Announcement and Call for Papers PET 2007 Nashville, Tennessee– July 6-8 2007 The Association for Public Economic Theory (APET) is pleased to announce that it will hold its eighth international meeting at the Vanderbilt University from July 6 to July 8, 2007. Registration will include nightly receptions and a Gala Dinner at the Country Music Hall of Fame. PET07 will begin taking submissions on January 1, 2007, and will have a submission deadline of March 1, 2007 at www.apet.org. The main purposes of the Association for Public Economic Theory (APET), the association of the Journal of Public Economic Theory, are to promote public economic theory generally and to foster interaction between theorists, applied and empirical researchers in public economics and related fields. The organizers will therefore welcome papers in all areas of economic theory and of public economics (broadly defined). More information will appear on the conference web site: www.APET.org as it becomes available, including submission procedures and information about local accommodation. Plenary talks will be given by Douglas Bernheim, Robin Boadway, and Alessandro Lizzeri. A number of special sessions will be organized. If you would like to propose a session, please contact John Conley at j.p.conley@vanderbilt.edu. Organizing Committee Co-chairs John P. Conley Myrna H.
