Announcement and Call for Papers PET 2008 Seoul, Korea, June 27- 29, 2008 The Association for Public Economic Theory (APET) is pleased to announce that it will hold its Ninth international meeting In Seoul, Korea June 27 to June 29, 2008. The submission deadline of March 1, 2008 is rapidly approaching. We sincerely hope that we will see you there. The conference webpage has been d to show the dinners, receptions, events and tours planned so far, and more are still to come. Please see the webpage for more details and to submit your paper. www.APET.org You may also be interested in a special small workshop (15-20 presentations) sponsored by the National University of Singapore and APET in partnership with NSU to be held in Singapore June 24 and 25 on the topic of Charity, Altruism and Voluntary Contributions. See <http://www.accessecon.com/pubs/PETLASO> for details. The main purposes of the Association for Public Economic Theory (APET), the association of the Journal of Public Economic Theory, are to promote public economic theory generally and to foster interaction between theorists, applied and empirical researchers in public economics and related fields. The organizers will therefore welcome papers in all areas of economic theory and of public economics (broadly defined). PET08 conference submission deadline approaching
