JOINT PRESS RELEASE BY THE PREMIER, MR DUNSTAN, AND THE LORD MAYOR OF ADELAIDE, MR R.W. CLAMPETT. 22.2.74.

PENANG CHIEF MINISTER.

The Chief Minister of Penang, Dr Lim Chong Eu, and Mrs Lim are to make an official visit to South Australia next month.

This was announced tonight by the Premier, Mr Dunstan, and the Lord Mayor of Adelaide, Mr R.W. Clampett.

With them will be Mr Tan Gim Hwa, a member of the Penang Executive Council who is responsible for tourism and development within the State.

Dr and Mrs Lim and Mr Tan arrive on March 17 and will be in South Australia for about a week. They will be guests of the South Australian Government.

Mr Dunstan said the visit followed talks on joint development by the two States which he had with Dr Lim and members of the Penang Government during his visit there last December.

Georgetown-Penang and Adelaide are sister cities - the relationship was formally initiated during the Premier's visit - and Dr Lim will have discussions on this with the Lord Mayor and members of the City Council during his stay.

Mr Dunstan said that in lengthy talks with Dr Lim last year he and the Chief Minister had identified numbers of areas for likely joint development.

These included industrial development on a joint basis, technical assistance and tourism promotion.

"There have since been further contacts on an officer level and I hope that during Dr Lim's visit we shall be able to take further a number of specific projects now being considered", he added.

The Premier said that Dr Lim's Government had made spectacular progress in expanding employment and investment in Penang and that there was every scope for mutually profitable co-operation between the two States.

Details of Dr Lim's itinerary will be released later but Mr Dunstan said the official engagements would include a State dinner and reception. Dr and Mrs Lim and Mr Tan would also attend a number of Adelaide Arts Festival performances in addition to Dr Lim's talks with himself and senior Government Ministers.

The Lord Mayor said that there would be a number of civic engagements arranged by the City Council. Mr Clampett said that these included a civic lunch and a reception in the Queen Adelaide Room of the Town Hall.
