THE HOW

ALMA MATER

OLD WHITE AND BLUE

BY MRS. MARY T. ELDRIDGE

OUR COLORS SO TRUE, OH HAIL, WHITE AND BLUE!
TO THEE OUR VOICES RING.
THO' SEASONS MAY ROLL, AND CHANGES UNFOLD,
THY PRAISE WE'LL EVER SING.
ALL HONOR AND LOVE AND LOYALTY
WE PLEDGE OUR HEARTS ANEW.
OUR ALMA MATER F. S. U.
WE HAIL THEE, OLD WHITE AND BLUE.

WE CHERISH EACH HALL, EACH TIME HONORED WALL
EACH BENDING TREE AND BOWER.
THO' FAR WE MAY ROAM, THY SPIRIT LEADS ON TO VICTORY AND POWER.
WITH COURAGE AND MIGHT AND MAJESTY
MARCH ON, OLD COLORS TRUE.
OUR ALMA MATER, F. S. U.
WE'LL STAND BY OLD WHITE AND BLUE!

A photograph of Fayetteville State University. In the foreground, a curved concrete wall features the university's name in large, black, sans-serif capital letters. To the left of the sign, a fountain sprays water upwards. Behind the sign, a large, multi-story brick building with a modern glass-enclosed section is visible. The sky is clear and blue, and the foreground consists of a grassy area with a layer of brown mulch.

Your commencement ceremony is a crowning moment in your life and a testament to your ability to stay the course. The determination you have exhibited through these difficult times, speaks volumes to who you are and what you are made of. Thank you for being a great example for other students to follow.”

DARRELL T. ALLISON

CHANCELLOR
OF THE UNIVERSITY

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! On behalf of Fayetteville State University, I am honored to share in this momentous occasion with you and congratulate you on successfully arriving at this extraordinary milestone. Today not only marks the end of your college journey, but it also symbolizes your new beginnings.

You are a part of a unique graduating class. Not only did you survive a rigorous course load and demanding faculty members who pushed you to be the best, you did all of that during a global pandemic. While I know the past year has not been easy for you and your families, I commend you for exhibiting true Bronco Pride and continuing to persevere through it all.

Your commencement ceremony is a crowning moment in your life and a testament to your ability to stay the course. The determination you have exhibited through these difficult times, speaks volumes to who you are and what you are made of. Thank you for being a great example for other students to follow.

As you march across this stage to receive your degree, I know that you are ready for a promising future. The outstanding faculty and staff at this great university have prepared you to go forth and do great things for yourself, your community, the nation, and the world. There is no doubt in my mind that you will be a true representative of FSU and will show everyone what it means to be a proud and educated Bronco.

When you leave today as an alumnus, it is my hope that you will reflect on the many great times that you had here. Think back on the first day that you arrived on this campus and how excited you were to be a part of the Bronco family. Remember all the great people you have met, friendships you have made, and lessons you have learned. I encourage you to reminisce on the countless hours you spent studying, writing papers, and presenting in class – all things you did to achieve your goal of attaining a college degree. I am certain you are proud that your school of choice was FSU.

I wish each of you the very best that life has to offer and always know that FSU will be your home away from home.

In the Bronco Spirit,

You possess the ability to achieve while navigating a worldwide pandemic, the calls to get involved in various social justice issues, and the agility to change how you gather and assimilate information from many different mediums...”

STUART A. AUGUSTINE
FSU BOARD OF TRUSTEES
CHAIR

Congratulations Graduates!!!

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of Fayetteville State University, we want to congratulate you on the completion of this part of your journey, becoming Bronco Alumni. Starting in the Spring of 2020, each of you has been dealt a very unique set of circumstances to navigate. Each of you graduating today has shown the resilience and commitment to overcome these challenges. You are all now faced with a major fork in the road for your future. Some of you are ending your formal education process here and headed straight into the work force. Others of you are only making a pit stop before continuing on to the next level of school. Whichever road you follow from here, you all have an extra skill most other graduates do not, the clear ability to achieve against so many odds. You possess the ability to achieve while navigating a worldwide pandemic, the calls to get involved in various social justice issues, and the agility to change how you gather and assimilate information from many different mediums as we moved from primarily in person learning to primarily online learning. Today is a celebration of the work you have completed. We, the Board of Trustees, are proud of you and the great things you have accomplished. More importantly, we are excited to learn about the great things yet to be accomplished by each and every one of you. Thank you for allowing us to serve you and we wish you the best of luck as you journey out into bright and exciting futures.

Good luck and congratulations!!!

FSU NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION, INC.
PRESIDENT

I would like to extend on behalf of the National Alumni Association, Inc. a hearty congratulations to all graduates for obtaining your degree. This is a remarkable achievement and I know your family is proud of you, I know your friends are proud of you, I know you are proud of yourself, and I too take pride in you for staying the course and successfully fulfilling the requirements of your chosen discipline. In North Carolina, 72.4% of bachelor's degree recipients graduate from public institutions. Some 16.6% of college graduates in the state graduate with a master's degree and 4.5% graduate with a doctorate or a professional degree. You are among these achievers and you are further commended for this accomplishment.

You invested in Fayetteville State University and the university invested in you by ensuring a qualified faculty of 80% with doctoral degrees or better were leading and assisting you in meeting your educational goals.

During graduation ceremonies I would administer the Alumni Pledge. I would also inform you that as a graduate you are now a member of the National Alumni Association and your first year membership is at no cost to you. I encourage you to continue your membership well beyond the initial year as your support for the association and the university is what allows for growth and sustainment. Reach out to a local chapter and if there is not one in your area, gather other Broncos and take the initiative to start a viable chapter because you are.....a Bronco for Life!

Things may not have been perfect during your educational tenure at FSU but I ask that you not hold that against the university. As an alumnus, I ask that you give back to the university and the association. I ask that you come back to campus, even if it is for homecoming and that your visits are frequent and not one and done.

Welcome to Bronco Nation as this is Bronco Pride!

FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

In 1867, seven Black men - Matthew N. Leary, Jr., Andrew J. Chesnutt, Robert Simmons, George Grange, Sr, Thomas Lomax, Nelson Carter, and David A. Bryant - paid $136 for two lots on Gillespie Street and converted themselves into a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees to maintain this property permanently as a site for the education of Black children in Fayetteville. General O. O. Howard of the Freedman's Bureau, erected a building on this site, and the institution became known as the Howard School. Under the leadership of Robert Harris, the school gained a reputation for its excellence in teaching. By a legislative act of 1877, the North Carolina General Assembly provided for the establishment of a Normal School for the education of Black teachers and the Howard School was selected to become the first State Colored Normal School. Robert Harris was named as Principal. Succeeding him between 1880 and 1899 were Charles W. Chesnutt, Ezekiel E. Smith, George Williams, and Leonard E. Fairley.

In 1899, Dr. Smith returned to the institution and in 1908 moved the school to its permanent site on Murchison Road. The school grew from a two-story wooden structure to a physical plant of ten buildings on a fifty-acre tract of land. Smith's title was changed from Principal to President in 1927. Smith's tenure covered a span of fifty years 1883-1933.

Dr. J. Ward Seabrook succeeded Dr. Smith and under his presidency the school became Fayetteville State Teachers College, thereafter being authorized to grant the Bachelor of Science Degree in Elementary Education. The college received both state and regional accreditation in 1947.

Dr. Rudolph Jones was named as President when Seabrook retired in 1956. The curriculum was expanded to include majors in secondary education and programs leading to degrees outside the teaching field. The name of the school was changed to Fayetteville State College in 1963.

In 1969, the institution acquired its present name, "Fayetteville State University," and Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr. was elected president. By a legislative act in 1972, Fayetteville State University became a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina System, and Dr. Lyons became its first Chancellor.

On January 1, 1988, Dr. Lloyd V. Hackley became the eighth Chief Executive Officer of the University. During his tenure, FSU's master's level programs expanded to include biology, business administration, education, English, history, mathematics, psychology, sociology, and teaching; FSU's first doctoral program in Educational Leadership was established; and, baccalaureate programs increased to include 36 disciplines in the arts and sciences, business and economics, and education.

Dr. Donna J. Benson, Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs of The University of North Carolina, served as FSU's Interim Chancellor from January 1, 1995 to November 15, 1995.

Dr. Willis B. McLeod, a 1964 graduate of Fayetteville State University, became the ninth Chief Executive Officer on November 15, 1995 and was the first alumna to serve as Chancellor. He expanded academic programs, enhanced athletics and school pride, and expanded collaboration between community colleges, public schools, and FSU.

In July 2003, Dr. T.J. Bryan became the first woman elected as Chancellor of FSU. She introduced several new degree programs.

In 2007, Dr. Lloyd V. Hackley returned as Interim Chancellor. He introduced a number of organizational changes for greater efficiency of operations and laid the framework for a smooth transition of the new chancellor, Dr. James A. Anderson.

On June 9, 2008, Dr. James A. Anderson began his duties as Chancellor of the state's second-oldest public institution. His highlights included a Strategic Plan for 2015-2020, and a Capital Campaign that exceeded its $25 million goal.

In July 2019, Dr. Peggy Valentine assumed the role as Interim Chancellor. During her 18-month tenure, she implemented the 2020-2025 Strategic Plan, focused on enhancing University Communications and secured millions in COVID-19 funding and expanded partnerships with Dell Technologies, Meharry Medical College and the Golden Leaf Foundation.

On February 18, 2021, Chancellor Darrell T. Allison was named by the University of North Carolina Board of Governors as the 12th Chancellor of Fayetteville State University.

OUR MISSION

Fayetteville State University (FSU), a public comprehensive, Historically Black University, offers robust and innovative degree programs rooted in the liberal arts tradition. The university advances knowledge through the integration of teaching, learning, research, and public service. FSU strives to meet the educational, career, and personal aspirations of its students from rural, military, and other diverse backgrounds so that they are equipped with academic and practical knowledge to serve local, state, national, and global communities as enlightened citizens, globally astute leaders, and engaged solution creators.

OUR VISION

Fayetteville State University, the second oldest public university in North Carolina and a constituent institution of the University of North Carolina System, will be the regional university of choice for students from rural, military, and other diverse backgrounds who are poised to become visionary leaders who transform communities, states and nations.

OUR CORE VALUES

INTEGRITY: Commitment to transparency

FLEXIBILITY AND ADAPTABILITY: Producing career and life-ready global citizens

SHARED GOVERNANCE: Engaging all members of the university community in decision making

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION: Working collaboratively and effectively in a global society

COLLABORATIONS AND PARTNERSHIPS: Strengthening relationships among alumni, community, and other stakeholders

INNOVATION: Creatively pursuing excellence in organizational endeavors

CULTURAL CONNECTIVITY: Preserving the University's HBCU legacy and pride
