a time and day convenient to you. There are no group lessons as such, except for the annual five-day Golf Clinic which the Pro Shop and Recreation Dept. sponsor each September after Labor Day. This year the annual clinic will probably be held Sept. 11-15. Cost is a mere $2.00 for the entire week! (The money goes to the underprivileged "Junior" program of Monterey.) Participants receive five 1½-hour lessons covering all aspects of golfing. This includes films, demonstrations by the Professional, and individual coaching and practice. This is a tremendous opportunity (as well as a fabulous bargain) for new golfers or a former golfer who would like to start over! Be sure to check into this in September and watch for the sign-up notice.

Another benefit of belonging to our Ladies Golf group is the wonderful opportunity to play many of the other lovely golf courses on the Peninsula—via our Home and Home exchange program with the ladies groups from the other courses. (And this usually means at a much reduced rate, too!)

Honestly, you can't acord to pass up such a great place to golf year-around with a fun bunch of gals. Not to mention all that fresh air and exercise. Please consider this a special invitation, ladies, to join us at the NPS Golf Course next Wednesday!

In Our

swing•er (swin'er), n. [Colloq.] 1. one having a zest or life. 2. person or persons experiencing an involvement with active living. 3. an enthusiast

... all of which aptly fit the Swingers in our midst, Lt. and Mrs. Alan Swinger, an adventuresome couple, who enjoy exhilarating activities together be it racing a nineteen foot sloop, teaming up to complete a decoupage creation or just entertaining friends in their warmly hospitable Pacific Grove home.

When Lt. Swinger, a native of Berwyn, Illinois, entered the Naval Academy in 1962, his involvement with sailing began, a pursuit evidenced today by his position as Commodore of the Naval Postgraduate School Sailing Association. An enthusiast of ocean racing, he crewed on a USNA boat in the 1964 Newport to Bermuda race and in 1966, skippered the first Navy boat to finish that race. Also that year found Lt. Swinger in the San Francisco-Santa Cruz competition as well as serving as first mate aboard a forty foot sloop in the Chicago-Mackinac Race.

Soon it became apparent that not even a variety of duty stations including foreign ports could deter this avid yachtsman as he engaged in sailing with the Yokosuka Navy Yacht Club while his ship, the USS Ozbourne DD 846, was homeported in Japan. Later, while attending destroyer school in Newport, Rhode Island, Lt. Swinger became a member of the Newport Yacht Club and won the Club's Regatta on a nineteen foot Rhodes class sloop. It was during this tour at Newport, in fact, that he also gained considerable experience racing the thirty foot Shields class sloop used by the Naval Postgraduate School Sailing Association.

1970 found Lt. Swinger serving as operations officer aboard the USS Bronstein DE 1037, homeported in Long Beach, where he raced a Coronado 25-foot sloop in the Newport Beach-Encinata competition.

Then, after a subsequent tour in Vietnam as aide and flag lieutenant to both Vice Admiral King and later Rear Admiral Salzer, Lt. Swinger rejoined his wife, Sandy, here on the Peninsula and began his studies at NPS in the Operations Analysis curriculum.

A competent sailor herself, Mrs. Swinger enjoyed racing, prior to their marriage, at Newport, and since in Monterey regattas. Although a third party is necessary on a Shields class sloop used by the NPS Sailing Association, the yachting Swingers enjoy sailing a smaller Rhodes or Coronado as a twosome. Forming a perfect complement to her husband's role as Commodore, Mrs. Swinier is seeking to promote increased participation of wives in the Naval Sailing Association. Foremost among these plans is the organization of a Navy team for the Monterey Peninsula Yacht Club's Ladies Day Regatta on July 16.

Aside from sailing and other invigorating outdoor interests, Sandy Swinger has, for more than eight years, conducted classes in various crafts and is presently involved in decoupage instruction at the Monterey YWCA and at Sunset Center in Carmel. Her vivacious nature becomes especially apparent as she speaks of her creative interests and of plans for upcoming classes, among which will be instruction in repoussé, a technique of decoupage which adds depth and a three dimensional effect by shaping certain sections of the finished work in relief. Though some of her favorite projects have been sentimental gifts for friends and relatives, her work, with the label, "Sasha Creations," is sold by marketers in New York, Chicago, and San Francisco, as well as in numerous small shops on the West Coast. During his tour in Vietnam, when his wife was beginning to be intensely involved with the art, his correspondence, she reports, expressed a fear that he would return to his home to find it entirely decoupage, including woodwork and moldings. Reassured by his wife's creative talents coupled with good taste, Lt. Swinger now enthusiastically lends a hand in sawing, chiseling, or other bits of heavy work leading to a completed project.

When meeting this congenial couple one can immediately sense the warmth of their relationship and the satisfactions they share in their active life together.

Some writers have labeled Greece as the "Cradle of the Modern Spirit" because for centuries man has been enchanted by Greece, her past glory and present charm. Our lives are intimately entangled with Greek thoughts and ideas, so interwoven that we assume these qualities innately. Indeed, our modern world is deeply indebted to Greece and her people.

Studying the Classical Age of Pericles, the glory of Athens, the severity of Sparta, the magnificence of Alexander—all these transport one world that is as idealistic as Mount Olympus, its gods and heroes.

Such an existence couldn't be realized until I was fortunate to visit Athens and the surrounding area on the occasion of my husband's ship visiting Athens.

All of my expectations were more than satisfied, in fact, enhanced by actually seeing the ruins, countryside, islands, and people. Athens is a bustling cosmopolitan city where the modern melds with the ancient to provide a beauty and charm of its own. Imagine the thrill of actually seeing the Acropolis topped by the awesome Parthenon!

Walking to the Acropolis, down a small side street, I discovered to my unbelief, the Tower of the Winds amidst a small part strewn with remnants of buildings and blocks of stone throughout the grass. The whole area was enclosed by a concrete wall, waist high, topped by an iron-bar fence.

On my trip to Delphi, which is about a three hour bus trip from Athens, I was intrigued with the pastoral scenes and lovely rolling hills. We passed through several small villages as quaint as if they were the subject of a painting. The day was rainy and as the bus climbed Mt. Parnassus to the temple, the rain began to slacken. When I stepped from the bus and looked down into the valley, a shaft of sunlight streamed from the sky—almost as if Zeus himself approved of the visit. This only heightened my idyllic image of Greece. All the scenery and ruins are breathtaking and impressive; but if you visit this land you will find that the people themselves are what you will always remember—warm, friendly and hospitable. They have a "personal religion" called Philotemo. This is a passion of honor, family name and tradition which is revealed in several ways. Many Greeks must also include warmth and kindness to their philotemo, as these were exhibited to us countless times. When I recall these impressions I think of Zorba, the epitome of a Greek, full of life and savoring every moment. So did the Greeks I encountered. Perhaps they did not exhibit this openly at first but by the end of our meeting, their "Zorbanesque" vitality was exhilarating to behold.

Since 1972 is an Olympic year, perhaps it is appropriate to interview several of the Greek wives in honor of the country where these games originated.

Rolly Hadjiconstandis is a perky brunette from Salinka, the north region of Greece, better known to us as Macedonia, home of Alexander the Great. Rolly was a high school French teacher there when she met her husband, Tony. To teach, Rolly had to first work in the villages for three years. Also, in Greece, the teachers are civil servants, comparable to our government workers. Rolly and Tony had a most unusual engagement setting . . . a taxi! While she accompanied Tony on one of his frequent trips to the airport, he proposed—then left for Athens!

Petite Vana Pagonaris is a native of Crete, the largest island in the Mediterranean, home of the golden Minoan civilization. When she was little, Vana accompanied her mother to Johannesburg, South Africa, where they lived with an uncle for seven years. (This explains Vana's unusual accent!) After returning to Greece and completing her high school studies, Vana left for London and secretarial training. She met her husband Costas on vacation in flight from Athens to Canea, Crete, her hometown.

Rena Sarzetakis, tall and vivacious, also has an unusual background. A native from Minnesota, she met Ted while he was a student at Great Lakes. At the time, Rena was an Occupational Therapist in North Chicago. After a whirlwind courtship, Rena and Ted left for Greece to be married. However, due to Ted and Rena's different nationalities, "red tape" delayed the marriage several months.

When asked for their impressions of the U.S., the answers were as varied as the backgrounds of the ladies. Rolly does not prefer our supermarkets to the markets in Greece. She enjoys buying fresh food from the friendly shopkeepers who know her tastes and who will "save and select" the products she can purchase. Also, Rolly considers our school children fortunate in that double sessions are a rarity here as compared to Greece. Usually the schools in Greece are on the double system and as Rolly emphasizes, this is a strenuous task for the teachers involved.

In contrast, Vana prefers our supermarkets and department stores. She favors the concept of all products in one large store. Vana finds shopping here exciting and enjoyable; not only for the convenience but for the variety in goods.

Rena compared her impressions between the time she lived here and her six years in Greece. She found that she appreciated the supermarkets after her return from Greece. Most of all, Rena missed "the dime store" where one can purchase little conveniences. A true Greek-American,

The men who modeled and added so much to the show were Dave Anderson, Loddie Coburn, Dave McKinley, Skip Soper and Bob Woods.

The styles ranged from sport and swim wear through casual and afternoon dress, to more formal fashions for entertaining. Following the show the new board of OSWC officers were introduced: Gale Woods, president; Carol Payton, first vice president; Diane Newlon, second vice president; June Webber, recording secretary; Pat Mitschang, corresponding secretary; and Pat Cocci, treasurer.

Coffee and French pastries were served when business was completed.

NEW NAVY RELIEF WAITING ROOM

The new Navy Relief Childrens Waiting Room will be located in barracks No. 15, next to the Thrift Shop. It will be in operation in June.

The old waiting room has been in operation for thirteen months. During this time 2900 children were cared for by 55 volunteers. The Children's Waiting Room is a service provided by the Navy Relief Society. It was located in Building 22 at the Naval Postgraduate School Annex, formerly NALF, near the Naval Dispensary.

The Waiting Room provides child care for well children between the ages of three months and ten years while their mothers use the Naval Dispensary. No reservations are necessary and no charge is made for this service; however, donations are gratefully accepted. Money donated is used to cover operating expenses. Funds received which are not needed for expenses are forwarded to the Navy Relief Society, where they are in turn made available to Navy and Marine families who have emergency needs. In the first year of operation $540.00 was turned over to the Society.

The Waiting Room operates on the same schedule as the Naval Dispensary: Monday through Friday from 0800 to 1200 and 1300 to 1600. For further information please dial 646-2901.

Navy Relief volunteers staff the nursery. There are no paid employees. If you would like to help in this worthwhile activity, please contact the Children's Waiting Room Chairman Sandy Helt, 384-6886.

Other Navy Relief Activities in the area are the Navy Relief Office, Thrift Shop, and Layettes. All of these activities depend on volunteer help. If you are interested in participating in any of these Navy Relief activities, please call the Navy Relief office, 646-2470, for further information. You are truly needed to help us fulfill our motto "The Navy takes care of its own."

Any persons living in the San Diego area who can provide room for classmates are encouraged to contact Duane, Doug, or Bill. R.S.V.P.'s in all cases by 25 May please.

Introducing the New

Outgoing President Linda Liechty hands over gavel to newly elected OSWC President, Gale Woods.

Gale Woods, President, is the wife of LT Robert A. Woods who is studying for his masters in Computer Science. Gale and Bob are originally from Kansas and arrived here in February of 1971. Their last duty station was Imperial Beach and they are presently living in Marina. Gale attended Kansas State University. She has held the position of Secretary and Co-President of various wives clubs and was a caller for Marina with the Welcome Aboard Committee. From November 71 through May 72 she was the Welcome Aboard Chairman. Gale has also frequently been a campus tour guide. Among her hobbies, she enjoys tennis, bowling, painting, ceramics, decoupage and macrame.

First Vice President, Carol Payton, has enjoyed wives club activities and doing Red Cross work. She was Baccalaureate liason from November 71 through May 72. Carol's husband, LT James Payton, is studying in the Bachelor of Arts program. Carol and Bob have two children and they live in Seaside. During her stay in Texas, Carol became an accredited interior decorator.

Second Vice President, Dianne Newlon is originally from Wisconsin and attended Luther College in Iowa. She taught school for three years in Huntington Beach, California and has been on the Windows Committee and most recently was the Hospitality Chairman for OSWC. Dianne is the wife of LCDR A. William Newlon. Bill is in the Operations Analysis curriculum and his last duty station was Viet Nam. They have two sons and now live in La Mesa Village. Dianne enjoys golf, silk screening, crew and antique boards.

Recording Secretary is June Webber. She is the wife of LT Abbott M. Webber, Jr. who is studying Ordinance Engineering and Physics. "Bud's" last station was

Studio Arts Tour

The 12th annual Studio-Arts Tour, sponsored by the Monterey Peninsula Museum of Art, will be held Saturday, July 15, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Paintings, sculpture, rare books, and a collection of Vaughn Shoemaker political cartoons and paintings will be shown at Macomber House in Pebble Beach. The Museum will feature in the Main Gallery, the Hurschler Collection of modern tapestries, and on the Balcony Gallery, paintings by Jere Predika will be displayed. Also scheduled on the Tour are visits to the studios or homes of Carmel artists, Louisa Jenkins, Frank Ashley, and Danny Garcia. Mr. Ashley has donated a painting to be sold to the highest bidder in a "silent auction" to be held at the Museum following the Tour. In addition, artists Harriet Mayland, Mrs. James Tyson, Jane Hoppin, and Malcom Moran will open their homes or studios to Tour guests.

Refreshments will be served at the Museum from 4 until 6 p.m. Ticket prices, which include Del Monte Forest gate fees are: adults, $3.50; Military, $1.75; children, 12 or under, $1.75. Guests approaching Macomber House from outside the Forest are advised to purchase tickets from the Museum or any other tour site, as tickets will not be on sale at the gates. Brochures and tickets will be available at each of the tour sites and from the Museum, located at 559 Pacific St., Monterey, 372-5477. Those wishing to purchase tickets in advance of the Tour date may telephone the Museum. General Chairman for the Studio-Arts Tour is Mrs. Robert Blackburn.

OPERATION HELPING HAND

Operation Helping Hand is a program which sets into action ways of improving the lot of the Vietnamese Navyman and his family by bettering housing conditions, providing for better-balanced diets, and creating a rehabilitation center for disabled Navy veterans.

It is a non-profit foundation organized by a group of U.S. business and professional men in Saigon.

The program was created to meet the increased needs of the Vietnamese Navy which have been fostered as a result of the Navy's rapid growth during the past 18 months. During that period the Vietnamese Navy, as a fighting force, has doubled in size. Concurrently, the Vietnamese Navy has assumed more and more of the combat responsibilities.

The Operation Helping Hand Foundation recognizes that many Vietnamese Navyman and their families exist on a substandard of living. Pay is low and housing for dependent families is below standard, if even available. Key food supplements considered basic to the Vietnamese diet are practically non-existent. Also, no program is available to rehabilitate Navy veterans separated from service because of war wounds.

Beaming happily, a Vietnamese mother collects eggs laid by an OHH hen at the base where her sailor husband is serving.

Petty Officer Second Class Melvin Sturdivant shows off a 15-minute old piglet born at the task force 115 hog farm at Cam Ranh Bay. Sturdivant and three other U. S. Navy men are currently training Vietnamese sailors to take over their facility which began operations in September 1969, and until May, 1971, was the only OHH distribution center in Vietnam.

A WORTHWHILE CAUSE

The program will concentrate on improving fringe benefits because pay increases have been ineffective in solving the problems of the Vietnamese Navy-men. While the sailor's pay has risen some 30 per cent in the past few years, the economy has jumped by 200 per cent.

Low pay, lack of housing and other benefits brought the need for Operation Helping Hand into sharp focus.

Dependent housing is being constructed with Vietnamese and U.S. sailors working side by side. Materials not available for purchase by appropriated funds from both navies are being contributed by interested servicemen and citizens. Units are presently under construction at various Vietnamese Navy bases in the Republic of Vietnam.

The U.S. and Vietnamese Navies also are working to assist in the resettlement of the Rung Sat Special Zone, once a Viet Cong stronghold, now being patrolled regularly by the Vietnamese Navy. It is planned to construct basic housing units in 12 key hamlets that form the nucleus of the area through which the vital Long Tau shipping channel runs from the South China Sea to Saigon. Development of the hamlets should strengthen the local government and maintain security established by operational forces.

At Phu Cuong Operational Base, Vietnamese sailors and their dependents purchase fish caught through the OHH program at a fraction of the open market price.

More protein will help this little girl live a healthier, happier life. Her diet and that of thousands of Vietnamese Navy dependents are constantly improving as a result of OHH animal husbandry projects.

"Under one roof"

Operation Helping Hand will support a self-help program in animal husbandry. Through this effort Vietnamese Navy dependent families are able to raise animals and poultry which are vital for a nourishing and balanced diet. U.S. sailors, on a volunteer basis, are teaching their Vietnamese counterparts how to care for and breed the stock.

The final goal of Operation Helping Hand is to assist in the development of a naval veterans rehabilitation center. Designed to teach veterans useful trades, the center's goal will help to ensure that former Navymen return to their communities as productive members of the postwar society. Vietnamese and U.S. personnel will construct the center as materials become available.

Operation Helping Hand is now underway to solve those specific problems.

Operation Helping Hand will strengthen the Vietnamese Navy by providing the financial means to develop a stable corps of career personnel, improve family security, and build service loyalty.

Contributions may be forwarded to: Operation Helping Hand; Box OHH; FPO San Francisco 96626. Funds will go to support the self-help efforts now being jointly conducted by the U.S. and Vietnamese Navies.
