

Volume 2 Issue 44 | November 18, 2007|

MoU between George Mason University and BRAC University

Obaidullah Al Zakir

A MoU was signed on Sunday, November 11, 2007 between George Mason University and BRAC University for collaboration in academic, professional and research development. Professor Jamilur Reza Choudhury, Vice Chancellor, BRAC University and Dr. Paul L. Posner, MPA Director, department of Public and International Affairs, George Mason University, USA signed on behalf of their respective sides.

Both institutions are committed to excellence in education and research and wish to enter into further agreements to promote excellence in teaching, learning and research in public administration through the collaboration of the Institute of Governance studies at BU with the George Mason Masters of Public Administration Program in the Department of Public and International Affairs and its Center for Global Studies to develop and conduct educational and research programs in governance and public administration of international standard and quality, to facilitate the professional development of staff, and the conduct of high quality of scholarship. The two bodies have discussed furtherance of these interests and now desire to record their mutual understanding in this regard.

Barrister Manzoor Hasan, Director, Institute of Governance Studies (IGS), BRAC University and Ms. Beata Czajkowska, Program Advisor, IGS were present.