

for fall at BracU

Tribune Report

The orientation programme of newly enrolled undergraduate students for Fall 2014 of Brac University took place recently on the university's Mohakhali campus, where its Vice Chancellor Professor Syed Saad Andaleeb was present as the chief guest, says a media release.

In his speech, the VC emphasised on team work and cooperation in regular studies of the students. In the event, there was an interactive dialogue session between the concerned personnel and the guardians for better understanding.

Prof Riaz Partha Khan, Dean of Student Affairs Office and Teaching Learning Centre of Brac and Registrar Muhammad Sahool Afzal were present among others. ♦
