IWU Student Receives Scholarship

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. --The Central Illinois Chapter of the National Society of Arts and Letters scholarship was awarded to senior art major Erin Lippitz from Bourbonnais, Ill. The Central Illinois Chapter of the National Society of Arts and Letters established this scholarship through Illinois Wesleyan University for the purpose of recognizing talented students majoring in the performing arts, visual arts, writing or poetry.

The scholarship is awarded annually to a student who has demonstrated outstanding promise in their discipline. Selections are made based on the recommendation of chosen departments. Donors and honorees are invited to an annual dinner each year sponsored by IWU.

Lippitz, is the first art student to receive the scholarship, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart F. Lippitz of Bourbonnais, Ill.
