BUTLER ROCKS

Butler Bulldog Adam Underhill gets the crowd spirit up before the homecoming game against Clinch Valley with a future Butler Bulldog.

Alpha Chi Omega's Cara Koch, Hillary Buschelmann, Colleen McNaughten, and Amy Cich take a break from decorating the house for "lawn decs." Alpha Chi kept with the homecoming theme by transforming their yard into the world of Fraggles before the Friday night parade.

Tight end Jeremy Harkin celebrates after a Butler touchdown in the Bulldogs' 17-3 victory over Clinch Valley on a warm September day. Harkin was later named co-offensive MVP of the football team.

Suzy Butler and Ken Lawrence entertain a ball boy and the Butler Bowl crowd during halftime of the Clinch Valley game.

One of the few traditions at Butler passed away this year when the halftime show was not interrupted by streakers. This photo is in memory of those who strove to show their best in the name of school spirit.

Parading down Hampton, the Kappa Alpha Thetas timewarp to the stone ages for a stroll with Fred, Barney, Wilma and Betty as they celebrate Butler "Bed" rocks.

After lawn decorations, a parade, Yell-like-Hell, fireworks and the chariot race, the crowning of Pat Moor and Laura Manson marked the pinnacle of...

Homecoming 1997

The Delta Gammas led the student stampede to the all-campus cookout on the Lake Drive before Yell-like-Hell. In the race between the sorority members and the Butler Band to the tent, it seems that the DGs took an early lead.

Alpha Phi roommates Amanda Weis, Katherine Sloan, Laurie Williamson and Tara Wiebusch show their Butler spirit by sporting matching homecoming shirts.

The Delta Gammas were blue in the face from showing their school spirit before and after Yell-like-Hell. Lisa Thomas (l) and Katy Newlin (r) hang out at the house before the Homecoming parade.

One Butler tradition that has stood the test of time is the annual Sigma Chi/Phi Delt Chariot Race down Hampton Drive. Student who did wake up for the early 9 a.m. start were treated to a run-away Phi Delt victory. Sigma Chi Nate Perdue grimaces as his neighbors celebrate.

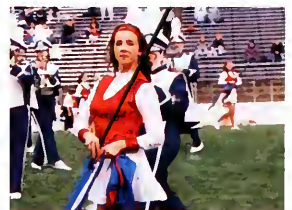

Butler's new royalty flash their smiles after being crowned at the Homecoming football game. Phi Kappa Psi Pat Moor and Delta Gamma Laura Manson were selected by a student vote and from interviews with faculty members and Mrs. Bannister.

KA-BLAMO! Butler tuition dollars go up in flames to the cheers of many students after Yell-like-Hell. The display culminated with the lighting of a sparkling "Butler" sign.

Wide receiver Husani Dillon and the Clinch Valley cornerback concentrate on a pass from Eli Stoddard. The Bulldogs made it a long bus ride back to West Virginia for their homecoming opponents.

Junior Karen Novak marches proudly with the flag squad and band during their halftime performance.

Yell-like-Pell gave every housing unit a chance to play cheerleader for the Bulldogs. The event also included a performance by the dance team and a spirited speech by Coach LaRose as he introduced the team before darkness fell on the rally. (Alpha Phi pictured)

Freshman need time to adjust and learn how to live on their own without the parental guidance they are used to having. These freshmen take a minute out of their busy Freshmen Weekend schedule to teach each other the proper shaving techniques.

Phi Psi John Horvath does his best to spread yuletide cheer at the Giving Tree Christmas party. President Bannister made an appearance and read "The Night Before Christmas" to all the party-goers.

Alpha Phi Sophomore Emily Guinnin and Senior Beth Butler lend a helping hand during the Giving Tree Christmas Party. The Giving Tree is a program where students and faculty each help Santa to bring Christmas gifts and holiday cheer to those who wouldn't have it otherwise.

Getting to know you, getting to know all about you... Incoming Freshman take a break from campus life and enjoy the Walden-esque lifestyle of Freshman Weekend. Thoreau never did this with his neighbors but then again he never went to Butler.

Kappa new members strut their Saturday Night Live stuff in the Reilly Room. Sometimes when she gets really nervous she... never mind. The YMCA sponsors Freshman Skits as a way to introduce the new members to the Greek competition world.

The most popular song at the Ruth Lily Outdoor Center is none other than YMCA. Aren't you glad you used Dial... don't you wish everyone did?

The song says that you can have a good time at the YMCA and if that means playing cards with the four and six of spades protruding from your ears, so be it.

No, that's not a cucumber and papaya facial mask but just another wacky game at Freshman Weekend.

The Thetas get jiggy with it at Geneva Stunts. Despite their efforts Alpha Chi Omega and Phi Kappa Psi took home the first place trophy.

Representing the students and providing them with good, wholesome, activities (and the drunk bus) are the main jobs of the...

Student Government Association

One of SGA's events was the battle of the bands held in the Reilly Room.

Once they were friends but after the election, Amber attempts to strangle the victorious Aaron. Seriously, these two were an integral part of every SGA event and will remain active next year.

SGA also puts together the popular all-night fight known as Spring Sports Spectacular. Sumo wrestling and shuffle-board were just two of the many activities for students to compete in. The event also had one of the best college buffets in history.

SGA president Greg Morwick and Erica Traylor present the Butler time capsule to President Bannister.

Pucker up baby! One of the most unusual SGA events of the year was the instructional kissing seminar.

Fighting off a yawn, Kelly listens to the insightful words spoken by the president-elect.

The movie of the week in Jordan Hall 141 is one of the most popular of all of SGA's programs. Movies this semester included Jackie Brown and As Good As It Gets.

Marcus Polk and BSU secretary Sherard Allen welcome students to the Overcoming Obstacles Shadow Day. The event was held at Butler on November 18, 1997.

Nikki Brown, Vice President of BSU, assists a young resident of the Christian Center for the homeless in making a Thanksgiving turkey. As you can see, the youngsters were all smiles that day!

The first ever Theta Twister was a fun-filled success. Amy Fredrick, Melissa Ford, Staci Sytsma, and Michele Stevenson twist to raise money for CASA, Kappa Alpha Theta's philanthropy.

Freshman new member, Libby Wehrkamp shows her determination as she concentrates on her three-point shot during the women's basketball competition. Spring Sports was one of the first all campus events she participated in as a Theta.

Using her best play and her smoothest moves, sophomore Carolyn Redar turns the corner around her Kappa defender during the Homecoming powderpuff football game. When the game was over, the Thetas came out in front

The stairs of Kappa Alpha Theta serve as the perfect waiting spot for these girls as they anxiously anticipate the turnout of their new all-campus event. Twisters Amanda Tuggle, Carolyn Redar, Kimmy Auberger, Stacy Leins, Erin Murphy, Janet Schroeder, and Libby Lindley are all smiles.

Angie Eckstein (Jr) and Carrie Rode (So) show off their psychedelic wardrobe at the Pi Phi's Rush Week party "Pi Phi Palooza".

"What's up?" Sophomores, Andy Knopfmeier and Tim Kroll dance the night away at one of Phi Psi's Thursday night non-alcoholic parties. Phi Psi's are one of the fraternities famous for expressing the importance of fun and sobriety.

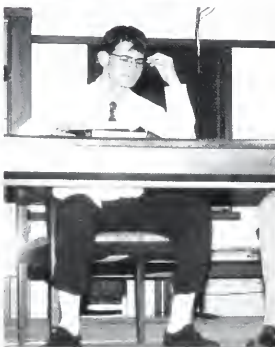

Eric Schilling (Jr) and Tim Kroll (So) strut their stuff as they pose for one of the many photos taken at their formal.

The men of Phi Kappa Psi show their style and good looks by ditching the jeans and straightening their ties for an evening out with the Alpha Phi's at their Bordeaux Ball.

Matt Stoner of the Phi Psi/Theta volleyball team prepares to slam down on Jeff Rogers of the Lambda Chi/Delta Gamma team during the Alpha Phi all campus event.

No it's not the new star of the theatre department. It's the freshmen of Phi Kappa Psi showing their skills in Freshmen Skits.

It's definitely the thought that counts as juniors Andrew Jones and Jim Kissling give their gifts in the Phi Psi's gift exchange.

Sigma Chi teammates James Rettman, Mike Stewart, Ryan Zimpleman, Drew Autojay and B.J. Blanchette plan their basketball strategy in the spring sports competition.

Todd Pease, Rob Yazicigolu and Justin Bartlett show their support for Phi Delta Theta after their impressive win over Sigma Chi in the highly touted Chariot Race.

The victorious Phi Delt Chariot Race team is all smiles after the showdown. Both participating fraternities practice four weeks leading up to the event.

The sidewalk leading to the door of the Phi Delt house, commonly referred to as "the castle", proudly displays their letters.

Continuing on with the Chariot Race theme, the Phi Delt's gather on the steps of the Sigma Chi house during the traditional "rubbing it in" portion of the weekend.

Bart Beatty, Mark Maneri, and Bill Gardner take time out of their busy "study schedule" to relax and enjoy a glass of milk.

Lambda Chi associate member Eric Harvey busts a move while acting in the annual Blue Key Freshman Skits. Eric took the challenging role of acting like a fraternity member while two of his buddies went for an even more difficult role.

The annual Lambda Chi Teeter Totter was again a success despite the bad weather. These children appear to be enjoying the event that raises money for the Leukemia Society.

Delta Gamma's Jess Black, Emily Foli, Megan Smith, and Ali Akers get a free ride in Clearwater, Florida atop Lambda Chi's Charlie Zurcher, Kris Paugh, Mark Churchill, and Jack Ungaro.

The star of the Lambda Chi Freshman Skits presentation was master of ceremonies David Kopson.

Don't call the pan-hellenic counsel with a hazing complaint... this is just a portion of the fraternities synchronized swimming event at the Delta Gamma Anchor Splash.

T K E

The TKE's took their formal on the road, well lake really, this year to Chicago.

Freshman skits is always a good opportunity to have new members dress like women. The TKE new members were no exception to this rule.

But, really, spring sing can't be overlooked for a chance for upperclassmen to dress up like women. The humor possibilities are seemingly endless.

Showing off their "why can't we all just get along" spirit, the freshman of Tau Kappa Epsilon join arms during Freshman Skits. It was a performance to remember.

This unidentified SNU prepares for the annual voodoo bash at the house. The new alcohol policy at Butler is making it more and more difficult for the Greek houses to show the student body a good time.

It's Bid Day 1998 at the SNU house and the new members pose for a group shot. I wonder what's in the plastic cups????

As editor, I sincerely apologize for everyone having to look at my face so much in this book. It is always annoying to see the editor's picture in spreads he/she doesn't really need to be in. The problem is that my photography staff was about as useful as a C&T class. If you have any photos of ANYTHING for the current year, please drop them off in the Drift office in Atherton Union 307 and they will probably be used in next years book. Thanks.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

Melanie Gensert (Fr), Alpha Phi: "This was my first all-campus event as a member of Alpha Phi and it was great how all the girls worked together to do their best whether they were playing or cheering."

Andrew Jones (Jr), Phi Psi: "It's a good idea to have volunteering count towards points because it makes people want to get involved. It puts some of the emphasis on being social with everyone rather than just having a competition among housing units."

Matt Cerny (Sr), Phi Psi: "We had meetings every week with team captains and spent a lot of time organizing Spring Sports Spectacular. I am really grateful to everyone who put in long hours, especially on the night of the event."

Laura Maher (So), Delta Gamma: "It was very hard for us short people to blow it down in the slam dunk competition, but getting the crowd into the spirit of Spring Sports was well worth it."

Senior Challenge

Aesthetics and practicality were the two words the class of 1998 used to pick their gift.

TAKE US TO YOUR LEADERS: Secretary Laurie Williamson, Treasurer Eric Palm, Vice President Shelby Smothers and President Jim McGowan enjoy a beverage, or two, at the Bannister reception.

Shelby Smothers laughs uncontrollably as Eric prepares to present the "check".

"We couldn't have done it without the help of Levester Johnson, Mary Paugh, Erin Duffy, and Cindy Law... oh, and the donors too. Everyone who bought a T-Shirt, I love you."

-Jim McGowan

"Seniors, please pardon our behavior during senior week... it had been a loong year! I hope everyone had as much fun as we did!"

-Shelby Smothers

"We were successful because no one really took it too seriously. Our Thursday meetings were focused but light-hearted. We just had fun and things came together."

-Laurie Williamson

"Raising the money was easy because everyone was supportive of the gift. People liked the gates and wanted to be a part of it by donating. Sly's my hero."

-Eric Palm

Apparently there was enough money left over from the gift to buy strawberries for Cindy Law (claw)! The senior class raised nearly five thousand three hundred dollars which was the highest total ever.

Eric Palm and Shelby Smothers are all smiles at the dedication ceremony. It was a huge relief to all the officers when all the money was finally raised. The class officers were usually more animated though (just ask L.J.).

Unfortunately, the Indy Pace car wasn't the class gift, but, President B. was gracious enough to allow Jim and Laurie pretend it was.

Erin Duffy (eduffy) from the department of annual giving, worked closely with the officers in raising the money. Her reaction in this picture sums up what that experience was like.

Commencement

Randall Tobias speaks to this year's graduating class on May 9, 1995.

Senior class president Jim McGowan gives his address at the beginning of commencement. McGowan commented, "I tried to keep it light-hearted and show that's what the seniors want. They care less what I have to say about the future. Just make them laugh once twice and then shut up. I think it worked really well."

This must be a mistake. Polly Marti college graduate? Say it ain't so!

Senior class Treasurer Eric Palm gives the benediction to close the commencement ceremony.

Michelle Joy Linden thinks to herself, "Did I pay my overdue fines at the Library?"

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES!

GET BACK HERE!: Senior Vic Martin tries to hold on as all-conference starter Mike Goletz (#83) waits to deliver a hit. The two combined for 132 tackles.

FOOTBALL ON THE SIDE: Four Butler defensive players make a sandwich of their Clinch Valley opponent while Kevin Ward (#43) eyes the side dish. Ward's 161 tackles led the Pioneer Football League.

BOMBS AWAY: Senior QB Eli Stoddard launches one of his 12 TD passes of the season. Stoddard threw for 2,118 yards which was third all-time for Butler quarterbacks. Stoddard was named co-offensive MVP with tight end Jeremy Harkin.

ILLEGAL USE OF HANDS: Junior tailback Naim Sanders escapes the uncomfortable tackle of a St. Joseph's defender. Sanders rushed for 202 yards on 35 carries and scored two touchdowns. In the final game of the season earning him PFL "offensive player of the week" honors.

COMEBACK

KIDS

THE BULLDOGS CAME FROM BEHIND TO WIN THEIR FINAL THREE GAMES AND POST A 6-4 RECORD

DO YOU WANNA DANCE?: Senior DE Jim Holsclaw tries to put some pressure on the Clinch Valley QB during the Bulldogs' 17-3 homecoming win. The Dogs finished with their best non-scholarship football season record (6-4).

HEAD OVER HEELS: Widereceiver Husani Dillon hauls in one of his 37 catches of the year. Dillon's 738 receiving yards was the seventh highest single season receiving total in Butler history.

COUNT ON ME, TOGETHER WE WILL WIN: Coach LaRose and the Bulldog squad lived up to their motto this year by posting the first winning record in three years. Since deciding to be a non-scholarship squad, the Bulldogs had posted records of 2-8 and 3-7. Players, coaches, and fans agreed that the 14-13 win over Drake late in the season was the most exciting game of the year. Th last minute victory avenged the 51-7 loss at Drake the previous season.

KIWI SLAP: New Zealander Lori Ives averages 10.2 points and 5.9 rebounds per game and also collected 13 blocks. Ives was named to the All-MCC New-comer squad.

DRIBBLE DRIVE: Debbie Benziger started all 31 games for the lady Bulldogs averaging 10 points and 3 rebounds per game. Debbie also led the team in free throw percentage at just under 93%.

MUNCHED!: Sarah Reichl contributed off the bench during the ladie's 25-6 season. The Bulldogs were tough at home going 14-1 and 7-0 against MCC foes.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR: Sarah Schuetz was named the MCC player of the year after averaging 17.5 points, 7.4 rebounds, and .3 blocks per game. Schuetz was the main reason the team had the best conference record at 13-1.

MCC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME LOSS TO UWGB OUSTS LADIES FROM NCAA TOURNEY.

LECTURE TIME: Coach Olkowski tries desperately to get her players fired up in a game versus MCC rival UW-Milwaukee.

BE THE THREE: Lacy Holloway attempts one of her three three pointers of the season. Lacy didn't see much playing time this year but will be an important player in teams of the future.

WHERE'S MY CONTACT?: The seniors take part in the traditional smooch of the Bulldog prior to their final home game of the season.

I WANT TO BE LIKE MIKE: Well, LaVall has the right last name but he still needs to work on his game to get compared to the real Jordan.

UP FOR GRABS: The Bulldogs prided themselves on out-hustling their opponents. Although the Bulldogs had a difficult time on the road this year they played strong at Hinkle Fieldhouse going 13-1

TEAM UNITY: No one really gave Butler a shot of winning the MCC tournament but together they pulled it off and got a free trip to the NCAA tournament. MCC foes UIC and Detroit also got bids to the tournament.

TOURNEY

REPEAT

AFTER A ROUGH SEASON THE MEN WON THE MCC TOURNAMENT TO GET A BID.

RETURN TO SENDER: Rolf Van Rijn led the Bulldogs with 64 blocked shots. Rolf also averaged 8.8 points and 4.6 rebounds during the season.

FAN FAVORITE: Because of his all out hustle and energy, Mike Marshall was a fan favorite. Mike also played some great basketball averaging 5 points and 5 rebounds per game. Mike led the team in double-figure rebound games with five.

RODMAN IMPERSONATION: Jon Neuhaus followed up his MCC player of the year season of '96-'97 by averaging 12.6 points and 5 rebounds per game. Neuhaus also shot an impressive %50 from the field and %40 from behind the three point line.

DIG DUG: Senior co-captain Jen Kintzel lays it all on the line on defense. Kintzel proved she was more than just a setter by being second on the team in digs with 367.

1330 ASSISTS: Kintzel became both the Butler and MCC all-time career assist leader during the season. Kintzel led the team with 1330 assists.

WITH HONORS: Kintzel was named All-Conference and set a record for ten All-Tournament selections in a row. The Bulldogs took the MCC championship by beating Loyola and received their first ever bid to the NCAA tournament.

STRETCH: Senior Amy Pickett hits one of her team leading 439 kills. Pickett also had 33 service aces and 206 digs and was a major reason the Bulldogs were the "team to beat" in the MCC.

SENIOR CO-CAPTAIN JEN KINTZEL "SETS" HER WAY INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

IN YOUR FACE: Senior standout Heather Cox buries one of her 335 kills of the season. Cox was a co-captain of the squad and was named All-Conference.

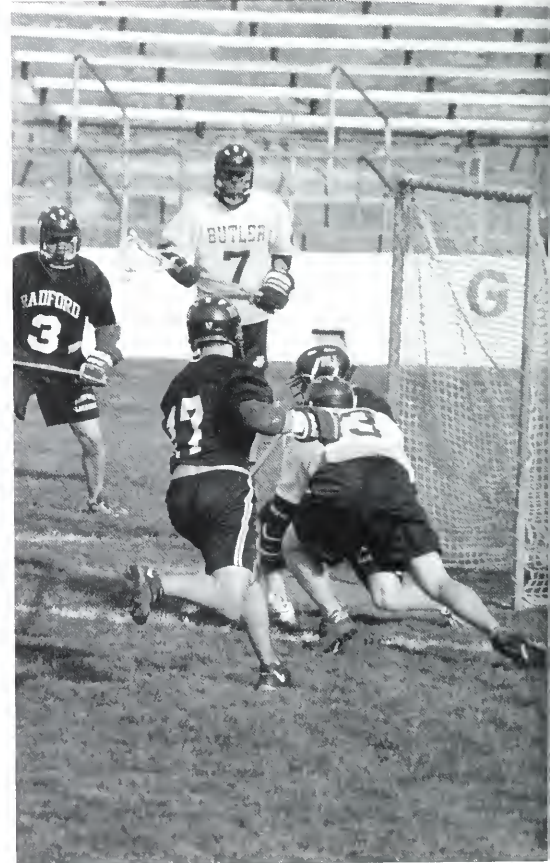

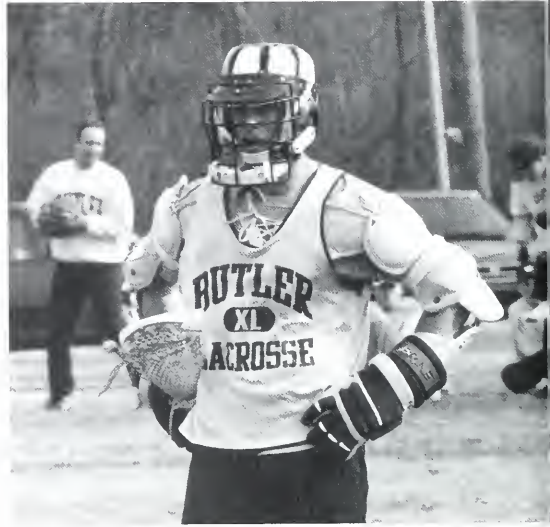

EYE OF THE TIGER: Heather Cox waits for a dig opportunity. Cox led the team with 424 digs. Defense was a big reason the Bulldogs set a record by winning 28 games in a row.

MAD SCRAMBLE: Freshman Phil Schaefer rushed the Radford goal as Doug Patterson looks on. The Bulldogs beat Radford 14-12 which boosted their record to 6-2 for the season.

BUTLER EARNS AUTOMATIC WEST REGION BID TO NCAA 12 TEAM TOURNAMENT.

THAT'S GOT TO HURT: You bet it does. Lacrosse is like hockey without the leg pads. Butler's program has become known for its toughness.

HELLO? ANYBODY OUT THERE?: Senior midfielder marc Manieri looks for a teammate during the Radford game.

So What Happened?

Butler was named to the 12 team NCAA Tournament for finishing as the top team in the West Region. The Dogs were matched up with national power Maryland who ended the bulldogs hopes of a Cinderella story in the first round of the tournament.

Congratulations on record setting season!

LAYING AN EGG: The Notre Dame goaltender is a bit confused as to where the ball actually is. The victory over Notre Dame boosted the club to 7-2 and secured its first place ranking in the West Region.

SWING AND A MISS: The Butler bats were relatively quiet this season. The Dogs were outscored 140-105 and batted only .237 as a team while opponents batted .251 for the season.

SWING BATTER!: Freshman Firstbaseman Melisa Garvey gets ready as Senior pitcher Sara Unrue fires one home. Unrue went 11-7 for the season striking out 84 and walking only 38.

CONFERENCE

UPSET

HIGHLIGHT TO .500 SEASON WAS THE 2-1 UPSET OF #24 RANKED UIC.

BOOM BABY!: Junior Shelli Hanschu rips one of her 23 hits of the season. Hanschu was the Cal Ripken of the team starting all 42 games.

Play of the Year

In the midst of their upset of nationally ranked UIC Senior catcher Katie Wood of South Bend made the play of the year for the Dogs.

Protecting a 2-1 lead in the sixth inning, UIC attempted a suicide-squeeze play but the potential tying run was tagged out by Wood. The lead held and the Dogs had upset the #24 team in the nation!

READY OR NOT, HERE IT COMES!: Kena Woods went 2-5 for the Dogs and pitched one shutout during the season.

CLOSE CALL: Senior Matt Bartley puts the tag on a Cleveland State opponent. The Bulldogs swept the Cleveland State squad for their first conference sweep since 1996.

BIG DOG: Senior catcher Justin Beasley is the main power force offensively at the plate. As of April 21 he was hitting .404 with 13 home runs and 51 RBIs.

FUTURE PROSPECT: Although he wasn't used all that much, Mike Kukolj did post a 1.80 ERA in the three games that he did play.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE BALL: Opponents didn't outdo the Bulldogs in many categories this season but the Dogs did commit 13 more errors than their opponents in route to their MCC Championship.

SQUAD SETS RECORD FOR MOST WINS IN A SEASON AND WIN MCC CROWN.

SPEED KILLS: Sophomore Eric Storey beats out an infield hit during the Cleveland State series.

ACE: Steve Magill collected 8 wins which led the team. Magill also threw 3 complete games for the Dogs this season.

Stat of the Year

Sure, the Bulldogs were 8-0 when they wore their batting practice jerseys and 10-0 when leading after seven innings but few people know that the Dogs went 8-0 when reserve infielder/sports information contact Tony Hamilton saw playing time.

Tony graduated on the mound at UIC during the MCC tournament which was held on the same day as Butler commencement.

AT&T PRESENTS "YOU MAKE THE CALL": Justin Beasley shows the ump the ball after making a spectacular play at the plate.

CRASH INTO ME: Midfielder Kelly Hurd hits a half-volley to escape oncoming danger from Milwaukee.

POETRY IN MOTION: Four overtime periods, eight penalty kicks and some fancy footwork weren't enough to clinch the MCC Championship for the Bulldogs.

WOMENS SOCCER

I BELIEVE I CAN FLY: Junior goalkeeper E.B. Larson set team records for fewest goals allowed in a season (17) and most shut-outs (9). Larson was also named MCC player of the week in October after saving 18 shots in the game against #13 Florida.

DEFYING GRAVITY: Meredith Roney challenges the laws of physics and a Milwaukee opponent while going for a headball. Despite her efforts, they tied 0-0.

WINTER WONDERLAND: Despite the severe conditions, Matt Long (#14) leads the Bulldogs to their second NCAA appearance in three years.

SLEEPING ON THE JOB: A Wright State defender lies helpless as senior Richie Walos hustles the ball downfield in their 0-0 grudge match.

FANCY FOOTWORK: Junior Jeremy Aldrich (#4) does his part in the Bulldog's shut out MCC tournament win against Cleveland State. The win contributed to stand-out goalkeeper Alan Placek's four team records, including most shut-outs in a season.

HIE-YAH!!: Aldrich practices his karate in the MCC championship game vs. UW-Milwaukee. Aldrich made the All-MCC first team for the second year in a row.

TIGHT ROPE WALKER: Junior Jeremy Harkins sprints down the sideline hoping to keep the ball in bounds. Harkins is one of many underclassmen that will keep Butler at the top of the coaches polls for years to come. Another reason Butler is so successful is their tenacious defense. The Bulldogs played in fourteen games decided by one goal and also played five overtime games.

DANCIN' FOOL: Coach Lance Brennan shows off his new moves for senior Chrissy Litz. Coach Brennan was responsible for bringing the Bulldogs home for their first Hinkle meet since 1988.

LEADER OF THE PACK: Senior Jennifer Miller starts off the 400 Free Relay at IUPUI as Sara Hillman (l) and Jennifer Easterday (r) prepare to follow. The relay team won first place.

BEACH BUMS: After months of practicing stunts and pyramids, the Butler cheerleaders take a well-deserved break before the National Competition in Orlando, Florida.

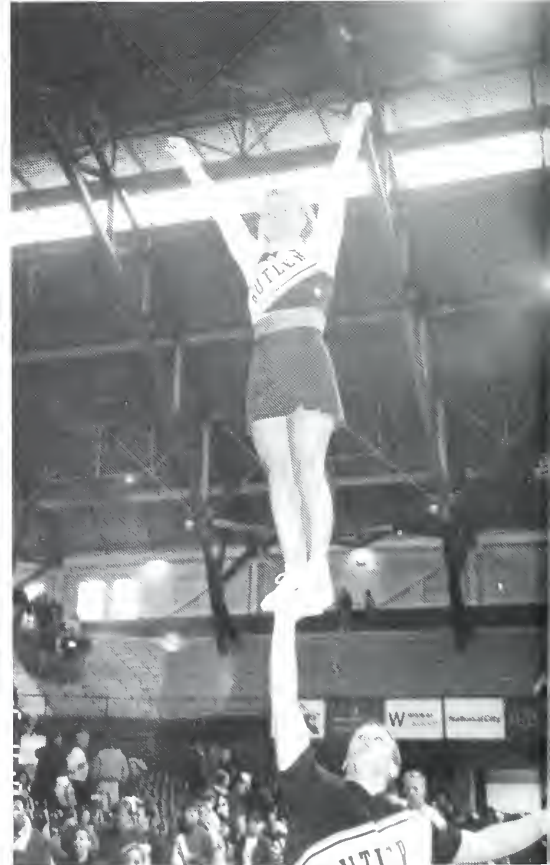

EGYPTIAN MOTIF: Finishing tenth out of fifty squads was quite an accomplishment and the highlight of the season for Butler.

SKY-RISE: Yelling their loudest and showing their Butler spirit, the cheerleaders fire the crowd up at a football game in the Butler Bowl.

BUTLER'S SQUAD PLACES TENTH AT THEIR FIRST NATIONAL

SPARE GOALPOSTS!: Keeping in shape and always striving to improve and not regress is the focus of the cheerleading squad. These nine improved and did their best all football season.

THE BULLDOG HAS A HEAD IN ITS MOUTH!: Butler's mascot, the bulldog (a.k.a. Adam Underhill), added personality to basketball games. He helped lead cheers and fire up the crowd.

The Future Has Arrived

At Walgreens

We've already put a lot of things in place that the rest of the industry is still talking about - things like Walgreens Intercom Plus, a companywide computer system linking over 2500 pharmacies to one another with vital patient information. However, one thing remains old-fashioned - we care about our patients, and that's something that will never change.

As the $12 billion leader in the retail pharmacy industry, we currently have opportunities available nationwide including the following high growth areas: Florida, Arizona, Las Vegas, California, Tennessee, Texas and St. Louis.

Let your future be Walgreens — the state-of-the-art pharmacy with down-to-earth values. We offer our pharmacists outstanding starting salaries and benefits packages including major medical/dental/life insurance, long-term disability, profit sharing and stock options plans. In addition, a work environment conducive to personal and professional growth. Call or send your resume to: Dawn DiLullo, R.Ph., Manager, Pharmacy Relations, Walgreen Co., Personnel Recruitment Dept., 200 Wilmot Rd., #2198, Deerfield, IL 60015-4616. Ph: 1-800-274-0085. Fax: 847-914-2333. E-mail: dawn.dilullo@walgreens.com

It's easy to see why RCI has so much to offer ambitious college graduates. In a nutshell, RCI is the world's premier exchange company for the resort industry. The company is the globe's preeminent quality timeshare services provider, with an unmatched range of products and services for resort affiliates and timeshare owners. Seven of every 10 timeshare resorts worldwide are affiliated with RCI. Eight out of every 10 vacation exchanges are confirmed by RCI each year.

Set Your Course for a BRIGHT Future

As an industry leader, we're looking for quality college graduates to help keep us on top. Opportunities exist in many areas of the company, from marketing and customer service to accounting and computer technology. So, if you're the kind of person who seeks challenge and opportunity, look no further. RCI has a bright future in store for you!

Do Your Career Justice.

An Internship with the CIA. Sounds Like the Plot for a Good Movie.

Collecting information on trends and current events abroad isn't just a job for a secret agent.

If you are presently a full-time or graduate student, you could be eligible for a CIA internship and tuition assistance. You don't have to be an aspiring missile warhead specialist or Kremlinologist. We need knowledgeable, dedicated men and women from a variety of backgrounds and fields.

Leading engineers, computer specialists, economists, foreign area experts and intelligence analysts are just a few of the professionals you'll get hands-on experience working with...and a head start on your career.

Join one of the country's largest information networks—because an experience like this doesn't only happen in the movies.

Laurie Williamson looks all around the office for the rest of the Drift staff. It looks like they are home for the summer while Jim finishes up the last, oh, 80 pages.

Candy Brady of Campus Activities is the one behind the scenes who gets all the important stuff taken care of for The Drift... payroll. Thanks Candy for all of your help!

David Clark serves as the yearbook advisor and really helps out by generally staying out of the way. Thanks for your low pressure advising... we couldn't have done it without you.

Serenity Now.

EDITOR'S NOTE

I seriously can't believe that you are actually reading the Editor's Note. What's with you? Don't you have anything better to do with your time than read a column full of text that some bozo English Education major wrote? What kind of "Note" do you think it could possibly be that it would have any meaning to you whatsoever?

You're still reading? Are you insane? Are you in a high security prison where the only reading materials are this Editor's Note and your Perkins Loan Repayment Schedule Form? If so, start reading the Perkins Loan Repayment Schedule Form!

Why won't you just listen to reason? Is it that you have missed all the boring copy blocks that are usually in a yearbook which you don't find in this one? Are you mad about that? Have you ever read yearbook copy before? It is the second most prevalent reason for teenage suicide... it's so cheesy it rivals Wisconsin as the cheese status symbol... it needs to be stopped. Don't worry, most of the information you need is in the captions or in this Editor's Note.

OK, now you're scaring me. Really, put the book down and step away. Nothing to see here. What do you want from me? Some inspirational message? Some farewell advice? Too bad. Stop reading, I'm not going to do it. There is no punch line, this wasn't a test of your patience... it's over. Bye. Get out of here. Turn the page!

-Jim McGowan
