$79,385 AWARDED TO COLLEGE FOR BILINGUAL TEACHING PROJECT

Bilingual Teacher Corps Project for the 1979-80 academic year.

A renewed bilingual teacher corps grant has been awarded to the College. The Department of Education has allotted $79,385 to continue the College's Bilingual Teacher Corps Project for the 1979-80 academic year.

This marks the fifth consecutive year that the College has been awarded such a grant, and the highest amount yet received. Dr. Helena Stanton is director of the bilingual, bicultural teacher training program, under which teacher aides are furnished stipends and college training to finish work on their credentials or bachelor degrees in bilingual education.

Many of the aides are later hired as teachers by the school districts where they are employed as aides after completing their college work. Last year 20 completed the program and are now teaching in the public schools.

The funds allotted this year are to cover costs for 39 full-time equivalent teacher aides, many of whom will continue on from last year's program.

Dr. Stanton says there are still some openings this quarter and there will be at least ten openings next quarter.

Participants must take a minimum of eight units per term at CSCSB and must be working as bilingual aides for a minimum of 10 hours a week. They will receive $500 (for a full academic load) per quarter, plus $350 a year for other expenditures.

VETERAN'S DAY SET ASIDE FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY

November 11 is Veteran's Day. A State holiday, it falls on Sunday this year and will be observed officially on Monday, November 12.

However, it has been designated by the Academic Calendar as an in-lieu holiday for the College, to be taken on December 24. This will allow a four-day holiday over Christmas.

CURTAIN CALL

On stage

The Jungle Books

The closing performances of "The Jungle Books" will be given tonight and tomorrow night.

Some seats are still available, according to the Theatre Arts Dept. Call 7452 for ticket information.

This unique production has every actor except Mowgli, the boy of the jungle, assuming five or six different characters on stage. The story is also narrated through the use of slides and film. An electronic musical score enhances the staging.

MISS REARDON

Tickets are now on sale for "And Miss Reardon Drinks a Little." Seats are available for all performances.

The play by Paul Zindel, Pulitzer Prize-winner, is directed by William Slout. Billed as an "adult drama," the story is about three Reardon sisters facing a difficult period in their lives. It is both frank and funny. Opening night is Thursday, November 8. Other performances are on November 9, 10, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Curtain time for both plays is 8:15 p.m. "Jungle Books" is on the stage of the Recital Hall; "Miss Reardon" will tread the boards of The Theatre. Admission prices are: general, $3; CSCSB staff and faculty, $2; students and senior citizens, $1.50.

CAMPUS AUF CAMPAIGN A record $6,304 has been contributed to this year's campus
NETS RECORD AMOUNT AUF drive, according to Vice President J. K. Thomas, campaign director. The figures, taken on October 25, show that on that date the total exceeded by nearly 10% the final amount of last year's campaign and is possibly the highest total contribution yet made to the Arrowhead United Fund by the College. Contributions are continuing to be received.

Dr. Thomas says, "For this outstanding record I want to thank everyone who has cooperated in the community effort and hope that those who have not yet contributed will do so by next Wednesday so we can close this very successful campaign with an even higher figure. I would also like to thank everyone in the various departments who assisted in soliciting for the drive."

'79-80 DIRECTORY BEING DISTRIBUTED

The new 79-80 College Directory is being distributed today. The College community is reminded that names, addresses and phone numbers are for employee use only and are not to be used for promotional or commercial mailing lists. Some employees have reported being contacted for insurance and other sales purposes.
