Research Questions

- How did Sandys reconcile his radical beliefs with a moderate religious settlement?
- How far was Sandys able to achieve his aim of reforming religion in the North?

Key areas of study

- The Succession Crisis – Lady Jane Grey v. Mary I (Protestant v. Catholic England)
- 1559 A year of change – A new Protestant England and Sandys' role in it?
- A radical in a Radical City? Sandys and the City of London – the Vestiarian controversy
- Sandys and the North – 1559 Visitation and his later role as Archbishop of York*

A man of contradictions

- A man of principle and strong beliefs
OR a pragmatist with flexible beliefs
- A radical reformer OR one of the establishment
- A ecclesiastic zealot or family man
- Have you heard the one about the Archbishop, the Innkeeper and the Innkeepers wife...
- and the Catholic gentleman.... to be continued...
